[Docket No. A-377]

PART 339—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 19

ORDER APPROVING AND ADOPTING PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW OF THE EXAMINER AND GRANTING RELIEF IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS BOARD FOR DISTRICT NO. 19 FOR A CHANGE IN THE EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR RAIL SHIPMENTS TO MARKET AREAS 234, 237–241, AND 247–254 IN SIZE GROUP 16

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 19. The petition requests a change in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 19, so that the minimum price applicable to the coals produced in Subdistricts 2, 3, and 5 of District 19 for shipment by rail into Market Areas 234, 237–241, and 247–254 in Size Group 16 will not exceed the effective minimum price for Size Group 15 coals for shipment to said market areas. A petition to intervene was filed by District Board 20. The Consumers' Counsel Division filed an answer requesting that the relief sought by District Board 19 be granted.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director, and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Salt Lake City, Utah. The Examiner,[1] on October 6, 1941, submitted his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations, recommending that the relief requested herein be granted. He found that in those instances in which the Size Group 16 (1" x 0) coals of Subdistricts 2, 3, and 5 of District 19 are priced 5 cents higher than the Size Group 15 (1⅝" x 0), the differential should be eliminated. It was his opinion that it would not be prejudicial to District 20 if the (1" x 0) slacks of District 19 were priced no higher than its (1⅝" x 0) slacks. And he found no evidence that a 5-cent reduction on the Size Group 16 coals of District 19 would seriously reduce the realization of District 19 or of Minimum Price Area 7.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations of the Examiner and supporting briefs. No exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

The undersigned has determined that the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner in this matter should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That said Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That § 339.5 (General prices; minimum prices for shipment via rail transportation) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 19 for All Shipments be, and it is hereby amended to reduce the minimum f. o. b. mine price of Subdistrict 2, 3, and 5 coals in Size Group 16 for rail shipments into Market Areas 234, 237–241, and 247–254, inclusive, in all instances where the established price for Size Group 16 coals is now 5 cents above that for Size Group 15 coals as is set forth in Supplement R, annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That the prayers for relief contained in the petition herein be, and they hereby are, granted to the extent set forth above, and in all other respects denied.

Dated: November 17, 1941.

H. A. GRAY,
Director.

[1] The hearing was held before Thurlow G. Lewis, but by an Order of the Director, C. R. Larrabee was appointed to prepare the Examiner's Report in this matter in the place of Thurlow G. Lewis, who had resigned.

PART 939—HIGH-SPEED STEEL

Amendment No. 1 and Extension No. 1 of General Preference Order M–14

Whereas the shortage of tungsten for defense, for private account and for export has become more stringent since the issuance of General Preference Order M–14,

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered:

(a) Paragraphs (a) (3), (a) (4), and (a) (5) of General Preference Order M–14 (939.1) are hereby revoked.

For the period October 28, 1941 to February 1, 1942, and for each quarterly period thereafter, no customer shall place and no producer shall accept orders for Class B high-speed steel which will exceed, in the aggregate, by weight, one-third of the quantities of Class A high-speed steel ordered by such customer from the same producer during the same period. Customers' orders for high-speed steel which are to be filled in whole or in part by the use of material, including tungsten ore, ferro tungsten, and tungsten-bearing scrap, furnished by such customers shall be subject to all the restrictions and provisions of this Order. With respect to orders placed on or after October 28, 1941, no customer shall request cancellation, during the period October 28, 1941 to February 1, 1942, or during any quarterly period thereafter, of any order for Class A high-speed steel, unless such customer shall also request cancellation of an order or orders for three times such quantity, by weight, of Class B high-speed steel placed with the same or some other producer during the same period.

Such Supplier shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Any such purchase order or contract shall be restricted to material the delivery of which is rated in accordance herewith. With respect to any purchase order or contract for such material placed before the effective date of this order, such preference rating may be applied by delivering to the seller a duplicate copy of such purchase order or contract so endorsed.

(5) An Operator or Supplier placing any such rated purchase order or contract, and the Supplier of the material covered thereby, must each retain endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, and copies of notifications pursuant to paragraph (e), for a period of two years from the date thereof, for inspection by authorized representatives of the Office of Production Management.

The Director of Priorities may from time to time issue specific directions as to conservation, elimination and standardization.

(j) Relief. In case the productivity or sound working condition of any Mining Enterprise is adversely affected by any provision or application of this Order or by inability to obtain essential operating supplies or other materials, the person operating such Mining Enterprise may apply for relief to the Director of Priorities. The Director of Priorities may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(k) Records, audit and reports. Each Operator and each Supplier shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all transactions affected by this Order and shall submit from time to time to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Office of Production Management. (m) Revocation or modification. This Order may be revoked or modified by the Director of Priorities at any time as to any Operator or Supplier. In the event of revocation, or upon expiration of this Order, deliveries already rated pursuant to this Order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of this rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the Operator or Supplier affected by said revocation or expiration.

(n) Amendment of prior order. The provisions of Preference Rating Order P–22 shall not apply to deliveries to which a preference rating is assigned by this Order.

(o) Effective date. This Order shall take effect immediately and shall continue in effect until revoked. (P.D. Reg. 1, Aug. 27, 1941, 6 F.R. 4489; O.P.M. (Add) (b) (1) Odorization. All liquefied petroleum gases in tank motor vehicles shall be effectively odorized by an approved agent of such character as to indicate positively, by a distinctive odor, the presence of gas down to concentration in air of not over one-fifth the lower limit of combustibility.

NOTE: The lower limits of combustibility of the more commonly used liquefied petroleum gases are: Propane, 2.15 percent; Butane, 1.55 percent. These figures represent volumetric percentages of gas-air mixtures in each case.

(Add) (c) (1) Filling of cargo tanks with liquefied gases. The loading of liquefied gases into cargo tanks shall be by weight or by suitable liquid level gage device. In either event the liquid portion of such gas shall not fill the tank at 105° Fahrenheit if the tank be lagged, nor at 130° Fahrenheit if the tank be unlagged. The quantity of any such liquefied petroleum gas loaded into such a cargo tank shall not exceed the quantities set forth in sec. 303 (r) for such loading, and the loading pressure shall not exceed the tank working pressure set forth on the metal plate specified in par. 5 (a) Spec. MC 320. If the gas has inflammable or toxic properties, its vapor pressure at 130° Fahrenheit shall not exceed by more than 20 percent of the working pressure of the tank, and the safety valve setting shall be higher than that pressure. If such tanks are to be filled by weight, the gross weight shall be checked after the filling line is disconnected in each instance. The gross weight shall be calculated from the tank capacity and tare weight set forth in par. 5 (a) Spec. MC 320, and the filling density corresponding to the material being loaded into the tank as set forth in sec. 303 (r) of these regulations. If such tanks are to be filled by liquid level, each cargo tank, and each compartment thereof, shall have a thermometer well, so that the internal liquid temperature can easily be determined, and the amount of liquid in the tanks shall be corrected to a 60° Fahrenheit basis. Liquid levels may be determined by slip gaging devices or by any other suitable and safe means. If a fixed dip tube or other fixed maximum liquid level device is the only such device provided on such a cargo tank, it shall be so arranged as to function at 97 percent or less of the maximum permitted loading level prescribed in sec. 303 (r) of these regulations, and the loading shall be stopped when the device functions; although nothing contained in this provision shall be so construed as to prohibit the loading of any cargo tank to a liquid level as prescribed in sec. 303 (r) when an adjustable liquid level device is provided.

Specifications for Containers for Motor Vehicle Transportation

Specification MC 200—Containers for Liquid Nitroglycerin

1. Every motor vehicle used for the transportation of liquid nitroglycerin shall have a body constructed as set forth below, which body shall have component parts as specified hereinafter:

Motor Vehicle Body

2. Body proper. The motor-vehicle body proper shall have a hinged cover. Both the body and the cover shall be well and strongly built of wood or other nonsparking material of equal strength, thoroughly waterproofed, having no end or side openings, and lined with copper or other nonsparking sheet metal having all seams made tight against leakage of nitroglycerin by welding, brazing, or soldering. No metal of such character as to be capable of producing a spark when struck may be exposed on the inside or the top of the body, nor on the nether side or any edge of the cover, the top of which shall be covered with metal. The body shall be of such dimensions that it will contain only a single tier of individual containers and of such approximate height that the felt pads will securely constrain all inside containers from vertical motion with respect to the body, and shall be securely and firmly attached to the chassis of the motor vehicle. The total load shall not exceed nine hundred (900) quarts liquid measure of liquid nitroglycerin.

3. Cellular construction. In the motor-vehicle body specified in par. 2 shall be inserted suitable wooden or other nonmetallic, nonsparking cellular construction, the dimensions of each cell of which shall be such that the rubber "boot" or secondary container for the primary container of the nitroglycerin, both of which are specified hereinafter, shall snugly fit. The cellular construction shall extend from near the top to near the bottom of the full height of each "boot" to be fitted therein, and shall rest upon and be covered by at least one-half (½) inch of felt padding or other material affording equivalent shock-absorbing protection. The cellular construction shall be of such strength as to provide suitable restraint under all conditions of loading to prevent relative motion of inside containers to be inserted or carried therein.

Inside Containers and Boots

4. (a) Inside containers. Individual containers shall be made of copper or other nonsparking metal of equivalent strength, with all seams closed by welding, brazing, or soldering, and shall be tight against leakage of liquid nitroglycerin. No individual container shall exceed ten (10) quarts (liquid measure) capacity of liquid nitroglycerin.

(b) Boots, rubber containers for individual containers. Each individual container of liquid nitroglycerin shall be contained in a rubber boot or outer container into which it shall snugly fit, and which, in turn, shall snugly fit into any cell of the cellular construction specified in par. 3 of this specification. This boot shall be watertight throughout and at least of such volume as to contain all of the liquid content of liquid nitroglycerin of any inside container inserted in it. It shall be provided with V-shaped grooves at suitable spacings throughout its inside surface, extending from top to bottom in such manner as to prevent the entrapment of air therein upon insertion of the inside container of liquid nitroglycerin. The inside height of the rubber boot shall approximate the height of the inside container (including stopper) as shipped.

Specification MC 201—Container for Blasting Caps, Electric Blasting Caps, and Percussion Caps

1. Scope. This specification pertains to a container to be used for the transportation of blasting caps, electric blasting caps, and percussion caps in connection with the transportation of liquid nitroglycerin, where any or all of such types of caps may be used for the detonation of liquid nitroglycerin in blasting operations. This specification is not intended to take the place of any shipping or packing requirements of this Commission where the caps in question are themselves articles of commerce.

2. Container. Every container for blasting caps, electric blasting caps, and percussion caps coming within the scope of this specification shall be constructed entirely of hard rubber, phenolresinous or other resinous material, or other nonmetallic, nonsparking material, except that metal parts may be used in such locations as not in any event to come in contact with any of the caps. Space shall be provided so that each blasting cap of whatever nature may be inserted in an individual cell in the body of the container, into which each such cap shall snugly fit. There shall be provided no more than twenty (20) such cellular spaces. Space may be provided into which a plurality of percussion caps may be carried, provided that such space may be closed with a screw cap, and further provided that each or any such space is entirely separate from any space provided for any blasting cap. Each cellular space into which a blasting cap is to be inserted and carried shall be capable of being covered by a rotary cover so arranged as to expose not more than one cell at any time, and capable of rotation to such a place that all cells will be covered at the same time, at which place means shall be provided to lock the cover in place. Means shall be provided to lock in place the cover for the cells provided for the carrying of electric blasting caps. The requirement that not more than one cell be exposed at one time need not apply in the case of electric blasting caps, although spaces for such caps and blasting caps shall be separate. Sufficient annular space shall be provided inside the cover for such electric blasting caps that, when the cover is closed, there will be sufficient space to accommodate the wires customarily attached to such caps. If the material is of such a nature as to require treatment to prevent the absorption of moisture, such treatment shall be applied as shall be necessary in order to provide against the penetration of water by permeation. A suitable carying handle shall be provided, except for which handle no part of the container may project beyond the exterior of the body.

Exhibited in plates I and II are line drawings of a container for blasting caps, electric blasting caps, and percussion caps, illustrative of the requirements above set forth. These plates shall not be construed as a part of this specification.

Motor Vehicle Cargo Tank Specifications[1] MC 300, MC 301, MC 302, and MC 303—Cargo Tanks To Be Mounted On and To Form Part of Tank Motor Vehicles for Transportation of Inflammable Liquids and Poisonous Liquids, Class B

1. Scope. These specifications are primarily designed to apply to cargo tanks of tank motor vehicles to be used for the transportation of inflammable liquids or poisonous liquids, class B, and, though not mandatory for tanks or for motor vehicles for the transportation of liquids having flash points above eighty degrees Fahrenheit (80° F.), it is recommended that such liquids be transported in tanks and on tank motor vehicles having characteristics equal or superior to the requirements herein set forth. The specifications are as follows:

Specification MC 300. Cargo tanks constructed of mild (open hearth or blue annealed) steel.

Specification MC 301. Cargo tanks constructed of welded aluminum alloy (grade 3S).

Specification MC 302. Cargo tanks constructed of welded aluminum alloy (grade 52S).

Specification MC 303. Cargo tanks constructed of welded ferrous alloy (high-tensile steel).

Design and Construction

2. (a) Existing tank motor vehicles continuing in service; specification tanks of tank motor vehicles. Tanks of tank motor vehicles used for the transportation of inflammable liquids or poisonous liquids which shall have been in service prior to June 15, 1940, may be continued in service: Provided, That they have been designed and constructed in accordance with the requirements of Specification No. 1001, 1937 edition, of the American Petroleum Institute, or in accordance with the requirements of specifications of the National Fire Protection Association, 1929 or 1933 edition.

(b) Existing nonspecification tanks of tank motor vehicles. Tanks of tank motor vehicles used for the transportation of inflammable liquids or poisonous liquids not meeting the requirements set forth in par. 2 (a), which shall have been in service prior to June 15, 1940, may be continued in service: Provided, That they fulfill the requirements set forth under par. 6, and that they be provided with the accessories as specified in pars. 32, 33 (a), 34, 35, 36, 37 and 38 of specification MC 300.

3. New tank motor vehicles. Except as provided in par. 4, every new tank of a tank motor vehicle acquired by a motor carrier on or after June 15, 1940, for the transportation of any inflammable liquid or poisonous liquid shall comply with the requirements of specification MC 300, MC 301, MC 302 or MC 303. A certificate from the manufacturer of the cargo tank, or from a competent testing agency certifying that each such tank is designed and constructed in accordance with the requirements of the specification shall be procured, and such certificate shall be retained in the files of the carrier during the time that such tank motor vehicle is employed in the transportation of inflammable liquids or poisonous liquids by him. In lieu of this certificate, if the motor carrier himself elects to ascertain if any such tank fulfills the requirements of the specification by his own test, he shall similarly retain the test data.

4. Novel tanks of tank motor vehicles, special authorization. The Commission may, upon written request for such authorization by a motor carrier, authorize the use of limited numbers, and for limited times, of new tank motor vehicles which fail to meet the requirements of specification MC 300, MC 301, MC 302 or MC 303. In the event of such authorization, the carrier shall furnish those details concerning the design and construction of the tank as seem necessary for the determination of its ability safely to transport inflammable liquids or poisonous liquids.

Marking of Cargo Tanks

5. (a) Metal identification plate. On and after January 1, 1941, there shall be on every cargo tank a metal plate located on the right side, near the front, in a place readily accessible for inspection. This plate shall be permanently affixed to the tank by means of soldering, brazing, welding, or other equally suitable means; and upon it shall be marked by stamping, embossing, or other means of forming letters into or on the metal of the plate itself, in the manner illustrated below, at least the information indicated below. The plate shall not be so painted as to obscure the markings thereon.

Carrier's serial number.[6]
Manufacturer's name.[6]
Date of manufacture.[6]
I. C. C. MC * * *.[7]
Nominal tank cap'y.-------U. S. Gallons.

(b) Test date markings. The date of the last test or retest required by these regulations and the due date of the next required routine test or retest shall be painted on the tank in letters not less than 1¼ inches high, in legible colors, immediately below the metal identification plate specified in par. 5 (a).

(c) Certification by markings. The markings specified in pars. 5 (a) and (b) shall serve to certify that the information thereby set forth is correct.

Inspection and Maintenance

6. No hazardous repairs on loaded motor vehicles. None of the repairs required by Part 6 of Motor Carrier Safety Regulations to be made, or any other repairs, shall be performed on any motor vehicle containing any inflammable liquid or poisonous liquid, or on a cargo tank, whether empty or loaded, except in such cases that such repair can be made without hazard; nor shall any such loaded motor vehicle be repaired in a closed garage.

7. No repair with flame unless gas-free. No repair of a cargo tank used for the transportation of any inflammable liquid or poisonous liquid or any compartment thereof, or of any container for fuel of whatever nature, may be repaired by any method employing a flame, arc, or other means of welding, unless the tank or compartment shall first have been made gas-free.

8. (a) Times of retesting of cargo tanks. Every cargo tank used for the transportation of any inflammable liquid or poisonous liquid shall be tested or retested as follows:

(b) Tank out of service one year or more. Every cargo tank which has been out of transportation service for a period of one year or more shall not be returned again to or placed in such service until it shall successfully have fulfilled the requirements set forth under par. 9.

(c) Nonspecification tanks. Every cargo tank not complying with the requirements of Specification No. 1001, 1937 edition, of the American Petroleum Institute, specifications of the National Fire Protection Association 1929 or 1933, or this specification, shall be tested at least once in every calendar year and shall successfully fulfill the requirements set forth under par. 9. No two such required tests shall be closer together than 6 months.

(d) Specification tanks. Every cargo tank complying with the requirements of Specification No. 1001, 1937 edition of the American Petroleum Institute, specifications of the National Fire Protection Association, 1929 or 1933, or this specification, shall be tested at least once in every 5-year period. If tested no oftener than once in every 5 years, at least one such test shall be made in the last year of any such 5-year period. The time of reckoning for such testing of such cargo tanks shall be from the time of the last test made in accordance with the requirements set forth under par. 9; and if no such tests have ever been made, such tanks shall be tested within 6 months after June 15, 1940.

(e) Novel cargo tanks. Every cargo tank which shall have been authorized by this Commission for transportation of inflammable liquids or poisonous liquids under the provisions of par. 4 shall be tested under requirements specifically set forth in the terms of such authorization.

(f) Testing following accidents. Every cargo tank capable of suitable repair following any accident in which a tank motor vehicle may have been involved shall be retested in accordance with the requirements set forth under par. 9, if the cargo tank has itself been damaged in a manner likely to affect the safety of operation of the tank motor vehicle, or if the damage to the tank motor vehicle is such as to make the safety of the cargo tank uncertain.

(g) Special testing required by the Commission. Upon the showing of probable cause of the necessity for retest, the Commission may, in its discretion, cause any cargo tank to be retested in accordance with the requirements of par. 9 at any time.

Method of Testing Cargo Tanks

9. (a) Test for leaks. Every cargo tank shall be tested by a minimum air or hydrostatic pressure of 3 pounds per square inch gage applied to each compartment, or to the whole tank if it be not divided into compartments. Such pressure shall be maintained for a period of at least 5 minutes, during which, if the test is by air pressure, the entire exterior surface of all the joints shall be coated with a solution of soap and water, heavy oil, or other material suitable for the purpose, foaming or bubbling of which will indicate the presence of leaks. Hydrostatic pressure, if used, shall be gaged at the top of the tank; and the tank shall be inspected at the joints for the issuance of liquid to indicate leaks. Any leakage discovered by either of the methods above described or by any other method, shall be suitably repaired, and the above described process shall be continued until no leaks are discovered, before any cargo tank is returned to service.

(b) Test for distortion or failure. Every cargo tank shall be tested by the pressures prescribed in par. 9 (a) and shall withstand such pressure without undue distortion or other indication of impending failure. If there is undue distortion, or if failure impends or occurs, the cargo tank shall not be returned to service unless a suitable repair is made. The suitability of the repair shall be determined by the same method of test.

[6] Carriers are not required to number their tanks serially; any designation regularly used by the carrier to identify the tank may be put in this space.

[6] In the event the identity of the tank manufacturer or the date of manufacture is not known and cannot be ascertained, the spaces indicated shall be marked "Make Unknown" and/or "Date of Manufacture Unknown."

[7] Substitute "API Spec. 1001, 1937," or "NFPA Spec. 1929" (or 1933), or "No Specification," or the MC specification applicable, if appropriate.

(b) Strength of joints. The tensile strength of each joint in a tank shall be not less than 85 percent of that of the adjacent metal in the tank. Compliance with this requirement shall be determined by preparing, from materials representative of those to be used in tanks subject to this specification and by the same technique of fabrication, two (2) test specimens conforming to fig. as shown below and testing them to failure in tension. One pair of test specimens may represent all the tanks to be made of the same combination of materials, by the same technique of fabrication, and in the same shop, within six (6) months after the tests on such samples have been completed.

Pressure Tests

30. (a) Test for leakage. Every cargo tank shall be tested by a minimum air or hydrostatic pressure of three (3) pounds per square inch gage applied to each compartment, or to the whole tank if it be not divided into compartments. Such pressure shall be maintained for a period of at least five (5) minutes, during which, if the test is by air pressure, the entire exterior surface of all the joints shall be coated with a solution of soap and water, heavy oil, or other material suitable for the purpose, foaming or bubbling of which will indicate the presence of leaks. Hydrostatic pressure, if used, shall be gaged at the top of the tank; and the tank shall be inspected at the joints for the issuance of liquid to indicate leaks. Any leakage discovered by either of the methods above described, or by any other method, shall be deemed as evidence of failure to meet the requirements of this specification.

(b) Test for distortion or failure. Every cargo tank to which this specification applies shall successfully withstand the tests set forth in par. 30 (a) without undue distortion, evidence of impending failure, or failure. Failure to meet this requirement shall be deemed as sufficient cause for rejection under this specification.

31. Marking of cargo tanks by metal plates. Every cargo tank designed and constructed in accordance with this specification shall be marked on a metal plate with the designation "ICC–MC 300" as set forth in par. 5 (a), together with the other markings therein specified. In addition, the test markings shall be painted on the tank in the manner prescribed in par. 5 (b).

32. Tank outlets. Outlet fixtures of tanks shall be substantially made and attached to the tank in such a manner as to prevent breakage at the outlet point.

Bulkheads or Baffles

33. (a) When bulkheads not required. No bulkhead shall be required in any cargo tank regardless of capacity which is designed for service in which there will never be less than eighty percent (80%) of the capacity volume of the tank while in transportation over the highway and which, in service, is to discharge its entire contents at one unloading point.

(b) Number, dimensions, and capacities of bulkheads and baffles. Except as provided in par. 33 (a) of this specification, every cargo tank shall be divided into compartments and/or provided with baffles as follows:

(1) Every cargo tank larger than fifteen hundred (1,500) gallons shall be divided into compartments, the number of which shall be the result of dividing the capacity of the tank in gallons by twelve hundred (1,200) to the nearest whole number.

(2) Every cargo tank, and every compartment of a cargo tank, over ninety inches (90 in.) in length, shall be provided with baffles, the number of which shall be such that the linear distance between any two adjacent baffles, or between any tank head or bulk head and the baffle nearest it, shall in no case exceed sixty inches (60 in.).

(3) Each bulkhead required herein shall have adequate strength to sustain without undue stress or any permanent set a horizontal force equal to the weight of so much of the contents of the tank as may come between it and any adjacent bulkhead or tank head, applied as a uniformly distributed load on the surface of the bulkhead or tank head.

(4) Each baffle required herein shall have at least an area as great as eighty percent (80%) of the cross-sectional area of the tank.

(5) If spaces are provided between compartments, such spaces shall be arranged for venting and for complete drainage at all times.

34. Tank vents. Each tank or tank compartment shall be provided with a vacuum and pressure operated vent with a minimum effective opening of forty-four hundredths of a square inch (0.44 sq. in.), and shall also be provided with an emergency venting facility so constructed as to provide a minimum free-venting opening having a net area in square inches equal to 1.25 plus 0.0025 times the capacity of the tank or compartment in gallons. If the emergency venting facility operates in response to elevated temperatures, the critical temperature for such operation shall not exceed two hundred degrees Fahrenheit (200° F.).

35. Valve and faucet connections. All draw-off valves or faucets of tanks and compartments shall have discharge ends threaded, or be otherwise so designed as to insure in every instance a tight connection with the hose extending to the storage fill pipe.

36. Emergency discharge control. Each tank or tank compartment of a bottom-discharge tank shall be equipped with a reliable and effective shut-off valve located inside the shell of the tank or tank compartment in the tank or compartment outlet; and the operating mechanism for such valve or valves shall be provided with a secondary closing mechanism remote from tank filling openings and discharge faucets, for operation in the event of fire or other accident. Such control mechanism shall be provided with a fusible section which will cause the valve to close automatically in case of fire, and the critical temperature for the fusing of such section shall not exceed two hundred degrees Fahrenheit (200° F.).

37. Shear section. There shall be provided between each shut-off valve seat and discharge faucet a shear section which will break under strain, unless the discharge piping is so arranged as to afford equivalent protection, and leave the shut-off valve seat intact in case of accident to the discharge faucet or piping.

38. Protection of valves and faucets. Draw-off valves and faucets projecting beyond the frame, or if the vehicle be frameless, beyond the shell, at the rear, shall be adequately protected by steel bumpers or other equally effective devices, against collision.

39. Overturn protection. All closures for filling openings shall be protected from damage in the event of overturning of the motor vehicle, by being enclosed within the body of the tank or a dome attached thereto, or by the use of suitable metal guards securely attached to the tank or the frame of the motor vehicle.

3. New tank motor vehicles. Except as provided in par. 4, every new tank motor vehicle acquired by a motor carrier on or after June 15, 1940, for the transportation of any corrosive liquid shall comply with the requirements of this specification. A certificate from the manufacturer of the cargo tank, or from a competent testing agency, certifying that each such tank is designed and constructed in accordance with the requirements of this specification, shall be procured, and such certificate shall be retained in the files of the carrier during the time that such tank is employed in the transportation of corrosive liquids by him. In lieu of this certificate, if the motor carrier himself elects to ascertain if any such tank fulfills the requirements of this specification by his own test, he shall similarly retain the test data.

4. Novel tank motor vehicles, special authorization. The Commission may, upon written request for such authorization by a motor carrier, authorize the use of limited numbers, and for limited times, of new tanks which fail to meet the requirements of this specification. In the event of such request for authorization, the carrier shall furnish those details concerning the design and construction of the tank as seem necessary for the determination of its ability safely to transport corrosive liquids.

(1) the material of the tank is substantially immune to attack by the materials to be transported therein,

(2) the material of the tank is thick enough to withstand 10 years' normal service without being reduced at any point to less thickness than that specified in par. 27 corresponding to its capacity, or

(3) the chemical reaction between the material of the tank and the commodity to be transported therein is such as to allow the tank to be properly passified or neutralized as set forth elsewhere in this appendix; or

(4) for the transportation of hydrofluoric acid of sixty percent (60%) or higher concentration, they be passified in the following or an equally effective method: By filling the tank to not less than ninety percent (90%) of its capacity with hydroflouric acid of fifty-eight percent (58%) strength and allowing it to stand at least forty-eight (48) hours at a temperature of eighty degrees Fahrenheit (80° F.), then seven (7) hours at one hundred forty degrees Fahrenheit (140° F.), the internal pressure being maintained at atmospheric pressure the meanwhile.

27. Thickness of metal. The minimum thickness of metal for cargo tanks shall be as follows:

Tank capacity:	Minimum thickness (inches)
Not more than 1,200 gallons	¼
Over 1,200 to 1,800 gallons	5/16
Over 1,800 gallons	⅜

28. Joints. All joints and seams formed in the manufacture of any cargo tank shall be made tight by welding, riveting, riveting and welding, brazing, or riveting and brazing, at the option of the motor carrier, subject to the limitation that any of the aforesaid methods are permissible only when any one of them or combination as used in the tank is not subject to adverse action by the nature of the corrosive liquid which is to be transported in such tank.

Pressure Tests

29. Tanks. Each completed cargo tank shall be tested before being put into transportation service by completely filling the tank and dome with water or other liquid having a similar viscosity, the temperature of which shall not exceed one hundred degrees Fahrenheit (100° F.) during the test, and applying a pressure of one and one-half (1½) times the working pressure of the tank (minimum pressure, ten pounds per square inch (10 lbs./sq. in.) gage). Every such valve or plug shall be such as to insure against unseating due to stresses or shocks incident to transportation.

(c) Bottom wash-out chambers. Tanks may be equipped with bottom wash-out chambers.

32. Venting, gaging, loading, and air inlet devices. When installed, venting, gaging, loading, and air inlet devices, including their valves, shall be provided with adequate means for their secure closure; and means shall also be provided for the closing of pipe connections of valves.

33. Shear section. There shall be provided between each shut-off valve seat and discharge faucet a shear section which will break under strain, unless the discharge piping is so arranged as to afford equivalent protection, and leave the shut-off valve seat intact in case of accident to the discharge faucet or piping.

34. Protection of valves. Draw-off valves and fittings of cargo tanks projecting beyond the frame, or if the vehicle be frameless, beyond the shell, at the rear, shall be adequately protected by steel bumpers or other equally effective devices, against collision.

35. (a) Fixtures, reinforcements, and other attachments not specified. All external attachments to any cargo tank shall be made of materials specified in "the Code" and constructed and attached as therein specified.

(b) Heater coils. Heater coils, when installed, shall be so constructed that the breaking off of their external connections will not cause leakage of contents of tanks.

36. Closures for manholes. The manhole cover shall be designed to provide a secure closure of the manhole. All covers, not hinged to the tanks, shall be attached to the outside of the dome by at least ⅛ inch chain or its equivalent. All joints between manhole covers and their seats shall be made tight against leakage of vapor and liquid by use of gaskets of suitable material not subject to attack by the corrosive liquid to be transported in the tank.

In the event of replacement, all such piping, valves, or fittings so replaced shall be tested in accordance with the requirements of this rule before the container is returned to transportation service.

Marking

30. (a) Marking of cargo tanks by metal plates. The requirements of this specification regarding marking are identical with those set forth in par. 31 of specification MC 300, except that tanks shall be marked "I C C MC 320," instead of "I C C MC 300," and except that working pressures of the tank shall, additionally, be marked on the metal plate.

(b) Marking of gaging devices. Each adjustable gaging device or container equipped with such a gaging device shall be clearly, legibly, and permanently marked in increments of not more than twenty Fahrenheit degrees, with the maximum levels to which it can be filled with liquid at temperatures between twenty degrees Fahrenheit (20° F.) and one hundred thirty degrees Fahrenheit (130° F.). The one hundred thirty degrees Fahrenheit (130° F.) line shall be so located that the liquid portion of the gas shall not completely fill the container at one hundred thirty degrees Fahrenheit (130° F.).

Loading and Unloading Accessories

31. Pumps. Pumps of suitable design and properly protected may be mounted upon liquefied petroleum gas tank trucks and trailers and may be driven by the truck motor power take-off or internal combustion engine, hand, mechanical, hydraulic or electrical means. The pumps, except constant speed centrifugal pumps, shall be equipped with suitable pressure actuated by-pass valves permitting flow from pump discharge to pump suction when the pump discharge pressure rises above the predetermined point. Pump discharge shall also be equipped with a spring-loaded safety valve of non-leaking type, set at a pressure not to exceed 35 percent higher than the predetermined setting of the by-pass valve.

Hose unions shall be of substantial construction and shall be maintained in a safe condition. It is recommended that loose hose union parts shall be protected from wear or injury in transit.

(c) Hose, low-pressure. Hose and hose connections located on the low-pressure side of regulators or reducing valves shall be designed for a bursting pressure of not less than 125 lbs. but not less than five times the pressure setting of the safety relief device protecting that portion of the system. All connections shall be so designed that there will be no leakage when connected.

(d) Hose, wet. Where hose is to be used for transferring liquid from one container to another wet hose is recommended. Such hose shall be equipped with a suitable shut-off valve at discharge end. Provision shall be made to prevent excessive hydrostatic pressure in the hose.

33. (a) Discharge valves and accessories. The discharge outlet shall be provided with a suitable automatic excess flow valve or in lieu thereof the discharge outlet may be fitted with a quick closing internal valve, which, except during delivery operations, shall remain closed. The control mechanism for such valve may be provided with a secondary control remote from the delivery connections and such control mechanism shall be provided with a fusible section (melting point 208° F. to 220° F.) which will cause the internal valve to close automatically in case of fire.

(b) Filling connections. Filling connections shall be provided with suitable automatic valves to prevent back flow in case the filling connection is broken, excepting that where the filling and discharge connect on a common opening in the container shell and that opening is fitted with a quick-closing internal valve as specified in par. 33 (a) the automatic valve shall not be required.

(c) Miscellaneous connections. All other connections to containers, except safety relief and liquid level gauge connections, shall be equipped with suitable automatic excess flow valves. (Refer to par. 35 (a).)

(d) Labeling. All container inlets and outlets, except safety relief valves, liquid level gauging devices, and pressure gauges, shall be labeled to designate whether they communicate with vapor or liquid space. Labels may be on valves.

34. (a) Container valves and accessories. All valves and connections shall be of a type suitable for use with liquefied petroleum gas and designed for not less than the maximum pressure to which they may be subjected.

(b) Seat material, etc. Valve seat material, packing, gaskets, etc., shall be of such quality as to be resistant to the action of liquefied petroleum gases.

(c) Shut-off valves. All connections to containers shall have a suitable shut-off valve located as close to the containers as practicable, except safety relief connections and gauging devices.

(d) Excess flow valves function. Excess flow valves where required by these standards shall be designed to close automatically and shut off the gas or liquid flow in case:

(1) The flow through the valve exceeds a predetermined flow which flow must be less than the pipe line capacity to and from such excess flow valve.

(2) The pressure on the inlet side of excess flow valve exceeds by a certain designed number of pounds per sq. in. the pressure in pounds on the outlet of such valve.

(e) By-pass. Excess flow valves may be designed with a by-pass, not to exceed a 60 drill size opening to allow equalization of pressures.

(f) Excess flow and check valves. Excess flow and backpressure check valves, where required by these standards, shall be located inside of the container or at a point outside where the line enters the container; in the latter case, installation shall be made in such manner that any undue strain beyond the excess flow or back-pressure check valve will not cause breakage between the container and such valve. Gauging devices which do not involve the flow of liquid or which are so constructed that outward flow of container contents shall not exceed that passed by a No. 54 drill size need not be equipped with excess flow valves.

35. (a) Liquid level gauging devices. Each truck and trailer container shall be equipped with an accurate liquid level gauging device of a suitable design, for example, a rotary tube, slip tube, automatic outage tank, magnetic or fixed tube device. A fixed tube device consists of a dip pipe of small size, equipped with a valve at the outer end. Fixed tube devices shall be so arranged that the maximum liquid level to which the container may be filled is not in excess of the maximum permitted under the filling density table, in sec. 303 (r) of Part 3, but based on an initial liquid temperature of not to exceed 40° F. Liquid level gauging devices of the rotary tube, fixed tube and slip tube type may be used without installation of an excess flow check valve, provided that bleed valve opening is not larger than a No. 54 drill size.

Method of calculating length of fixed tube—

(1) Calculate the maximum volume, for which fixed length tube shall be set by the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Total capacity of container} \times \text{filling density}}{\text{Specific gravity} \times \text{volume correction factor}} = \text{Maximum volume for which fixed length tube shall be set}$$

NOTE: Volume correction factor shall be based on the thermal coefficient of expansion of the liquefied petroleum gas from 40° F. for above-ground containers (or 50° F. for underground containers) to 60° F. (For example, propane with specific gravity of 0.510 has a volume correction factor of 1.031 from 40° F.; butane with a specific gravity of 0.570 has a volume correction factor of 1.020 from 40° F. to 60° F.). The following table gives representative volume correction factors:

VOLUME CORRECTION FACTORS

Specific Gravity

0.500, 0.510, 0.520, 0.530, 0.540, 0.550, 0.560, 0.570, 0.580, 0.590.

(Above-ground) from 40° F. to 60° F. 1.034, 1.031, 1.028, 1.026, 1.025, 1.023, 1.021, 1.020, 1.019, 1.018.

(Underground) from 50° F. to 60° F. 1.018, 1.016, 1.014, 1.013, 1.012, 1.011, 1.010, 1.009, 1.009, 1.009.

(2) Calculate the length of the fixed tube so that when its lower end touches the surface of the liquid in the container, the contents of the container will be the maximum volume as determined by the formula above.

(b) Gauge design pressure. Gauging devices shall have a design working pressure of at least 250 lb. per sq. in. gauge.

	Type 80 lb. min.	Minimum required free discharge area (square inches) when tank working pressure, in pounds per square inch, is—

To be calculated using Fetterley's formula as promulgated by Bureau of Explosives, New York City.

(c) Setting and marking. Container safety relief valves shall be set to start to discharge as follows, with relation to the designed working pressure of the container.

Containers:	Minimum Percent	Maximum Percent

A. P. I.–A. S. M. E.	80	100

(c) Gauge glasses. Gauge glasses of the column type are prohibited.

(d) Pressure gauge. Pressure gauges and other connections (refer to sec. 35 (a)) shall be fitted with suitable automatic excess flow valves, except that no such valve may be connected with any safety valve. Pressure gauges shall communicate only to the vapor space of the container.

Safety Valves

36. (a) Free venting and effective discharge area. Every container shall be provided with one or more safety relief valves of spring-loaded or equivalent type. These valves shall be arranged to afford free vent to the outer air. The area of the discharge shall be sufficient to prevent the building up of pressures in excess of 120% of the maximum permitted setting of the safety relief valves on the container and in accordance with the provisions of the effective discharge area as specified in the following table.

(b) Effective Discharge Area Required for Safety Relief Valves.

(D=outside diameter of tank in feet; U=overall length of tank in feet; "A"= the product of D times U).

(d) Relief valves, tampering. Safety relief valves shall be so arranged that the possibility of tampering will be minimized; if pressure setting or adjustment is external, the relief valves shall be provided with approved means for sealing adjustment.

(e) Relief valve installation. No shut-off valves shall be installed between the container and the safety relief valves and the container except that a shut-off valve may be used where the arrangement of this valve is such as always to afford full required capacity flow through the relief valves.

NOTE: The above exception is made to cover such cases as a three-way valve installed under two safety relief valves, each of which has the required relief valve area and is so installed as to allow either of the safety relief valves to be closed off but does not allow both safety valves to be closed off at the same time. Another exception to this may be where two separate relief valves are installed with interconnected valve stems in this case the two shut-off valve stems shall be mechanically interconnected in a manner which will allow full required flow of one relief valve at all times.

(f) Relief valve, vapor space. Safety relief valves shall have direct communication with the vapor space of the container.

(g) Relief valve markings. Each container safety valve shall be plainly and permanently marked with the pressure in pounds per sq. in. gauge at which the valve is set to start to discharge and the actual free discharge area in sq. in. of the valve at its full open position; for example, 200–24.

Superseding and amending Part 5 of regulations, order Aug. 16, 1940, to read as follows:

PART 81—REGULATIONS APPLYING TO CARRIERS BY RAIL EXPRESS*†

*†For authority and source citations, see notes in sec. 650, 49 CFR Part 81.

650. Purpose of regulations. To promote the uniform enforcement of law and to minimize the dangers to life and property incident to the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles, by rail express carriers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, these regulations are prescribed to define these articles for rail express transportation purposes, and to state the precautions that must be observed by the carrier in handling them while in transit. It is the duty of each such carrier to make the prescribed regulations effective and to thoroughly instruct employees in relation thereto.

651. Explosives and other dangerous articles, except such as will not be accepted, may be offered for transportation to rail express carriers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce and transported, provided they are in proper condition for transportation and are certified that these regulations have been complied with, and provided their method of manufacture, packing, and storage, so far as they affect safe transportation, are open to inspection by a duly authorized representative of the initial carrier or of the Bureau of Explosives. Shipments that do not comply with these regulations must not be accepted for transportation or transported.

652. These regulations apply to all shipments of explosives and other dangerous articles as defined herein, including carriers' material and supplies.

653. (a) Labels. Labels prescribed by the Commission's regulations, Part 3, must be applied to rail express shipments, unless exempt from these regulations, and in addition the shipper must certify to compliance with the regulations by writing, stamping, or printing his name underneath the certificate printed thereon.

(b) Carriers must keep on hand an adequate supply of labels. Lost or detached labels must be replaced from information given on revenue or other waybill.

654. (a) Receipts. A receipt upon the form prescribed by the originating express carrier must be issued to the shipper for each shipment of explosives or other dangerous articles accepted for transportation. Before a receipt is issued, the shipper must apply the label prescribed herein to each package containing any article covered by these regulations.

(b) Each receipt must show the proper and definite name of commodity, as listed in these regulations, and the color of the label affixed to the package if any is required.

655. (a) Handling packages. In handling packages containing explosives or other dangerous articles, care must be taken to prevent them from falling or from being broken. They must not be thrown, dropped, or rolled.

(b) Packages protected by labels must be so loaded that they can not fall to the car floor and in such manner that other freight can not fall onto or slide against them.

(c) Unless sealed cars are equipped with a suitable guard or screen to prevent the lading coming in contact with hot steam pipes, or heat exits used in electrically-heated equipment, packages containing explosives or other dangerous articles must not be transported in them.

(d) Shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles, except poisons and noninflammable compressed gases, when transported in passenger-carrying trains, should be loaded in the car occupied by an express employee and in a place that will permit their ready removal in case of fire. They must not be loaded in cars or stored in stations near steam pipes or other sources of heat. No placards are required on such cars when occupied by an express employee. Shipments bearing poison label, when practicable, should be loaded in sealed cars; when loaded in cars occupied by messenger, care should be taken to prevent any contents sifting or leaking from containers.

(e) When an express or baggage car containing any package requiring a label prescribed by these regulations is not occupied by an express employee and is handled in a passenger, mixed, or freight train, the proper placards must be attached thereto as required by these regulations for the transportation of such articles by rail freight.

(f) Packages containing dangerous articles, as defined by these regulations, that are loaded in sealed cars for express movement from the point of origin, must be loaded in a place that will permit of their ready removal in case of fire, wreck, or unloading, and near the car door, if possible.

(g) Not to exceed 10 gas identification sets may be transported in any car at any time.

(h) It is important to prevent contact of contents of packages bearing either yellow or white corrosive liquid labels with combustible substances, such as sawdust, shavings, or sweepings, that may be present in express cars.

656. Removal at destination. Shipments of explosives and other dangerous articles as defined by these regulations which are refused by the consignees, or which can not be delivered within 48 hours after arrival at destination, must be promptly disposed of (1) by return to the shipper, if in proper shipping condition, or (2) by storage, provided a suitable storage place for such articles is available off the carrier's property, or (3) by sale, or (4) when necessary to safety, by destruction: Provided, That charged electric batteries may be held for 30 days after arrival at destination, pending delivery or disposition.

657. Waybills. The revenue, or other waybilling, when prepared for such shipments, and the waybill, transfer sheet, or interchange record used for transferring such shipments to a connecting carrier, must properly describe the articles by name as shown in these regulations, and show color of label applied.

658. Connecting line shipments. Shipments of dangerous articles offered by connecting express or other transportation lines must comply with these regulations.

660. Reporting violations and accidents or fires. Serious violations of these regulations, facts relating to leaking or broken containers, and accidents or fires in connection with the transportation or storage on express or railway property of explosives or other dangerous articles, must be reported promptly by the express carrier to the Bureau of Explosives, 30 Vesey Street, New York, N. Y.

Superseding and amending Part 6 of regulations, orders Aug. 16, 1940, and Mar. 31, 1941, to read as follows:

PART 82—REGULATIONS APPLYING TO RAIL CARRIERS IN BAGGAGE SERVICE*†

*†For authority and source citations, see notes in sec. 700, 49 CFR Part 82.

700. Purpose of regulations. To proshipments in rail baggage service of dangerous articles in rail baggage service on passenger-carrying trains of carriers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, the following regulations are prescribed to define these articles for rail baggage transportation purposes, and to state the precautions that must be observed by the carrier in handling them while in transit.

701. These regulations apply to all shipments in rail baggage service of dangerous articles as prescribed herein. Shipments of explosives, other than those authorized for transportation by rail express, or dangerous articles, except as provided herein, must not be accepted for transportation in rail baggage service. The Commission will make provision as occasion and safety may require for dangerous articles other than those described herein. Carriers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce must make these regulations effective and must provide for the thorough instruction of their employees.

NOTE.—Explosives or other dangerous articles, consisting of carrier's materials and supplies such as are acceptable for rail express transportation, may be transported in baggage cars when packed, marked, and labeled as prescribed by regulations for rail express shipments.

702. No dangerous article described by these regulations shall be accepted for transportation or transported in rail baggage service except the following which must be packed, marked and labeled as required herein:

703. (a) Acceptable articles. The following articles may be transported in rail baggage service under these regulations:

(b) (1) Compressed gases:

Not more than 12,000 feet of standard width (1⅜ inches wide), 12 reels of approximately 1,000 feet each, or equivalent thereof, or more than 3 reels of stereoscopic film (2½ inches wide and approximately 1,500 feet each), may be packed in one such outside container; or as follows:

(f) In outside wooden boxes, spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, or 16A, provided each reel is placed in a tightly closed inside metal container. The gross weight of such a package must not exceed 80 pounds. Boxes must be equipped with handles, and covers securely fastened by metal hasp and staple with a strong lock or other efficient device.

(g) When slow-burning (noninflammable) motion-picture films are packed in the same outside containers with inflammable motion-picture films, the outside packages must bear the yellow label, and the total contents of the outside container must not exceed the quantity or gross weight permitted for inflammable films. (See sec. 703 (e).)

(h) Packages of motion-picture films with advertising matter attached to the outside container must not be offered or accepted for transportation. 704. (a) Labels. All packages containing samples of explosives for laboratory examination, fireworks and other dangerous articles for which labels are prescribed herein, must be conspicuously labeled by the shipper. Labels should be applied when practicable to that part of the package bearing the consignee's name and address, or baggage check. The shipper must certify to compliance with these regulations by writing, stamping, or printing his name underneath the certificate printed thereon. Shippers must furnish and attach labels prescribed for their shipments.

(b) Carriers must keep on hand an adequate supply of labels. Lost or detached labels must be replaced.

705. Placards. Placards ordinarily used to indicate the presence in cars of inflammable articles will not be required on baggage cars in charge of a railroad employee and moving in passenger trains, or on electric or gasoline motor cars in charge of an employee of the carrier, and which are run independently of cars carrying passengers. (See sec. 542 (d) for placarding of cars not occupied by carrier's employee.)

706. (a) Handling of packages. In handling packages containing dangerous articles, care must be taken to prevent them from falling or from being broken. They must not be thrown, dropped, or rolled.

(b) Packages containing dangerous articles when transported in baggage service in passenger-carrying trains must be loaded in the car occupied by a railway employee, and in a place that will permit their ready removal in case of fire. They must not be loaded in cars nor stored in stations near steam pipes or other sources of heat.

(c) The originating carrier, when a shipment is offered to it that is known to contain dangerous articles as defined by these regulations, must see that the packages are marked and labeled as prescribed herein.

(d) Shipments of dangerous articles offered by connecting transportation lines must comply with these regulations.

(e) An astray shipment of dangerous articles or a shipment made in violation of these regulations without the knowledge of the carrier, must be forwarded promptly to destination, if known, provided a careful inspection shows the package to be in proper condition for safe transportation.

(f) Unauthorized persons must not be allowed to have access to dangerous articles in transit at any time while such articles are in the custody of the carrier.

707. Reporting violations and accidents or fires. Serious violations of these regulations, facts relating to leaking or broken containers, and accidents or fires in connection with the transportation or storage on railway property of explosives or other dangerous articles, must be reported promptly by the rail carrier in baggage service to the Bureau of Explosives, 30 Vesey Street, New York, N. Y.

Superseding and amending Part 7 of Interstate Commerce Commission Regulations for Transportation of Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles made effective January 7, 1941, by order of Division 3, dated August 16, 1940, and Part 7 of Interstate Commerce Commission Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, Revised, effective June 15, 1940, and all effective amendments thereto, contained in reports and orders of the Commission and Division 3 dated April 1, June 10, and December 18, 1940, and March 31, 1941, except provisions applying to safety of operation and equipment, to be continued in effect, as amended, in Motor Carrier Safety Regulations.

PART 85—REGULATIONS APPLYING TO SHIPMENTS MADE BY WAY OF COMMON AND CONTRACT CARRIERS BY PUBLIC HIGHWAY*†

*Secs. 85.800 to 85.850 issued under authority in secs. 232–236, 41 Stat. 1444, 1445; 18 U.S.C. 382–386 for common carriers by motor vehicle, and sec. 204 (U. S. Code, title 49, sec. 304), (a) (2), Part II Interstate Commerce Act, for contract carriers by motor vehicle, superseding and amending 49 CFR Part 197.

†The source of secs. 85.800 to 85.850, inclusive, is Regulations for transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles by land and water in rail freight, express, and baggage services, and by motor vehicle (highway), and water, including specifications for shipping containers, Part 7 (regulations applying to shipments by way of common and contract carriers by public highway), revised August 16, 1940, effective January 7, 1941, as amended February 1, 1942. Regulations in Part 85 transferred from 49 CFR Part 197.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

800. Purpose of regulations. To promote the uniform enforcement of law and to minimize the dangers to life and property incident to the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles, by common and contract carriers by motor vehicle engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, these regulations are prescribed to define these articles for motor vehicle transportation purposes, and to state the precautions that must be observed by the carrier in handling them while in transit. It is the duty of each such carrier to make the prescribed regulations effective and to thoroughly instruct employees in relation thereto.

801. Scope and application of regulations. Explosives and other dangerous articles, except such as may not be accepted and transported under these regulations, may be accepted and transported by common and contract carriers by motor vehicle engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, provided they are in proper condition for transportation and are certified as being in compliance with these regulations, and provided the method of manufacture, packing, and storage, so far as they affect safety in transportation, are open to inspection by a duly authorized representative of the initial carrier or of the Bureau of Explosives. Shipments that do not comply with these regulations must not be accepted for transportation or transported.

802. (a) These regulations apply to all common and contract carriers by motor vehicle transporting explosives and/or other dangerous articles as defined by Interstate Commerce Commission "Regulations for Transportation of Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles by Land and Water in Rail Freight, Express and Baggage Services and by Motor Vehicle (Highway) and Water." When shipments are accepted by motor vehicle for further transportation by rail express (see also paragraph (c)), rail baggage (see also paragraph (d)), rail freight or by water on board vessel, they must, in addition to these regulations, comply with the applicable regulations for the service via which they are to be transported.

(b) The regulations of the Secretary of Commerce governing the transportation of "Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles on Board Vessels" also include combustible liquids and hazardous articles.

(c) The fifth column of the Commodity List indicates the maximum quantity of an article that may be accepted for transportation by rail express or that the article is not acceptable for transportation by rail express.

(d) The mark # preceding an article in the Commodity List indicates that the article may be accepted for rail baggage transportation. All articles not so marked are not acceptable for rail baggage transportation.

803. (a) Import shipments via domestic carriers by motor vehicle. Import shipments of explosives and other dangerous articles offered in the United States in original packages for transportation by carriers by motor vehicle must comply with all requirements of these regulations. The importer must furnish with the order to the foreign shipper, and also to the forwarding agent at the port of entry, full and complete information as to the packing, marking, labeling, and other requirements, as prescribed herein. The forwarding agent must file with the initial carrier in the United States a properly certified shipping order or other shipping paper as prescribed herein.

(b) Import shipments transferred in port areas by motor vehicle. These requirements do not apply to such transportation by motor vehicle as may be necessary to effect transfer of import shipments from place of discharge to other places within the same port area or delivery to a water carrier within the same port area (including contiguous harbors); further transportation of such import shipments by connecting water carrier shall be subject to the regulations of the Secretary of Commerce.

804. (a) Export shipments via domestic carriers by motor vehicle. Explosives and other dangerous articles authorized to be exported from the United States when packed, marked, labeled, and described, in accordance with rules and regulations in force at destination ports, must not be offered to any common or contract carrier by motor vehicle for domestic transportation unless in full accordance with the regulations herein.

(b) Export shipments transferred in port areas by motor vehicle. These requirements do not apply to such transportation by motor vehicle as may be necessary to effect transfer of export shipments from place of shipment to other places within the same port area or delivery to a water carrier within the same port area (including contiguous harbors); further transportation of such export shipments by connecting water carrier shall be subject to the regulations of the Secretary of Commerce.

805. Canadian shipments. Explosives or other dangerous articles which are packed, marked, labeled, and loaded, in conformity with the regulations of the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada, may be accepted and carried by carriers from point of entry in the United States to their destination in the United States or through the United States en route to a point in Canada.

806. U. S. Government shipments. Shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles offered by or consigned to the War or Navy Department of the United States Government must be packed, including limitations of weight, in accordance with Interstate Commerce Commission regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles or as required by their regulations.

807. (a) Emergency shipments. For the protection of the public against fire, explosion, or other or further hazard, with respect to shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles offered for transportation or in transit by any common or contract carrier by motor vehicle, such carrier shall make immediate report to the Bureau of Explosives, 30 Vesey Street, New York, N. Y., for handling, any of the following emergency matters coming to their attention (see also sections 826, 827, 828 and 850 for handling shipments in transit):

(b) Instances of packages of explosives or other dangerous articles discovered in transit not properly prepared for transportation in accordance with applicable regulations herein.

(c) Motor carrier accidents involving damage to container of explosives or other dangerous articles to such a degree as to necessitate repacking of the articles.

(d) Other like emergencies in which any common or contract carrier by motor vehicle is or is likely to become involved, or may offer aid at its command.

(e) This section shall in no respect excuse either shipper or carrier by motor vehicle for failure to exercise due care to prevent any departure from any regulation prescribed herein.

808. Connecting carrier shipments. Shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles offered by connecting transportation lines must comply with these regulations.

809. Carrier's material and supplies. These regulations apply to all shipments of explosives and other dangerous articles, including carrier's material and supplies.

810. Vehicular tunnels. Nothing contained in these regulations shall be so construed as to nullify or supersede regulations established and published under authority of State statute or municipal ordinance regarding the kind, character, or quantity of any explosive or other dangerous article permitted by such regulations to be transported through any urban vehicular tunnel used for mass transportation.

811. Astray shipments. Any astray shipment of dangerous articles other than explosives must be forwarded promptly to destination, if known, provided a careful inspection shows the package to be in proper condition for safe transportation. If the package is not labeled and the exact nature of the contents is unknown, the red label must be applied.

812. Containers required. Containers required for explosives and other dangerous articles are prescribed in "Part 3—Regulations Applying to Shippers."

813. Inefficient containers. The results of experience gained by examination of broken or leaking containers must be recorded by the Bureau of Explosives to the end that further use of any particular kind of container shown by experience to be inefficient, may be prohibited by the Commission.

814. (Sec. 800 of regulations effective January 7, 1941) Accidents to be reported. Accidents, fires, or explosions occurring in connection with the transportation, or storage on carrier's property, of explosives or other dangerous articles, resulting in leaking, broken, or seriously damaged containers, must be reported promptly by the highway carrier to the Bureau of Explosives, 30 Vesey Street, New York, N. Y. These reports are required to the end that further use of containers shown by experience to be inefficient may be prohibited by the Commission.

815. Labels. (See sec. 404 (e) to (r) for description of labels.) Labels prescribed by the Commission's regulations, Part 3, must have been applied to shipments, unless exempt from these regulations, and in addition the shipper must have certified to compliance with the regulations by writing, stamping, or printing his name underneath the certificate printed thereon or on the shipping papers.

(b) Labels are not required on shipments forwarded in truckload quantities when such shipments are to be unloaded by the consignee. This exemption does not apply to class A and class C poisons.

(c) When it is known that subsequent shipments of these packages in less-than-truckload quantities will probably be made by the consignee, labels should be attached to the packages as would be required for less-than-truckload shipments.

(d) Carriers must keep on hand an adequate supply of labels. Lost or detached labels must be replaced from information given on waybill, manifest, memorandum, or other shipping paper.

(e) Samples will be furnished, on request, by the Bureau of Explosives, 30 Vesey Street, New York, N. Y.

(f) The carrier's name and stationery form number may be printed on the labels, in type not larger than 10 point, if placed within the red or black-line border and in the upper or lower corner of the diamond.

(g) Additional shipping information not inconsistent with these rules and regulations may be shown by the shipper on a container of dangerous articles other than explosives if so desired, but no label or marking may be of a design, or form, or size, as may be confused with the label or marking required by these regulations.

816. Marking on containers. Each package of explosives or other dangerous articles must show the name and address of the consignee. Whenever the transportation of any explosive or other dangerous article is to be exclusively by motor vehicle between points between which the articles are not to be transferred from one motor carrier to another, in either truckload or less-than-truckload lots, the individual packages need not be marked with the consignee's name and address.

817. Shipping papers. Every driver of a motor vehicle transporting explosives or other dangerous articles shall have in his possession a manifest, memorandum receipt, bill of lading, shipping order, shipping paper, or other memorandum setting forth the following information for each class of such article being transported: The shipping name, the total quantity by weight, volume, or otherwise as appropriate of each kind of explosive or other dangerous article, and the prescribed label when required for the outside container of such article.

818. (a) Receipts. A receipt upon the form prescribed by the originating express carrier must be issued to the shipper for each express shipment of explosives or other dangerous articles accepted for transportation. Before a receipt is issued, the shipper must have applied the label prescribed herein with written or stamped signature, to each package containing any article covered by these regulations.

(b) Each receipt must show the proper and definite name of commodity as listed in these regulations, and the color of the label affixed to the package if any is required.

819. Certification of packages. Except as provided herein below, no motor carrier may accept for transportation or transport any class A or class B explosive, blasting caps or electric blasting caps in any quantity, or any dangerous article requiring label as prescribed by these regulations, unless it be certified to him by the shipper's name inserted in the certificate on the label or by the following certificate over the written or stamped facsimile signature of the shipper or his duly authorized agent in the lower left-hand corner of the manifest, memorandum receipt, bill of lading, shipping order, shipping paper, or other memorandum.

This is to certify that the above articles are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation according to the regulations prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

NOTE. For the relief of shippers from multiplicity of certifications required for packages which may move by carriers by water (including shipments of combustible liquids or hazardous articles as defined by regulations of the Secretary of Commerce), and pending further consideration and order of the Commission, such shipments may be certified for motor vehicle transportation, as follows:

This is to certify that the above articles are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation according to the applicable regulations prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Secretary of Commerce.

820. Waybills, manifests, etc. The waybill, manifest, memorandum receipt, bill of lading, transfer sheet, or interchange record, when prepared for shipments and used for transferring such shipments to a connecting carrier, must properly describe the articles by name as shown in these regulations, and show color of label applied.

Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles Forbidden or Limited for Transportation

821. (a) Nitroglycerin forbidden to common carriers. Liquid nitroglycerin may not be accepted for transportation or be transported by any common carrier by motor vehicle.

(b) Rejection of leaking containers of liquid nitroglycerin. Any individual container used for the transportation of liquid nitroglycerin, or any boot used therewith, found in such a condition as to permit leakage, shall be discarded and shall not thereafter be repaired for further use.

(c) Explosives or other dangerous articles forbidden or limited for transportation. No motor carrier may accept for transportation or transport any explosive or other dangerous article listed in Commodity List as forbidden for transportation by all motor carriers; nor, if there be any prohibition or limitation regarding the transportation of any particular explosive or other dangerous article by a particular kind of motor carrier, may any such article be accepted for transportation or be transported by that kind of carrier, except as indicated herein (see section 850).

(d) Leaking or damaged packages of high explosive must not be accepted for transportation or transported. Should any package of high explosive when offered for shipment show excessive dampness or be moldy or show outward signs of any oily stain or other indication that absorption of the liquid part of the explosive is not perfect, or that the amount of the liquid part is greater than the absorbent can carry, the package must be refused in every instance. The shipper must substantiate any claim that a stain is due to contact with material other than the liquid explosive ingredient of the explosive. In case of doubt the package must be rejected.

(e) Condemned or leaking dynamite; repacking. Condemned or leaking dynamite must not be repacked and offered for shipment unless the repacking is done by a competent person in the presence of or with the written consent of an inspector, or with the written authority of the chief inspector, of the Bureau of Explosives.

Acceptable Articles

822. (a) Acceptable packages. Any motor carrier may accept for transportation or transport any acceptable explosive or other dangerous article listed in the Commodity List, Part 2, of these regulations: Provided, however, That no provision of this section shall be so construed as to permit the acceptance or transportation of liquid nitroglycerine by any common carrier.

(b) Liquid nitroglycerin. Liquid nitroglycerin may be transported only by motor carriers other than common carriers in containers complying with specification MC 200. No form of trailer may be attached.

Marking on Motor Vehicles

823 (a) Marking on motor vehicles and trailers other than tank motor vehicles. Every motor vehicle transporting any quantity of dangerous explosives, class A, or poison gas, class A, and every motor vehicle transporting 2,500 pounds or more of explosives, class B, inflammable liquids, corrosive liquids, compressed gas and tear gas, or 5,000 pounds or more of two or more articles of these groups shall be marked or placarded on each side and rear with a placard or lettering, in letters not less than 3 inches high on a contrasting background, as follows:

Explosives, class A, "Explosives".[1]
Explosives, class B, "Dangerous".[1]
Inflammable liquid, "Dangerous".[1]
Corrosive liquid, "Dangerous".[1]
Compressed gas, "Compressed gas".
Poison gas, class A, "Poison Gas".[1]
Tear gas, "Dangerous".[1]

(b) (1) Tank motor vehicles. Every tank motor vehicle used for the transportation of any inflammable liquid, regardless of the quantity being transported, or whether loaded or empty, shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each side and the rear thereof, in letters at least 3 inches high on a background of sharply contrasting color, optionally, as follows:

(b) (2) With a sign or lettering on the motor vehicle, with the word "Inflammable"; or

(b) (3) With the common name of the inflammable liquid being transported, or

(b) (4) With the name of the carrier or his trademark, when and only when such name or mark plainly indicates the inflammable nature of the cargo.

(c) (1) Tank motor vehicles. Every tank motor vehicle used for the transportation of any corrosive liquid, regardless of the quantity being transported, or whether loaded or empty, shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each side and the rear thereof, in letters at least 3 inches high on a background of sharply contrasting color, optionally, as follows:

(c) (2) The common name of the corrosive liquid being transported, or

(c) (3) A sign or lettering on the motor vehicle, with the word "Acid," or, when transporting corrosive liquids other than acids, the words "Corrosive Liquid."

(d) (1) Tank motor vehicles. Every tank motor vehicle used for the transportation of any compressed gas, regardless of the quantity being transported, or whether loaded or empty shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each side and the rear thereof, in letters at least 3 inches high on a background of sharply contrasting color, optionally, as follows:

[1] Placards complying with previous requirements, which are on hand on the effective date of these regulations, may be used until further order of the Commission.

(d) (2) With a sign or lettering on the motor vehicle with the words "Compressed Gas," "Inflammable Compressed Gas," or "Chlorine," as appropriate; or

(d) (3) With the common name of the compressed gas being transported; or

(d) (4) Except as regards the marking "Chlorine," with the name of the carrier or his trademark, when and only when such name or mark plainly indicates the nature of the cargo.

(e) (1) Tank motor vehicles. Every tank motor vehicle used for the transportation of any less dangerous poison, class B, regardless of the quantity being transported, or whether loaded or empty, shall be conspicuously and legibly marked on each side and the rear thereof, in letters at least 3 inches high, on a background of a sharply contrasting color, optionally, as follows:

(e) (2) With a sign or lettering on the motor vehicle with the word "Poison"; or

(e) (3) With the common name of the class B poison being transported.

(f) Removal of signs or lettering. Every sign or lettering required by section 823 (a) shall be removed from or covered on any motor vehicle to which it is attached or affixed when such motor vehicle is not transporting the article for which the sign is appropriate, except that no such sign or lettering is required to be removed or covered when such motor vehicle is used exclusively in the transportation of any article for which the sign or lettering is appropriate.

(g) Only one marking required. Whenever any motor vehicle is transporting more than one class of dangerous article for which signs or placards are required to be lettered on or affixed to any such motor vehicle, no more than one kind of sign, lettering, or placard need be displayed. The sign, lettering, or placard used shall be the one which, in the judgment of the motor carrier, designates the most dangerous article being transported.

LOADING AND UNLOADING

General

824. (a) (1) Containers secured in vehicle. Any tank, barrel, drum, or cylinder, not designed to be permanently attached to a motor vehicle, containing any inflammable liquid, compressed gas, corrosive liquid, or poisonous article, shall be reasonably secured against movement within the motor vehicle by which it is being transported.

(a) (2) No explosives or other dangerous articles on pole trailers. No explosive or other dangerous article may be loaded into or on or transported in or on any pole trailer.

Precautions During Loading and Unloading

(a) (3) No smoking while loading or unloading. Smoking on or about any motor vehicle while loading or unloading any explosive inflammable liquid, inflammable solid, oxidizing material, or inflammable compressed gas is forbidden.

(a) (4) Keep fire away, loading and unloading. Extreme care shall be taken in the loading or unloading of any explosive, inflammable liquid, inflammable solid, oxidizing material, or inflammable compressed gas into or from any motor vehicle to keep fire away and to prevent persons in the vicinity from smoking, lighting matches, or carrying any flame or lighted cigar, pipe, or cigarette.

(a) (5) Handbrake set while loading and unloading. No explosive or other dangerous article shall be loaded into or on, or unloaded from, any motor vehicle unless the handbrake be securely set and all other reasonable precautions be taken to prevent motion of the motor vehicle during such loading or unloading process.

(a) (6) Use of tools, loading and unloading. No tools which are likely to damage the effectiveness of the closure of any package or other container, or likely adversely to affect such package or container, shall be used for the loading or unloading of any explosive or other dangerous article.

(a) (7) Prevent relative motion between containers. Containers of inflammable liquid, inflammable solids, oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, acids, compressed gases, and poisonous liquids or gases, must be so braced as to prevent relative motion thereof while in transit. Containers having valves or other fittings must be so loaded that there will be the minimum likelihood of damage thereto during transportation.

(a) (8) Precautions concerning containers in transit; fueling road units. Reasonable care should be taken to prevent undue rise in temperature of containers and their contents during transit. There must be no tampering with such container or the contents thereof nor any discharge of the contents of any container between point of origin and point of billed destination. Discharge of contents of any container, other than a cargo tank, must not be made prior to removal from the motor vehicle. Nothing contained in this regulation shall be so construed as to prohibit the fueling of machinery or vehicles used in road construction or maintenance.

(a) (9) Tank motor vehicles attended, loading and unloading. Under no circumstances shall a tank motor vehicle be left unattended during the loading or unloading process. For the purpose of this regulation, the delivery hose, when attached to the motor vehicle, shall be deemed a part thereof.

(a) (10) Prohibited loading combinations. In any single driven motor vehicle or in any single unit of a combination of motor vehicles, explosives and other dangerous articles shall not be loaded together if prohibited by loading and storage table, page 106 of these regulations. This section shall not be so construed as to forbid the carrying of materials essential to safe operation of motor vehicles (see Motor Carrier Safety Regulations).

(a) (11) Access to mixed ladings. Inflammable solids, oxidizing materials, or corrosive liquids, when transported on a motor vehicle with other lading not otherwise forbidden, shall be so loaded as to provide ready access thereto for shifting or removal.

Explosives

(b) (1) (See also section 824 (a) (1) to (a) (11)) Engine stopped. No explosive shall be loaded into or on or be unloaded from any motor vehicle with the engine running.

(b) (2) Care in loading, unloading, or other handling of explosives. No bale hooks or other metal tools shall be used for the loading, unloading, or other handling of explosives, nor shall any package or other container of explosives be rolled, thrown, or dropped during such process. Special care shall be exercised to the end that packages or other containers containing explosives shall not catch fire from sparks or hot gases from the exhaust tailpipe.

(b) (3) Explosives on trucks or semitrailers; no other trailer. Any explosive other than liquid nitroglycerin and forbidden explosives may be loaded into and transported on any truck or any semitrailer attached to a tractor, to which no form of trailer may be attached when so loaded.

(b) (4) Explosives forbidden on full or pole trailers. No explosives may be loaded into or transported on any full or pole trailer. (See sec. 824 (a) (2).)

(b) (5) No sharp projections inside body of vehicles. No motor vehicle transporting any kind of explosive shall have on the interior of the body in which the explosives are contained, any inwardly projecting bolts, screws, nails, or other inwardly projecting parts likely to produce damage to any package or container of explosives during the loading or unloading process or in transit.

(b) (6) Explosives vehicles, floors tight and lined. Motor vehicles used exclusively for the transportation of explosives shall have tight floors and lining such as wood or other nonsparking material which shall cover any projections or metal which may come into contact with packages of explosives.

(b) (7) No detonators in same motor vehicle with other explosives. Except as provided in section 824 (b) (13), no blasting caps or other materials designed and used for detonating charges of explosives may be transported in or on a motor vehicle with any high explosive, nor may any explosive projectile be transported with detonating fuze assembled in place, unless shipped by, for, or to the War or Navy Department of the United States Government, or unless of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives.

(b) (8) Lading within body or covered, tailgate closed. Except as provided in section 824 (b) (7), (b) (11) and (b) (13), dealing with the transportation of liquid nitroglycerin, all of that portion of the lading of any motor vehicle which consists of explosives shall be contained entirely within the body of the motor vehicle, and if such motor vehicle has a tailboard or tailgate, it shall be closed and secured in place during such transportation. Every motor vehicle transporting explosives must either have a closed body or have the body thereof covered with a tarpaulin, and in either event care must be taken to protect the load from moisture and sparks.

(b) (9) Explosives to be protected against damage by other lading. No motor vehicle transporting any explosive may transport as a part of its load any metal or other articles or materials likely to damage such explosive or any package in which it is contained, unless the different parts of such load be so segregated or secured in place in or on the motor vehicle and separated by bulkheads or other suitable means as to prevent such damage.

(b) (10) Transfer of explosives en route. No dangerous or less dangerous explosive shall be transferred from one container to another, or from one motor vehicle to another vehicle, or from another vehicle to a motor vehicle, on any public highway, street, or road, except in case of emergency. In such cases flares (pot torches) fusees, red electric lanterns, or flags shall be set out in the manner prescribed for disabled or stopped motor vehicles in Motor Carrier Safety Regulations. In any event, all practicable means, in addition to those hereinbefore prescribed, shall be taken to protect and warn other users of the highway against the hazard involved in any such transfer or against the hazard occasioned by the emergency making such transfer necessary.

Nitroglycerin by Other Than Common Carrier

(b) (11) Loading requirements for liquid nitroglycerin. Liquid nitroglycerin may be accepted for transportation and transported only by motor carriers other than common carriers if it be loaded into or on a truck having the type of body specified in specification MC 200. No liquid nitroglycerin may be loaded directly above any other explosive, or in any quantity in excess of 900 quarts on one motor vehicle or 10 quarts in any one individual container. Additional quantities of explosives, other than nitroglycerin, excepting any type of blasting or percussion cap or other detonating device, may be carried on such motor vehicle in a closed or covered bed or body which shall be firmly bolted or fastened above the lid of the compartment containing the nitroglycerin. In no case shall the net load be more than 7,500 pounds. (See section 824 (b) (13) and specification MC 201.)

(b) (12) Separation of tools and supplies for preparing charges. Motor vehicles transporting liquid nitroglycerin may also transport the tools and supplies necessary for preparing and firing charges thereof, provided that such tools and supplies be properly secured in place so as to prevent their coming in contact with the body above specified.

(b) (13) Caps or other explosives. Any explosive other than liquid nitroglycerin transported on any motor vehicle transporting liquid nitroglycerin shall be segregated, each kind from every other kind, and from tools or other supplies. Any percussion caps, detonators, blasting caps, or electric blasting caps, shall be carried either in a cloth container having individual pockets for each such cap, or by at least equally safe means. No greater number of any such caps shall be carried in the manner described than is necessary for use on any particular trip.

Nonexplosive Material

(c) (1) No restrictions are prescribed herein for the packing, handling, and transportation of the following:

(c) (2) Material relating to ammunition for cannon, but containing no explosive or other dangerous article, such as cartridge cases, "dummy" or "drill" cartridges, etc., sand-loaded projectiles, sand-loaded bombs, empty projectiles, empty mines, empty bombs, solid projectiles, or empty torpedoes. Rotating bands should be protected against deformation by method of packing or loading.

Inflammable Liquids

(d) (1) (See also section 824 (a) (1) to (a) (11)) Engine stopped. Unless the engine of the motor vehicle is to be used for the operation of a pump, no inflammable liquid shall be loaded into or on or unloaded from any other motor vehicle than a tank motor vehicle with the engine running; and in any event care should be exercised to prevent ignition of the vapors from any such liquid.

(d) (2) Bonding or grounding containers prior to and during transfer. For containers which are not in metallic contact with each other, either metallic bonds or ground conductors shall be provided for the neutralization of possible static charges prior to and during transfers of inflammable liquids between such containers. Such bonding shall be made by first connecting an electric conductor to the container to be filled and subsequently connecting the conductor to the container from which the liquid is to come, and not in any other order. To provide against ignition of vapors by discharge of static electricity, the latter connection shall be made at a point well removed from the opening from which the inflammable liquid is to be discharged.

Inflammable Solids and Oxidizing Materials

(e) (1) (See also section 824 (a) (1) to (a) (11)) Lading within body or covered; tailgate closed; pick-up and delivery. All of that portion of the lading of any motor vehicle transporting inflammable solids or oxidizing materials shall be contained entirely within the body of the motor vehicle and shall be covered by such body, by tarpaulins, or other suitable means, and if such motor vehicle has a tailboard or tailgate, it shall be closed and secured in place during such transportation: Provided, however, That the provisions of this paragraph need not apply to "pick-up and delivery" motor vehicles when such motor vehicles are used in no other transportation than in and about cities, towns, or villages.

(e) (2) Articles to be kept dry. Special care shall be taken in the loading of any motor vehicle with inflammable solids or oxidizing materials which are likely to become hazardous to transport when wet, to keep them from being wetted during the loading process and to keep them dry during transit. Special care shall also be taken in the loading of any motor vehicle with inflammable solids or oxidizing materials, which are likely to become more hazardous to transport by wetting, to keep them from being wetted during the loading process and to keep them dry during transit. Examples of such dangerous materials are charcoal screenings, ground, crushed, or pulverized charcoal, and lump charcoal.

(e) (3) Lading ventilation, precautions against spontaneous combustion. Whenever a motor carrier has knowledge concerning the hazards of spontaneous combustion or heating of any article to be loaded on a motor vehicle, such article shall be so loaded as to afford sufficient ventilation of the load to provide reasonable assurance against fire from this cause; and in such a case the motor vehicle shall be unloaded as soon as practicable after reaching its destination. Charcoal screenings, or ground, crushed, granulated, or pulverized charcoal, in bags, shall be so loaded that the bags are laid horizontally in the motor vehicle, and so piled that there will be spaces for effective air circulation, which spaces shall not be less than 4 inches wide; and air spaces shall be maintained between rows of bags. Bags shall not be piled closer than 6 inches from the top of any motor vehicle with a closed body.

(e) (4) Loose or baled nitrate of soda bags. Loose or baled, unwashed, empty bags, having contained nitrate of soda, may be transported in truckload lots only in motor vehicles, and such motor vehicles must have closed or covered bodies lined with paper; such shipments are required to be loaded by the shipper and to be unloaded by the consignee.

(e) (5) Staying or blocking of packages of matches. Special care shall be exercised in the loading of packages containing "strike-anywhere" matches to prevent the shifting or jamming of any such package during transit. To this end, the packages shall be compactly loaded with the strongest dimensions of each box or other container loaded lengthwise of the motor vehicle.

(e) (6) Smooth vehicle interior for matches. Unless strike-anywhere matches are contained in wooden outside boxes, special care shall be taken to provide that the inside surfaces of any motor vehicle into which such matches are to be loaded and with which surfaces the containers might come in contact, shall be smooth, without protrusions of any sort, such as bolts, nuts, sharp edges, or corners, etc., and there shall be provided for this purpose smooth wooden inner linings, if the interior of the motor vehicle is not otherwise smooth in accordance with this requirement.

(e) (7) Matches not loaded next to red label articles. Matches of whatever character shall not be loaded next to packages protected by the red caution label.

Corrosive Liquids

(f) (1) (See also section 824 (a) (1) to (a) (11)) Nitric acid. In addition to the requirements set forth in section 824 (f) (2), no carboy or other container of nitric acid shall be loaded above any container containing any other kind of material. The loading of carboys or other containers of nitric acid shall be limited to two tiers high.

(f) (2) Carboys and frangible containers. In general, individual carboys and frangible containers of acids or other corrosive liquids, including charged electric storage batteries, shall, when loaded by hand, be individually loaded into and unloaded from any motor vehicle in which they are to be, or have been, transported. All reasonable precautions shall be taken to prevent, by all practicable means, the dropping of any such containers or batteries containing corrosive liquids. No such container or battery shall be loaded into a motor vehicle having an uneven floor surface. It shall be permissible to load on or transport in any motor vehicle any authorized carboys or frangible shipping containers, containing acids or other corrosive liquids, more than one tier high above any floor only if such carboys or other containers are boxed or crated, or are in barrels or kegs, as required by these regulations, and only if such containers are so stacked that the weight of each tier above the first is entirely supported by the boxes, crates, barrels, kegs, or other authorized means of enclosing the carboys or frangible containers. Only so many tiers as may adequately be so supported without danger of crushing or breaking, shall be permitted. Means shall be provided to prevent by all practicable means, in all cases, the shifting of containers or batteries during transit. Nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to prevent the use of cleats or other retaining means for the purpose of preventing shifting of containers or batteries. For the purposes of this section a false floor or platform, secured against relative motion within the body of the motor vehicle, shall be deemed to be a floor. (For recommendations for handling leaking or broken packages, see section 828 (d) (1).)

(f) (3) Storage batteries. In addition to the requirements set forth in section 824 (f) (2), all storage batteries containing any electrolyte shall be so loaded, if loaded with other lading, that all such batteries will be protected against other lading falling onto or against them; and adequate means shall be provided in all cases for the protection and insulation of battery terminals against short circuits. When any such electric storage batteries are loaded more than one tier high, adequate provision shall be made for the support of each tier of such batteries. No such support for any tier of electric storage batteries will be deemed to be adequate when any part of the weight of the batteries in such tier is transmitted to any other batteries.

Compressed Gases

(g) (1) (See also section 824 (a) (1) to (a) (11)) Floors or platforms essentially flat. Cylinders containing compressed gases shall not be loaded onto any part of the floor or platform of any motor vehicle which is not essentially flat; cylinders containing compressed gases may be loaded onto any motor vehicle not having a floor or platform only if such motor vehicle be equipped with suitable racks having adequate means for securing such cylinders in place therein. Nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to prohibit the loading of such cylinders on any motor vehicle having a floor or platform and racks as hereinbefore described.

(g) (2) Cylinders horizontal. Cylinders containing compressed gases shall be loaded in a horizontal position unless packed in boxes or crates of such dimensions as to prevent their overturning, or unless loaded into racks securely attached to the motor vehicle, or unless so securely lashed in an upright position as to prevent their overturning.

(g) (3) Tanks complying with specification 106A500 containing sulfur dioxide or dichlorodifluoromethane may be transported on trucks or semi-trailers only, when securely chocked or clamped thereon to prevent shifting, and provided adequate facilities are present for handling tanks where transfer in transit is necessary.

The term "tanks" as here used means the commonly known one-ton containers, and no transportation therein is authorized except to and from rail cars, and then only in connection with tank car shipments by rail, to be handled in conformity with section 560 (b) (2) of current regulations governing rail freight shipments.

(g) (4) Engine to be stopped in tank motor vehicles, except for transfer pump. No inflammable compressed gas shall be loaded into or on or unloaded from any tank motor vehicle with the engine running unless the engine is used for the operation of the transfer pump of the vehicle. Unless the delivery hose is spread of such compounds into the atmosphere by all means that are practicable; and no such loading or unloading shall be done near or adjacent to any place where there are or are likely to be, during the loading or unloading process, assemblages of persons other than those engaged in the loading or unloading process, or upon any public highway or in any public place.

(h) (2) No class A or class C poisons in cargo tanks. No dangerous poison, class A, or any tear gas or irritating substance, class C, may be loaded into or transported in any cargo tank.

(h) (3) Class A or class C poisons. It shall not be permissible to transport class A or class C poisons if there be any interconnecting means of any character between the containers.

equipped with a shut-off valve at its discharge end, the engine of the motor vehicle shall be stopped at the finish of such loading or unloading operation while the filling or discharge connections are disconnected.

Poisons

(h) (1) (See also section 824 (a) (1) to (a) (11)) Arsenical compounds in bulk. Care shall be exercised in the loading and unloading of "arsenical dust," "arsenic trioxide," and "sodium arsenate," allowable to be loaded into sift-proof, steel hopper-type or dump-type motor-vehicle bodies equipped with waterproof, dust-proof covers well secured in place on all openings to accomplish such loading with the minimum

Vehicles and Shipments in Transit; Accidents

[See sec. 807 for emergency shipments.]

826. (a) No unnecessary delay in movement of shipments. All shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles shall be transported without unnecessary delay, from and including the time of commencement of the loading of the cargo until its final discharge at destination.

(b) Delivery at destination. Shipments of explosives and other dangerous articles which are refused by the consignees, or which can not be delivered within 48 hours after arrival at destination, must be promptly disposed of (1) by return to the shipper, if in proper shipping condition, or (2) by storage, provided a suitable storage place for such articles is available, or (3) by sale, or (4) when necessary to safety, by destruction: Provided, That charged electric batteries may be held for 30 days after arrival at destination, pending delivery or disposition.

(c) Delivery to authorized person, or magazine. Every shipment of dangerous explosives by motor vehicle shall be delivered only to someone authorized to receive it, except such explosives shipments as are placed in magazines which are immediately thereafter locked.

Disabled Vehicles and Broken or Leaking Packages; Repairs

827. (a) (See also Forbidden Articles, section 821) Care of lading explosives or other dangerous articles. In the event of disablement of a motor vehicle transporting any explosive or other dangerous article, special care shall be taken to guard the vehicle and its load or to take such steps as may be necessary to provide against hazard. Special effort shall be made to remove the motor vehicle to a place where the hazards of the materials being transported may be provided against.

(b) Disposition of containers found broken or leaking in transit. When leaks occur in packages or containers during the course of transportation, subsequent to initial loading, disposition of such package or container shall be made by the safest practical means afforded under section 827 (c), (d) and (e).

(c) Repairing packages. Packages may be repaired when safe and practicable, such repairing to be in accordance with the best and safest practice known and available.

(d) (1) Transportation of repaired packages. Any package repaired in accordance with the requirements of section 827 (c), except as provided in sections 828 (a) (3), 828 (b) (3) and 828 (d) (2), may be transported to the nearest place at which it may safely be disposed of only in compliance with the following requirements:

(d) (2) The package must be safe for transportation.

(d) (3) The repair of the package must be adequate to prevent contamination of or hazardous admixture with other lading transported on the same motor vehicle therewith.

(d) (4) If the carrier is not himself the shipper, the consignee's name and address must be plainly marked on the repaired package.

(e) Disposition of unsafe broken packages. In the event any leaking package or container cannot be safely and adequately repaired for transportation or transported, it shall be stored pending proper disposition in the safest and most expeditious manner possible.

(f) (1) Disabled vehicles; other dangerous articles. Whenever any motor vehicle transporting inflammable liquids, inflammable solids, oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, compressed gases, or poisons, is disabled upon the traveled portion of any highway, or a shoulder next thereto, the following requirements shall be complied with during the period of such stop:

(f) (2) For motor vehicles other than cargo tanks, flares (pot torches), fusees, red electric lanterns, and flags shall be displayed as required under rules 2.23 and 2.24 Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, Part 2.

(f) (3) For tank motor vehicles used for the transportation of inflammable liquids or inflammable compressed gases, whether loaded or empty, red electric lanterns and flags shall be displayed as required in rules 2.232 and 2.234 and under rule 2.24 of Part 2 of Motor Carrier Safety Regulations.

(g) Repairs to disabled vehicles. No repairs shall be made on any motor vehicle containing explosives or other dangerous articles except in case such repairs may be made without hazard; nor shall any such loaded motor vehicle be repaired in a closed garage.

Accidents—Explosives

828. (a) (1) Vehicle disabled; warning of nearby persons; removal of explosives. In the event of an accident involving any motor vehicle transporting any explosive, every available means shall be employed to prevent individuals, other than those employed in the protection of persons or property or in the removal of hazards or wreckage, from congregating in the vicinity; such means shall also be employed to prevent smoking, to keep flame away, and to safeguard against the aggravation of the hazard present, and to warn other users of the highway. In the event that any motor vehicle laden with or carrying dangerous explosives is entangled with another or with any other object or structure, following an accident, no attempt shall be made to disentangle either vehicle, or the laden vehicle from the object or structure, until the lading, together with any fragments thereof, be removed to a place at least 200 feet from the vehicle (and preferably 200 feet from any habitation). In the event of fire, involving a motor vehicle laden with any explosive, every practicable effort shall be made to give warning of danger of explosion to habitants in the vicinity and to other users of the highway.

(a) (2) Disposition of spilled or leaking explosives. In the event of any accident involving any motor vehicle transporting any explosive in which packages are broken, all unbroken packages and as much of any broken packages as possible shall be carefully gathered and removed to a place of safety, in order to prevent fire or explosion. In clearing any wreck in which a motor vehicle containing any explosive is involved, care shall be exercised not to produce sparks with tools or by other means in moving of or working about the wreckage, so as to avoid as far as possible fires or explosions.

(a) (3) Explosives packages in transit capable of repair. Any package of explosives found injured or broken in transit may be repaired or recoopered when this is evidently practicable and not dangerous. When a box that contains any explosive is so damaged that it cannot be repaired it should be reinforced by stout wrapping paper and twine, placed in another strong box, and surrounded by dry, fine sawdust, or dry and clean cotton waste, or elastic wads made from dry newspapers. The box cover should then be securely attached. A ruptured can or keg should be inclosed in a grain bag of good quality, and boxed. Injured packages thus protected, and properly marked with name of contents and consignee's name and address, may be carried to destination: Provided, however, That the motor carrier, if himself the shipper, need not mark his own name and address on the package.

(a) (4) Liquid nitroglycerin. When any liquid nitroglycerin has been spilled on any portion of any motor vehicle it shall be washed with a suitable neutralizing agent until all of any such spillage shall have become completely neutralized.

(a) (5) Explosives other than liquid nitroglycerin. When particles of any explosive composition other than liquid nitroglycerin have escaped from a damaged container to the floor of the body of the carrier's motor vehicle, the floor shall be thoroughly swept and any absorbed portion removed.

(a) (6) Unrepairable explosives packages. When any package of explosives in transit is found to be leaking or damaged and cannot be recoopered, it may not be transported beyond the minimum distance necessary to reach a place where the explosive may be disposed of with safety, except as provided in sections 827 (e) and 828 (a) (3).

Inflammable Liquids

(b) (1) Accident to vehicle; warnings; no sparks or flame. In the event of an accident involving any motor vehicle transporting any inflammable liquid every available means shall be employed to prevent individuals, other than those employed in the protection of persons or property or in the removal of hazards or wreckage, from congregating in the vicinity; such means shall also be employed to prevent smoking, to keep fires or flame away, to safeguard against the hazard present, and to warn other users of the highway. (See also section 814 (800).)

(b) (2) Prevent leakage from spreading. Whenever any inflammable liquid is escaping from a container, all practical means shall be taken to prevent such liquid from spreading over a wide area, from flowing into sewers and streams, and from becoming ignited.

(b) (3) Disposition of contents of cargo tank when unsafe to continue. In the event of a leak in a cargo tank of such a character as to make further transportation unsafe, the leaking vehicle should be removed from the traveled portion of the highway; and every available means employed for the safe disposal of the leaking liquid by preventing, so far as practicable, its spread over a wide area, such as by digging trenches to drain to a hole or depression in the ground, diverting the liquid away from streams or sewers if possible, or catching the liquid in containers if practicable. Smoking and the lighting of cigarettes, cigars, or pipes in the vicinity is prohibited, and fires or flames in the vicinity of the leaking cargo tank must be extinguished.

(b) (4) Transfer of inflammable liquids en route. No inflammable liquid shall be transferred from one container to another, or from one motor vehicle to another vehicle, or from another vehicle to a motor vehicle, on any public highway, street, or road, except in case of emergency. In such cases red electric lanterns or flags shall be set out in the manner prescribed for disabled or stopped motor vehicles in Motor Carrier Safety Regulations. In any event, all practicable means, in addition to those hereinbefore prescribed, shall be taken to protect and warn other users of the highway against the hazard involved in any such transfer, or against the hazard occasioned by the emergency making such transfer necessary. Nothing contained in this rule shall be so construed as to prohibit the fueling of machinery or vehicles used in road construction and maintenance.

(b) (5) Transportation of leaking cargo tanks. A leaking cargo tank may only be transported the minimum distance necessary to reach a place where the contents of the tank or compartment may be disposed of with safety. Every available means must be utilized to prevent the leakage or spillage of the liquid upon the highway.

Inflammable Solids and Oxidizing Materials

(c) (1) Dangerous articles spilled; warning of nearby persons. In the event of any accident involving any motor vehicle in which any inflammable solid or oxidizing material may have become spilled, every practicable and available means shall be taken to warn all approaching persons of the hazard of fire.

(c) (2) Prevent spread of fire where possible. Care shall be exercised in the event of damage to packages of inflammable solids or oxidizing materials which either have been or may be on fire, to limit the spread of the fire.

(c) (3) Disposition of spilled or leaking materials. In the event of any accident involving any motor vehicle transporting any inflammable solid or oxidizing material in which packages are broken, as much as possible of any broken packages shall be carefully gathered and removed to a place of safety, and if the removal of unbroken packages from the motor vehicle would decrease the hazard of fire or other hazard, they shall be removed. The handling of any such materials not contained in packages shall be such as to promote the greatest safety to other users of the highway.

(c) (4) Reloading of damaged packages of matches; repairs. In the event of damage to matches or packages of matches by fire or by water in extinguishing a fire in transit, they shall be reloaded in accordance with the applicable requirements for the packing and loading of matches. Great care shall be taken, however, first to examine and repair any damage to outside containers before reloading, and all loose matches shall be destroyed. Smoking boxes of matches shall not be opened in the vicinity of the remainder of the lading. Such boxes shall be destroyed at a safe distance from the motor vehicle, preferably by burning, and shall not be left, either smoking or burning.

Corrosive Liquids

(d) (1) Accident to vehicle; other lading damaged; vehicle washed. In the event of any accident involving any motor vehicle transporting corrosive liquids in which has been involved the breakage, spillage, or leakage of containers of such liquids, care shall be exercised in the handling of any other lading which may have become damaged thereby so as to minimize the hazard in handling such damaged lading during the unloading process; and the interior of any other parts of the motor vehicle upon which the corrosive liquid may have become spilled shall be thoroughly washed with water as soon after the unloading process as feasible and prior, in any event, to the subsequent reloading of the motor vehicle. (See also section 814 (800).)

(d) (2) (a) Leaking cargo tanks. In the event of leakage of liquid from any cargo tank or any compartment thereof used for the transportation of corrosive liquids, which develops or is discovered subsequent to the commencement of transportation, any one of the following means, or any means in addition to those herein prescribed, equally or more effective, shall be employed to minimize further hazard:

(d) (2) (b) Further to transport the cargo tank only the minimum distance to reach a place where the contents of the tank or compartment which is leaking may be disposed of with safety, meanwhile employing every available means to prevent the spillage or leaking of any liquid on the highway.

(d) (2) (c) In the event the leak is of such a character as to make further transportation of the cargo tank unsafe, to draw off the traveled portion of the highway, and to employ every available means for the safe disposal of the leaking liquid by preventing, so far as practicable, its spread over a wide area, as by absorbing by means of the use of noncombustible absorbent material, such as fine ashes, sand, earth, etc., or by any other practicable means; by digging trenches to drain to a hole or depression in the ground; by diverting the liquid away from streams or sewers if possible; or by catching the liquid in containers if practicable. So far as practicable, every available means shall be employed to prevent the congregation of spectators and to prevent them from coming in contact with the liquid or its fumes. All available means shall be taken to prevent injury or damage to other users of the highway, or to livestock or farm animals, which might be occasioned by the unloading of the corrosive liquid.

Compressed Gases

(e) (1) Accident to vehicle; warnings; keep fire away. In the event of an accident involving any motor vehicle transporting any compressed gas, the release of which would constitute a hazard to other users of the highway, due care shall be taken that only persons employed in the removal of hazards or wreckage shall be allowed in proximity to the motor vehicle, and the shipper should be notified. In such cases, every practicable and available means shall be taken to warn all approaching persons of the danger involved and to caution them against the use of matches or flame-producing devices, if the gas is inflammable.

(e) (2) Transfer of inflammable gas en route; no flame or sparks. No inflammable compressed gas shall be transferred from one container to another, or from one tank motor vehicle to another tank vehicle, or from another tank vehicle to a tank motor vehicle, on any public highway, street, or road, except in case of emergency. In such cases every precaution shall be taken to prevent the escape of gas. Red electric lanterns or flags shall be set out in the manner prescribed in Motor Carrier Safety Regulations. All cargo tanks involved in such transfer shall be grounded. The transfer shall be made only during daylight, unless the emergency occurs at night or extends into hours of darkness and the hazard would be increased by waiting until daylight. In any such event, all practicable means, in addition to those hereinbefore prescribed, shall be taken to protect and warn other users of the highway against the hazard involved in any such transfer, or against the hazard occasioned by the emergency making such transfer necessary. Every precaution shall be taken to prevent the ignition of any inflammable compressed gas from any source; and when it is possible to prevent the congregation of persons not directly concerned with the emergency, this shall be done. Every practicable precaution shall be taken to keep flames or fire away from the scene of the emergency and to prevent smoking or the lighting of pipes, cigars, or cigarettes. Similarly, special care shall be exercised in the operation of any engine, whether of the motor vehicles involved or any other, and where the operation of any such engine would be likely to produce ignition of the inflammable compressed gas, the transfer shall be accomplished by other means, if possible. Nothing contained in these regulations shall be so construed as to prohibit the fueling of machinery or vehicles used in road construction and maintenance.

Poisons

(f) (1) Accident to vehicle; warnings; no sparks or flame. In the event of an accident involving any motor vehicle transporting any poison which is inflammable, noxious, or toxic, every available means shall be employed in the protection of persons or property or in the removal of hazards or wreckage, from congregating in the vicinity; such means shall also be employed to prevent smoking, to keep flame away, to safeguard against the aggravation of the hazard present, and to warn other users of the highway. Care shall also be taken to prevent any poison, whether inflammable or noninflammable, from contaminating streams or flowing or being spilled into sewers, and poison in powdered form from being scattered by wind. (See also section 814 (800).)

(f) (2) Leaking cargo tanks. In the event of leakage of liquid from any cargo tank or any compartment thereof used for the transportation of any poison which is also inflammable, or which would come also within the definition of an inflammable liquid, or of any gas or combination of gas and liquid, or any poison which would come within the definition of a compressed gas, the requirements shall be the same as those set forth for inflammable liquids and compressed gases. In addition, all possible care shall be taken to warn bystanders or other users of the highway against the hazard of inhaling vapors or coming in contact with the poison.

Regulations Applying to Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles on Motor Vehicles Carrying Passengers for Hire

850. (a) Vehicles transporting passengers and property. In addition to the foregoing regulations, the following requirements shall apply to vehicles transporting passengers and property.

(b) No explosives or other dangerous articles on passenger-carrying vehicles, exceptions. No explosives or other dangerous articles except small-arms ammunition, emergency shipments of drugs, chemicals and hospital supplies, and the accompanying munitions of war of the Military and Naval forces, are authorized by these regulations to be transported on motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire where other practicable means of transportation is available.

(c) Explosives in passenger-carrying space forbidden. No explosive, except small-arms ammunition, may be carried in the passenger carrying space of any motor vehicle transporting passengers for hire.

(d) Explosives and other dangerous articles on passenger-carrying vehicles; quantity. Where no other practicable means of transportation is available the following articles in the quantities as shown may be transported in motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire in a space other than that provided for passengers: Not to exceed 100 pounds gross weight of any or all of the kinds of explosives permitted to be transported by rail express or rail baggage services, may be transported on a motor vehicle transporting passengers: Provided, however, That samples of explosives for laboratory examination, not exceeding a net weight of one-half pound each, and not exceeding 20 samples or not to exceed a total of 100 blasting caps at one time in a single motor vehicle, may be transported in a motor vehicle transporting passengers. (See Commodity List, column 5.)

(e) Articles other than explosives on passenger-carrying vehicles. The gross weight of any given class of dangerous article other than explosives shall not exceed 100 pounds, and the aggregate weight of all such other dangerous articles shall not exceed 500 pounds. This provision does not apply to nontoxic noninflammable refrigerants, when such refrigerant is for servicing operations of a motor carrier on whose motor vehicles the refrigerant is used. A cylinder secured against movement while in transit and not exceeding 250 pounds gross weight may be transported.

(f) Poisons on passenger-carrying vehicles. No motor carrier may transport any extremely dangerous poison, class A, any tear gas or irritating substance, class C, any less dangerous poison, class B, which is a liquid, or any paranitraniline, in any amount, in or on any bus while engaged in the transportation of passengers; or any less dangerous poison, class B, which is other than a liquid, in any amount exceeding an aggregate of 100 pounds gross weight in or on any such bus.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendants and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendants; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

No. 5, Somerset, Pennsylvania, during the period of October 1, 1940 to December 31, 1940, both dates inclusive, (a) sold a substantial quantity of mine run coal, Size Group 3, produced at their Burk and Williams Mine (Mine Index No. 2298), located in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, Subdistrict 37 of District No. 1 to various persons at prices of approximately $1.75 to $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. the mine for truck shipment, whereas the applicable minimum price for said coal was $2.40 per net ton f. o. b. the mine as set forth in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 for Truck Shipment, and (b) sold a substantial quantity of 1½" screenings, Size Group 4, produced at the aforesaid mine to various persons at a price of $2.00 per net ton f. o. b. said mine for which coal no price was listed in the above-named schedule and therefore such size should have been priced at the price and classification applicable to Size Group 3, the next largest size, or $2.40 per net ton f. o. b. said mine as set forth and required in Price Instruction No. 4 of the above-mentioned schedule, and (c) failed to report the change in method of mining or preparation of coal produced at said mine, said change being from run of mine to 1½" screenings, in violation of Order No. 288 dated December 8, 1939. The sales of coal hereinabove described were in violation of section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code and to the pertinent sections of the Act, the Code, and orders, rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

[Docket No. A-1102]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 7 FOR THE REVISION IN SIZE GROUP NO. 1 OF THE PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES ESTABLISHED FOR THE COALS OF THE SEMOCO MINE (MINE INDEX NO. 164) OF SHOCKLEY CREEK COAL COMPANY, A CODE MEMBER IN DISTRICT 7

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

This proceeding was instituted upon petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 7, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests that the effective price classification and minimum prices established for the coal in Size Group 1 produced at the Semoco Mine (Mine Index No. 164) of Shockley Creek Coal Company, a code member in District 7, be reduced from "B" to "D" for all shipments except truck. The petition contained a prayer for temporary relief.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on November 24, 1941 before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The petitioner appeared. At the conclusion of the hearing, the petitioner renewed its request for temporary relief.

Evidence was presented on behalf of the petitioner to the following effect: The Semoco Mine of the Shockley Creek Coal Company is operating in the Sewell Seam in the Winding Gulf Subdistrict of District 7 from which extremely friable coal is produced. The mine has two loading tracks and can produce only two sizes of coal simultaneously. Prior to the suspension of operations in April 1941, most of the coal produced at the mine was mine run, either domestic or straight, and resultant screenings. After closing in April, operations were not resumed at the mine until July 1941, after a contract had been entered into by the producer with the New England Coal & Coke Company to supply it with 2,500 tons of 1¼" screenings per month. In producing 1¼" screenings, the mine also produces 1¼" lump (Size Group 1). In order for the mine to supply the screenings under its contract, it must be able to market its lump coal. From the latter part of July to the first of September 1941 the lump coal was shipped to inland markets, but owing to the excessive friability of the coal and its consequent degredation in transit, complaints were received from many purchasers, some of whom requested adjustments, with the result that the inland markets were lost. The price at which the coal was shipped inland was $3.00 per ton, which, considering the seasonal discounts, was slightly above the established minimum price. However, Shockley has since been able to sell only one car of lump coal inland, at the established minimum price of $3.05 per ton.

It was further stated that during September and October 1941 the producer sold the lump coal in the tidewater market for export and bunker fuel at $2.50 and $2.55 per ton, thus enabling it to produce sufficient screenings to fulfill its contract requirements for those months. The producer feels that the tidewater market is uncertain and that it was fortunate is being able to ship its lump coal to this market during September and October but anticipates that, unless temporary relief is granted, it may not have a market for the lump coal during November and succeeding months and, therefore, will be unable to supply screenings in accordance with its contract. The producer is of the opinion that it will be able to sell the lump coal inland at the requested minimum price of $2.80 per ton.

Further evidence was presented by the petitioner to indicate that the lump coal produced at the Semoco Mine is more nearly comparable in size stability and in slack and ash content to the coals of District 7 which have a "D" classification for this size than it is to the coals of that district with which it is presently classified.

John A. Luse, executive secretary of District Board 7, expressed the belief that both the market history and the structural quality of the Semoco Mine coal justifies the relief requested, and that to grant this relief would not disturb the competitive opportunities of other producers. He stated that a copy of the petition had been served upon all other code members of the District and that no protests, either oral or written, have been received from any of them.

The undersigned is of the opinion that the petitioner has made a reasonable showing of the necessity for the granting of the temporary relief prayed for in the petition, and that no adequate showing has been made that the granting of such relief will prejudice other producers.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That, pending final disposition of the petition herein, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 7 for All Shipments Except Truck be, and it hereby is, temporarily amended by reducing the classification established for the Size Group 1 coal produced at the Semoco Mine (Mine Index No. 164) of the Shockley Creek Coal Co. from "B" to "D".

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to Section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to constitute an expression of opinion regarding the granting of final or permanent relief in this proceeding.

[Docket No. A-1129]

PETITION OF SOMERSET RETAIL COAL DEALER'S ASSOCIATION AND THE CODE MEMBERS REPRESENTED BY IT FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MINIMUM PRICES BASED UPON TRUCK TRANSPORTATION CHARGES FOR TRUCK SHIPMENT IN SOMERSET TOWNSHIP, SOMERSET COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING TEMPORARY RELIEF

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by the Somerset Retail Coal Dealer's Association (the "Association") on behalf of ten code members in District 1 represented by it, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The petition requests the establishment of reasonable truck transportation charges for the delivery of coal to Somerset Township (the "Township"), Somerset County, Pennsylvania, in District 1.

Pursuant to the request for temporary relief, an informal conference was held on November 6, 1941, in accordance with § 301.106 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, upon notice to the petitioner, the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel ("Consumers' Counsel") and District Boards 1, 2 and 3. Represented at the conference were the petitioner, the Consumers' Counsel, and District Boards 1 and 2, all of whom were afforded full opportunity to express their views.

The basis of petitioner's request for relief as shown by the representations made on its behalf at the conference is as follows: The Somerset Retail Coal Dealer's Association is composed of some ten producers in District 1 who sell coal in Somerset Township and of certain independent truckers who deliver coal to this township. In the past, coal has been delivered into Somerset Township at various prices, and in some instances, at practically the same prices that are established for the coal f. o. b. the mine. The Association was organized in September 1941, and its members agreed on a price at which they would deliver their coal to Somerset Township. At the present time, however, coal is being delivered into the township by other producers, or by independent truckers, who do not add proper transportation charges to the f. o. b. mine prices as provided in Price Instruction No. 6 of the District 1 Schedule for Truck Shipments. The failure of the other producers to comply with the price instruction has resulted in loss of business to the members of the Association. The petitioner requests that the Division remedy this condition by the establishment of a minimum truck transportation charge of $1.00 per ton for all coal sold and delivered into the Township. The members of the Association feel that the average cost of the various producers in transporting coal to the Township would be $1.00 per ton.

A representative of District Board 1 expressed the opinion that the temporary relief requested was proper, although admitting that no exact figures were given by which reasonable trucking costs for deliveries to the Township could be determined. Consumers' Counsel opposed the granting of the relief on the grounds that there was no adequate showing of the necessity for such relief and that the statements made on petitioner's behalf do not warrant the granting of any relief.

After considering the representations made at the conference, the Acting Director is of the opinion that no adequate showing has been made of the necessity for the granting of the temporary relief requested. Moreover, the record contains no definite statements of fact regarding the location of the producers shipping coal to the Township, the exact distances over which the coal is trucked, and the costs of making the deliveries. It further appears that the members of the Association constitute only a small percentage of the producers who sell coal in the Township and that the other producers delivering coal into this area were not notified of the informal conference, although they would be vitally affected if the requested relief were granted. In view of these facts, the Acting Director is of the opinion that the request for temporary relief should be denied.

Accordingly, it is so ordered.

[Docket No. A-804]

PETITION OF C. W. DOBBS (MINE INDEX NO. 2474) A PRODUCER IN DISTRICT NO. 8, FOR A REDUCTION OF EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR TRUCK SHIPMENT TO MARKET AREA NO. 101

ORDER APPROVING AND ADOPTING PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW OF THE EXAMINER AND DENYING RELIEF

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by C. W. Dobbs, a code member in District 8, operator of the Dobbs Mine (Mine Index No. 2474), seeking a reduction in the effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices on his mine run coal from $2.20 to $1.70 per ton for shipment by truck to the Belle Alkali Company of Belle, West Virginia.

Pursuant to an order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before Scott A. Dahlquist, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered on behalf of the petitioner and District Board No. 8.

The Examiner on October 28, 1941, submitted his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations, recommending that the relief requested herein be denied. He found that, while it appears that the petitioner's business with the Belle Alkali Company has fallen off sharply since the incidence of effective minimum prices, the evidence did not show that this has been due to the improper coordination of petitioner's coals with those of his competitors. He also found that the evidence did not indicate that the coals sold by his competitors, the Kanawha By-Products Coal Company and the Garbett Coal Company, had displaced the petitioner's business in any way. The latter company has been temporarily granted an f. o. b. mine price of $1.70 (the price sought by the petitioner) on its mine run coal for shipment to Belle Alkali Company at Belle, West Virginia.[1] But the Examiner found no evidence to indicate that the Garbett Coal Company has been using its $1.70 price. However, he did find that the petitioner has sold his mine run coals at prices above the effective minimum prices.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations of the Examiner and supporting briefs. No exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

[1] See Order of the Director Granting Temporary Relief, dated January 15, 1941, in Docket No. A-534.

The undersigned has determined that the Proposed Findings of Fact, and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner in this matter should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That the prayers for relief contained in the petition filed herein be, and they hereby are, denied.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 59-39]

IN THE MATTER OF NORTH AMERICAN LIGHT & POWER COMPANY HOLDING-COMPANY SYSTEM, AND, THE NORTH AMERICAN COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1941.

The Commission having examined the Report of its Public Utilities Division dated November 17, 1941, with respect to the applicability of section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 to the North American Light & Power Company holding-company system, said Report having been filed herewith and by this reference thereto made a part of this order; and

It appearing to the Commission on the basis of said Report that there are reasonable grounds to believe that:

1. The corporate structure and continued existence of North American Light & Power Company unduly and unnecessarily complicate the structure and unfairly and inequitably distribute voting power among the security holders of the holding-company system of which it is a part;

2. North American Light & Power Company and Illinois Traction Company, registered holding companies, each have a subsidiary company which itself has a subsidiary company which is a holding company;

3. The continued existence of Illinois Traction Company unduly and unnecessarily complicates the structure of the holding-company system of which it is a part;

4. The reserves for retirements and depreciation of plant and property owned by Missouri Power & Light Company and The Kansas Power and Light Company are inadequate.

It therefore appearing to the Commission on the basis of its examination as aforesaid, that proceedings should be instituted under sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of said Act with respect to said holding-company system to determine whether the facts are as stated in said Report, whether the conclusions contained in said Report should be adopted, modified or rejected, in whole or in part, by an appropriate order or orders entered pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) and other sections of the Act; and in all other respects to determine whether and what steps should be required to be taken by each of the companies constituting said North American Light & Power Company holding-company system to ensure that the corporate structure or continued existence of any company in the said holding-company system does not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure of said holding-company system, or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among the security holders of said holding-company system.

It is ordered, That a hearing shall be held at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., at 10:00 A. M. on the 22d day of December 1941 in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing room clerk in room 1102; and that North American Light & Power Company, each of its following subsidiaries: The Kansas Power and Light Company, Missouri Power & Light Company, The Blue River Power Company, Illinois Traction Company, Northern Natural Gas Company, Argus Natural Gas Company, Inc., Peoples Natural Gas Company, Kewanee Public Service Company, Cahokia Manufacturers Gas Company, Western Illinois Ice Company, Illinois Iowa Power Company, The McPherson Oil & Gas Development Company and Power & Light Securities Company, and The North American Company, be and hereby are made Respondents herein.

It is further ordered, That at such hearing the Respondents and any other parties in interest shall be given an opportunity to be heard with respect to the accuracy of the alleged statements of fact contained in the aforesaid Report of the Public Utilities Division dated November 17, 1941, and said Respondents and all such persons shall have an opportunity and are invited to state at that time any differences which they may have with respect to any of the conclusions contained in said Report.

It is further ordered, That at such hearing, without limiting the scope of issues presented by this notice of and order for hearing, the following matters shall be determined:

(1) Whether an order should be entered requiring the winding up of North American Light & Power Company or Illinois Traction Company or both, and the distribution of their assets to their security-holders in accordance with a fair and equitable plan.

(2) The extent to which The North American Company shall participate in any such distribution of the assets of North American Light & Power Company, if such distribution be ordered.

(3) Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to require that Missouri Power & Light Company or The Kansas Power and Light Company, or both, restate their respective depreciation, retirement, surplus, or other accounts, pursuant to sections 15 (f) and 20 (a) of said Act.

(4) What steps, if any, the said Respondents should be required to take to revise and simplify the corporate structures of said companies (except The North American Company and Illinois Iowa Power Company) to effectuate the requirements of section 11 (b) (2) of said Act.

It is further ordered, That in the interest of expeditious procedure all evidence with respect to North American Light & Power Company and the subsidiaries thereof contained in the record of the proceedings entitled "In the Matter of The North American Company, et al., File No. 59-10)" shall be incorporated in the record of the proceeding herein ordered, and shall be regarded as evidence adduced in the present proceedings subject to the same objections and exceptions preserved in the record of the proceeding in which first introduced: And provided, however, That the Respondents or any of them may move to strike such evidence from this record, and may move for leave to introduce other evidence in order to explain or modify such evidence.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of this hearing by mailing a copy of this order, together with a copy of said Report of the Public Utilities Division dated November 17, 1941, by registered mail to each of the Respondents herein not less than fifteen days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date for the hearing; and that notice of said hearing is hereby given to all security holders of the said Respondents, to all consumers served by said Respondents, to all states, municipalities and political subdivisions of states within which are located any of the utility assets of the said North American Light & Power Company holding-company system, to all state commissions, state securities commissions and all agencies, authorities or instrumentalities of the United States, one or more states, municipalities or other political subdivisions having jurisdiction over the said Respondents, and to all other persons, such notice to be given by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than fifteen days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of the hearing; and

It is further ordered, That any person proposing to intervene in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before the 16th day of December 1941, his application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice; and

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition in whole or in part, any of the issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate these proceedings or any portion thereof with the proceedings heretofore instituted under section 11 (b) (1) of said Act with respect to the aforesaid The North American Company and under section 11 (b) (2) of said Act with respect to Illinois Iowa Power Company, and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economic disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, That the said Respondents may file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before December 16, 1941 their joint or several answers admitting, denying or otherwise replying to the allegations heretofore made in paragraphs (1) to (4) of this order and to the facts and conclusions stated in the aforesaid Report of the Public Utilities Division dated November 17, 1941. The answer of any Respondent may include a statement as to what action such Respondent proposes to take in order to comply with the requirements of section 11 (b) (2) of said Act and the time within which it proposes to take such action.

By the Commission.

PART 989—DOMESTIC MECHANICAL REFRIGERATORS

Supplementary General Limitation Order L–5–a Further Restricting the Production of Domestic Mechanical Refrigerators

In accordance with the provisions of § 989.1 (General limitation order L–5 [2])

[1] 6 F.R. 4732, 5676.
[2] 6 F.R. 5008.

which the following order supplements, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 989.2 Supplementary general limitation order L–5–a—(a) January and February restrictions. During the two months period commencing January 1, 1942, and ending February 28, 1942,

(1) Except as provided in paragraph 4, no Class A manufacturer shall produce more domestic mechanical refrigerators per month than the greater of the following two limits:

(i) 9,600 such refrigerators, or

(ii) 48% of the monthly average of his factory sales of such refrigerators for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph 4, no Class B manufacturer shall produce more domestic mechanical refrigerators per month than the greater of the following two limits:

(i) 3,500 such refrigerators, or

(ii) 60% of the monthly average of his factory sales of such refrigerators for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph 4, no Class C manufacturer shall produce more domestic mechanical refrigerators per month than 70% of the monthly average of his factory sales of such refrigerators for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(4) In lieu of determining his quota under paragraph (1), (2), or (3), any Class "A", "B", or "C" manufacturer who so elects may determine his January or February quota by applying the above-mentioned percentages (48% for Class "A", 60% for Class "B", 70% for Class "C") to a base period figure determined as follows: The manufacturer shall ascertain the percentage of Factory Sales for the entire domestic mechanical refrigerator industry accounted for by him during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941; during the twelve months ending June 30, 1940; and during the twelve months ending June 30, 1939. (Factory Sales for the entire domestic mechanical refrigerator industry for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, were 3,702,594; for the twelve months ending June 30, 1940, 2,656,156; for the twelve months ending June 30, 1939, 2,026,840.) The three percentage figures so arrived at shall then be averaged. The average percentage thus determined shall be multiplied by the monthly average of Factory Sales for the entire domestic mechanical refrigerator industry for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941. The resultant figure is the base period figure for the individual manufacturer.

(b) Advanced use of quotas. Manufacturers may exceed production quotas of domestic mechanical refrigerators for the five months' period from August 1 to December 31 and for the month of January under the following conditions and in accordance with the following terms:

(1) During the month of November, any manufacturer whose unproduced remaining quota, as of November 1, is less than 10% of his total quota for such five months' period may increase his production for November to an amount equal to 10% of his quota for such five months' period provided he reduces the sum of his quotas for January and February by an amount equal to the amount of such increase.

(2) During the month of December, any manufacturer whose unproduced remaining quota, as of December 1, is less than 10% of his total quota for such five months' period may increase his production for December to an amount equal to 10% of his quota for such five months' period provided he reduces the sum of his quotas for January and February by an amount equal to the amount of such increase.

(3) During the month of January, any manufacturer whose unproduced January quota, after reductions corresponding to increases in quotas made under paragraphs (1) or (2) hereof, is less than 50% of his total quota for January, as set forth in section (a) hereof, may increase his production for January to an amount equal to 50% of his quota for such month, provided he reduces his February quota by an amount equal to the amount of such increase.

This order shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, Aug. 27, 1941, 6 F.R. 4489; O.P.M. Reg. 3, March 8, 1941, 6 F.R. 1596, as amended Sept. 12, 1941, 6 F.R. 4865; E.O. 8629, Jan. 7, 1941, 6 F.R. 191; E.O. 8875, Aug. 28, 1941, 6 F.R. 4483; sec. 2 (a), Public No. 671, 76th Congress, Third Session, as amended by Public No. 89, 77th Congress, First Session; sec. 9, Public No. 783, 76th Congress, Third Session)

FORM OF NOTICE FOR COTTON MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

Notice is hereby given that, in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Holding of Referenda on Marketing Quotas, MQ-650, issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on October 31, 1941,[1] the Secretary of Agriculture, on October 31, 1941, prescribed the following notice of the referendum of cotton producers to be held on December 13, 1941:

[1] 6 F.R. 5616.

[Post a copy of this notice at one or more public places within each community at least 10 days in advance of the date of the referendum.]

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

NOTICE

Cotton Marketing Quota Referendum

In view of the fact that the Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States on October 28, 1941, determined and proclaimed, pursuant to the provisions of section 345 of the Act of Congress known as the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, that the total supply of cotton for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1941, exceeds by more than 7 percent the normal supply [2] thereof for such marketing year, a referendum, by secret ballot, of farmers who were engaged in the production of cotton in 1941, will be held on December 13, 1941, pursuant to section 347 of said Act and in accordance with the referendum regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, to determine whether they favor or oppose cotton marketing quotas on the 1942 cotton crop.

If two-thirds or more of the cotton farmers voting in the referendum favor cotton marketing quotas, the cotton marketing quotas established pursuant to the provisions of said Act will be in effect for the 1942 cotton crop. If more than one-third of the cotton farmers voting in the referendum oppose the cotton marketing quotas, the quotas will not be in effect in 1942.

Eligibility to Vote

1. Farmers who were engaged in the production of cotton in 1941 as owner-operator, cash tenant, standing-rent or fixed-rent tenant, or landlord of a share tenant, or as share tenant or sharecropper are eligible to vote (except as provided in paragraph 2 below).

2. Since the Act provides that marketing quotas are not applicable to cotton the staple of which is 1⅛ inches or more in length, a person who was engaged in the production of such cotton in 1941 shall not be eligible to vote unless he was also engaged in the production of cotton in 1941 the staple of which was less than 1⅛ inches in length.

3. No cotton farmer (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, firm, association, or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in the referendum, even though he may have been engaged in 1941 in the production of cotton on two or more farms or in two or more communities, counties, or States.

4. In case several persons, such as husband, wife, and children, participated in the production of cotton in 1941, under the same rental or cropping agreement or lease, only the person or persons who signed or entered into the rental or cropping agreement or lease shall be eligible to vote.

5. In the event two or more persons engaged in producing cotton in 1941 not as members of a partnership but as tenants in common or joint tenants or as owners of community property, each such person is entitled to vote.

6. There shall be no voting by proxy, or agent, or in any manner except the eligible voter personally depositing his ballot marked by him in the ballot box, but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, firm, association, or other legal entity, or duly authorized member of a partnership, may cast its vote. There shall be no voting by mail except that any eligible farmer who will not be present in the county in which he was engaged in the production of cotton in 1941 on the day of the referendum may obtain a ballot in the county in which he is located and cast his ballot by mailing it to the county office of the county in which he was a cotton producer in 1941 in time to reach that office before the polls are closed.

Place for Balloting

The place for voting in the referendum in the ---------- community will be ----------.

Time

The polls, in accordance with the regulations for holding the referendum, shall be opened promptly at ---- o'clock a. m. and closed promptly at ---- o'clock p. m. on Saturday, December 13, 1941, local standard time.

IN THE MATTER OF PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE COMPANY

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of December, A. D. 1941.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both), has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above-named party; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 20, 1941 at 1:00 P. M., E. S. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized below:

Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, hereinafter called "Panhandle," a subsidiary company of both Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and Columbia Oil & Gasoline Corporation, which is also a subsidiary of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, proposes to alter the basis upon which participating dividends on its Class A Preferred Stock, the entire issue consisting of 100,000 shares being owned by Columbia Oil & Gasoline Corporation, will be declared and paid during the year 1941.

Pursuant to the certificate of incorporation of Panhandle, as amended, such Class A Preferred Stock is entitled to receive in any one calendar year participating dividends after $1.50 per share shall have been paid on each share of common stock of Panhandle during such calendar year.

On September 29, 1941, the board of directors of Panhandle declared but withheld payment of a participating dividend in the sum of $201,841.75 on its Class A Preferred Stock, using as a basis a compromise figure of 25 cents per share on account of the dividend payable on the common stock instead of an original declaration of 42 cents, the par value of each share of the common stock of Central Distributing Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary, theretofore distributed as a dividend. On the basis of the original declaration of 42 cents per share, the participating dividend would be $247,592.55.

Panhandle requests than an order issue permitting the declaration to become effective prior to December 24, 1941 for the purpose of allowing Panhandle to complete the payment of dividends, as declared, prior to December 31, 1941, the end of Panhandle's fiscal year and considers the transaction to be an alteration of the rights of the holder of its Class A Preferred Stock, designating sections 6 (a) and 7 as applicable thereto.

[O-3-1]

PART 903—MILK IN THE ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, MARKETING AREA

AMENDMENT TO ORDER NO. 3 REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, MARKETING AREA

Paul H. Appleby, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, issued, effective December 1, 1940, Order No. 3, as amended,[2] regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area.

Paul H. Appleby, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, tentatively approved, on October 17, 1940, a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area.

[1] 2 F.R. 1832.
[2] 5 F.R. 4525.

There being reason to believe that the execution of amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, notice was given August 25, 1941, of a hearing[3] which was held in St. Louis, Missouri, on the 8th and 9th days of September 1941, at which time and place all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard upon a proposal to amend the order, as amended.

After such hearing handlers of more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk.

The requirements of sec. 8c (9) of the act have been complied with.

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the above-mentioned hearing, such findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the original hearings on the order and on amendments to the order, and being in addition to the other findings and determinations made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of the order and of amendments thereto (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

§ 903.0 Findings. 1. That the enlargement of the area included in the marketing area within which handlers are subject to the order is reasonable and necessary.

2. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to Sec. 2 and 8e, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 602, 608e are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in the amendments to this order are such prices

(2) Not later than the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, the uniform prices for handlers computed pursuant to § 903.7 (b) with the differentials applicable pursuant to § 903.8 (d).

F. Delete § 903.3 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 903.3 Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. Milk received by each handler from producers, from other handlers, and from his own production, shall be classified, subject to the conditions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section, in the classes set forth in paragraph (b) of this section:

(b) Classes of utilization. The classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk disposed of in the form of milk containing not less than one-half of 1 percent of butterfat and all milk not specifically accounted for as Class II milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk specifically accounted for (i) as being used or disposed of in any form other than as milk containing not less than one-half of 1 percent of butterfat, and (ii) as actual plant shrinkage, but not to exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers.

(c) Interhandler and nonhandler transfers of milk. Milk or skim milk received by a handler from another handler shall be classified as Class I milk, and cream so received shall be classified as Class II milk: Provided, That if a different classification is agreed upon in writing between the receiving handler and the selling handler and is submitted to the market administrator on or before the 5th day after the end of the delivery period, then the milk, skim milk or cream shall be classified according to such written agreement: And provided further, That the amount so reported in any class shall not be greater than the amount used in that class by the receiving handler.

Milk moved from a handler's plant to a nonhandler's plant from which no milk is disposed of for fluid consumption shall be Class II milk. Milk moved as fluid milk from a handler's plant to a nonhandler's plant from which fluid milk is distributed shall be Class I milk, except that any of this milk in excess of the amount of Class I milk, proved to the satisfaction of the market administrator to have been distributed by the nonhandler during the delivery period, shall be classified as Class II milk: And provided further, That all milk moved as fluid milk to plants more than 110 airline miles from the City Hall in St. Louis shall be classified as Class I milk. Milk disposed of from a handler's plant to retail establishments which dispose of milk for both fluid and other uses shall be Class I milk.

(d) Purchases of milk from persons who are handlers under other Federal milk agreements or orders. Milk approved by the proper health authorities for consumption as milk in the marketing area which has been received from a person who is a handler as defined under another Federal marketing agreement or order shall be deducted from each class in the proportion that the quantity of milk used in each class by the receiving handler bears to the total quantity of milk received by him, after excluding such handler's receipts of milk from other handlers.

(e) Computation of the volume of milk in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the hundredweight of milk in each class, as follows:

(1) To determine the total receipts of milk: Add into one sum the hundredweight of milk received from producers, including such handler's own production, from other handlers, and from persons described under paragraph (d) of this section.

(2) To determine the hundredweight of Class I milk: Convert to gallons the quantity of milk disposed of in the form of milk and multiply by 0.086: Provided, That there shall be added any excess of milk determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph over the Class I milk thus far determined, plus the hundredweight of Class II milk determined pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(3) To determine the hundredweight of Class II milk:

(i) Multiply the hundredweight of milk received, computed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, by its average butterfat test;

(ii) Multiply the hundredweight of Class I milk computed prior to the proviso in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph by its average butterfat test;

(iii) Subtract the hundredweight of Class I butterfat computed pursuant to (ii) of this subparagraph from the hundredweight of butterfat in milk received, as computed under (i) of this subparagraph;

(vi) Subtract the hundredweight of Class I milk, computed prior to the proviso in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, from the hundredweight of milk received, computed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(v) Divide the quantity of butterfat computed under (iii) of this subparagraph by the hundredweight of milk computed under (iv) of this subparagraph;

(vi) Multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test, and add together the resulting amounts;

(vii) Add to the sum obtained in (vi) of this subparagraph the amount which represents the butterfat loss by actual plant shrinkage, but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers multiplied by the average test of such milk; and

(viii) Divide the sum computed under (vii) of this subparagraph by the average test of Class II milk computed under (v) of this subparagraph, and divide the resulting amount by 100.

(4) To determine the classification of milk received from producers:

(i) Subtract from the hundredweight of milk in each class the hundredweight of milk received from other handlers and apportioned to each class in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section;

(ii) Subtract from the hundredweight of milk in each class a further amount computed in accordance with § 903.6; and

(iii) Subtract in the manner provided in paragraph (d) of this section the hundredweight of milk received from persons described under such paragraph.

G. Delete § 903.4 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 903.4 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Except as set forth in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section, each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 903.8 not less than the following prices per hundredweight of milk:

(2) Class II milk. The price for Class II milk shall be the average price per hundredweight, determined under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, plus the following amount per hundredweight:

Delivery Period and Amount in Dollars per Cwt.

April through June, 0.20; July through November, 0.30; December through March, 0.25.

Provided, That during the delivery periods of January through June the price of milk used by such handler for evaporated milk in hermetically sealed containers, or disposed of by such handler to the plant of any other person where such milk is manufactured into evaporated milk and placed in hermetically sealed containers, shall be the average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight determined for the plants listed in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(3) Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in determining the prices for Class I and Class II milk pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be the price resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: determine the arithmetic average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight, as reported to the United States Department of Agriculture, paid f. o. b. plant during the delivery period for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, to all farmers at each of the following plants for which prices are reported.

[Docket Nos. A-1105; A-1105, Part II]

PETITIONS OF DISTRICT BOARD 4 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 4, AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 2870, 306, 2907, 310, 4, AND 200, IN DISTRICT 4

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1105, GRANTING, IN PART, TEMPORARY RELIEF IN DOCKET NO. A-1105 PART II, AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1105 PART II

An original petition pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 was filed by District Board 4 in Docket No. A-1105 proposing price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines and proposing additional loading points for certain other mines in that district. In its petition the District Board proposed price classifications and minimum prices for shipment from more than one loading point for the coals of the mines listed in Supplement R attached hereto.[1] The District Board also proposed that the price classifications and minimum prices heretofore established for the coals of the Allen Mine (Mine Index No. 4) of Allen Coal Co. and the Jacobs Mine (Mine Index No. 200) of Pearl Jacobs be made applicable to shipments from additional loading points.

[1] Not filed as part of the original document.

No showing has been made to justify granting these mines permission to make rail shipments from more than one loading point. The Director, therefore, deems it appropriate that price classifications and minimum prices be established at this time for coals of the mines listed in Supplement R attached hereto for shipment from only one loading point and on only one railroad; that no relief be granted as to the Allen Mine (Mine Index No. 4) and the Jacobs Mine (Mine Index No. 200) preceding a hearing on this matter; and that a hearing be held to determine the propriety of granting permission to Mine Index Nos. 2870, 306, 2907, 310, 4, and 200 to make rail shipments from more than one loading point.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1105 relating to the mines listed in Supplement R attached hereto and to the mines specifically named above be severed from the remainder of the docket and that it be designated hereafter as Docket No. A-1105 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing be held under the applicable provisions of the Act and the rules of the Division on January 5, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Shipman or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before December 30, 1941.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

PETITIONS OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 4 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 4, AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 256, 1301, 1016, AND 1436, AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ADDITIONAL SHIPPING POINTS FOR COALS OF MINE INDEX NOS. 877, 938, AND 2739, IN DISTRICT NO. 4, FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1147 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1147, GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF IN DOCKET NO. A-1147 PART II, AND NOTICE OF AN ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1147 PART II

A petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was filed with this Division in Docket A-1147 for the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices, change of shipping points, and establishment of additional shipping points for coals of certain mines in District No. 4. As was found in an order issued in Docket No. A-1147 a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by petitioner except as to the coals of Mine Index Nos. 256, 1301, 1016, 1436, 877, 938, and 2739.

The petition proposes that price classifications and minimum prices be established for the coals of Mine Index Nos. 256, 1301, 1016, and 1436 for all shipments except truck. In addition, the original petition proposed that the price classifications and minimum prices effective:

(1) For the coals of Mine Index No. 877 of the Ebenezer Coal Company (M. F. Cannon) for all shipments except truck from Crooksville, Ohio, on New York Central Railroad shall also be applicable for such shipments from Roseville, Ohio, on Pennsylvania Railroad; and

(2) For the coals of Mine Index No. 938 of R. E. Wallace for all shipments except truck from Roseville, Ohio, on Pennsylvania Railroad shall be also applicable for such shipments from Crooksville, Ohio, on New York Central Railroad; and

(3) For the coals of Mine Index No. 2739 of W. A. Linton (Sewellsville Coal Company) from Freeport, Ohio, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad shall be also applicable for such shipments from Barnesville, Ohio, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

While it appears that an adequate showing has been made of the necessity for the granting of temporary relief for the coals of Mine Index Nos. 256, 1301, 1016 and 1436 for all shipments except truck from one shipping point, the Acting Director is of the opinion that the original petition does not set forth facts sufficient to warrant the establishment of the additional shipping points or the change of shipping points requested therein without a hearing.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1147 relating to the coals of Mine Index Nos. 256, 1301, 1016, 1436, 877, 938 and 2739 be, and the same hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1147 and designated as Docket No. A-1147 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 8, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Joseph A. Huston or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 3, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of interveners or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 4 to establish price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index Nos. 256, 1301, 1016 and 1436 for all shipments except truck from two or more shipping points and to make the price classifications and minimum prices effective:

(1) For the coals of Mine Index No. 877 for all shipments except truck from Crooksville, Ohio, on New York Central Railroad also applicable for such shipments from Roseville, Ohio, on Pennsylvania Railroad; and

(2) For the coals of Mine Index No. 938 from Roseville, Ohio, on Pennsylvania Railroad also applicable for such shipments from Crooksville, Ohio, on New York Central Railroad; and

(3) For the coals of Mine Index No. 2739 for all shipments except truck from Freeport, Ohio, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad also applicable for such shipments from Barnesville, Ohio, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

It is further ordered, That, a reasonable showing of necessity therefor having been made, temporary relief, pending final disposition of the matter designated Docket No. A-1147 Part II, be, and it is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 For All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the temporary supplement marked "Supplement R" attached hereto[1] and made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: December 2, 1941.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1076 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1076, GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

[1] Not filed as part of the original document.

IN PART IN DOCKET NO. A–1076 PART II AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A–1076 PART II

The original petition in the above-entitled matters filed with this Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, request the issuance of orders establishing temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 4.

As indicated in an order issued in Docket No. A–1076, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by petitioner, except with respect to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Fred S. Geer, Inc., Jimtown Mine, Mine Index No. 299, Irish Ridge Coal Co., Irish Ridge-Deep Mine, Mine Index No. 234, Irish Ridge Coal Co., Irish Ridge-Strip Mine, Mine Index No. 247, George Lantz, Lantz Coal Co. Mine, Mine Index No. 2465, and Mineral City Coal Co., Black Mine, Mine Index No. 278, for all shipments except truck.

The original petition requests the establishment of such price classifications and minimum prices for the above-named code members for all shipments except truck from two shipping points. While it appears that temporary relief should be granted establishing temporary price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the above-named mines, for one shipping point only, the Director is of the opinion that the original petitioner has not set forth sufficient facts to warrant the establishment of additional shipping points for the above-mentioned mines without a hearing. The shipping points hereinafter established for such mines are those which appear to be nearest to such mines, and therefore appropriate for the granting of temporary relief.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A–1076 relating to the establishment of additional shipping points for the coals of Fred S. Geer, Inc., Jimtown Mine, Mine Index No. 299, Irish Ridge Coal Co., Irish Ridge-Deep Mine, Mine Index No. 234, Irish Ridge Coal Co., Irish Ridge-Strip Mine, Mine Index No. 247, George Lantz, Lantz Coal Co. Mine, Mine Index No. 2465, and Mineral City Coal Co., Black Mine, Mine Index No. 278 be, and the same hereby is, severed from Docket No. A–1076 and designated as Docket No. A–1076 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A–1076 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on December 16, 1941 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendations of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before December 11, 1941.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 4 for the establishment of permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Fred S. Geer, Inc., Jimtown Mine, Mine Index No. 299, Irish Ridge Coal Co., Irish Ridge-Deep Mine, Mine Index No. 234, Irish Ridge Coal Co., Irish Ridge-Strip Mine, Mine Index No. 247, George Lantz, Lantz Coal Co. Mine, Mine Index No. 2465, and Mineral City Coal Co., Black Mine, Mine Index No. 278, for All Shipments Except Truck.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of Docket No. A–1076 Part II, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked "Supplement R" annexed hereto[1] and hereby made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

PETITIONS OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 1; AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ADDITIONAL SHIPPING POINT FOR THE COALS OF ALBERT STRIPPING MINE AND POTOMAC NO. 4 & NO. 6 MINE, MINE INDEX NOS. 1006 AND 397, RESPECTIVELY, FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF TWO SHIPPING POINTS FOR THE COALS OF CUSHNER NO. 1 MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 3159, AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE MIXING OF THE COALS OF CHICKASAW, MOHICAN, CADOGAN NOS. 1 AND 2 MINES, MINE INDEX NOS. 93, 329, 76, AND 976, RESPECTIVELY, AND OF THE COALS OF CHERRY RUN NOS. 1, 2, 3A, AND 4 MINES, MINE INDEX NOS. 88, 688, 3189 AND 3187, RESPECTIVELY

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A–1149 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A–1149 GRANTING IN PART TEMPORARY RELIEF AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A–1149 PART II

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division in Docket No. A–1149, requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1. As the Director found in an Order issued in Docket No. A–1149, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by the petitioner, except as to the coals of Albert Stripping Mine, Potomac No. 4 and No. 6 Mine, Cushner No. 1 Mine, Chickasaw, Mohican, Cadogan Nos. 1 and 2 Mines, Cherry Run Nos. 1, 2, 3A, and 4 Mines, Mine Index Nos. 1006, 397, 3159, 93, 329, 76, 976, 88, 688, 3189, and 3187, respectively.

The petitioner proposes that the price classifications and minimum prices effective:

1. For the coals of Albert Stripping Mine, Mine Index No. 1006, for rail shipments from Morrisdale, Pennsylvania, on New York Central Railroad, shall also be applicable for such shipments from Munson, Pennsylvania, on the said railroad; and

2. For the coals of Potomac No. 4 & 6 Mine, Mine Index No. 397, for rail shipments from Lonaconing, Maryland, on Western Maryland Railroad, shall also be applicable for such shipments from Barton, Maryland, on Cumberland & Pennsylvania Railroad.

Since the petition does not allege any facts in support of these proposals, the Director is of the opinion that no temporary relief should be granted as to these proposals, and that the necessity therefor should be clearly shown at a hearing.

The petition further proposes that price classifications and minimum prices be established for the coals of Cushner No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 3159, for rail shipments from North Philipsburg, Pennsylvania, on New York Central Railroad, and Philipsburg, Pennsylvania, on Pennsylvania Railroad. The petition does not allege sufficient facts for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for rail shipments from two shipping points, without a hearing. Accordingly, the Director is of the opinion that temporary relief should be granted at this time only for shipments from North Philipsburg, Pennsylvania on New York Central Railroad, and that the necessity for an additional shipping point should be clearly shown at a hearing.

The petition further proposes that minimum prices be established for the mixing of the coals of Chickasaw, Mohican, Cadogan Nos. 1 and 2 Mines, Mine Index Nos. 93, 329, 76, and 976, respectively, and for the mixing of the coals of Cherry Run Nos, 1, 2, 3A, and 4 Mines, Mine Index Nos. 88, 688, 3189, and 3187, respectively, for all shipments except truck. The petition does not, however, allege any facts in support of these proposals. The Director is of the opinion that no temporary relief should be granted as to these proposals until the necessity therefor has been clearly shown at a hearing.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A–1149 relating to the coals of Albert Stripping Mine, Potomac No. 4 & No. 6 Mine, Cushner No. 1 Mine, Chickasaw, Mohican, Cadogan Nos. 1 and 2 Mines, Cherry Run Nos. 1, 2, 3A, and 4 Mines, Mine Index Nos. 1006, 397, 3159, 93, 329, 76, 976, 88, 688, 3189, and 3187, be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A–1149 and designated as Docket No. A–1149 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A–1149 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on December 19, 1941, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Shipman or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for the purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before December 13, 1941.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 1 for the application of the price classifications and minimum prices effective for the coals of Albert Stripping Mine, Mine Index No. 1006, for rail shipments from Morrisdale, Pennsylvania, on New York Central Railroad, to such shipments from Munson, Pennsylvania, on New York Central Railroad, and for the coals of Potomac No. 4 & 6 Mine, Mine Index No. 397, for rail shipments from Lonaconing, Maryland, on Western Maryland Railroad, to such shipments from Barton, Maryland, on the Cumberland & Pennsylvania Railroad and for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Cushner No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 3159, for rail shipments from North Philipsburg, Pennsylvania, on New York Central Railroad, and Philipsburg, Pennsylvania, on Pennsylvania Railroad, and for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the mixing of the coals of Chickasaw, Mohican, Cadogan Nos. 1 and 2 Mines, Mine Index Nos. 93, 329, 76, and 976, respectively, and for the mixing of the coals of Cherry Run Nos. 1, 2, 3A, and 4 Mines, Mine Index Nos. 88, 688, 3189, and 3187, for all shipments except truck.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of Docket No. A–1149, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, Price Schedule No. 1 for District No. 1 For All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedule marked "Temporary Supplement R", annexed hereto[1] and hereby made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that application to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief granted herein may be filed pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF SAMUEL C. HAER AND FRED B. HAER, INDIVIDUALLY AND AS CO-PARTNERS DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE NAME AND STYLE OF SAMUEL C. HAER AND FRED B. HAER, DEFENDANTS

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said defendants and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding. Any person or entity eligible under Section 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendants; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

Haer and Fred B. Haer, individually and as co-partners doing business under the name and style of Samuel C. Haer and Fred B. Haer, of 16 South Ninth Street, Indiana, Pennsylvania, subsequent to September 30, 1940 sold and delivered to McCreary Rubber Company, Indiana, Pennsylvania, substantial quantities of run of mine coal produced at their Haer Mine, Mine Index No. 1464, located at Marion Center, Subdistrict 15 of District No. 1, Indiana County, Pennsylvania, at the delivered price of $2.25 per net ton which was less than the effective minimum f. o. b. mine price established therefor of $2.20 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, plus an amount at least equal, as nearly as practicable to the actual transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character, from the transportation facilities at the mine to the point of delivery of said coal at which point all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchaser. Said point of delivery was approximately 15 miles from said transportation facilities at the mine. Hence said sales and deliveries were made contrary to the provisions of Price Instruction No. 6 of Schedule No. 1, of the Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For Truck Shipments as amended by Supplement No. 1 of said Schedule and, therefore, the above transactions constituted sales and deliveries of coal at a price below the minimum established therefor and in violation of section 4 Part II (e) (g) of the Act and Part II (e) (g) of the Code.

That during October, November, and December 1940, the defendant sold for truck shipment 2" lump coal and mine-run coal produced at the defendant's mine (Mine Index No. 2314) at prices of $2.50 per net ton for the lump coal and $2.25 per net ton for the mine-run coal, which prices were below the effective minimum prices for such coals;

[Docket No. A-1135, Part II]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ADDITIONAL SHIPPING POINTS FOR MINE INDEX NOS. 863, 864 AND 501, IN DISTRICT NO. 1, FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1135 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1135 AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1135 PART II

A petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was filed with the Division in Docket No. A-1135 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1. As was found in an order issued in Docket No. A-1135, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by petitioner except as to the coals of Mine Index Nos. 863, 864, and 501. for all shipments except truck.

The petition proposes that the price classifications and minimum prices effective:

(1) for the coals of Mine Index Nos. 863 and 864 for all shipments except truck from Barnum, West Virginia, on Western Maryland Railroad shall also be applicable for such shipments from Westernport, Maryland, on Cumberland & Pennsylvania Railroad; and

(2) For the coals of the Saylor Mine (Mine Index No. 501) of Leonard L. Romesburg for all shipments except truck from Rockwood, Maryland, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad shall also be applicable for such shipments from Rockwood, Maryland, on Western Maryland Railroad.

Since the petition does not allege any facts in support of these proposals, the Acting Director is of the opinion that no temporary relief should be granted upon the basis of such proposals until the necessity therefor has been shown at a hearing.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1135 relating to the coals of Mine Index Nos. 863, 864, and 501 be, and the same hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1135 and designated as Docket No. A-1135 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1135 Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 6, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Shipman or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendations of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 2, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of interveners or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 1 to make the price classifications and minimum prices effective:

(1) For the Coals of Mine Index Nos. 863 and 864 of Brown and Lawrence (Melvin L. Brown) for all shipments except truck from Barnum, West Virginia, on Western Maryland Railroad also applicable for such shipments from Westernport, Maryland, on the Cumberland & Pennsylvania Railroad.

(2) For the coals of the Saylor Mine (Mine Index No. 501) of Leonard L. Romesburg for all shipments except truck from Rockwood, Maryland, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad also applicable for such shipments from Rockwood, Maryland, on Western Maryland Railroad.

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled proceeding, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the price classifications and minimum prices effective for the coals of the Devenney No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 31, of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, for rail shipments, shall be applicable only for shipments on Pennsylvania Railroad from Beech Bottom, West Virginia, and shall no longer be applicable for shipments on Pennsylvania Railroad from Wellsburg, West Virginia. All allowances or adjustments required or permitted mines in Freight Origin Group No. 30 shall be applicable to all shipments of the coals of the Devenney No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 31, of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation from Beech Bottom, West Virginia, on Pennsylvania Railroad.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 8 FOR REDUCTION IN CLASSIFICATION IN SIZE GROUPS 18-21 OF COALS FROM THE DABNEY - MACBETH MINES OF HUTCHINSON COAL COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING FURTHER RELIEF AFTER RECONSIDERATION

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board No. 8, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting a reduction from "D" to "E" of the classification of the coals produced by the Dabney Mine (Mine Index No. 150) and the Macbeth Mine (Mine Index No. 304) of Hutchinson Coal Company (Hutchinson) in Size Groups 18 to 21. Hutchinson intervened, claiming that the reduction should be to an "F" classification.

Following an informal conference, the Director, by Order of January 18, 1941, allowed a temporary reduction in price classification from "D" to "F" for the Dabney and Macbeth Mines, but limited relief to destinations other than the Great Lakes.

District Board No. 2, Island Creek Coal Company, Mallory Coal Company, Amherst Coal Company and the Lorado Coal Mining Company intervened generally and Boone County Coal Corporation and Monitor Coal & Coke Company filed written appearances. West Virginia Coal & Coke Corporation intervened, claiming that its Earling Mine (Mine Index No. 181) produced similar coal to that of the Dabney and Macbeth Mines, and praying for the same relief as granted to them.

Pursuant to Orders of the Director, a hearing was held in Washington, D. C., beginning on February 20, 1941, in conjunction with Dockets Nos. A-538, A-579, and A-594 which involved petitions of other producers in Logan County, West Virginia, for reductions in the classification of their coals in Size Groups 18 to 21 and in some other sizes. Following the hearing, Hutchinson again requested temporary relief for shipments for Great Lakes cargo. This was granted by Order of April 30, 1941, which provided for a temporary reduction in classification from "D" to "E" for Great Lakes cargo only. On May 13, The Lorado Coal Mining Company by motion expressed further opposition to a reduction of the classification of the coals of Hutchinson's mines to "F" (for shipments to the Great Lakes).

In accordance with the waivers of the report of the Examiner filed by all parties, the Director filed his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion and issued his final Order on September 19, 1941. The final Order reduced the classification of the Dabney and Macbeth Mines in Size Groups 18 to 21 from "D" to "E" for shipment to all destinations, instead of to "F" as prayed by Hutchinson, and granted relief to eight other mines. The question of the classification of the Dabney and Macbeth Mines is now raised by a motion for reconsideration filed by Hutchinson on October 22, 1941, in which it urges a further reduction to "F."

In granting final relief, the Director found that since original classification of their coals, mechanization of the Dabney and Macbeth Mines, and important changes in the character of the seam mined had resulted in increased impurities and reduced B.t.u. in the coal from both mines in Size Groups 18 to 21, and in particular increased moisture in Dabney coal. Coals from both show a high percentage of fines and excessive coking. The deterioration appeared from proximate analyses, complaints and loss of customers and reduced running time. The Director found that the record supported the request of District Board No. 8 for a 5 cent reduction to "E", but failed to prove sufficient additional deterioration to justify the 10 cent reduction to "F" claimed by Hutchinson.

In its motion for reconsideration Hutchinson stresses an alleged failure of the Director to attach proper weight to a decrease in B. t. u. of about 300 for coals of each mine, shown by official District Board analyses, and an apparent inequality in classifying the coals at "E" when their B. t. u. value more nearly resembles the average of "F" coals in District No. 8 as shown by an exhibit in the case. At the hearing, Hutchinson and other parties overstressed the value of B. t. u. rating in the classification of coal, even urging the theory that a drop of 300 B. t. u. justified a reduction of 10 cents per ton. The question was discussed at several points in the finding. B. t. u. is only one element of a proximate analysis, and, as appeared in the testimony of witnesses McAllister and Wyatt and as the Director has often ruled, analyses are not the sole basis for classification. On fixing a price for the coals of the Hutchinson mines analyses were considered, along with the seam, physical properties, burning characteristics and market experience shown. Hutchinson's testimony regarding the amount of further deterioration of Dabney Mine coals was inadequate, for it was based on incomplete analyses, primarily of ash content, from which only an estimate of the alleged B. t. u. reduction could be made. It covered a brief period, and, as admitted by Hutchinson's witness J. L. Finkenbiner, all coals may vary a few hundred B. t. u. at times.

Hutchinson argues that its market experience justifies a 10 cent reduction, pointing to former interchangeability with the Chilton seam coals from its Argyle Mine and its sales experience before and after temporary relief, and denying the serious effect of the close of the lake season upon its sales. These matters were all carefully considered in the first instance. Only Detroit Edison Company was shown to have evaluated the coals of the Dabney and Macbeth Mines definitely at "F", and that represents the opinion of an interested party, though of value. On the other hand it was admitted that Macbeth and Dabney coals were sold to Detroit Edison Company in the summer of 1940 at a contract price of $1.45 to $1.50. Witness Gleaves testified that coals of Stirrat No. 19 Mine of West Virginia Coal & Coke Corporation, classified "E", sold there at $1.35 to $1.45, and the record shows they were practically interchangeable with those of its Earling Mine, reduced to "E" as a result of the joint hearing herein. Witnesses for both West Virginia Coal & Coke Corporation and The Lorado Coal Mining Company insisted that a reduction below "E" for the Hutchinson coals would injure their business.

In the period of January through September 1940, about 30 per cent of the production of the Dabney Mine and 33 per cent of the production of the Macbeth Mine were shipped via the Great Lakes. The proportion was even greater in 1939. This being so, it is difficult to conclude that reduced sales between October 1940, and the hearing in February 1941 were due to an excessive lake price, and not to the close of the lake season early in November 1940, or to conclude that the price was 10 cents and not 5 cents too high. The fact that in the period between the granting of a temporary "F" classification and the hearing—January 18 to February 20—no new customers were obtained, and that from February 1 to 15 running time was below average, is not persuasive proof that the "F" price classification was proper, for the test period was too short.

In reexamining the record in this proceeding, the undersigned has borne in mind the difficulty of establishing the amount of reduction necessary to restore to Hutchinson its existing fair competitive opportunities, but is unable to reach upon the record a different conclusion than that previously reached. If it shall appear to Hutchinson from its additional market experience subsequent to the hearing, the burning characteristics and further complete analyses of its coals, and other pertinent factors, that they are still improperly classified, the remedy provided by section 4 II (d) of the Act will then be open to it.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the motion of Hutchinson Coal Company seeking a modification of the Director's

Order of September 19, 1941, herein granting permanent relief in part be and it hereby is denied.

Dated: December 4, 1941.

[Docket No. 1759-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF MORRIS & CAMPBELL, A PARTNERSHIP, DEFENDANT

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD 11 TO VACATE ORDER OF DIRECTOR AND FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE MATTER

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on May 15, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 11, the complainant, alleging that Morris & Campbell, the defendant, had wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder and the effective minimum prices, and praying that an order be entered requiring the defendant to cease and desist from such violations.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held at which the complainant and the defendant appeared. The parties waived the preparation and filing of a Report by the Examiner, and the matter was thereupon submitted to the Director who, on October 31, 1941, issued his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion, and entered an Order revoking and cancelling the defendant's code membership and directing that prior to any reinstatement of the defendant or any partner therein to membership in the Code, there shall be paid to the United States a tax in the amount of $1,213.51, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act.

On November 24, 1941, District Board 11 filed a petition to vacate the Order of the Director of October 31, 1941, and for a reconsideration of the matter. District Board 11 asks that a cease and desist order be issued in lieu of the order of revocation and cancellation of code membership.

In its petition District Board 11 indicates that since the complaint filed by it herein did not pray for the revocation or cancellation of the defendant's code membership but merely requested that a cease and desist order be entered against the defendant, the defendant was led to believe that the penalty attendant upon its violations could be only a cease and desist order. This belief, if actually entertained by the defendant, was erroneous. In determining the penalties which may be visited upon a code member for a wilful violation of the Code, the Division is governed by the Act, particularly section 5 (b) thereof, and is not controlled or limited by the prayers or requests of the complainant. Under section 5 (b) of the Act, it is the Division, in the exercise of its discretion, which determines, in a case where a violation of the Code has been proved, whether an Order shall be entered providing for revocation of the defendant's code membership or an Order requiring the defendant to cease and desist from its violations.

The District Board strongly urges, however, that "without considering whether or not the Division is controlled by the prayers or the requests of the complainant in determining the penalties to be visited upon a code member for a violation of the Code . . . in view of the penalty concomitant with revocation of the defendant's code membership, it is only fair and reasonable that the defendant should have had clear notice that the final determinations to be resolved by the Director involved the revocation or cancellation of its code membership." The District Board appears to indicate that had the defendant been advised of the possibility of the revocation of its code membership as the result of this proceeding, the defendant might have introduced evidence in its defense or evidence of mitigating circumstances.

In the light of the petition of the District Board, I have reviewed the entire record in this proceeding and upon the basis thereof I find no reason to modify the order of code membership revocation entered against the defendant. I shall therefore deny the petition.

In the circumstances, however, it appears that an opportunity might well be afforded the parties to introduce additional evidence herein, either concerning the violations of the defendant or relevant to the penalties attendant thereon, to show why the Order of the Director of October 31, 1941, should be vacated. If the District Board sees fit, it may file a motion to reopen the hearing. Such motion, if filed, should be accompanied by the affidavit of at least one of the partners in the defendant setting forth whether or not the defendant understood that code membership revocation would result from the proceeding herein; if not, what evidence the defendant would have introduced at the hearing had it understood otherwise; and what evidence the defendant is prepared to introduce at a reopened hearing. On the basis of such affidavit, the undersigned will give due consideration to a motion to reopen the hearing should District Board 11 see fit to file same.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the petition of District Board 11, filed herein on November 24, 1941, to vacate the Order of the Director revoking and cancelling code membership and for reconsideration of the matter, be and it hereby is denied.

Dated: December 4, 1941.

[Docket No. 1688-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF F. T. PATIK (PATIK COAL COMPANY) DEFENDANT

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING PETITION AND APPLICATION TO REOPEN CASE, ETC.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 12 against the Patik Coal Company (F. T. Patik), the defendant, a code member in District 12. The complaint alleged that the defendant wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code or the rules and regulations thereunder, and prayed that the Division either cancel and revoke the defendant's code membership or, in its discretion, direct the defendant to cease and desist from violations of the Code or the rules and regulations thereunder.

Pursuant to Orders of the Director and after notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on September 8, 1941, before W. A. Shipman, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, in Oskaloosa, Iowa. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The defendant appeared. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived.

On October 22, 1941, the Director issued Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and rendered an Opinion in this matter and entered an Order in accordance therewith revoking and cancelling the defendant's code membership and providing that prior to any reinstatement of the defendant to membership in the Code the defendant, in accordance with section 5 (c) of the Act, should pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $830.25.

On November 8, 1941, the defendant filed a Petition and Application to Reopen Case and to Reconsider the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order of the Director, and for Entry of Modified Order Relative Thereto, and for Reinstatement of Code Membership and Stay of Cancellation Thereof Pending Hearing Hereon.

In his Findings of Fact herein, the Director found that the defendant had wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act by selling during the period from January 16, 1941, to April 10, 1941, 1,097.35 tons of coal (20 cars) for delivery to the Des Moines Electric Light Company in Des Moines, Iowa, at delivered prices ranging from $2.30 to $2.42 per ton, whereas the effective minimum price for such coal was $2.54 per ton delivered. The f. o. b. mine price for such coal was found to be $1.94 per ton and, on the basis of 1,097.35 tons, the tax required to be paid by the defendant in order to obtain reinstatement to membership in the Code is $830.25.

The defendant contends that the tax should not have been computed upon 11 cars of said coal. It is claimed that three of these cars were sold by the defendant before he was advised that minimum prices for his mine had been established, and that at the time when he was so advised, eight cars of coal had already been loaded and that it was the defendant's understanding from a conversation with a compliance officer of the Division concerning those eight cars that code prices did not apply thereto. Thus the defendant contends that as to the sale of the 11 cars of coal, aggregating 627.65 tons, the defendant did not wilfully violate the Act. Accordingly the defendant requests that the tax required for his reinstatement to membership in the Code be computed on the basis of 469.7 tons of coal rather than 1097.35 tons.

These contentions of the defendant were considered by the Director in his Findings of Fact issued herein on October 22. It was there pointed out by the Director that the duty was upon the defendant to ascertain the date upon which minimum prices were established for his coals, that this fact should have been determined from the order itself, and that the defendant's pretended reliance upon oral statements made by third persons was unwarranted. After a reconsideration of the record, the undersigned is of the opinion that the Director's findings in this regard are proper and fully justified by the record. Moreover, as stated by the Director in his Findings of Fact, the contention of the defendant that he sold some of the coal without knowing that minimum prices had been established must be considered in connection with the fact that he continued to sell coal below the effective minimum prices after he admittedly knew of the establishment of those prices.

The defendant's petition for reconsideration also contains statements to the effect that the defendant is an elderly man with little education, that he did not understand the procedure to obtain permission to dispose of the aforesaid eight cars of coal, which had become heated, and that to require the defendant to pay a tax in the amount of $830.25 as a condition of reinstatement to membership in the Code would deprive him of his only means of livelihood. There was no evidence as to these matters presented at the hearing, except a mere statement by the defendant that he did not know that an application could be made for permission to sell coal in order to prevent its deterioration. The undersigned has, however, further considered the record in the light of these statements, but is of the opinion that they afforded no justification for altering the views heretofore expressed. While some hardship may be incurred by some producers who violate the Code, and while this is regrettable, the provisions of the Act must nevertheless be impartially administered without regard to the unfortunate circumstances of any particular producer involved. Only by such administration of the Act can a sound price structure be maintained, and the policies of the Act be effectuated.

I therefore conclude that the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, Opinion, and Order issued herein on October 22, 1941, are proper and should remain unchanged and that the petition of the defendant filed herein on November 8, 1941, should be denied.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the Petition filed herein by the defendant on November 8, 1941, be and it hereby is in all respects denied.

Dated: December 4, 1941.

Surplus Marketing Administration.

Determination Pursuant to Section 608c (9) and (17), Title 7, U. S. C., With Respect to the Issuance of Order No. 3, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, Marketing Area[1]

Paul H. Appleby, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the Secretary by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, issued, effective December 1, 1940, Order No. 3, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area.

Paul H. Appleby, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, tentatively approved, on October 17, 1940, a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area.

There being reason to believe that the execution of amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, notice was given, on August 25, 1941, of a public hearing which was held in St. Louis, Missouri, on September 8 and 9, 1941, on certain proposals to amend such marketing agreement, as amended, and such order, as amended, and at such time and place all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposals to amend such marketing agreement, as amended, and such order, as amended.

After such hearing handlers of more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk.

It is hereby determined, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, that:

1. The refusal or failure of said handlers to sign said marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

2. The issuance of Order No. 3, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to such policy of advancing the interests of the producers of milk which is produced for sale in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area; and

3. The issuance of Order No. 3, as amended, is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers, as shown by their approval now in the hands of the Secretary, who, during the month of July 1941, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said area.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of November 1941. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] Claude R. Wickard,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Approved:

Franklin D Roosevelt,
The President of the United States.

Dated: November 29, 1941.

CONDITION OF THE APPORTIONMENT AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1941

Important. Although the apportioned classified Civil Service is by law located only in Washington, D. C., it nevertheless includes only about half of the Federal civilian positions in the District of Columbia. Positions in local post offices, customs districts, and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service Act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment, a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his state of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from states which are in arrears.

PART 225—1941 RICE LOANS

AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS GOVERNING WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND FARM STORAGE

The 1941 Commodity Credit Corporation Rice Loan Instructions (1941 C.C.C. Rice Form 1)[1] are hereby amended to read as follows:

1. Section 225.5 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 225.5 Warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts must not include insurance, must be dated on or prior to the date of the related note, must be issued to and in the name of the producer and endorsed by him in blank so as to vest title in the holder, and must be issued by an approved warehouse. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept warehouse receipts indicating any lien for charges prior to unloading in or delivery to the warehouse issuing such receipts. Liens for storage charges will be recognized by Commodity Credit Corporation only from September 1, 1941, or the first day of the month during which the warehouse receipts are pledged as security to a loan under the 1941 Rice Loan Program, whichever is later. Producers may obtain information and assistance from the county agricultural conservation committees in regard to the execution and filing of such chattel mortgages. Where the borrower is a tenant farmer and the rice collateral is stored on the farm, the expiration date of the lease shall be given in section 1 (d) of the chattel mortgage. If the expiration date of the lease is prior to June 30, 1942, or, in the case of rice stored in California, September 30, 1942, the borrower must secure from the owner and any other interested parties, consent that the rice collateral may remain in the described storage structure(s) for a period of sixty days beyond the maturity date of the note without charge except as provided in these instructions. The consent agreement is set forth in the chattel mortgage. Each producer must designate in section 1 (b) of the chattel mortgage a shipping point reasonably convenient for delivery of the rice as determined by the county committee. shipping point other than the normal shipping point customarily used by the producers in the area in which the rice was produced. A separate note and chattel mortgage must be submitted for rice stored on each quarter section of land and, as stated above, each such chattel mortgage must cover only a single variety of rice.

In the event Commodity Credit Corporation becomes the holder of any note secured by farm-stored rice, it will, upon the delivery of the mortgaged rice pursuant to section 6 of the 1941 Chattel Mortgage (1941 C.C.C. Rice Form AA), pay to the producer, or his personal representative, without right of assignment to, or substitution of, any other person, a storage payment computed at the rate of one cent per bushel for the first full thirty-day period, or fraction thereof, from the date of the approval of the note and related mortgage by the county agricultural conservation committee; and thereafter, one cent per bushel for each thirty-day period, or fraction thereof, to the date of the delivery of the rice: Provided, That (a) in no event shall the total storage payment exceed four cents per bushel of the rice delivered; (b) no storage payment whatever shall be made if the producer has made any misrepresentation in the chattel mortgage or in connection with the loan; (c) no storage payment whatever shall be made if the rice is delivered pursuant to demand of the Commodity Credit Corporation made because the rice was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired; and (d) if the rice delivered is of a different quality (i. e., grades lower) or of a lesser quantity than that shown in section 1 of the chattel mortgage, there shall (unless paid by the producer) be set off against any storage payment otherwise due, an amount determined in accordance with subsections (a) and (b) of section 7 of the chattel mortgage.

CHAPTER VII—AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

[MQ-603—Peanuts, Part I]

PART 729—NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA FOR PEANUTS

SUBPART B—1942

Procedure for the Determination of Acreage Allotments for 1942

Sec.
729.102 Definitions.
729.103 Rule of fractions.
729.104 Instructions and forms.
729.105 Applicability of procedure.
729.106 Determination of farm acreage allotments for 1942.
729.107 Reconstituted farms.

§ 729.102 Definitions As used in this procedure and in all instructions, forms, and documents, in connection therewith, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) Peanuts. Peanuts which are picked and threshed by mechanical means, whether before or after marketing by the producer.

(b) Farm. Any tract(s) of land considered as a farm under the provisions of the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program.

(c) Tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts. The acreage in the farm in 1941 which was tilled or was in regular rotation minus the sum of the acreages devoted to the production of sugarcane for sugar, wheat or rice for market or feeding to livestock for market, cotton or tobacco for market.*

*§§ 729.102 to 729.107, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in sec. 358 (d), Public Law 27, 77th Cong., 55 Stat. 90.

§ 729.103 Rule of fractions. All acreages shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth of an acre.*

§ 729.104 Instructions and forms. The Administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture shall cause to be prepared and issued with his approval such instructions and forms as may be necessary for carrying out this procedure.*

§ 729.105 Applicability of procedure. The provisions of this Part I of NQ-603—Peanuts shall be effective for the establishment of farm acreage allotments for peanuts of the 1942 crop.*

§ 729.106 Determination of farm acreage allotments for 1942. The State Agricultural Conservation Committee (hereinafter referred to as the State committee) shall distribute the State acreage allotment among the counties in the State in which peanuts are grown on the basis of the average acreage in each county in the five years 1936–1940 adjusted for trends in acreage and abnormal weather conditions. The State committee shall estimate the acreage in any of the five years for which data are not available. The State committee may set aside such a part of the State acreage allotment as shall be necessary, in light of the experience under previous Agricultural Programs, as a reserve for farms for which no 1941 peanut acreage allotment was determined and for the correction of errors.

The portion of the State acreage allotment made available to each county shall be allotted by the County Agricultural Conservation Committee (hereinafter referred to as the county committee), subject to the approval of the State committee, among the farms in the county on the basis of (1) tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts, (2) past acreage of peanuts on the farm, and (3) peanut acreage allotments under previous agricultural adjustment and conservation programs. Farm acreage allotments for peanuts shall be determined for all farms on which peanuts were produced in 1939, 1940, or 1941.

In determining farm acreage allotments for any farm on which peanuts were produced in 1939, 1940, or in 1941 if a 1941 peanut acreage allotment was determined for the farm, one of the following methods shall be used:

(a) In any State in which the State committee determines that, because of increases in peanut acreage in the last five years, the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts will provide the fairest and most equitable basis for use in determining peanut acreage allotments and distribution of the county share of the State allotment among farms in the county eligible for the allotments, the following procedure shall be used:

The State committee shall determine that part of the acreage fixed as the county's share of the State allotment which is to be apportioned to farms on the basis of the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts. Such acreage thus to be apportioned to each farm shall be a percentage (which shall be the same percentage for all farms in the county) of the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts on the farm: Provided, That such minimum allotment shall not exceed the simple average of three figures representing the peanut acreage on the farm in 1939 and 1940, and the 1941 peanut allotment. After such apportionment has been made, the acreage remaining in the county's share of the State allotment will constitute a reserve from which farm allotments may be increased. In making such increases due consideration shall be given to, and such increases shall be made on the basis of, the past acreage of peanuts on the farm (disregarding acreage in excess of the 1941 allotment), the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts, and the peanut acreage allotments established for the farm under previous agricultural adjustment and conservation programs.

(b) In any State where the State committee determines that, because the acreage of peanuts during the last five years has been reasonably constant, the average acreage planted to peanuts in the years 1939, 1940, and 1941 (disregarding acreage in excess of the 1941 allotment) will provide the fairest and most equitable basis for use in determining the 1942 peanut acreage allotments and distribution of the county share of the State allotment among farms in the county eligible for allotments, such average acreage shall be used as the major factor in determining farm allotments. The county committee shall carefully review the data for all farms and shall determine such average acreage. The basic allotment for each farm shall be equal to the average acreage so determined, but the county committee shall make such adjustments among individual farms as will result in comparable allotments for farms which are similar with respect to the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts and the past acreage allotments established for the farms under previous agricultural adjustment and conservation programs.

(c) In any State where the State committee determines that the 1941 farm allotments were based on the past acreage of peanuts on the farm, tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts, and the peanut acreage allotments under previous agricultural adjustment and conservation programs, and that the 1941 allotments would provide the fairest and most equitable basis for use in determining the 1942 peanut acreage allotments, the 1941 allotments shall be used as the basis for determining 1942 allotments. The allotment for each farm shall be carefully reviewed by the county committee and such adjustments shall be made as may be necessary to reflect any material change in the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts, trend in the past acreage of peanuts on the farm (disregarding acreage in excess of the 1941 allotment), and change in 1941 peanut acreage allotments for the farm as compared with previous allotments.

The allotment established for each farm shall be fair and equitable as compared with the allotments established for other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to the tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts, past acreage of peanuts, and previous peanut acreage allotments. The allotments determined by the county committees shall be reviewed, and may, if necessary, be revised by the State committee in order that all allotments in the State shall be comparable with respect to these factors.

For any other farm eligible for a 1942 peanut acreage allotment on which peanuts will be grown in 1942 the county committee shall recommend to the State committee an acreage allotment, on the basis of tillable acreage available for the production of peanuts only. The peanut acreage allotment recommended for such farm shall not be in excess of one percent of the peanut acreage allotments made for other farms in the same locality with similar tillable acreage. The State committee shall determine the farm acreage allotments for such farms on the basis of the recommended allotments, but the total of all allotments for such farms shall not exceed the State reserve for such farms.

The total of the acreage allotments for the farms in any county shall not exceed the limit fixed by the tate committee as the county's share of the State allotment.*

§ 729.107 Reconstituted farms. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1941 is subdivided for 1942 into two or more tracts, the 1942 peanut allotment determined for the farm as constituted in 1941 shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland suitable for the production of peanuts on each tract is of the total number of acres of cropland suitable for the production of peanuts on the farm prior to the division, unless otherwise recommended by the county committee and approved by the State committee.

(b) If two or more farms which were operated separately in 1941 are combined into a single farm for 1942, the 1942 allotment shall be the sum of the 1942 allotments for each of the farms contained in the combination.*

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of December 1941. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD, Secretary of Agriculture.

Subpart C—Coin-Operated Amusement and Gaming Devices

SEC. 3267. TAX ON COIN-OPERATED AMUSEMENT AND GAMING DEVICES. [As added by section 555 of the Revenue Act of 1941.]

(a) Rate. Every person who maintains for use or permits the use of, on any place or premises occupied by him, a coin-operated amusement or gaming device shall pay a special tax as follows:

(1) $10 per year in the case of a device defined in clause (1) of subsection (b);

(2) $50 per year, in the case of a device defined in clause (2) of subsection (b); and

(3) $10 or $50, as the case may be, for each additional device so maintained or the use of which is so permitted. If one such device is replaced by another, such other device shall not be considered an additional device.

(b) Definition. As used in this part the term "coin-operated amusement and gaming devices" means (1) so-called "pin-ball" and other similar amusement machines, operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, and (2) so-called "slot" machines which operate by means of insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance, may deliver, or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive, cash, premiums, merchandise, or tokens. The term does not include bona fide vending machines in which are not incorporated gaming or amusement features.

(c) Applicability of administrative provisions. An operator of a place or premises who maintains for use or permits the use of any coin-operated device shall be considered, for the purposes of subchapter B, to be engaged in a trade or business in respect of each such device.

(d) Effective date of tax.—With respect to the year ending June 30, 1942, no tax shall be payable under this part for any period prior to October 1, 1941.

[SEC. 3271. PAYMENT OF TAX.]

(b) Due date. All special taxes shall become due on the 1st day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax shall be reckoned for one year, and in the latter case it shall be reckoned proportionately, from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to a special tax commenced, to and including the 30th day of June following.

* * * * *

§ 323.20 Effective date of tax. The special taxes with respect to coin-operated amusement and gaming devices imposed by section 3267 of the Internal Revenue Code are effective on and after October 1, 1941.*

§ 323.21 Persons liable for tax. Every person who maintains for use or permits the use of, a coin-operated amusement or gaming device on any place or premises occupied by him, is liable to special tax. An operator of such place or premises is considered, for the purposes of the law, to become engaged in a trade or business in respect of each such device as of the day the device is placed on his premises for use thereon.*

§ 323.22 Rate and computation of tax. Special taxes are imposed as follows:

(a) $10 per year in the case of each so-called "pin-ball" or other similar amusement machine operated by means of insertion of a coin, token, or similar object.

(b) $50 per year in the case of each so-called "slot" machine which operates by means of insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance may deliver, or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive, cash, premiums, merchandise or tokens.

The tax year begins July 1 and ends June 30. Persons commencing business between August 1 and June 30 (both dates inclusive) must pay a proportionate part of the annual tax. "Commencing business" in the case of a coin-operated amusement and gaming device means the initial maintenance for use on the taxpayer's premises of such a device. Persons in business for only a portion of a month are liable for tax for the full month, i. e., a person installing a coin-operated amusement or gaming device on his premises for use on, for example, the 15th day of a month, is liable for tax for the entire month.

As the tax became effective on October 1, 1941, persons in business on that date or commencing business during the month (that is, having such devices on their premises for use) are liable for tax for the nine months of the tax year ending the following June 30.

The amount of tax liability is computed on the basis of the number of devices of each particular type maintained for use, or permitted to be used on his premises, by the taxpayer. For each additional device subsequently during the same period brought on to the premises for use additional tax liability is incurred. Tax liability applies with respect to a device installed on the taxpayer's premises even though previously used on the premises of another person, and even though special tax for the same year or period or part thereof was paid by such other person with respect thereto.

If a taxpayer replaces a device with respect to which he has paid special tax with a like device no additional tax is payable. For example: a cigar store proprietor who maintains on the premises two "pin-ball" machines with respect to which he has paid special tax has these two machines removed and replaces them with two "pin-ball" machines of a more modern design. In this case no additional special tax is payable. However, if the replacing article is placed in operation before operation of the replaced article is discontinued, additional tax liability is incurred. If "pin-ball" machines are replaced by coin-operated gaming devices, or gaming devices are replaced by "pin-ball" machines, liability to special tax at the rate applicable to the replacing machines or devices is incurred, and no credit is allowable for the special tax paid with respect to the replaced machines or devices.*

Subpart D—Bowling Alleys, and Billiard and Pool Tables

SEC. 3268. TAX ON BOWLING ALLEYS, AND BILLIARD AND POOL TABLES. [As added by section 556 of the Revenue Act of 1941.]

(a) Rate. Every person who operates a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room shall pay a special tax of $10 per year for each bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table. Every building or place where bowls are thrown or where games of billiards or pool are played, except in private homes, shall be regarded as a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room, respectively.

(b) Effective date of tax. With respect to the year ending June 30, 1942, no tax shall be payable under this part for any period prior to October 1, 1941.

[SEC. 3271. PAYMENT OF TAX.]

(b) Due date. All special taxes shall become due on the 1st day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax shall be reckoned for one year, and in the latter case it shall be reckoned proportionately, from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to a special tax commenced, to and including the 30th day of June following.

* * * * *

§ 323.30 Effective date of tax. The special tax with respect to bowling alleys, and billiard and pool tables, imposed by section 3268 of the Internal Revenue Code is effective on and after October 1, 1941.*

§ 323.31 Persons liable for tax. Every person who operates a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room is liable for a special tax of $10 per year with respect to each bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table. For the purposes of the tax every building or place where bowls are thrown, or where games of billiards or pool are played, except in private homes, is regarded as a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room, respectively.*

§ 323.32 Rate and computation of tax. The rate of tax is $10 per year for each bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table operated by the taxpayer. Each separate alley bed is considered a bowling alley for the purposes of the tax.

The tax year begins July 1 and ends June 30. Persons commencing business between August 1 and June 30 (both dates inclusive) must pay a proportionate part of the annual tax. Persons in business for only a portion of a month are liable for tax for the full month, i. e., a person beginning the operation of a bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table on his premises on, for example, the 15th day of a month, is liable for tax for the entire month.

As the tax became effective on October 1, 1941, persons in business on that date or commencing business during the month (that is, operating bowling alleys, billard tables, or pool tables), are liable for tax for the nine months of the tax year ending the following June 30.

The amount of tax liability is computed on the basis of the number of alley beds, billiard tables, and pool tables maintained for use on the operator's premises. For each additional alley bed, billiard table, or pool table subsequently during the same period installed on the premises for operation, additional tax liability is incurred.

If a taxpayer replaces an alley bed, billiard table, or pool table with respect to which he has paid special tax with another article of the same or different kind subject to this tax, for example, replaces an alley bed either with another alley bed or a billiard or pool table, no additional tax is payable. However, if the replacing article is placed in operation before operation of the replaced article is discontinued additional tax liability is incurred.*

Subpart E—Administrative Provisions

SEC. 3271. PAYMENT OF TAX.

(a) Condition precedent to doing business. No person shall be engaged in or carry on any trade or business mentioned in this chapter until he has paid a special tax therefor in the manner provided in this chapter.

(b) Due date. All special taxes shall become due on the 1st day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax shall be reckoned for one year, and in the latter case it shall be reckoned proportionately, from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to a special tax commenced, to and including the 30th day of June following.

* * * * *

SEC. 3272. RETURNS.

(a) Time for filing. It shall be the duty of the special taxpayers to render their returns with remittances to the collector at such times within the calendar month in which the special tax liability commenced as shall enable him to receive such returns, duly signed and verified, together with the remittances, not later than the last day of the month, except in cases of sickness or absence, as provided for in section 3634.

* * * * *

§ 323.40 Registry, return, and payment of tax. Every person first engaging in any business subject to the regulations in this part shall on or before the last day of the month in which business is commenced file, separately for each place of business, a return on Form 11–B. The collector will furnish the proper forms which must be filled out, subscribed, and attested as indicated therein.

Every person engaged on October 1, 1941, in any business mentioned herein, or first engaging in such a business during the month of October 1941, must register and file return on Form 11–B and pay the tax on or before October 31, 1941. Thereafter, such person must register, file return, and pay the tax on or before the last day of July of each year.

Where before the end of the taxable year an additional article of a type covered by the regulations in this part is maintained or operated on the taxpayer's premises, a return covering such additional article shall be filed and additional special tax paid for the remaining portion of the taxable year. Payment of the additional tax will be evidenced by special tax stamps. (See § 323.41.)

Each return must show the taxpayer's full name. A person doing business under a style or trade name must give his own name, followed by his style or trade name. In the case of a copartnership, association, firm, or company, other than a corporation, its style or trade name must be given, also the name of each member and his place of residence. In the case of a corporation, the name and title of each officer and his place of residence must be shown.*

(c) How paid.

(1) Stamp. All special taxes imposed by law, * * * shall be paid by stamps denoting the tax.

* * * * *

SEC. 3273. STAMPS.

(a) Supply. The Commissioner is required to procure appropriate stamps for the payment of all special taxes imposed by law * * *.

SEC. 3659. RECEIPTS FOR TAXES.

(a) In general. Every collector and deputy collector shall give receipts for all sums collected by him, excepting only when the same are in payment for stamps sold and delivered; but no collector or deputy collector shall issue a receipt in lieu of a stamp representing a tax.

* * * * *

§ 323.41 Tax payment evidenced by special tax stamp. Upon receipt of a return, on Form 11–B, together with remittance of the full amount of tax due, the collector will issue a special tax stamp as evidence of payment of the special tax. Such payment must be made in the form of cash, certified check, or post office money order.

Collectors will distinctly write or print the taxpayer's registered name (see § 323.40), and the address of the particular place of business designated by street and number, on the stamp before it is delivered or mailed to the taxpayer. Special tax stamps will be transmitted by ordinary mail, unless it is desired that they be transmitted by registered mail, in which case 15 cents additional to pay registry fee should be remitted with the return.

(b) Posting. Every person engaged in any business, avocation, or employment, who is thereby made liable to a special tax, shall place and keep conspicuously in his establishment or place of business all stamps denoting the payment of said special tax.

* * * * *

SEC. 3274. PENALTIES RELATING TO POSTING OF SPECIAL TAX STAMP.

Any person who shall, through negligence, fail to place and keep stamps denoting the payment of the special tax as provided in section 3273 (b) shall be liable to a penalty equal to the special tax for which his business rendered him liable, and the costs of prosecution; but in no case shall said penalty be less than $10. And where the failure to comply with the provisions of section 3273 (b) shall be through willful neglect or refusal, then the penalty shall be double the amount above prescribed: Provided, That nothing in this section shall in any way affect the liability of any person for exercising or carrying on any trade, business, or profession, or doing any act for the exercising, carrying on, or doing of which a special tax is imposed by law, without the payment thereof.

§ 323.42 Special tax stamp to be posted. Every special tax stamp issued to a taxpayer must be kept posted conspicuously on the premises where the business is operated. One who fails so to post a stamp thereby incurs liability to a penalty, equal and in addition to the tax, plus the costs of prosecution; but in no case shall the penalty (not including the costs of prosecution) be less than $10. Where the failure is willful the penalty is doubled. This liability is additional to any and all liability otherwise incurred.*

§ 323.43 Certificates in lieu of stamps lost or destroyed. When a special tax stamp has been lost or destroyed, such fact should be reported to the collector at once for the purpose of obtaining from him a certificate of payment. Such certificate will be on Form 785, and must be posted in place of the stamp; otherwise liability as above indicated for failure to post the stamp will be incurred. (See § 323.42.)*

SEC. 3279. LIABILITY IN CASE OF DIFFERENT BUSINESSES OF SAME OWNERSHIP AND LOCATION.

Whenever more than one of the pursuits or occupations described in this chapter are carried on in the same place by the same person at the same time, except as otherwise provided in this chapter the tax shall be paid for each according to the rates severally prescribed.

§ 323.44 Tax payable for each business at same location. Where more than one taxable business is carried on by the same person at the same location at the same time, special tax in respect to each must be paid.*

SEC. 3277. LIABILITY OF PARTNERS.

Any number of persons doing business in copartnership at any one place shall be required to pay but one special tax.

§ 323.45 Partnership liability. Any number of persons doing business in copartnership at any one location shall be required to pay but one special tax. The firm name is the only name required on a special tax stamp issued to a partnership.*

SEC. 3280. LIABILITY IN CASE OF DEATH OR CHANGE OF LOCATION.

(a) Requirements. When any person who has paid the special tax for any trade or business dies, his wife or child, or executors or administrators or other legal representatives, may occupy the house or premises, and in like manner carry on, for the residue of the term for which the tax is paid, the same trade or business as the deceased before carried on, in the same house and upon the same premises, without the payment of any additional tax. And when any person removes from the house or premises for which any trade or business was taxed to any other place, he may carry on the trade or business specified in the collector's register at the place to which he removes, without the payment of any additional tax: Provided, That all cases of death, change, or removal, as aforesaid, with the name of the successor to any person deceased, or of the person making such change or removal, shall be registered with the collector, under regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner.

* * * * *

§ 323.46 Change of ownership—(a) Changes through death. Whenever any person who has paid special tax dies, the surviving spouse or child, or executors or administrators, or other legal representatives, may carry on such business for the remainder of the term for which tax has been paid without any additional payment, subject to the conditions hereinafter stated. If the surviving spouse or child, or executors or administrators, or other legal representatives of the deceased taxpayer continue the business, such person must within 30 days after the date of the death of the taxpayer execute a new Form 11–B. The return thus executed must show the name of the original taxpayer, together with all other data required.

(b) Changes from other causes. A receiver or referee in bankruptcy may continue the business under the stamp issued to the taxpayer at the place and for the period for which the tax was paid. An assignee for the benefit of creditors may continue business under his assignor's special tax stamp without incurring additional special tax liability. In such cases the change must be registered with the collector in a manner similar to that required by paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Changes in firm. When one or more members of a firm or partnership withdraw, the business may be continued by the remaining partner or partners under the same special tax stamp for the remainder of the period for which the stamp was issued to the old firm. The change shall, however, be registered in the same manner as required in paragraph (a) of this section. Where new partners are taken into a firm, the new firm so constituted may not carry on business under the special tax stamp of the old firm. The new firm must make return and pay its own special tax reckoned from the first day of the month in which it began business, even though the name of such firm be the same as that of the old. Where the members of a partnership which has paid special tax form a corporation to continue the business, a new special tax stamp must be taken out in the name of the corporation.

(d) Change in corporation. A corporation may, upon application to the collector, change its name without creating a new special tax liability, if the stamp is forwarded to the collector for proper notation within 30 days. An increase in the capital stock of a corporation does not create a new special tax liability if the laws of the State under which it is incorporated permit such increase without the formation of a new corporation. A stockholder in a corporation who after its dissolution continues the business incurs new special tax liability.*

§ 323.47 Change of business location—(a) Procedure by taxpayer. Whenever a special tax payer removes his business to a location other than specified in his last special tax return (see § 323.40), he shall, within 30 days after the date of removal, register the change of location with the collector of the district within which the old place of business is located, by filing another return, Form 11–B, and designated "removal registry," setting forth the time of removal. The taxpayer's special tax stamp must accompany the return for notation by the collector of the change of location. As to liability in case of failure to register a change of location within 30 days, see § 323.48.

(b) Procedure by collector; removal within district. When registration is made by a special tax payer in the manner specified in paragraph (a) of this section, of the removal of his business to a new location in the same district, the collector will enter on his Record 10 (see § 323.51) the place to which such removal was made and the date of the removal. The same information shall also be entered plainly on the face of the special tax stamp, which will be returned to the taxpayer, by the collector, for posting.

(c) Procedure by collector; removal to another district. In case of removal to another collection district, the collector will note the transfer on his Record 10, stating the location to which the business was removed, and shall then transmit the special tax stamp to the collector for the district to which said business was removed. The latter will make an entry on his Record 10 as in the case of original registration in his district, correct the location shown on the stamp, and note also thereon his name, title, date, and district, and then forward the stamp to the taxpayer.*

SEC. 3634. EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING RETURNS.

If the failure to file a return (other than a return of income tax) or list at the time prescribed by law or by regulation made under authority of law is due to sickness or absence, the collector may allow such further time, not exceeding thirty days, for making and filing the return or list as he deems proper.

[SEC. 3612. RETURNS EXECUTED BY COMMISSIONER OR COLLECTOR.]

(d) Additions to tax.

(1) Failure to file return. In case of any failure to make and file a return or list within the time prescribed by law, or prescribed by the Commissioner or the collector in pursuance of law, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 25 per centum of its amount, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax: Provided, That in the case of a failure to make and file a return required by law, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioner in pursuance of law, if the last date so prescribed for filing the return is after August 30, 1935, then there shall be added to the tax, in lieu of such 25 per centum: 5 per centum if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per centum for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 per centum in the aggregate.

(2) Fraud. In case a false or fraudulent return or list is willfully made, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 50 percentum of its amount.

* * * * *

(e) Collection of additions to tax. The amount added to any tax under paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (d) shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, falsity, or fraud, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

* * * * *

§ 323.48 Liability for failure to register change or removal. Any person succeeding to and carrying on a business for which special tax has been paid and any taxpayer removing his business, with respect to which special tax has been paid, to a place other than that for which tax was paid, without registering such change or removal within 30 days thereafter, will be liable to the additional tax and penalty prescribed in section 3612 (d) for failure to make return. (See § 323.49.)*

§ 323.49 Penalties for delinquency and fraudulent return. In case of failure to file a return within the prescribed time, a certain percentage of the amount of the tax is added to the tax unless the return is later filed and failure to file the return within the prescribed time is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. The amount to be added to the tax is 5 percent if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 percent in the aggregate.

If a false or fraudulent return is filed, the taxpayer is liable to an additional amount equal to 50 percent of the total tax. If a person liable to tax for an entire year falsely states in his return that he is liable for a portion only of the year, the return is false not only as to the portion of the year not covered but as to the portion falsely represented as the actual period of liability.*

SEC. 3276. APPLICATION OF STATE LAWS.

The payment of any tax imposed by the internal revenue laws for carrying on any trade or business shall not be held to exempt any person from any penalty or punishment provided by the laws of any State for carrying on the same within such State, or in any manner to authorize the commencement or continuance of such trade or business contrary to the laws of such State or in places prohibited by municipal law; nor shall the payment of any such tax be held to prohibit any State from placing a duty or tax on the same trade or business, for State or other purposes.

§ 323.50 Doing business in violation of State law. Payment of any special tax within the scope of the regulations in this part in nowise authorizes the carrying on of any business in violation of the law of any State. The special tax stamp is not a license or permit and affords no protection from prosecution for violation of State law.*

SEC. 3275. LIST OF SPECIAL TAXPAYERS FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION.

(a) In collector's office. Each collector shall, under regulations of the Commissioner, place and keep conspicuously in his office, for public inspection, an alphabetical list of the names of all persons who shall have paid special taxes within his district, and shall state thereon the time, place, and business for which such special taxes have been paid, and upon application of any prosecuting officer of any State, county, or municipality, he shall furnish a certified copy thereof, as of a public record, for which a fee of $1 for each one hundred words or fraction thereof in the copy or copies so requested, may be charged.

* * * * *

SEC. 3640. ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY.

The Commissioner is authorized and required to make the inquiries, determinations, and assessments of all taxes and penalties imposed by this title, or accruing under any former internal revenue law, where such taxes have not been duly paid by stamp at the time and in the manner provided by law.

§ 323.52 Assessment of taxes not paid by stamp. In case special taxes within the scope of the regulations in this part have not been paid and the taxpayer refuses or fails to make payment, the tax will be assessed. No stamp will be issued for an expired period; the tax in such case will be assessed.*

SEC. 3655. NOTICE AND DEMAND FOR TAX.

(a) Delivery. Where it is not otherwise provided, the collector shall in person or by deputy, within ten days after receiving any list of taxes from the Commissioner, give notice to each person liable to pay any taxes stated therein, to be left at his dwelling or usual place of business, or to be sent by mail, stating the amount of such taxes and demanding payment thereof.

(b) Addition to tax for nonpayment. If such person does not pay the taxes, within ten days after the service or the sending by mail of such notice, it shall be the duty of the collector or his deputy to collect the said taxes with a penalty of 5 per centum additional upon the amount of taxes, and interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of such notice to the date of payment; except that in the case of income, estate or gift taxes, such penalties shall not apply and the interest for nonpayment of tax shall be such as is specifically provided by law with respect to such taxes.

* * * * *

§ 323.53 Notice and demand for tax; penalty and interest. Where assessment is made, and payment is not made within 10 days after the issuance of the first notice and demand (Form 17), there will accrue under section 3655, a 5 percent penalty and interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum computed upon the entire assessment from the date of issuance of Form 17 until date of payment. Where assessment is settled by partial payments, interest is computed at the above-prescribed rate from the date of the first 10-day notice through the date of first payment and on the balance from the next succeeding day to the date of the next payment until the assessment is paid in full.

If a claim for abatement is filed with the collector within 10 days after the date of the issuance of the first notice and demand, the 5 percent penalty does not attach. If the assessment is not paid within 10 days after receipt of notice of rejection of the claim, the 5 percent penalty applies. The filing of the claim does not stay the collection of interest, which continues to run for the full period that intervenes between the date of the first notice and demand and the date of payment.*

SEC. 3660. JEOPARDY ASSESSMENT.

(a) If the Commissioner believes that the collection of any tax (other than income tax, estate tax, and gift tax) under any provision of the internal-revenue laws will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful without regard to the period prescribed in section 3690.

(b) The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount collection of which is stayed, at the time of which, but for this section, such amount would be due.

§ 323.54 Jeopardy assessment. Whenever, in the opinion of the collector, it becomes necessary to protect the interests of the Government by effecting immediate collection of tax, the matter shall be promptly reported to the Commissioner by telegram or letter showing the reasons therefor. The communication must state the full name and address of the person involved, the kind and amount of tax due, and the period involved, so that the Commissioner can immediately assess the tax, together with all penalties and interest due. Such tax, penalties, and interest will, upon assessment, become immediately due and payable, and the collector shall, without delay, issue a notice and demand for payment thereof in full.

The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount with respect to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount, collection of which is stayed, at the time at which such amount would normally be due.

Upon refusal to pay, or failure to pay or give bond, the collector shall proceed immediately to collect the tax, penalty, and interest, by distraint, without regard to the 10-day period after notice and demand prescribed in section 3690. (See § 323.53.)*

SEC. 3304. REDEMPTION OF STAMPS.

(a) Authorization. The Commissioner, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, may, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, make allowance for or redeem such of the stamps, issued under authority of law, to denote the payment of any internal revenue tax * * * where the rates or duties represented thereby have been excessive in amount, paid in error, or in any manner wrongfully collected.

(b) Method and conditions of allowance. Such allowance or redemption may be made • • • by refunding the amount or value to the owner thereof • • •; but no allowance or redemption shall be made in any case until the stamps • • • shall have been returned to the Commissioner, or until satisfactory proof has been made showing the reason why the same can not be returned • • •.

(d) Finality of Commissioner's decisions. The finding of facts in and the decision of the Commissioner upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by this section shall, in the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, be final and not subject to revision by any accounting officer.

The amount of the refund • • • shall not exceed the portion of the tax, penalty, or sum paid during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the claim • • •.

§ 323.55 Claims. (a) Claims for abatement or refund of special taxes and ad valorem penalties erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, and claims for the redemption of special tax stamps shall be filed on Form 843 with the collector. The claim must set forth in detail and under oath each ground upon which it is made, and facts sufficient to apprise the Commissioner of the exact basis thereof. If the claim is for redemption of a special tax stamp, such stamp shall be attached to and made a part of the claim.

(b) No claim for the refund of a special tax or penalty or for the redemption of a special tax stamp shall be allowed unless presented within four years next after the payment of such tax or penalty or the purchase of such stamp.

(c) A special tax payer who for any reason discontinues business is not entitled to any refund for the unexpired portion of the fiscal year for which the special tax stamp was issued.*

Whereas the Administrator, upon reviewing all the evidence adduced in this proceeding and giving consideration to the provisions of the Act with special reference to Sections 5 and 8, has concluded that the Industry Committee's recommendation for the Passenger Motor Carrier Industry, as defined by Administrative Order No. 117, is made in accordance with law, is supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the Industry Committee, will carry out the purposes of the Act; and

Whereas the Administrator has set forth his decision in an opinion entitled "Findings and Opinion of the Administrator in the Matter of the Recommendation of Industry Committee No. 33 for a Minimum Wage Rate in the Passenger Motor Carrier Industry," dated this day, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Divi-

CHAPTER XI—OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 47—OLD RAGS

The Office of Price Administration, being charged with the maintenance of price stability and the prevention of undue price rises and economic dislocations, has determined after an exhaustive investigation and after conferences with representatives of all branches of the trade, that the defense effort has placed an increasing burden upon the supply of old rags since it is a basic raw material in the manufacture of roofing and building material, that additional demands have been made upon the supply of old rags due to the fact that old rags are used in the manufacture of many high grades of paper, and that the large percentage of old rags previously imported has been shut off by the war.

Inflationary price rises threaten, and immediate action to prevent disastrous price spiraling is essential. The establishment of maximum prices for old rags is essential in order to accomplish these purposes and is in the interest of national defense and national welfare. The maximum prices set forth herein are fair and reasonable.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1347.101 Maximum prices for old rags. On and after December 20, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer old rags, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of old rags at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendices A, B, and C hereof, incorporated herein as §§ 1347.110, 1347.111, and 1347.112.*

*§§ 1347.101 to 1347.112, inclusive, issued pursuant to authority contained in Executive Order Nos. 8734, 8875, 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

§ 1347.102 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendices A and B may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1347.103 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of old rags, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.*

§ 1347.104 Records and reports. Every person making purchases or sales aggregating ten tons or more of old rags in any one month after December, 1941 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale made during such month and each month thereafter, showing the date thereof, the name of the buyer and of the seller, the prices paid or received, and the quantity and grade or grades so purchased or sold. Such records shall set forth separately the f. o. b. point of shipment price and the transportation charge. Persons affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1347.106 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof, (b) that the powers of Government, both state and federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule, (c) that full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of state, county, and local governments through calling to the attention of the proper authorities failures to comply with this Schedule which may be regarded as grounds for the revocation of licenses and permits; and (d) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand, or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

[Docket No. B-127]

IN THE MATTER OF J. A. WILLIAMSON, J. W. GILLIAM, R. L. BEARE, JR., INDIVIDUALLY, AND AS CO-PARTNERS, DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE NAME AND STYLE OF BEARE FUEL COMPANY, REGISTERED DISTRIBUTOR, REGISTRATION NO. 0554, RESPONDENTS

NOTICE AND ORDER FOR HEARING

1. The Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") finds it necessary, in the proper administration of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), and the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code") promulgated thereunder, to determine

(a) whether or not J. A. Williamson, J. W. Gilliam, and R. L. Beare, Jr., individually, and as co-partners, doing business under the name and style of Beare Fuel Company, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 0554, respondents in the above-entitled matter, whose addresses are Jackson, Tennessee, have violated any provisions of the Act, the

[1] 6 F.R. 6152.

Code, and orders or regulations of the Division including the Marketing Rules and Regulations, the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, and the Distributors' Agreement (the "Agreement"), dated April 11, 1939, executed by said distributor pursuant to Order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission dated March 24, 1939, in General Docket No. 12, which was adopted as an Order of the Bituminous Coal Division on July 1, 1939; and

(b) whether or not the registration of said distributor should be revoked or suspended or other appropriate penalties should be imposed; and for said purposes gives notice that it has information to the effect that:

2. Respondents are J. A. Williamson, J. W. Gilliam, and R. L. Beare, Jr., individually, and as co-partners doing business under the name and style of Beare Fuel Company, a partnership organized in the State of Tennessee in the year 1934, and engaged as a distributor pursuant to the Distributors Regulations, in the business of purchasing and reselling of bituminous coal.

3. Beare Ice and Coal Company is a corporation incorporated in the State of Tennessee and is engaged in the business of retailing coal through retail yards located at Jackson, Milan, Humboldt, Trenton, and Bolivar, Tennessee.

4. Respondents during the period from October 1, 1940, to June 23, 1941, both dates inclusive, purchased approximately 10184.25 net tons of various sizes of bituminous coal in carload lot quantities from code members and secured, accepted and retained distributors discounts from the effective minimum prices of said coal. This coal was resold by respondents to Beare Ice and Coal Company, delivered to said company's retail yards described in paragraph 3 hereof.

5. During the period referred to in paragraph 4 hereof, the said J. A. Williamson, J. W. Gilliam, and R. L. Beare, Jr., were officers and directors of Beare Ice and Coal Company, and respondents were under the control, financially or otherwise, of said retailer. Respondents in securing, accepting, and retaining the discounts referred to in paragraph 4 hereof, thereby violated § 304.19 (c) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors and Paragraph (h) of the Agreement.

6. In securing, accepting, and retaining the discounts referred to in paragraph 4 hereof, respondents violated paragraph (d) of the Agreement, since such transactions were not purchases of coal for bona fide resale.

7. In securing, accepting, and retaining the discounts referred to in paragraph 4 hereof, respondents violated paragraph (g) of the Agreement, since no service of value was rendered by respondents to the code member vendors in said transactions. Said transactions were entered into between respondents and their vendees primarily for the purpose of unjustly enriching respondents, and except for the incidence of section 4 II (h) of the Act, said vendee would have purchased the coal directly from a code member.

8. Respondents acted, in fact or effect, as an agency or instrumentality of the Beare Ice and Coal Company in the transactions referred to in paragraph 4 hereof and in securing, accepting and retaining commissions on said transactions respondents violated section 4 II (i) (12) of the Act, Part II (i) (12) of the Code, Rule 12 of Section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations and paragraphs (c) and (e) of the Agreement.

It is, therefore, ordered, That a hearing pursuant to § 304.14 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, to determine whether the registration of said distributor should be revoked or suspended, or other appropriate penalties be imposed, be held on January 7, 1942, at 10 a. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 339, Post Office Building, Memphis, Tennessee.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division designated by the Acting Director thereof for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit to the Acting Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said respondents and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding.

Notice is hereby given that answer to charges contained herein must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the field offices of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the respondents; and that any respondent failing to file an answer within such period, unless the Acting Director or the presiding officer shall otherwise order, shall be deemed to have admitted said charges and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

Dated: December 5, 1941.

[Docket No. B-132]

IN THE MATTER OF DEXTER-CARPENTER COAL CO., INC., REGISTERED DISTRIBUTOR, REGISTRATION NO. 2304, RESPONDENT

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

1. The Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") finds it necessary, in the proper administration of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), and the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code") promulgated thereunder, to determine

(a) whether or not the Dexter-Carpenter Coal Co., Inc., Registered Distributor, Registration No. 2304, whose address is 32 Broadway, New York, New York, the respondent in the above-entitled matter, has violated any provisions of the Act, the Code, any Orders or Regulations of the Division including the Marketing Rules and Regulations, the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors (the "Distributor's Regulations"), and the Distributor's Agreement (the "Agreement") dated December 6, 1939, executed by respondent, pursuant to Order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission, dated March 24, 1939, in General Docket No. 12, which was adopted as an Order of the Bituminous Coal Division on July 1, 1939; and

(b) whether or not the registration of said distributor should be revoked or suspended or other appropriate penalties should be imposed;

and for said purposes gives notice that the Division has information to the effect that:

2. Respondent is a corporation, incorporated in the State of New York in the year 1924, engaged as a distributor pursuant to the Distributor's Regulations in the business of purchasing and reselling bituminous coal.

3. Respondent entered into a sales agency agreement dated September 30, 1940, filed with the Division on December 19, 1940, with the Reed Coal Mining Company, code member principal, operating the Reed No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 416, located in Cambria County, Pennsylvania, in District No. 1, which contract provided for payment to the sales agent of a commission of 7% of the sale price on coal sold directly to the consumer and 11% of the sale price on coal sold to registered distributors.

4. Respondent, during the period from November 16, 1940, to August 13, 1941, both dates inclusive, sold directly to consumers in behalf of said code member, pursuant to said sales agency agreement, 22 cars of approximately 994.40 net tons of various sizes of coal produced at said mine. Respondent accepted and retained commissions on said transactions in the aggregate amount of $202.72 in excess of the aggregate amount of the commissions to which respondent was entitled on said transactions on the basis of 7% of the selling price as stipulated in said sales agency agreement, although a certified copy of an agreement modifying the sales commission in said sales agency agreement was not filed with the Division as required by Rule 4 (B) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and said excessive commissions were thereby paid in violation of Rule 9 (a) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

5. Respondent, in accepting and retaining the excessive commissions referred to in paragraph (4) hereof, participated in transactions which were in violation of Rule 9 (a) of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations and thereby violated paragraph (e) of the Agreement.

It is, therefore, ordered, That a hearing pursuant to § 304.14 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors to determine whether the registration of said distributor should be revoked or suspended, or other appropriate penalties be imposed, be held on January 12, 1942, at 10 a. m. at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room D, Washington Hotel, Washington D. C.

It is further ordered, That Floyd McGown or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said respondent, and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in such proceeding.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the charges alleged herein must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the respondent; and that any respondent failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the alleged charges and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

[Docket No. A-661]

PETITION OF SHELBY ELKHORN COAL COMPANY, A PRODUCER IN DISTRICT NO. 8, FOR A CHANGE IN MINIMUM PRICES AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES IN ADDITIONAL SIZE GROUPS

ORDER DISMISSING PETITION

The original petition in the above-entitled matter was filed with this Division on February 11, 1941, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the above-entitled party. The petition prayed for a change in the effective minimum prices, and the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices in certain additional size groups, for the coals of Shelby Elkhorn Coal Company, a code member in District No. 8. It was alleged that the requested reductions in the effective minimum prices for these coals were necessary in order that they might be priced at a parity with comparable coals produced in the same seam.

By an Order of the Director dated March 24, 1941, the matter was scheduled for hearing on April 10, 1941, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C., before Charles A. Mitchell, Examiner.

The hearing convened as scheduled but was thereupon continued until further order when it appeared that District Board No. 8 proposed to file a petition concerning the matters contained in this original petition, and that the original petitioner had not appeared, being apparently content to await the Board's action. Subsequently, a petition was filed by District Board 8, designated as Docket No. A-991, which prayed for an increase in the effective minimum prices for certain coals alleged to be comparable to the coals of the original petitioner in the above-entitled matter, whereby all of them would be priced at a parity, as sought by the latter's petition in this proceeding. A hearing was held in Docket No. A-991 on September 29, 1941, and a final Order issued on November 28, 1941 granting relief as prayed for by the original petitioner in that proceeding.

No word was received by the Division from the original petitioner in the above-entitled matter after the continuance of the hearing on April 10, 1941. Subsequently by an Order of the Director dated October 30, 1941, the above-entitled matter was again scheduled for hearing on November 18, 1941. The hearing was convened at that time, but the original petitioner again failed to appear.

In view of the foregoing circumstances, it appears that the original petitioner has no further interest in the above-entitled matter.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the original petition in the above-entitled matter is dismissed without prejudice.

Dated: December 5, 1941.

It appearing to the Acting Director that the place and date of said hearing should now be designated;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be held on January 8, 1942, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division at Room 339, Post Office Building, Memphis, Tennessee.

PETITION OF BORTZ COAL COMPANY FOR CHANGES IN SHIPPING POINT OF GRIMM FARM MINE, MINE INDEX NO. 338, IN DISTRICT NO. 2, FOR ALL SHIPMENTS EXCEPT TRUCK

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND CONDITIONALLY PROVIDING FOR FINAL RELIEF

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting a change in the shipping point of the Grimm Farm Mine, Mine Index No. 338, of Bortz Coal Company, in District No. 2, from Daugherty Siding, Pennsylvania, on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, to Crawford No. 3 Siding of Faywest Coal Company, on the said railroad, for rail shipments, and a change in the name of the said mine from "Grimm Farm" to "Daugherty No. 2"; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled proceeding, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the price classifications and minimum prices effective for the coals of the Grimm Farm Mine, Mine Index No. 338, of Bortz Coal Company, for rail shipments, shall be applicable only for shipments on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad from Crawford No. 3 Siding of Faywest Coal Company, and shall no longer be applicable for shipments on the said railroad from Daugherty Siding, Pennsylvania. That portion of the petition relating to a change in mine name will be deemed to be a report filed pursuant to Bituminous Coal Division Order No. 288 and for that reason no relief is granted herein as to that portion.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 6, 1941.

[P. & S. Docket No. 1442]

IN RE H. L. BOWMAN DOING BUSINESS AS H. L. BOWMAN CATTLE COMPANY, RESPONDENT

ORDER OF INQUIRY, ORDER OF SUSPENSION, AND NOTICES OF HEARING

This proceeding is instituted pursuant to the provisions of Title III of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. and Supp. V, §§ 181–231), and the following allegations are made:

1. The respondent is engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard at Maquoketa, in the State of Iowa, which stockyard has been ascertained by the Secretary of Agriculture to be a "stockyard" within the definition thereof as used in the act, and which has been posted as such by the Secretary of Agriculture under the act.

2. The respondent is registered as a market agency and dealer under the Packers and Stockyards Act and is engaged in the business of buying and/or selling livestock, in commerce, on a commission basis.

3. In accordance with the requirement of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the respondent has heretofore filed and put into effect schedules of rates and charges for its services.

4. On or about November 28, 1941, the respondent made, filed and published, effective December 8, 1941, a new schedule of rates and charges designated as Supplement No. 3 to Tariff No. 1, providing for rates and charges which are materially greater than those set forth in the schedule now on file.

5. Upon an examination of the records and other information in the possession of the Department of Agriculture, there is reason to believe that the increases proposed by such new schedule are not justified, and that such increases are, in fact, unreasonable.

It is concluded that a proceeding under Title III of the act should be had for the purpose of determining the reasonableness and lawfulness of the rates and charges set forth in Supplement No. 3 to Tariff No. 1, and that pending a hearing and decision in such proceeding, the operation of such tariff should be suspended and its use deferred.

It is further concluded that a hearing should be had for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of all rates and charges of the respondent and of any rule, regulation, or practice affecting said rates and charges, and whether any stockyard service is rendered by the respondent without making a lawful charge therefor.

It is therefore ordered, That the operation and use of the tariff filed by the respondent on November 28, 1941, and designated as Supplement No. 3 to Tariff No. 1, shall be and it is hereby suspended and deferred until the expiration of thirty days beyond the time when such tariff would otherwise go into effect.

It is further ordered, That a hearing covering the allegations made herein shall be held before an examiner at a time and place of which the respondent will have at least ten days' notice. At such hearing, the respondent and all other interested persons will have a right to appear and present such evidence with respect to the matters and things alleged as may be relevant and material.

It is further ordered, That any and all interested persons who may wish to appear and present evidence relative to the issues in this proceeding shall give notice thereof by filing a statement to that effect with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., on or before the thirty-first day of December 1941.

It is further ordered, That a copy hereof be served upon the respondent by registered mail.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of December 1941. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

Division of Public Contracts.

EXEMPTION FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 1 (a) OF THE WALSH-HEALEY PUBLIC CONTRACTS ACT TO PERMIT DEFENSE PRODUCTION ASSOCIATIONS TO RECEIVE CONTRACTS SUBJECT TO THE ACT

The Secretaries of War and the Navy having requested that an exemption be granted under section 6 of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35), hereinafter called the Act, permitting the award of contracts subject to the Act to individuals, corporations, or other organizations acting at the instance of Defense Production Associations wtihout the inclusion in such contracts of the representation and stipulation that the contractor is a manufacturer or regular dealer as provided in section 1 (a) of the Act when such individual, corporation, or other organization is unable to make such representation and stipulation; and

It appearing that pursuant to Executive Order No. 8891 (6 F.R. 4623) dated September 4, 1941 the Division of Contract Distribution of the Office of Production Management has been set up and will certify as Defense Production Associations groups of manufacturers who, collectively having facilities which may be used to manufacture defense articles and having agreed among themselves for the use of their facilities for such manufacture, are found by that Division to be appropriate in form and character to carry out the purposes of the executive order; and

It being necessary for a Defense Production Association to negotiate contracts with agencies of the United States through some legal entity or entities capable of contracting, which entity or entities are sometimes not possessed of manufacturing or retailing facilities of their own; and

The Secretaries of War and the Navy having found that the inclusion in all contracts for defense articles of the representation and stipulation that the contractor is a manufacturer of or regular dealer in such articles will seriously impair the conduct of government business by making it impossible for entities acting at the instance of duly certified Defense Production Associations to take contracts if such entities do not themselves possess the facilities of manufacturers or regular dealers; and

Opportunity to show cause why such exemption should not be granted having been afforded to all interested parties and no objection to the granting of such exemption having been filed; and

It appearing that justice and the public interest will be served thereby

I hereby exempt, pursuant to the powers vested in me by the Act, all contracts awarded to individuals, corporations, or other organizations capable of contracting, not manufacturers or regular dealers as those terms are used in the Act but acting at the instance of Defense Production Associations duly certified by the Division of Contract Distribution of the Office of Production Management as appropriate in form and character to carry out the purposes of Executive Order No. 8891, from the requirement that the contractor represent and stipulate that he is a manufacturer or regular dealer as provided in section 1 (a) of the Act.

Nothing in this exemption shall be construed in any wise to authorize the elimination from the contracts of any of the other representations and stipulations of the Act.

Dated: December 5, 1941.

In carrying out such regulations within the continental United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Alaska, the Attorney General is authorized to utilize such agencies, officers and departments of the United States and of the several states, territories, dependencies and municipalities thereof and of the District of Columbia as he may select for the purpose. Similarly the Secretary of War in carrying out such regulations in the Canal Zone, the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippine Islands is authorized to use such agents, agencies, officers and departments of the United States and of the territories, dependencies and municipalities thereof as he may select for the purpose. All such agents, agencies, officers and departments are hereby granted full authority for all acts done by them in the execution of such regulations when acting by direction of the Attorney General or the Secretary of War, as the case may be.

(2) The exercise of the power to prescribe restricted areas and the power of arrest, detention and internment of alien enemies in the Canal Zone, the Hawaiian Islands or the Philippine Islands shall be under the jurisdiction of the Military Commanders of each such territory, each acting under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall hereafter prescribe.

(3) No alien enemy shall enter or leave Alaska, Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands except under such regulations as the Attorney General shall from time to time prescribe. Any alien enemy found in Alaska, Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands in violation of any such regulations and any alien enemy who enters or is found within any restricted area to be hereafter prescribed by the Military Commanders of each such territory in Alaska, Puerto Rico and by the Naval Commander in the Virgin Islands, shall be immediately apprehended by the authority of the Attorney General acting through the United States Attorney in each such territory and detained until it is determined, under the regulations to be prescribed by the Attorney General, whether any such alien enemy shall either be released, released on bond, or permanently interned, as the case may be.

(4) The Military Commanders in Alaska and Puerto Rico and the Naval Commander in the Virgin Islands shall have the power to prescribe restricted areas.

(5) No alien enemy shall have in his possession, custody or control at any time or place or use or operate any of the following enumerated articles:

a. Firearms.
b. Weapons or implements of war or component parts thereof.
c. Ammunition.
d. Bombs.
e. Explosives or material used in the manufacture of explosives.

All such property found in the possession of any alien enemy in violation of the foregoing regulations shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture.

(6) No alien enemy shall undertake any air flight or ascend into the air in any airplane, aircraft or balloon of any sort whether owned governmentally, commercially or privately, except that travel by an alien enemy in an airplane or aircraft may be authorized by the Attorney General, or his representative, or the Secretary of War, or his representative, in their respective jurisdictions, under such regulations as they shall prescribe.

(7) Alien enemies deemed dangerous to the public peace or safety of the United States by the Attorney General or the Secretary of War, as the case may be, are subject to summary apprehension. Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true.

Contemporaneously with the filing of such answer the respondent may give notice in writing that he desires to be heard on the question as to whether the admitted facts constitute the violation of law charged in the complaint. Pursuant to such notice, the respondent may file a brief, directed solely to that question, in accordance with Rule XXIII.

§ 2.23 Briefs. Filing. Any party to a proceeding may file a brief with the Secretary of the Commission, in support of his contentions, within the time limits fixed by these rules.

Time. Opening brief in support of the complaint shall be filed by the trial attorney of the Commission within twenty (20) days after service upon him of copy of the report of the trial examiner.

Brief on behalf of respondent shall be filed within twenty (20) days after service upon respondent or respondent's attorney of copy of brief in support of the complaint.

Where respondent shall have filed an answer admitting all material allegations of fact, the time so limited shall begin to run at the time of filing such answer.

Reply briefs in support of the complaint, if any, shall be filed within ten (10) days after filing of brief on behalf of respondent.

Number. Twenty (20) copies of each brief shall be filed.

Contents. Briefs, except the reply brief in support of the complaint, shall contain, in the following order:

(a) A concise abstract or statement of the case;

(b) A brief of the argument, exhibiting a clear statement of the points of fact or law to be discussed, with references to the pages of the record and the authorities relied upon in support of each point;

(c) The exceptions, if any, to the report of the trial examiner.

Index. Briefs comprising more than ten (10) pages shall contain on their top fly leaves a subject index with page references. The subject index shall be supplemented by an alphabetical list of all cases referred to, with references to pages where references are cited.

No further reply brief on behalf of respondent shall be filed.

Briefs on behalf of respondent shall be printed or lithographed on good unglazed white paper in type not smaller than ten (10) point double leaded, citations and quotations single leaded; footnotes not less than eight (8) point single leaded. § 2.28 Confidential records and information. The records and files of the Commission, and all documents, memoranda, correspondence, exhibits and information of whatever nature coming into the possession or within the knowledge of the Commission or any of its officers or employees in the discharge of their official duties, are confidential, and none of such material or information may be disclosed, divulged, or produced for inspection or copying except under the following circumstances:

(a) Information concerning the activities of the Commission will be released from time to time under the direction or pursuant to the authority of the Commission.

(b) In proceedings instituted by the issuance of formal complaint, the pleadings, transcript of testimony, exhibits, and all documents received in evidence or made a part of the record therein shall be available for inspection and copying by the public at the convenience of the Commission.

(c) Documents, records and reports made public by the Commission, including stipulations to cease and desist, certain trade practice conference records, and certain papers filed under the Wool Products Labeling Act, shall be available for inspection and copying at the convenience of the Commission.

(d) Upon good cause shown, the Commission may by order direct that certain records, files, papers or information be disclosed to a particular applicant.

(1) Application by a member of the public for such disclosure shall be in writing, under oath, setting forth (i) the interest of the applicant in the subject matter, (ii) a description of the specific information, files, documents or other material inspection of which is requested, (iii) whether copies are desired, and (iv) the purpose for which the information or material, or copies, will be used if the application is granted. Upon receipt of such an application the Commission will take such action thereupon as it shall deem expedient in the public interest.

(2) In the event that confidential material is desired for inspection, copying or use by some agency of the Federal or a State government, a request therefor may be made by the administrative head of such agency. Such request shall be in writing, and shall describe the information or material desired, its relevancy to the work and function of such agency and, if the production of documents or records or the taking of copies thereof is asked, the use which is intended to be made of them. The Commission will consider and act upon such requests, having due regard to the public interest and questions of expediency.

(e) In cases in which an officer or employee of the Commission has been lawfully served with a subpoena duces tecum, material designated herein as confidential shall be produced only when and as authorized by the Commission. Service of such a subpoena shall immediately be reported to the Commission with a statement of all relevant facts. The Commission will thereupon enter such order or give such instructions as it shall deem advisable in the premises. If the officer or employee so served has not received instructions from the Commission prior to the return date of the subpoena, he shall appear in response thereto and respectfully decline to produce the documents or records subpoenaed (pointing out that he is not permitted to do so under this rule), and request a continuance pending action by or instructions from the Commission. If, notwithstanding, the court or other body orders the production of any of the material subpoenaed, the officer or employee shall immediately report the facts to the Commission.

PART 1507—DISTRIBUTION

REGULATIONS GOVERNING PETROLEUM CONTAINERS, ETC.

To the Subcommittees on Containers, designated pursuant to the direction of the Petroleum Coordinator, and to all persons using containers for petroleum or petroleum products:

Pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defence, I do hereby recommend that:

§ 1507.2 Conservation of containers. The Subcommittees on Containers shall obtain and analyze all pertinent and available facts, figures, and other data and shall prepare therefrom a plan for the conservation of all types of metal containers used in the transportation, storage, distribution, and marketing of petroleum and petroleum products by making possible the preservation of such containers for the maximum life and usefulness thereof, for effecting to the highest degree possible the efficient re-use of such containers in the petroleum industry, and for avoiding inefficient use and loss of time in the use of such containers.*

*§§ 1507.2 to 1507.9, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760).

§ 1507.3 Standardization of containers. The Subcommittees shall prepare a plan for the standardization of containers employed in the petroleum industry as to sizes and shapes, and as to gauges of metal and characteristics of other materials in so far as is consistent with the requirements of defense and other essential uses, such plan to cover the elimination in so far as practicable of the use of containers of odd sizes and the use of small containers where larger containers will provide a reasonable means of transporting, distributing, or marketing the products involved; and the Subcommittees shall obtain and analyze specifications currently prescribed for containers for use by agencies of the Federal Government and shall include in the plan called for in this section conclusions concerning the possible standardization of such specifications in conformity with those considered for use by the industry generally.*

§ 1507.4 Substitution of containers made of materials other than metal. The Subcommittees shall prepare a plan for the use of containers for petroleum and petroleum products to be made of wood, paper, glass, or other available materials in place of containers made of metal, and for the substitution, in such metallic containers as are to be made for use in the petroleum industry, of such grade or grades of sheet metal as are most readily obtainable with the least conflict in the demand for sheet metals in the defense program, in so far as such substitutions may be made consistently with reasonable requirements of efficiency.*

§ 1507.5 Wooden barrels for export. The Subcommittees shall prepare a plan for the substitution of wooden barrels for steel drums as containers for petroleum and petroleum products, particularly in export shipments in order to insure to the highest degree practicable that steel containers will not be lost to use by the industry.*

§ 1507.6 Effectuating plans. The Subcommittees and all persons using containers for petroleum or petroleum products shall, upon the approval by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense of any plan prepared pursuant to any of the preceding § 1507.2 to 1507.5, inclusive, and pursuant to the direction of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, carry into effect such plan according to its terms, conditions, and intent.*

§ 1507.7 Survey of industry requirements. Upon the approval of the plans prepared pursuant to §§ 1507.2 to 1507.5, inclusive, the Subcommittees shall make a survey of the minimum requirements of the industry for the several types of metal containers necessary to provide the petroleum requirements of defense needs and essential civilian uses over such period or periods as may be determined by the Subcommittees as appropriate to reflect the minimum demand for material for such purposes.*

§ 1507.8 Costs survey. In the preparation of the plans pursuant to §§ 1507.2 to 1507.5, inclusive, and in carrying such plans into effect, the Subcommittees shall obtain, compile, and analyze facts figures, and other data showing such increases or decreases in costs as may be occasioned or realized in the execution of such plans. Reports shall be made to the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense covering such increases or decreases in costs in order that that Office and the Subcommittee may advise and consult with the Office of Price Administration or other appropriate Federal agency concerning the effect of such plans upon marketing costs.*

§ 1507.9 Meetings. Meetings of the Subcommittees and representatives of the petroleum industry shall be held from time to time for the purpose of preparing the aforesaid plans and reports; and the Subcommittees shall meet from time to time with any committees established by the Office of Production Management or other Federal agency to study the problems involved in the container and other related industries. The Subcommittees and representatives of the petroleum industry shall, upon the approval of any of the aforesaid plans by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, meet from time to time for the purpose of carrying into effect such plan in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this recommendation, including such means as may be appropriate to assist and encourage marketing branches of the industry to make the most widespread and efficient use of substitute and standardized containers.*

PROOF OF RELATIONSHIP AND DEPENDENCY

§ 2.1057 Conditions which determine dependency. (a) Dependency will not be held to exist if the father or mother, or both, have an income sufficient to provide for their reasonable support and maintenance, including clothing and necessary medical treatment for themselves and members of the family under legal age, or of any age if mentally or physically incapacitated.

(b) In determining the amount of income in a given case, account will be taken of the net income from property of every character owned by the mother or father or other members of the family under legal age, and of the earnings received by such father or mother or such other members of the family under legal age. Account will not be taken of the incomes of other members of the family of legal age, but only of the actual contributions made by such members of the family.

(c) The fact that the veteran has made habitual contributions to his father or mother, or both, is not conclusive evidence that dependency existed.

(d) The fact that the father or mother or other member of the family is a beneficiary of any insurance granted under the War Risk Insurance Act or World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, or National Service Life Insurance Act, 1940, or is in receipt of pension or compensation under the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration or receives benefits under the World War Adjusted Compensation Act, as amended, or the Adjusted Compensation Payment Act, 1936 will be disregarded in determining dependency, as will also the receipt of any donations or assistance from charitable sources.

(e) The remarriage of a parent does not, per se, bar entitlement, but is prima facie evidence that dependency has ceased. (December 9, 1941) [Pub. No. 242, 77th Congress]

If no agreement on such amendment be reached within * * * days from the date of delivery of such request, then the Contractor shall have the right, at any time thereafter and prior to the execution and approval, if required, of an agreement providing for the facilities required as hereinbefore stated, to demand in writing of the Contracting Officer that the Government terminate this contract upon the terms and conditions stated in Article 29 herein, and the Government agrees in such event to so terminate.

[Docket No. 1711-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF J. C. ROMAN, DEFENDANT

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER CORRECTING FINDINGS OF FACT CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

The Director, on November 3, 1941, issued, in the above-entitled proceedings, Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion, and an Order Revoking and Cancelling Code Membership. The Director, in said Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order found, inter alia, that the defendant herein had violated the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 19 by having sold coal, for which no effective minimum price had been established, during the period from January 8, 1941, to January 20, 1941. The prohibition provided by the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 19 against selling unpriced coal does not apply, with respect to coal produced and prepared by new acceptants of the Bituminous Coal Code at the time of filing acceptance thereof, after thirty (30) days from the filing of such acceptance. In finding that the defendant had violated the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 19, January 8, 1941, the effective date of the defendant's code membership acceptance, was inadvertently inserted as the beginning of said 30-day period rather than December 7, 1940, the date when the defendant filed a code membership acceptance. Had the correct date been used, it would have been clear that the defendant did not violate the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 19. The Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion, and Order Revoking and Cancelling Code Membership issued by the Director herein on November 3, 1941, should be corrected accordingly.

The violation by the defendant of the Order in General Docket No. 19 found by the Director was, however, but one of many violations found by the Director by the defendant of the Bituminous Coal Code and rules and regulations thereunder. Among other things, the Director found that the defendant violated section 4 II (e) of the Act, the Code, and the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 2 for Truck Shipments, by selling and delivering, during the period between January 31 and May 31, 1941, inclusive, 928.15 net tons of 2" x 0 and over, screenings produced at the Grillo Mine, Mine Index No. 1995, in the Pittsburgh Seam, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, at prices below the effective minimum price established therefor, and the amount of tax which the Director found was required to be paid by the defendant as a condition to reinstatement to membership in the Code, $796.35, was based solely upon this violation.

A review of the record herein is convincing that the penalty imposed upon the defendant for his violations of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder found by the Director, namely, revocation of code membership and the concomitant reinstatement tax of $796.35, is fully warranted by the violations found by the Director other than relating to General Docket No. 19.

It therefore appears that the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion, and Order Revoking and cancelling Code Membership issued by the Director on November 3, 1941, should be corrected with respect to the violations found by the Director concerning the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 19. It further appears that in all other respects said Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, Opinion, and Order should be unchanged and remain in full force and effect.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That all references contained in the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion of the Director issued herein on November 3, 1941, to a violation by the defendant of the Order in General Docket No. 19, be and they hereby are, stricken.

It is further ordered, That the Order Revoking and Cancelling Code Membership, issued herein by the Director on November 3, 1941, be, and it hereby is, corrected by striking therefrom paragraph numbered (7)..

It is further ordered, That in all other respects the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Opinion of the Director and the Order Revoking and Cancelling Code Membership, issued herein on November 3, 1941, remain unchanged and that they remain in full force and effect.

Dated: December 8, 1941.

[Regulations Serial Number 197]

PART 60—AIR TRAFFIC RULES

SPECIAL REGULATION, CIVIL AIR REGULATIONS, AUTHORIZING THE ADMINISTRATOR TO DESIGNATE NEW CONTROL ZONES AND OTHER NEW CONTROL AREAS PRIOR TO JANUARY 20, 1942

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of December 1941.

Whereas the Civil Aeronautics Board at a regular session held at its office in Washington, D. C., on November 21, 1941, adopted a series of amendments to Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations, such amendments being Nos. 60–25 to 60–43,[1] inclusive, whereby the Administrator was authorized to designate control zones and other control areas, etc.; and

Whereas the effective date of such series of amendments is January 20, 1942; and

It appearing that:

(a) A further designation of additional control zones or other control areas by the Civil Aeronautics Board at this time might be confusing to the flying public;

Notwithstanding the effective date of amendments Nos. 60–25 to 60–43, inclusive, to the Civil Air Regulations, the Administrator, in the interest of safety and after finding it necessary for the proper control of air traffic, may designate new or additional, or amend or repeal any existing designation of, control zones of intersection, radio fixes, airway traffic control areas, or control airports.

Such articles are likewise subject to tax without regard to their utilitarian value or purpose. (But see § 320.33 for the taxability of such articles where made of, or ornamented, mounted or fitted with, precious metals, or imitations thereof.)

For purposes of the tax, it is immaterial whether jewelry is real or imitation.

PAR. 3. Section 320.32 is amended by adding the following at the end thereof:

§ 320.32 Pearls, precious and semi-precious stones, and imitations thereof. • • • (But see § 320.31 for the taxability of certain articles where made of, or ornamented, mounted or fitted with, pearls, precious or semi-precious stones, or imitations thereof.)

PAR. 4. The third paragraph of § 320.37 is amended to read as follows:

Where an article otherwise taxable is sold for religious purposes and the article is of such nature as to be usable for non-religious as well as religious purposes, for example, crosses, candlesticks, vases, etc., the retailer must have in his possession a statement from the consumer certifying that the article was purchased solely for religious purposes in order to establish his right to exemption from the tax on the sale. However, if the article is of such nature as to be usable only for religious purposes, for example, a crucifix, rosary, chalice, etc., a statement from the purchaser or consumer will not be required to establish the tax exemption.

• • • • •

PAR. 5. Section 320.64 is amended by eliminating all but the first paragraph and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

§ 320.64 Returned goods; price adjustments. • • •

Where an article is sold and before use, the sale is rescinded by a return of the article to the retailer and by a refund or credit of the full amount of the purchase price, including tax, to the purchaser, no tax is payable with respect to the transaction. In such case, if a tax was paid by the retailer, the amount thereof may be applied as a credit upon a subsequent monthly return, or may be made the subject of a claim for refund.

Where an article is sold and before use, the sale is rescinded by a return of the article to the retailer, and the purchaser receives credit for the full amount of the purchase price, including tax, in an exchange of the article for another article, with appropriate adjustment for the difference, if any, in the values of both articles, the tax applies to the second article, if taxable, without regard to the time when the sale of the first article occurred, whether before, on, or after October 1, 1941. If a tax was paid by the retailer with respect to the first article, the amount thereof may be applied as a credit upon a subsequent monthly return or may be made the subject of a claim for refund.

Where an article sold under a guaranty contract is returned to the retailer from whom purchased, whether before or after use, by reason of a defect or a failure under the warranty, and a new article of the same kind is given without charge in exchange therefor, no tax is payable with respect to the transaction. In such case, there is no adjustment within the meaning of section 2407 (a) of the price at which the first article was sold; accordingly, no credit or refund of the tax, if any, paid with respect to the returned article is allowable. Where the purchaser receives an article, whether of the same kind or of a different kind, and is required to make some payment for the second article in addition to whatever amount is allowed as an adjustment for the returned defective article, the tax is payable with respect to the second article, if taxable, on the basis of the amount paid therefor, plus the amount allowed for the returned article. In that case, the amount allowed for the returned article is an adjustment within the meaning of section 2407 (a) of the price at which such article was sold, and the retailer may be allowed a refund or credit of that part of the tax, if any, paid with respect to such article which is proportionate to the part of the sales price allowed as an adjustment.

A credit or refund of tax is not allowable with respect to an article returned as a "trade-in" in the purchase of another article. In such case, there is no adjustment within the meaning of section 2407 (a) of the price at which the first article was sold. Instead, the sale of the second article is a separate and distinct transaction in which the first article is merely applied in part payment of the purchase price. Accordingly, the full amount of the tax due upon the sale of the second article is payable without any allowance or offset for the tax paid on the sale of the first article. (See § 320.5)

CHAPTER IX—OFFICE OF PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT

PART 933—COPPER

Conservation Order No. M–9–c as Amended December 10, 1941 Curtailing the Use of Copper in Certain Items

Section 933.4 (Conservation Order No. M–9–c) is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Whereas national defense requirements have created a shortage of Copper for the combined needs of defense, private account, and export; action has already been taken to increase and conserve the supply and to direct the distribution of Copper to insure deliveries for defense and essential civilian requirements; and the supply of Copper now is and will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless the use of Copper in the manufacture of many products where such use is not absolutely necessary for the defense or essential civilian requirements is curtailed or prohibited;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 933.4 Conservation order No. M–9–c as amended December 10, 1941—(a) Restrictions on use of copper in articles appearing on List "A"—(1) Curtailment to January 1, 1942. Except as provided in paragraph (b) hereof, during the period between October 15 and December 31, 1941, no manufacturer may use in the aggregate in the manufacture of any Item on List "A" attached, more Copper or Copper Base Alloy than the greater of the following two limits:

(i) One-half of the total amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy, respectively, used in the aggregate by him in the manufacture of such Item during the last three months of 1940, or

(ii) One-eighth of the total amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy, respectively, used in the aggregate by him in the manufacture of such Item during the year 1940.

If any Manufacturer is manufacturing any such Item which he did not manufacture in 1940, then during the period between October 15 and December 31, 1941, he may use in the aggregate in the manufacture of such Item Copper or Copper Base Alloy to a total amount not exceeding 50% of the total amount used in the aggregate by him in the manufacture of such Item during the period between August 1 and September 30, 1941.

(2) Prohibitions after January 1, 1942. Except as provided in paragraph (a), sub-paragraphs (3) and (4), and in paragraph (b) hereof, after January 1, 1942, no Manufacturer of any Item on List "A" attached, may use in the manufacture of any such Item any Copper or Copper Base Alloy.

(3) Substitution of plating in limited cases. Nothing contained in this paragraph (a), however, shall prevent the use of Copper or Copper Base Alloy for plating any Item included on List "A," provided:

(i) That such plating is not primarily for decorative purposes, and

(ii) That the use of or the normal wear on such Item would make impractical any other form of coating, and

(iii) That such Item was formerly plated with Copper or Copper Base Alloy, or if such Item was not formerly so plated, then provided that the total amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy to be used in the plating of each such Item is less than 5% of the amount that was used in the manufacture of each such Item immediately preceding the effective date of this Order.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) (2), a Manufacturer may, until March 31, 1942, complete the manufacture of any Item on List "A" provided:

(i) The Manufacturer has not used more Copper or Copper Base Alloy than permitted by the terms of this Order, and

(ii) The Manufacturer had on hand on December 1, 1941, Copper or Copper Base Alloy which, as of said date, was in a form or alloy in which it could not be used by himself or by any other Person in the manufacture of any Item not on List "A," and that no additional Copper or Copper Base Alloy beyond that covered in this sub-paragraph (ii) is required to complete the manufacture of such Item; and

(iii) In no event shall the amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy used in the aggregate in the manufacture of any such Item during the period between October 15, 1941 and March 31, 1942, exceed twice the amount permitted under sub-paragraph (a) (1) of this Order for the period between October 15 and December 31, 1941; and

(iv) On or before December 31, 1941, he files Form PD–189 with the Office of Production Management, Ref. M–9–c, establishing the facts entitling him to continue operations under the provisions of this paragraph and setting forth inventories and other particulars as called for therein.

(b) General exception. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in paragraphs (a) and (c) shall not apply to the use of Copper or Copper Base Alloy in the manufacture of any Item on List "B" attached where and to the extent that the use of any less scarce material is impractical, nor in articles, or parts thereof, which are being produced:

(1) Under a specific contract or subcontract for the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, or for any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," (Lend-Lease Act) if in any such case the use of Copper or Copper Base Alloy to the extent employed is required by the specifications of the prime contract, or

(2) For use to comply with Underwriters Regulations, or Safety Regulations issued under Governmental authority, provided the pertinent provisions of such Regulations were, in either case, in effect both on October 1, 1941, and on the date of such use, and specifically and exclusively require the use of Copper or Copper Base Alloy to the extent employed, or

(3) For use in chemical plants to the extent that corrosive action makes the use of any other material impractical, or

(4) For use in research laboratories and hospitals where and to the extent that the physical and chemical properties make the use of any other material impractical, or

(5) For use as part of the motive power or mechanical and electrical equipment of vessels other than pleasure craft where corrosive action makes the use of any other material impractical, or

(6) For use for repair or replacement purposes in plants employing chemical processes, in plants processing food, and in plants which are smelters or refiners of metal where in each case the existing installation is Copper or Copper Base Alloy and where and to the extent that chemical action makes the use of any other material impractical.

(c) Restrictions on use of copper in all other articles. During the period between October 15 and December 31, 1941, and during each 3 months' period thereafter, until further action by the Director of Priorities, no Manufacturer may use in the aggregate in the manufacture of any article not on List "A" attached, more Copper and Copper Base Alloy than the greater of the following three limits:

(1) 70% of the total amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy, respectively, used in the aggregate by him in the manufacture of such article during the last three months of 1940, or

(2) 17½% of the total amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy, respectively, used in the aggregate by him in the manufacture of such article during the year 1940, or plus in each such case, the amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy necessary to manufacture articles which are being produced pursuant to the exceptions of paragraph (b) hereof.

(3) 50% of the total amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy, respectively, used in the aggregate by him in the manufacture of such article during the period between July 1 and September 30, 1941;

The provisions of this paragraph shall not limit the amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy which a Manufacturer may use in the manufacture of any article which is being produced by him with the assistance of a Preference Rating Order (not including a Preference Rating Certificate) issued directly to and in the name of such Manufacturer which assigns a rating of A–2 or higher to deliveries to him of materials used in the production of such article provided that such limitations may be exceeded only to the extent that the use of any other material is impractical in the manufacture of such article.

(d) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries of copper or copper base alloy. No Person shall hereafter sell or deliver Copper or Copper Base Alloy, to any person if he knows, or has reason to believe such material is to be used in violation of the terms of this Order.

(e) Limitation of inventories. No Manufacturer shall accumulate an Inventory of Copper, or Copper Base Alloy (including scrap) or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or subassemblies in quantities in excess of a minimum practicable working Inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the production of Copper products by this Order. Any Manufacturer who has an Inventory in excess of a minimum practicable working Inventory is prohibited from receiving additional Copper or Copper Base Alloy (including scrap) or products thereof, beyond the extent necessary to maintain such minimum practicable working Inventory.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Priorities Regulation No. 1. All of the provisions and definitions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 issued by the Director of Priorities on August 27, 1941 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, are hereby included as a part of this Order with the same effect as if specifically set forth herein, except as otherwise specifically provided herein.

(2) Appeal. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Copper conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the Director of Priorities on Form PD-167, Ref.: M-9-c, Office of Production Management, Social Security Building, Washington, D. C., setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Priorities may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this Order shall apply to the use of material in all articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other Order of the Director of Priorities may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of Copper or Copper Base Alloy in the production of any article, the limitation of such other Order shall be observed.

(4) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this Order, or who willfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this Order, or by the Director of Priorities, or who otherwise willfully furnishes false information to the Director of Priorities or to the Office of Production Management may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director of Priorities from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director of Priorities may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(5) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(i) "Copper" means Copper metal which has been refined by any process of electrolysis, or fire refining to a grade and in a form (cathodes, wire bars, ingot bars, ingots, cakes, billets, wedge bars, or other refined shapes) suitable for fabrication, or in any subsequent stage of fabrication. It shall include Copper metal produced from scrap.

(ii) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy in the composition of which the percentage of Copper metal by weight equals or exceeds the percentage of all other metals.

(iii) "Inventory" of a person includes the Inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the Inventory of others where such Inventory is under the control of or under common control with or available for the use of such person.

(iv) "Manufacturer" means one who manufactures, fabricates, assembles, melts, casts, extrudes, rolls, turns, spins, or processes in any other way.

(v) "Item" means any article or any component part thereof.

(vi) "Use in the aggregate" means the amount of Copper or Copper Base Alloy contained in a completed article or Item multiplied by the total number of such articles or Items, respectively, completed in a given period.

(6) Installation. The restrictions of this Order do not apply to the installation of a finished product for the ultimate consumer.

(7) Effective date. This Order shall take effect upon the date of issuance and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Priorities. (P.D. Reg. 1, August 27, 1941, 6 F.R. 4489; O.P.M. Reg. 3 Amended, Sept. 2, 1941, 6 F.R. 4865; E.O. 8629, Jan. 7, 1941, 6 F.R. 191; E.O. 8875, Aug. 28, 1941, 6 F.R. 4483; sec. 2 (a), Public, No. 671, 76th Congress, Third Session, as amended by Public, No. 89, 77th Congress, First Session; sec. 9, Public, No. 783, 76th Congress, Third Session)

Issued this 10th day of December 1941.

DONALD M. NELSON,
Director of Priorities.

PART 1020—AUTOMATIC PHONOGRAPHS AND WEIGHING, AMUSEMENT AND GAMING MACHINES

Limitation Order L–21 to Restrict the Production of Automatic Phonographs and Weighing, Amusement and Gaming Machines

Whereas the demands of national defense have created a shortage of iron, steel, and other materials used in the manufacture of automatic phonographs, and weighing, amusement and gaming machines; action has already been taken to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of such materials to insure deliveries for defense and essential civilian requirements; and the present supply of these materials will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless the manufacture of automatic phonographs and weighing, amusement and gaming machines is curtailed and the use of critical material for such manufacture thereby reduced;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1020.1 General limitation order—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Automatic phonographs" means those automatic phonographs customarily (although not necessarily) coin-operated, and includes the following attachments or equipment for such phonographs:

(ii) Remote Control Adapters.
(iii) Microphone equipment.
(iv) Auxiliary speakers.
(v) Remote control boxes.
(vi) Impulse steppers.
(vii) Step receivers.
(viii) Music transmitters.
(ix) Wireless systems.
(x) Other auxiliary equipment.

(2) "Weighing and amusement machines" means those weighing and amusement machines or devices customarily (although not necessarily) coin-operated, including (but not limited to) so-called "pin-ball machines."

(3) "Gaming Machines" means those gaming machines or devices customarily (although not necessarily) coin-operated, including (but not limited to) so-called "slot machines."

(b) General restrictions—(1) Manufacturers of automatic phonographs and weighing and amusement machines. During the period beginning December 1 and ending December 31, 1941, no manufacturer of automatic phonographs and no manufacturer of weighing or amusement machines shall produce any type of such equipment in an amount greater than 75% of the monthly average of units of such type equipment produced by him during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941. During the period commencing January 1, 1942, and ending January 31, 1942, no manufacturer of automatic phonographs and no manufacturer of weighing or amusement machines shall produce per month any type of such equipment in an amount greater than 50% of the monthly average of units of such type equipment produced by him during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941. Thereafter, and until otherwise ordered, no manufacturer of automatic phonographs and no manufacturer of weighing or amusement machines shall produce per month any type of such equipment in an amount greater than 25% of the monthly average of such type equipment produced by him during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(2) Gaming machines. During the period beginning December 1 and ending December 31, 1941, no manufacturer of gaming machines shall produce any type of such equipment in an amount greater than 50% of the monthly average of units of such type equipment produced by him during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941. During the period commencing January 1, 1942 and ending January 31, 1942 no manufacturer of gaming machines shall produce any type of such equipment in an amount greater than 25% of the monthly average of units of such type equipment produced by him during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941. (c) Avoidance of excessive inventories. Manufacturers of automatic phonographs, and weighing, amusement and gaming machines shall not accumulate inventories of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or assembled automatic phonographs, or weighing, amusement and gaming machines in quantities in excess of practicable minimum working inventories.

(d) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Office of Production Management.

(f) Reports. Each manufacturer to whom this order applies shall file with the Electrical Appliances and Consumers' Durable Goods Branch of the Division of Civilian Supply of the Office of Production Management a monthly report on Form PD–182, and such other reports or questionnaires as said Office shall from time to time specify.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in his community, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense work, may appeal by a letter directed to the Director of Priorities, Social Security Building, Washington, D. C., setting forth the pertinent facts. The Director of Priorities may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this order, or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this order, or by the Director of Priorities, or otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Priorities or to the Office of Production Management may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director of Priorities from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director of Priorities may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Effective date. This order shall take effect upon the date of the issuance thereof and shall continue in effect until revoked by the Director of Priorities subject to such amendments or supplements thereto as may be issued from time to time by the Director of Priorities. (P.D. Reg. 1, Aug. 27, 1941, 6 F.R. 4489; O.P.M. PART 1350—EMERGENCY CIVILIAN DEFENSE MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 48—EMERGENCY CIVILIAN DEFENSE MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

The declaration by the Congress of the United States that a state of war exists between this country and the Japanese Empire makes it imperative that immediate steps be taken to insure the defense of the civilian population. To accomplish this end certain materials will be needed in large amounts. In certain localities, readily available supplies of many of these emergency defense materials may prove inadequate to meet the full demand of a large civilian population. The Director of Civilian Defense has requested the Office of Price Administration to turn its attention toward the stabilization of prices of certain of these emergency defense materials. As a measure of public security, it becomes necessary to establish maximum prices for such materials and equipment as may be affected by inordinate increases in demand due to the civilian defense program.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1350.1 Maximum prices for, and supporting provisions affecting sales of, emergency civilian defense materials and equipment. On and after the effective date of any schedule supplemental hereto, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer any emergency civilian defense material or equipment at prices higher than the maximum prices established for such material or equipment by such supplemental schedule, or in any other way contrary to the provisions of such supplemental schedule.*

*§§ 1350.1 to 1350.7, inclusive, issued pursuant to the authority contained in Executive Orders Nos. 8734, 8875, 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

§ 1350.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by any schedule supplemental hereto may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1350.3 Evasion. The limitations set forth in this Schedule or in any schedule supplemental hereto shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery or transfer of emergency civilian defense materials or equipment, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by a tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by any other means.*

§ 1350.4 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof, (b) that the powers of Government, both state and federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interest of those persons who conform with this Schedule, (c) that full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of state, county, and local governments by calling to the attention of the proper authorities failures to comply with this Schedule which may be regarded as grounds for the revocation of licenses and permits; and (d) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the receipt or demand of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1350.5 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule or any schedule supplemental hereto may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof or exception therefrom: Provided, That no applications under this section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1350.6 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity;

(b) "Emergency civilian defense materials and equipment" means any material or equipment defined in any schedule supplemental hereto.*

§ 1350.7 Effective date of schedule. This Schedule shall become effective on December 10, 1941.*

ORDER APPROVING AND ADOPTING THE PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT, PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE EXAMINER, AND REVOKING AND CANCELLING CODE MEMBERSHIP

This proceeding having been instituted upon a complaint filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 12, 1941, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 15, alleging that the Commercial Fuel Company, a code member in District 15, the defendant, had wilfully violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder by selling substantial quantities of 1¼" x 0 washed screenings (Size Group 13) produced at the defendant's No. 2 Mine, at $1.50 per ton f. o. b. the mine, which is the effective minimum price of said coals for industrial use, whereas the coal was not actually used for industrial purposes and should have been sold at not less than the effective minimum price for commercial use of $1.80 per ton, and praying that the Division either cancel and revoke the defendant's code membership or, in its discretion, direct the defendant to cease and desist from violations of the Code and rules and regulations thereunder;

A hearing in this matter having been held on September 10, 1941, before D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Kansas City, Missouri;

The Examiner having made and entered his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation in this matter, dated November 4, 1941, in which he found that the defendant wilfully violated the Act and the Code by selling, for shipment by rail, during the period from November 11, 1940, to March 20, 1941, 594 tons of 1¼" x 0 washed screenings at $1.55 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, which coal was classified as Size Group 13 and priced at $1.80 per net ton f. o. b. the mine in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck; and that the amount of tax required to be paid by the defendant as a condition to reinstatement to membership in the Code, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act, is $416.99; and recommended that the defendant's code membership be revoked and cancelled;

An opportunity having been afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Examiner's Report and supporting briefs, and no such exceptions or supporting briefs having been filed;

The undersigned having determined, after a consideration of the record, that the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Act, the code membership of the defendant, Commercial Fuel Company, operating the No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 36) in Cherokee County, Kansas, be and it hereby is revoked and canceled effective ten days from the date hereof;

It is further ordered, That prior to any reinstatement of the defendant to membership in the Code, the defendant shall pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $416.99, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of December, A. D. 1941.

[1] Modifies list posted stockyards 9 CFR 204.1.

[1] 4 F.R. 1607.

Due proceedings having been held under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission;

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I and Group II, as hereinafter set forth, which have been approved and received, respectively, by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of December 12, 1941.

Statement by the Commission

Trade practice rules for the Rayon and Silk Dyeing, Printing and Finishing Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under its trade practice conference procedure.

The rules are directed to the prevention of unfair trade practices under laws administered by the Commission in the interest of maintaining fair competition in industry and protection of the public.

The industry's business is estimated to aggregate nearly $100,000,000 annually, including the dyeing, bleaching, printing, finishing, or other processing, of fabrics made primarily of silk or rayon, or mixtures thereof; also skein-dyeing and other types of dyeing or finishing of fiber, yarn or fabric of similar composition, not including, however, the piece dyeing or processing of hosiery.

Application for establishment of trade practice rules was filed by members of the industry. Due proceedings thereon were had, including the holding of a general trade practice conference of the entire industry, the submission and consideration of proposed rules, and of briefs, memoranda and other presentations regarding the matter, together with public hearings at which all interested or affected parties were afforded opportunity to present their views to the Commission, including such pertinent information, suggestions or objections as they desired to submit.

Thereafter, and upon full consideration by the Commission of the entire matter, final action was taken whereby the Commission approved and received, respectively, the following trade practice rules in Group I and Group II.

The Rules

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote the maintenance of fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. Their operation is to be directed toward this end and is not to permit of the use of any practice which suppresses competition, restrains trade, fixes or controls price through combination or agreement, or which otherwise injures, destroys, or prevents competition.

Definitions

For the purposes of these rules and in their application, the following definitions shall apply unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) The term "product of the industry", as used herein, shall include the fabric, skein, yarn, or fiber which members of the industry process by dyeing, printing, bleaching, mercerizing, finishing, or other processing, for use, sale, distribution, or marketing by their customers, by so-called cutters-up, or by others, as articles of "commerce," whether in the processed form produced by members of the industry, or in the form of garments or products made therefrom. Such term shall also include the dyeing, printing, bleaching, mercerizing, finishing, or other processing by industry members of such fabric, skein, yarn, or fiber together with the necessary processing materials used to put such industry product in finished form. The term "product of the industry," as used herein, shall not include hosiery or the piece dyeing or processing of hosiery.

(2) The word "commerce" means commerce among the several States or with foreign nations, or in any Territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia, or between any such Territory and another, or between any such Territory and any State or foreign nation, or between the District of Columbia and any State or Territory or foreign nation.

(3) The word "rayon," as used herein, is the generic term for manufactured textile fiber or yarn produced chemically from cellulose or with a cellulose base and for thread, strands, or fabric made therefrom, regardless of whether such fiber or yarn be made under the viscose, acetate, cuprammonium, nitrocellulose, or other process.

Group I

The unfair trade practices embraced in these Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation, or other organization subject to its jurisdiction, of such unlawful practices in commerce.

§ 155.1 Misbranding and misrepresentation. The false or deceptive marking or branding of products of the industry, or the making or publishing of any false or deceptive advertisements, statements, or representations, concerning the dyeing, printing, bleaching, finishing, or processing of any products of the industry, or concerning their quality, quantity, weighting, fiber content, or preparation, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 1)

*§§ 155.1 to 155.16, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in 38 Stat. 717, as amended, and pursuant to other provisions of law administered by the Commission.

§ 155.2 Deceptive concealment. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use, or directly or indirectly to assist others in the use of, any deceptive selling method or other deceptive act or practice by concealing or failing to disclose textile content, weighting, and other information required to be disclosed by the Trade Practice Rules for the Rayon and Silk Industries as promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission on October 26, 1937, and November 4, 1938, respectively, or other applicable rules; or by any other means to engage in deceptive selling methods.* (Rule 2)

§ 155.3 Substitution of products. The practice of shipping or delivering products which do not conform to samples submitted, or to representations made prior to securing the order, without the consent of the customers to such substitutions, or with the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving the purchasing or consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 3)

§ 155.4 Imitation or simulation of trade-marks, trade names, etc. The imitation or simulation of the trade-marks, trade names, brands, or labels of competitors, with the tendency and capacity or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving the purchasing or consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 4)

§ 155.5 Defamation of competitors. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable business conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 5)

§ 155.6 Disparagement of products of competitors. The false disparagement of the grade, quality, quantity, weighting, fiber content, character, or processing of competitors' products or services is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 6)

§ 155.7 Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry, directly or indirectly, to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to contract for the processing of goods or products by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing with competitors.* (Rule 7)

§ 155.8 Procurement of competitors' confidential information by unfair means and wrongful use thereof. Obtaining information concerning the business of a competitor by bribery of an employee or agent of such competitor, by false or misleading statements, by the impersonation of one in authority, or by any other unfair means, and using the information so obtained in such a manner as to injure said competitor in his business or to suppress competition or unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 8)

§ 155.9 Inducing breach of contract. Inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 9)

§ 155.10 Unlawful interference. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, by means of any monopolistic practices, or through combination, conspiracy, coercion, boycott, threats, or any other unlawful means, directly or indirectly, to interfere with a competitor's right to purchase his materials and supplies from whomsoever he chooses, or to sell to whomsoever he chooses.* (Rule 10)

§ 155.11 Unfair threats of infringement suits. The circulation of threats of suit for infringement of patents or trade-marks among customers or prospective customers of competitors, not made in good faith but with the effect of intimidating such customers or prospective customers, or of hampering or injuring competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 11)

§ 155.12 Coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products. The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice.* (Rule 12)

§ 155.13 Bogus independents. It is an unfair trade practice to sell or offer to sell industry products through a pretended independent concern in such manner as to mislead or deceive customers or prospective customers into the erroneous belief that such concern is independent and in competition with that member of the industry owning or controlling such concern.* (Rule 13)

§ 155.14 Selling below cost. The practice of selling industry products below the seller's cost, when pursued with wrongful intent of thereby injuring a competitor and where the effect of such practice is to unreasonably restrain trade, tend to create a monopoly, or substantially lessen competition, is an unfair trade practice.

This rule is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued as a monopolistic practice with the wrongful intent referred to and coupled with the effect of unreasonably restraining trade, tending to create a monopoly, or substantially lessening competition.

The costs referred to in the rule are actual costs of the respective seller and not some other figure or average costs in the industry determined by an industry cost survey or otherwise.* (Rule 14)

§ 155.15 Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc., which effect unlawful price discrimination. (a) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, allowance for alleged imperfect workmanship after material has been cut, or other form of price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, allowance for alleged imperfect workmanship, or other form of price differential, effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of commodities of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce,[1] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce,[1] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them; Provided, however:

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[1] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (i) the market for the goods concerned, or (ii) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale, of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale, of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this Rule 15.

(f) Purchases by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals and charitable institutions not operated for profit. The foregoing provisions of this Rule 15 relate to practices within the purview of the Robinson-Patman Antidiscrimination Act, which Act and the application thereunder of this Rule 15 are subject to the limitations expressed in the amendment to such Robinson-Patman Antidiscrimination

[1] As used in Rule 15, the word "commerce" means trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States: Provided, That this shall not apply to the Philippine Islands.

Act, which amendment was approved May 26, 1938, and reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That nothing in the Act approved June 19, 1936 (Public, Numbered 692, Seventy-fourth Congress, second session), known as the Robinson-Patman Antidiscrimination Act, shall apply to purchases of their supplies for their own use by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit.

(52 Stat. 446; Supp. 4 U.S.C. Title 15, Sec. 13c).* (Rule 15)

§ 155.16 "End piece pilfering," false invoicing, etc. (a) In the course of or in connection with conduct of business by any member of the industry involving the sale of, or contract to furnish, products of the industry to his customers, it is an unfair trade practice for any such member to use the device or scheme of false invoicing or of so-called end piece pilfering or of any other device or scheme characterized by deception or fraud.

(b) For purposes of this rule, end piece pilfering shall mean the pilfering, purloining, or unauthorized conversion to his own use, by any member of the industry, of fabrics or yarn, or pieces thereof, belonging to his customers and bailed to such member for dyeing, printing, finishing, bleaching, or other processing.* (Rule 16)

Group II

Compliance with trade practice provisions embraced in Group II rules is considered to be conducive to sound business methods and is to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not, per se, constitute violation of law. Where, however, the practice of not complying with any such Group II rules is followed in such manner as to result in unfair methods of competition, or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, corrective proceedings may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of violation of Group I rules.

Rule A—Repudiation of contracts. Lawful contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market or by buyers on a declining market is condemned by the industry.

Rule B—Cost records. It is the judgment of the industry that each member should independently keep proper and accurate records for determining his costs.

Rule C—Arbitration. The industry approves the practice of handling business disputes between members of the industry and their customers in a fair and reasonable manner, coupled with a spirit of moderation and good will, and every effort should be made by the disputants themselves to compose their differences. If unable to do so, they should, if possible, submit these disputes to arbitration.

Promulgated and issued by the Federal Trade Commission December 12, 1941.

OTIS B. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

CHAPTER IX—OFFICE OF PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT

PART 978—UTILITIES

Maintenance, Repair and Supplies Amendment No. 3 to Preference Rating Order No. P–46 [5]

Whereas, maintenance, repair, operation and expansion of property and equipment of public utilities consumes large quantities of copper, zinc, iron, steel and aluminum; national defense requirements have created a shortage in these materials for defense, private account and for export; and the present supply of these materials will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless the current rate of consumption of such materials for maintenance, repair, operation and expansion of public utility property and equipment is limited to the minimum quantities essential for such purposes;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

Section 978.1 as heretofore amended is hereby amended as follows:

Paragraph (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 978.1 Preference rating order P–46. * * *

(a) Definitions. * * *

(1) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, governmental unit or other form of organization engaged in one or more of the following services:

(i) Supplying electric power directly or indirectly for general use by the public;

(ii) Supplying gas, natural or manufactured, directly or indirectly for general use by the public;

(iii) Supplying water directly or indirectly for general use by the public;

(iv) Public sanitation services, but not including manufacturers of public sanitation products;

(v) Supplying central steam heating directly or indirectly for general use by the public.

The term "Producer" includes any producer as herein defined, whether or not such producer has executed the acceptance attached hereto.

Paragraph (f) (3) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(f) Restrictions on deliveries, withdrawals and inventory.

* * * * * * *

(3) (i) No Producer shall, during any Calendar Quarterly Period, make withdrawals from stores or inventory of any items of Materials to be used as Operating Supplies or for Maintenance or Repair or for any other purpose the aggregate dollar volume of which shall exceed the aggregate dollar volume of the withdrawals of such items of Material of the same class during the corresponding quarter of 1940, or, at the Producer's option, 25% of the aggregate dollar volume of the withdrawals of such items of Material of the same class during the calendar year 1940 unless such withdrawals shall be specifically authorized in advance by the Office of Production Management on the Producer's application therefor.

(ii) No Producer shall make withdrawals from stores or inventory of Material to be used for additions to or expansion of property or equipment without securing approval in advance from the Office of Production Management, unless (a) the project or job is under construction and 40% of the total dollar value thereof is installed on December 5, 1941; or (b) the cost of material for the work order, job or project is less than $1,500 in the case of underground connections and $500 in the case of other additions to or expansion of property or equipment: Provided, however, That no single work order, job or project shall be subdivided into parts in order to come below these limits: And provided further, that in no event shall lines be extended more than 1,000 feet from existing facilities.

Paragraph (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Audits and reports. (1) Each Producer and each Supplier who applies the preference rating hereby assigned, and each person who accepts a purchase order or contract for Material to which the preference rating is applied, shall submit from time to time to an audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Office of Production Management.

(2) Each Producer and each such Supplier shall execute and file with the Office of Production Management such reports and questionnaires as said Office shall from time to time request. No such reports shall be filed until such time as the proper forms are prescribed by the Office of Production Management.

(3) Each Producer shall maintain a continuing inventory of Material included in stores accounts.

This Order shall take effect immediately. (P.D. Reg. 1, Aug. 27, 1941, 6 F.R. 4489; O.P.M. CHAPTER XI—OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

PART 1351—FOODS AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 50—GREEN COFFEE

The outbreak of war is threatening an inflationary increase in the price of coffee. This threatened increase is in part caused by conditions affecting foreign production and shipping to this country. During the past months, speculators attempted to profit from unbalanced inventory holdings and from threatened price and supply squeezes, despite adequate stocks in this and producing countries and an import quota for this year substantially higher than the estimated national consumption. Because of this past history and the present critical emergency, the Office of Price Administration hereby freezes all coffee prices at those which prevailed at New York City on December 8, 1941.

It is contemplated that, after completion of the studies now being made, a revised price schedule will be issued. If the studies so justify, prices lower than the maximum prices herein will be ordered.

[2] 6 F.R. 5795.
[3] 6 F.R. 4828.
[4] 6 F.R. 4231.
[5] 6 F.R. 4784, 4921, 5995.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1351.1 Maximum prices for green coffee. (a) On and after December 11, 1941, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer green coffee, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of green coffee at prices higher than the maximum prices; except that contracts entered into prior to December 11, 1941, calling for a price higher than the maximum prices may be carried out at the contract price. The maximum prices shall include all commissions and other charges.

(b) The maximum prices for the grades of green coffee shall be the prices specified below. These prices are for the best quality of each grade named. Poorer qualities shall be priced at the customary differentials.

1. Brazil grades:

	Cents per pound ex dock or warehouse New York City
Santos No. 4	13⅛

The maximum prices for all other Brazilian grades shall be determined by applying the customary differentials to the above maximum prices.

Harrar, Longberry	15½
Costa Rica, Prime	17
Salvador, Washed	15
Haiti, Washed	13½
San Domingo, Washed	13

The maximum prices for all other mild grades of green coffee shall be determined by applying the customary differentials to the above maximum prices for the corresponding mild grades.

(c) The maximum prices for all grades, ex dock or warehouse New Orleans, and ex dock or warehouse San Francisco, shall be determined by applying the customary trade differentials at these points.

(d) The maximum prices ex dock or warehouse for any other port of entry shall be determined by applying the customary trade differentials at that port.

(e) The delivered price for any grade of green coffee shall in no case exceed the maximum price plus the actual transportation charges from, as the case may be, New York City, New Orleans, or San Francisco, or other port of entry ex dock or warehouse.

(f) The above prices shall be the maximum prices for all transactions except for futures contracts traded on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange. For such contracts the maximum prices shall be the closing prices on the Exchange as of December 8, 1941, for all the months then traded in as follows:

§ 1351.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Schedule may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1351.3 Records and reports. Any person receiving or delivering green coffee on and after December 11, 1941, under any contract entered into previous thereto at prices higher than the maximum prices established by the Schedule shall report such delivery or receipt to the Office of Price Administration within ten days thereof, stating (a) the name and address of the buyer and seller; (b) the actual date of the contract; (c) the date of delivery or receipt; and (d) the price, quantity, and description of the product sold.

Every person making purchases or sales of green coffee on and after December 11, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality, and amount sold.

Every person affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1351.4 Modification of schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof, or exception therefrom; Provided, That no applications under this Section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1351.5 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both State and Federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule; and (c) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand, or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation, or manipulation of prices of green coffee, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

PART 1351—FOODS AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 51—COCOA BEANS AND COCOA BUTTER

Cocoa is an imported food of material importance both in the National Defense program and in our civilian economy. Recent price rises, influenced by uncertainties in the shipping situation, have been of concern to this Office. During the past few weeks, this Office has engaged in a study of the price and supply factors with a view of establishing a price ceiling schedule for cocoa beans and cocoa butter. These recent price rises have taken place in spite of the fact that present stocks of cocoa beans in this country are the largest in history. The war emergency has given rise to a further increase in prices. The danger of serious inflation and price spiraling has made it imperative to issue immediately a schedule temporarily freezing prices at those which prevailed at New York City on December 8, 1941, for all grades and types of cocoa beans and cocoa butter.

It is contemplated that, after completion of the studies now being made, a revised price schedule will be issued. If the studies so justify, prices lower than the maximum prices herein will be ordered.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1351.51 Maximum prices for cocoa beans and cocoa butter. (a) On and after December 11, 1941, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer cocoa beans or cocoa butter, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of cocoa beans or cocoa butter at prices higher than the maximum prices, except that contracts entered into prior to December 11, 1941, calling for a price higher than the maximum prices may be carried out at the contract price. These maximum prices shall include all commissions and other charges.

(b) The maximum prices for the various grades of cocoa beans and cocoa butter shall be the following prices:

(c) The maximum prices ex dock or warehouse for any other port of entry shall be determined by applying the customary trade differential at that port.

(d) The delivered price for any grade of cocoa beans shall in no case exceed the maximum price plus the actual transportation charges from New York City or any other port of entry ex dock or warehouse.

(e) The above prices shall be the maximum prices for all transactions except for futures contracts traded on the New York Cocoa Exchange. For such contracts, the maximum prices shall be the closing prices on this Exchange as of December 8, 1941, for all the months then traded in as follows:

§ 1351.53 Records and reports. Any person receiving or delivering cocoa beans or cocoa butter on and after December 11, 1941, under any contract entered into previous thereto at prices higher than the maximum prices established by the Schedule shall report such delivery or receipt to the Office of Price Administration within ten days thereof, stating (a) the name and address of the buyer and seller; (b) the actual date of the contract; (c) the date of delivery or receipt; and (d) the price, quantity, and description of the product sold.

Every person making purchases or sales of cocoa beans or cocoa butter on and after December 11, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of every such purchase and sale, including the date thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality, and amount sold.

Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand, or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation, or manipulation of prices of cocoa beans or cocoa butter, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1351.56 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of cocoa beans or cocoa butter, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by any other trade understanding, by making discounts or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on December 8, 1941, or by any other means.*

§ 1351.57 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 52—PEPPER

Pepper is one of the imported commodities which has experienced during the past few months several sharp inflationary price movements. This was followed by a period of relative price stability. With the outbreak of war, the dangers of speculation and inflationary price rises have been magnified, mainly because of the fear of shipping shortages and eventual depletion of stocks. To prevent such unwarranted movements and to hold the stability achieved by the trade, the Office of Price Administration hereby freezes all pepper prices at those which prevailed at New York City on December 8, 1941.

It is contemplated that, after completion of the studies now being made, a revised price schedule will be issued. If the studies so justify, prices lower than the maximum prices herein will be ordered.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1351.101 Maximum prices for pepper. (a) On and after December 11, 1941, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer pepper, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of pepper at prices higher than the maximum prices, except that contracts entered into prior to December 11, 1941 calling for a price higher than the maximum prices may be carried out at the contract price. These maximum prices shall include all commissions and other charges.

(b) The maximum prices for the grades of pepper specified below shall be as follows:

Grade:	Cents per pound ex dock or warehouse New York City
Lampong Black Pepper	6.75
Aleppy Black Pepper	8.50
Java White Pepper	11.00
White Small Berries	10.00

The maximum prices for all other grades and types of pepper shall be determined by applying the differentials, customary within the American spice trade, to the maximum prices specified above.

(c) The maximum prices ex dock or warehouse for any other port of entry shall be determined by applying the customary trade differentials at that port.

(d) The delivered price for any grade of pepper shall in no case exceed the maximum prices plus the actual transportation charges from New York City or other port of entry ex dock or warehouse.

(e) The above prices shall be the maximum prices for all transactions except for futures contracts traded on the New York Produce Exchange. For such contracts the maximum prices shall be the closing prices on this Exchange as of December 8, 1941, for the months then traded in as follows:

	Cents per pound
December	6.39
1942
January	6.45
March	6.60
May	6.68
July	6.75
September	6.85
October	6.88

*§ 1351.101 to 1351.108, inclusive, issued pursuant to the authority contained in Executive Orders Nos. 8734, 8875, 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

§ 1351.102 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Schedule may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.*

§1351.103 Records and reports. Any person receiving or delivering pepper on and after December 11, 1941, under any contract entered into previous thereto at prices higher than the maximum prices established by the Schedule shall report such delivery or receipt to the Office of Price Administration within ten days thereof stating (a) the name and address of the buyer and seller; (b) the actual date of the contract; (c) the date of delivery or receipt; and (d) the price, quantity, and description of the product sold.

Every person making purchases or sales of pepper on and after December 11, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of every such purchase and sale, including the date thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality, and amount sold.

Every person affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1351.104 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof, or exception therefrom: Provided, That no applications under this section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1351.105 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both State and Federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule; and (c) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from these persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand, or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation or manipulation of prices of pepper, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1351.106 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of pepper, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by any other trade understanding, by making discounts or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on December 8, 1941, or by any other means.*

§ 1351.107 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity dealing in pepper.

(b) "Pepper" means whole or unground pepper as delivered to the processing trade.*

§ 1351.108 Effective date of schedule. This schedule shall become effective on December 11, 1941.

CHAPTER XIV—SUPPLY PRIORITIES AND ALLOCATIONS BOARD

PART 1600—REGULATIONS UNDER REQUISITIONING ACTS

Pursuant to Executive Order 8942 of November 19, 1941, the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board hereby establishes the following policies and prescribes the following regulations governing the requisitioning and disposal of property under the Act of October 10, 1940 (Public No. 829, 76th Congress) and the Act of October 16, 1941 (Public No. 274, 77th Congress):

Sec.

1600.1 General provisions applicable to all requisitioning proceedings.
1600.2 Provisions applicable to action initiated by the head of a department or agency other than the Office of Production Management.
1600.3 Provisions applicable only to requisitioning by the Office of Production Management.
1600.4 Matters pending under the Act of October 10, 1940.

§ 1600.1 General provisions applicable to all requisitioning proceedings. (a) As used in these Regulations, the term "Requisitioning Authority" means the Office of Production Management in all cases except when requisitioning is initiated under paragraph 4 of Executive Order 8942 in which case the term "Requisitioning Authority" means the head of the department or agency who shall have submitted the proposal for requisitioning to the Office of Production Management.

(b) Promptly after any property is requisitioned, notice of such requisition, in such manner and form as may be approved by the General Counsel of the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board, shall be given by the Requisitioning Authority to all persons known to have or claim any interest in such property; and all such persons shall be directed to file such claims with the Requisitioning Authority.

(c) As promptly as practicable after property is requisitioned the Requisitioning Authority shall make a preliminary determination of the fair and just compensation to be paid for such property and of the person or persons entitled thereto, and notice of such preliminary determination, in such manner and form as may be approved by the General Counsel of the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board, shall be given by the Requisitioning Authority to all persons known to have or claim an interest in such property.

(d) If a preliminary determination of the person or persons entitled to compensation cannot be made, or if any person known to have or claim an interest in such property shall file a written objection to a preliminary determination in accordance with paragraph (c), specifying the grounds for such objection, the Requisitioning Authority shall direct all such persons to appear in support of their claims before a board or official designated by the Requisitioning Authority for such purpose, at a specified time and place. Such board or official shall hear the claimants and shall receive any evidence relevant to the inquiry. A stenographic transcript of the proceeding before such board or official and copies of all written evidence submitted shall be preserved. Following such inquiry, such board or official shall make a recommendation to the Requisitioning Authority as to the person or persons entitled to compensation and the amount thereof, and thereupon the Requisitioning Authority shall make its final determination as to these matters.

(e) If, in any such proceeding, the person or persons entitled to compensation for the property requisitioned cannot be determined, the amount of such compensation shall nevertheless be determined; and such amount may be set aside and retained, or the proper appropriation charged therefor, until the person or persons entitled to receive the same shall be established.

(f) A Requisitioning Authority may exercise any power, duty or discretion vested in it under Executive Order 8942 or this Regulation, through such person or persons as it may designate.

(g) Any Requisitioning Authority, for the purpose of requiring and compelling a disclosure of information under section 4 of the Act of October 16, 1941, may administer oaths and affirmations, may require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance and testimony or witnesses and the production of any books or records or any other documentary or physical evidence which may be relevant to the inquiry. Such attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such books, records or other documentary or physical evidence may be required at any designated place from any State, Territory, or other place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.*

*§§ 1600.1 to 1600.4, inclusive, issued under the authority containing in Executive Order 8942, November 19, 1941, 6 F.R. 5909; Public No. 829, 76th Congress, Third Session; Public No. 274, 77th Congress, First Session.

§ 1600.2 Provisions applicable to action initiated by the head of a department or agency other than the Office of Production Management. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Chairman of the United States Maritime Commission, the Executive Director of the Economic Defense Board, or the head of such other agency as the President may from time to time designate shall, prior to requisitioning any property pursuant to the power granted by paragraph 4 of Executive Order 8942, submit to the Office of Production Management a written statement (in such form as may be approved by the General Counsel of the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board) setting forth in reasonable detail all pertinent facts with respect to the property which he proposes to requisition and the proposed disposal thereof, and certifying that he has made the determinations required under said paragraph 4.

(b) Upon the submission of any such proposal, the Office of Production Management shall determine whether such proposal is consistent with its priorities and allocations program and general production and supply plan. The Office of Production Management may consider and act upon the proposed requisitioning separately from the proposed disposal. The determination of the Office of Production Management shall be transmitted in writing to the Requisitioning Authority.

(c) If the proposed requisitioning is determined to be consistent with the priorities and allocations program and general production and supply plan of the Office of Production Management, the Requisitioning Authority may requisition the property in accordance with § 1600.1 hereof. If the proposed disposal of such property has been determined to be consistent with the priorities and allocations program and general production and supply plan of the Office of Production Management, such property shall be disposed of in accordance with such proposal; but if the Requisitioning Authority desires otherwise to dispose of such property, it may submit a new proposal for such disposal to the Office of Production Management.

(d) In any case in which any Requisitioning Authority which has requisitioned property pursuant to paragraph 4 of Executive Order 8942 determines that property requisitioned by it and retained is no longer needed for the defense of the United States and proposes to return it to the original owner thereof, it shall submit such proposal to the Office of Production Management, in the same manner as provided in § 1600.1 hereof, for determination as to whether such proposal is consistent with the priorities and allocations program and general production and supply plan of the Office of Production Management. The determination of the Office of Production Management shall be transmitted in writing to the Requisitioning Authority.

(e) In any case in which property is requisitioned or disposed of, or a determination of compensation or of a person entitled thereto is made, or property is returned to the original owner thereof, in accordance with this § 1600.2 or § 1600.4 hereof, the Requisitioning Authority shall report in reasonable detail concerning such requisitioning, determination and payment of compensation, disposal or return to the Office of Production Management within 15 days after the event.*

§ 1600.3 Provisions applicable only to requisitioning by the Office of Production Management. (a) The Office of Production Management shall keep a written record of each determination made by it, pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 8942 and the Acts, of the necessity for requisitioning property.

(b) Whenever the Office of Production Management determines to requisition property through another department or agency pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 of Executive Order 8942, it shall notify such department or agency and request (in such form as may be approved by the General Counsel of the Supply Priorities and Allocations Board) it to requisition and dispose of such property, and all action taken shall be in accordance with the determination of the Office of Production Management.*

§ 1600.4 Matters pending under the Act of October 10, 1940. This Regulation shall apply only with respect to property requisitioned after the effective date hereof. If any property has heretofore been requisitioned under the Act of October 10, 1940, and such property has not heretofore been disposed of or the determination of the fair and just compensation therefor has not been made, such disposal of determination shall be made in accordance with said Act of October 10, 1940 and all Executive Orders and Regulations of the President thereunder.*

Approved: December 8, 1941.

General Counsel.

IN THE MATTER OF HORACE SNYDER (LOST HILL COAL MINING COMPANY), ALSO KNOWN AS HORACE SNYDER, JAMES DOBSON, STEVE TOTH, AND H. E. ELKIN, INDIVIDUALLY AND AS CO-PARTNERS, DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE NAME AND STYLE OF LOST HILL COAL COMPANY, DEFENDANT

Any person or entity eligible under § 301.123 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to Sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file a petition for intervention not later than five (5) days before the date herein set for hearing on the complaint.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the defendant; and that any defendant failing to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint herein and to have consented to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the complaint herein, other matters incidental and related thereto, whether raised by amendment of the complaint, petition for intervention, or otherwise, and all persons are cautioned to be guided accordingly.

[Docket No. 1775-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF RUNNELLS COAL COMPANY (ARCHIE HENDRICKSON), DEFENDANT

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING EXCEPTIONS TO THE EXAMINER'S REPORT

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 12, alleging that the defendant had wilfully violated the Code and regulations thereunder.

Pursuant to Orders of the Director and after due notice to interested parties, a hearing was held in this matter, before W. A. Shipman, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at which District Board 12 and the defendant appeared and fully participated.

On October 14, 1941, the Examiner prepared and submitted a Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendation, recommending that the code membership of the defendant be revoked and cancelled, and that prior to any reinstatement of the defendant to membership in the Code, the defendant shall pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $35.10 as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act.

On November 19, 1941, no exceptions to the Examiner's Report having been filed, a final Order was entered herein approving the Report and adopting the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner; revoking and cancelling the defendant's code membership; and finding that a tax of $35.10 should be paid by the defendant to the United States prior to any reinstatement of his membership in the Code.

Exceptions to the Examiner's Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law were forwarded by the defendant on November 8, 1941, to District Board 12 with a letter which stated that the defendant did not know the proper address and requesting the Board to see that they were properly forwarded. The exceptions were forwarded to the Division at Washington and filed on November 24, 1941.

The exceptions were thus filed late and, indeed, after the Director had acted upon the Examiner's recommendation. However, in the circumstances, I will treat the proposed exceptions as if it were a motion for reconsideration and modification of the Director's Order.

It is urged that the 30 tons of coal in question were sold at a price of $2.02 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, which constitutes the sale price on which the tax should be computed. The tax was computed, however, on the basis of the applicable effective minimum f. o. b. mine price of $3.00 per net ton rather than the actual sales price. Section 5 (c) of the Act provides the basis for the computation of this tax and specifically provides that the sales price shall in no case be taken to be less than the established minimum price.

It is contended by the defendant that the coal in question was not mine run coal. I have re-examined the evidence and conclude that it fully sustains the finding that the 30 tons of coal herein involved were of mine run coal.

For these reasons I conclude that the objections of the defendant are not well taken and should be denied and that, therefore, the Order entered herein on November 19, 1941, should remain in full force and effect.

And it is so ordered.

Dated: December 10, 1941.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF R. C. TWAY COAL SALES COMPANY FOR PERMISSION TO RECEIVE SALES AGENTS' COMMISSIONS ON COAL SOLD TO THE JAMES COAL COMPANY AND TO THE B. & S. COAL & STOKER COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DISMISSING PETITIONS

Docket No. 1863-FD is a proceeding instituted upon a joint petition filed on August 13, 1941, with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the Marketing Rules and Regulations Incidental to the Sale and Distribution of Coal by Code Members within all Districts, by R. C. Tway Coal Sales Company, a registered distributor, by R. C. Tway Coal Company, a code member in District 8, and by James Coal Company, a company doing a retail coal business in Louisville, Kentucky. The petition requests that the Division determine that the ownership or control of these companies is bona fide, is not established to secure an indirect price reduction, and is not within the prohibitions of paragraphs 11 and 12 of section 4 II (i) of the Act.

Docket No. 1866-FD is a proceeding instituted upon a joint petition filed on August 13, 1941, with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the Marketing Rules and Regulations Incidental to the Sale and Distribution of Coal by Code Members within all Districts, by R. C. Tway Coal Sales Company, a registered distributor, by R. C. Tway Coal Company, a code member in District 8, and by B. & S. Coal & Stoker Company, a company doing a retail business in Louisville, Kentucky. The petition requests that the Division determine that the ownership or control of these companies is bona fide, is not established to secure an indirect price reduction, and is not within the prohibitions of paragraphs 11 and 12 of section 4 II (i) of the Act.

Pursuant to Orders of the Director and notice to all interested persons, a consolidated hearing in these matters was held on November 17, 1941, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered on behalf of R. C. Tway Coal Sales Company and American Coal Distributors' Association.

Following the opening of the hearing, counsel for the General Counsel's Office of the Division objected to counsel for petitioners introducing as evidence the petitions initiating the proceeding. The Examiner sustained this objection. Thereupon, counsel for petitioner moved to dismiss the proceeding and the Examiner purported to grant the motion. A proceeding which has been instituted before the Division can be dismissed only by or pursuant to an Order of the Director or Acting Director. The Orders of the Director, designating Joseph A. Huston to preside at the hearings in these matters and setting a time and place therefor, granted and delegated unto the Examiner certain powers in the conduct of the hearings but in no manner, either expressly or impliedly, bestowed upon the Examiner the authority to dismiss the proceedings or the petitions. The Examiner possessed only such authority as the Orders of the Director bestowed upon him and, therefore, the Examiner was without authority to dismiss the petitions.

However, it seems appropriate to regard this ruling of the Examiner as a recommendation by the Examiner that the petitions be dismissed and I am so regarding it. In addition, I have considered the record in these proceedings, and upon the basis thereof, I conclude that the motion to dismiss should be granted and the petitions filed herein should be dismissed without prejudice.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the motion to dismiss the petitions filed herein be, and it hereby is, granted, and that the petitions filed herein be, and they hereby are, dismissed without prejudice.

Dated: December 10, 1941.

IN THE MATTER OF THE REVOCATION OF REGISTRATIONS AS DISTRIBUTORS OF DANIEL B. ALLEN, CAMPBELL, PEACOCK & KINZER, INC., E. J. DEROCHIE, MIDWEST COAL COMPANY, MONITOR COALS, INC.

ORDER REVOKING CERTAIN REGISTRATIONS

The Division having information to the effect that the Registered Distributors listed on Exhibit A, attached hereto and made a part hereof, are no longer engaged in business as registered distributors, and mail addressed to said distributors at the addresses submitted by them having been returned by the Post Office Department with the notation "Out of Business" endorsed thereon, the registrations previously granted to said persons should be revoked and their names withdrawn from the List of Registered Distributors, unless showing is duly made by them that they are actively, regularly and continuously engaged in the business of purchasing coal for resale and reselling it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots within the meaning of § 304.13 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors.

It is therefore ordered, That, effective January 10, 1942, the registration of each of the registrants listed on said Exhibit A, be and it is hereby revoked and its name deleted from the List of Registered Distributors, unless, on or before January 5, 1942, adequate showing is made by affidavit to the Division that such registration should not be revoked, and prior to January 10, 1942, an appropriate order is entered cancelling the revocation herein provided.

2. The lands will be leased for grazing purposes for a one-year period ending December 31, 1942, the lessee having an option to renew the lease from year to year, but not beyond December 31, 1946, provided, the United States does not, by written notice, 90 days prior to the expiration of any annual period, notify the lessee that the lease cannot be renewed.

3. The bidder shall state in the proposal (a) the legal descriptions of the subdivisions or tracts which he proposes to lease, and (b) the area in acres for each individual subdivision or tract and the rental price he proposes to pay for such subdivision or tract. The bidder may make such stipulations as he may desire regarding combinations of tracts he is willing to accept. Attention is called to the fact that by reason of the construction of canals in the vicinity of the leased premises by the Bureau of Reclamation and their location with respect to Utah Lake, said leased premises or portions thereof will be flooded by irrigation and waste water and by the water of Utah Lake and it is therefore specifically understood and agreed that the rental charges provided for in this case shall not be diminished, rebated or lowered on account of said premises or any portion thereof being so flooded, as that condition was understood and allowance made therefor in establishing said rental charges.

6. Those desiring to bid should first consult a copy of lease form 7-523 A-G, which lease must be promptly executed by successful bidders before possession of the land is given, and which describes various rights reserved by the United States, and other details not herein enumerated, to which the lessee must agree. IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES FOR THE SILVERWARE AND CORROSION-RESISTING FLATWARE INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF HEARING AND OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

All interested parties are hereby notified that they are given until December 18, 1941 to show cause (1) why the Secretary of Labor should not determine that 45 cents an hour, or $18.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piecework basis, is the prevailing minimum wage to be paid by the Silverware and Corrosion-resisting Flatware Industry, under section 1 (b) of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35), otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act and hereinafter called the Act, in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States let subject to the provisions of the Act: Provided, That apprentices may be employed at lower rates of pay if their employment conforms to the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship: And, provided further, That learners may be employed at a wage and for a period to be determined from the entire record including the testimony submitted in response to this notice; and (2) why the Secretary of Labor should not adopt the regulations issued by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division concerning the employment of handicapped workers in the performance of work subject to the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (29 CFR, Part 524).

The Silverware and Corrosion-resisting Flatware Industry is that industry which manufactures flatware, hollow ware, and toilet articles made of sterling silver, nickel-silver, pewter, or of metal plated with silver, gold, or other metal; and corrosion-resisting flatware.

Excluded from the definition are kitchen, hospital, and household utensils; field or mess kits other than knife, fork, and spoon; jewelry; badges and emblems; and corrosion-resisting hollow ware.

The minimum wage proposal is predicated upon a tabulation of wage schedules voluntarily submitted by members of the industry through a special committee designated by the Administrator of Public Contracts and collated by the Research Section of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor. Copies of this wage tabulation may be had on application to the Administrator of Public Contracts, Washington, D. C.

Briefs for or against the proposed determination must be filed with the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, on or before December 18, 1941. No form for the brief is prescribed but an original and four copies must be submitted.

On December 18, 1941, at 10:00 a. m. a hearing will be held in Room B, Departmental Auditorium, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before the Public Contracts Board at which interested persons will be given opportunity to be heard in opposition to or in favor of the proposed determination.

The entire record will be considered by the Secretary of Labor before the wage determination is made.

ALLOTMENTS AND YIELDS

§ 722.412 National baleage allotment. The national allotment of cotton for the calendar year beginning January 1, 1942, is 10,000,000 standard bales of 500 pounds gross weight, increased by that number of standard bales of 500 pounds gross weight equal to the production in 1942 of that number of acres required to be allotted for 1942 as set forth in § 722.413 (c), relating to minimum State acreage allotments, and in § 722.414 (a), relating to minimum county acreage allotments. The production in 1942 of the acreage allotment referred to in § 722.413 (e), relating to a special fund of acreage allotments consisting of four percent of the State acreage allotment, and in § 722.413 (f), relating to minimum farm acreage allotments, shall be in addition to such national allotment. [Sec. 343 (a), (b), and (c), 52 Stat. 56, as amended by 53 Stat. 1125]

§ 722.413 State baleage allotments and State acreage allotments. (a) State baleage allotment. Ten million standard bales of the national baleage allotment of cotton for the calendar year 1942 shall be apportioned among the several States on the basis of the average of the normal production of cotton in each State for the five years 1936 to 1940. The normal production of a State for each such year shall be (1) the quantity of cotton produced therein in such year plus (2) the normal production of the acres diverted from the production of cotton in all counties in the State under the agricultural adjustment or conservation program in such year. The normal production of the acres diverted from the production of cotton in any county in any year shall be the average yield per acre of the acres planted to cotton in such country in such year times the number of acres so diverted in such county in such year. [Sec. 344 (a), 52 Stat. 57]

(b) State acreage allotment. A State acreage allotment shall be established for each State to which an allotment is made under paragraph (a). The State acreage allotment shall be that number of acres equal to the result obtained by dividing the number of standard bales allotted to the State under paragraph (a) by the average yield per acre for the State expressed in standard bales. The average yield per acre for any State shall be determined on the basis of the average of the normal production for the State for the first five years 1936 to 1940 and the average, for the same period, of the acres diverted from the production of cotton in the State under the agricultural adjustment or conservation programs and the acres planted to cotton. [Sec. 344 (b), 52 Stat. 57]

(c) Minimum State acreage allotment. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the State acreage allotment for any State which is less than 5,000 acres shall be increased to 5,000 acres if at least 3,500 bales of cotton were produced in such State in any of the five years 1937 to 1941. [Sec. 344 (e) (2), 52 Stat. 58]

(d) State acreage reserve for new farms. An acreage not greater than one percent of the State acreage allotment shall be made available for apportionment to farms in the State on which cotton was not planted in any one of the three years 1939, 1940, and 1941. [Sec. 344 (c) (2), 52 Stat. 57]

(e) Special State acreage allotment of four percent of State acreage allotment. In addition to the State acreage allotment, a special State acreage allotment (hereinafter referred to as the "four-percent State reserve") equal to four percent of the State acreage allotment shall be established for each State for apportionment as set forth in § 722.415 (a), (b), (d), (e), and (f). [Sec. 344 (g), 52 Stat. 203]

(f) Increases to provide for minimum farm acreage allotments. There shall be available in each State for allotment to farms that number of acres equal to the total amount by which farm acreage allotments in the State are increased as set forth in Sec. 722.415 (h), relating to certain minimum and maximum farm acreage allotments. This increase shall be in addition to the State acreage allotment and the four-percent State reserve. [Sec. 344 (h), 52 Stat. 57, 203, and 586, and 53 Stat. 512, 853]

§ 722.414 County acreage allotments—(a) Regular county acreage allotments. The State acreage allotment (less that part set aside under § 722.413 (d) for apportionment to new farms) shall be apportioned among the counties in the State on the basis of the sum of (1) the acreage therein planted to cotton during the five years 1936 to 1940 and (2), in the applicable years, the acreage therein diverted from the production of cotton under agricultural adjustment and conservation programs, with adjustments for abnormal weather conditions and trends in acreage during such five-year period. The acreage allotment for each county to which an allotment is so apportioned shall be increased by the number of acres, if any, required to provide an acreage allotment for each such county of not less than 60 percent of the sum of (1) the acreage therein planted to cotton in 1937 and (2) the acreage therein diverted from the production of cotton in 1937 under the agricultural conservation program. [Sec. 344 (c) (1), Sec. 344 (e) (1), 52 Stat. 57 and 58]

(b) Administrative areas. If in any county there are one or more areas which, because of difference in types, kinds, and productivity of the soil or other conditions, should be treated separately in order to prevent discrimination, each such area shall, in accordance with applicable instructions, be designated by the county committee as an administrative area, and the county acreage allotment shall be apportioned among such areas (1) on the basis of the acreage in each such area planted to cotton in 1937 plus the acreage therein diverted from the production of cotton in 1937 under the agricultural conservation program or (2), if conditions affecting the acreage planted to cotton were not reasonably uniform throughout the county in 1937, on the basis of the cotton base acreage in each such area which was or could have been established in 1937 under the agricultural conservation program. [Sec. 344 (f), 52 Stat. 57, 203, 586]

§ 722.415 Apportionment of acreage allotments among established farms—(a) Acreage available for allotment. The county committee, with the assistance of other local committees established in the county, shall apportion, in the manner set forth in this section, acreage allotments among all farms in the county on which cotton was planted in any one of the three years 1939 to 1941. The acreage allotments to be apportioned among such farms shall consist of (1) the regular county acreage allotment, consisting of an apportionment of the State acreage allotment made to the county, with such increase in the county acreage allotment as is necessary to provide for the county a minimum acreage allotment of not less than 60 percent of the planted plus diverted cotton acreage in the county in 1937, plus any acreage apportioned to the county from the four-percent State reserve in supplementing county allotments which are determined, in accordance with applicable instructions, to be inadequate and unrepresentative, and (2) a distributive part, applicable to the county, of the four-percent State reserve. This distributive part shall be the sum of the acreage allotted to farms in the county, insofar as the amount of the four-percent State reserve will permit, under the following conditions in the order listed: (1) in supplying any deficiency in the regular county acreage allotment for the making of initial acreage allotments not exceeding five acres for each such farm; (2) in supplementing any acreage allotment made to any farm out of the regular county acreage allotment which, in consequence of the making of such initial acreage allotments, is inadequate and unrepresentative, and (3) in supplementing any acreage allotment made to any farm under this section which the county committee determines, in accordance with applicable instructions, is inadequate and unrepresentative. The committee shall not establish any farm acreage allotment which is not covered by the allotments mentioned above, except that after but not before the apportionment among farms of all the allotments mentioned above in this paragraph an additional farm acreage allotment shall be made, as set forth in paragraph (h), of this section, to any farm in respect to which the acreage allotment otherwise made is less than the minimum acreage allotment set forth in paragraph (h). The term "planted plus diverted cotton acreage", as used in this section, shall be taken to mean the sum of the acreage planted in cotton and the acreage diverted from cotton production under agricultural adjustment or conservation programs. [Sec. 344 (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), 52 Stat. 58, 203, and 586]

(b) Initial farm acreage allotments. The regular county acreage allotment shall be first apportioned among farms on which cotton was planted in any one of the three years 1939 to 1941, and in making such apportionment there shall be first established for each such farm an initial acreage allotment equal to the highest planted plus diverted cotton acreage on the farm in any one of the three years 1939 to 1941, provided that no initial allotment shall exceed five acres for any such farm. These allotments shall be known as initial allotments and are referred to accordingly in this section. Any deficiency in the amount of the regular county acreage allotment for the making of such initial allotments shall be supplied by the use of the four-percent State reserve insofar as such reserve will permit for the county. [Sec. 344 (d) (1), Sec. 344 (g) (1), 52 Stat. 58 and 203]

(c) Reserve for small farms. In the event that the regular county acreage allotment is more than sufficient to make the initial allotments, there shall be set aside for increase of allotments to small farms, as set forth in paragraph (g) of this section, an amount of not more than three percent of that amount of the regular county acreage allotment which remains after making the initial allotments. [Sec. 344 (d) (2) 52 Stat. 58]

(d) Apportionment on the basis of tilled land. The remainder of the regular county acreage allotment, plus the additional allotment, if any, made to the county from the four-percent State reserve pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, shall be apportioned among all farms on which the highest planted plus diverted cotton acreage in any one of the three years 1939 to 1941 was more than five acres. The acreage thus to be apportioned to each such farm shall, together with the initial allotment made to the farm, be a percentage (which shall be the same percentage for all farms in the county or administrative area within the county) of the acreage on the farm in 1941 which was tilled or was in regular rotation, excluding therefrom the acreage devoted to the production of sugarcane for sugar, wheat, tobacco, or rice for market, or of wheat or rice for feeding to livestock for market. [Sec. 344 (d) (3), 52 Stat. 58]

(e) Increases as a result of making initial farm acreage allotments. If, as a result of the making of initial allotments, the farm acreage allotments for farms made in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section are substantially smaller than the farm acreage allotments which would have been made without regard to any provision for the making of initial allotments, the farm acreage allotments to such farms shall be increased to the acreage which would have resulted in the absence of any provision for the making of initial allotments, insofar as the remainder, if any, of the four-percent State reserve will permit for the county after the making of initial allotments. [Sec. 344 (g) (2), 52 Stat. 203 and 53 Stat. 853]

(f) Increase in view of past production. After allotments have been made from the four-percent State reserve as provided in paragraphs (b) and (e) of this section, one-half of the remainder, if any, of such reserve, less the additional allotment, if any, made to all counties in the State from the four-percent State reserve pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, shall be apportioned to farms for which the acreage allotment otherwise determined is less than 50 percent of the planted plus diverted cotton acreage on the farm in 1937, and the other one-half of the remainder, if any, of such reserve shall be available for increasing the allotments for any farms which are determined, in accordance with applicable instructions, to be inadequate and not representative in view of past production on the farm: Provided, That the cotton acreage allotment for any farm shall not be increased under this paragraph (f) above 40 percent of the acreage on such farm in 1941 which was tilled or was in regular rotation. [Sec. 344 (g) (3), 52 Stat. 203 and 53 Stat. 853]

(g) Distribution of reserve for small farms. Any farm acreage allotment made as aforesaid of more than five acres, but not exceeding 15 acres, may be increased from the reserve of not more than three percent of the county acreage allotment mentioned in paragraph (c) of this section. In making such increase due consideration shall be given to, and such allotments shall be made on the basis of, the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of cotton, crop-rotation practices, and the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton. [Sec. 344 (d) (2), 52 Stat. 58]

(h) Certain minimum and maximum farm acreage allotments. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, (1) the farm acreage allotment made to any farm shall not exceed the highest planted plus diverted cotton acreage in any one of the three years 1939 to 1941, and (2) any farm acreage allotment which after but not before the apportionment of all acreage allotments, as provided in the foregoing paragraphs of this section, is less than 50 percent of the planted plus diverted cotton acreage on the farm in 1937 shall be increased to such amount, provided that such increase shall not be so made as to raise the farm acreage allotment above 40 percent of the acreage on the farm which in 1941 was tilled or was in regular rotation. The acreage allotments required to effect this minimum provision shall be in addition to all acreage allotments represented by the regular county acreage allotment and by the four-percent State reserve. [Sec. 344 (d) (3), (g), and (h), 52 Stat. 58, 203 and 586 and 53 Stat. 512 and 853]

(i) Reapportionment of unused farm acreage allotments. After making the allotments under this section, any part of the acreage allotted to individual farms which it is determined, in accordance with applicable instructions, will not be planted to cotton in 1942 shall be deducted from the allotments to such farms and may be apportioned in accordance with applicable instructions, preference being given to farms in the same county receiving allotments which are inadequate and not representative in view of the past production of cotton on each farm. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the acreage shall be apportioned to those farms designated by the county committee. In designating the farm to which the apportionment is to be made, the county committee shall consider only the character and adaptability of the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton and the need of the operator of such farm for an additional allotment to meet the requirement of the families engaged in the production of cotton in 1942 on the farm. Any transfer of allotments for 1942 as set forth in this paragraph shall not affect apportionment for any subsequent year. [Sec. 344 (h), 52 Stat. 57, 203, 586, and 53 Stat. 512, 853]

§ 722.416 Apportionment of acreage allotments among new farms. The county committee, with the assistance of other local committees, shall, in accordance with applicable instructions, apportion among farms for which an application for a farm acreage allotment was made in writing within the time limit prescribed therefor by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and on which cotton was not planted in any one of the three years 1939 to 1941 and on which cotton will be planted in 1942 the distributive part, applicable to the county, of acreage allotments which constitute a reserve of not more than one percent of the State acreage allotment. The basis of the apportionment shall be the land, labor, and equipment available on the farm for the production of cotton, crop-rotation practices, and the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton thereon, taking into consideration the applicant's intention to plant cotton in 1942 on the farm. As a reflection of the several factors to be taken into consideration, the acreage on the farm which will be tilled in 1942 or was tilled in 1941 will be the basic index of the farm's capacity for cotton production: Provided, That the allotment shall not exceed an acreage equal to 50 percent of the county percentage factor, determined under paragraph (d) of this section, times the tilled acreage in the farm used in determining the cotton acreage allotment, except that (a) for any such farm with respect to which the county committee's recommendation of an allotment is less than three acres, such recommendation shall be the cotton acreage allotment for the farm if the State reserve for new farms is sufficient therefor, or for any such farm with respect to which the county committee's recommendation of an allotment is three acres or more the allotment for the farm shall not be less than three acres if the State reserve for new farms is sufficient therefor, taking into consideration also the local committee's recommendation, and (b) for a farm on which the producer has in the previous year operated another farm located in an area in which several contiguous farms were purchased by a State or Federal agency to be retired from crop production the county cotton factor times the tilled acreage for the farm may be regarded as the basic index for the farm's capacity for cotton production. [Sec. 344 (c) (2), 52 Stat. 57]

§ 722.417 Normal yields—(a) Farms for which normal yields will be established. The county committee, with the assistance of the other local committees established in the county, shall determine the normal yield per acre of lint cotton for each farm for which a farm acreage allotment is established.

(b) Yields based on reliable records. Where reliable records of the actual average yield of lint cotton per acre for all of the five years 1936 to 1940 are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield per acre of lint cotton for the farm shall be the average of such yields, adjusted, in accordance with applicable instructions, for abnormal weather conditions.

(c) Appraised yields. If for any year of the five-year period 1936 to 1940 (1) records of the actual average yield are not available, or (2) there was no actual yield because cotton was not planted in such year, the normal yield per acre of lint cotton for the farm shall be appraised by the county committee, taking into consideration the normal yield for the county, the yield in the years for which data are available, and the rainfall, temperature, and other weather conditions during the years for which data are available as compared with those for which data are not available, provided the appraised yield so obtained shall be adjusted in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Adjustments in appraised yields. The yields determined under paragraph (c) of this section shall be adjusted so that the average of the normal yields per acre of lint cotton determined for all farms in the county or local administrative area therein (weighted by the cotton acreage allotments established for such farms) shall conform to but not exceed the county or administrative area normal yield per acre of lint cotton established for 1942 by the Secretary of Agriculture. [Sec. 301 (b) (13) (B) and (E), 52 Stat. 38, 202]

(a) Southern Region. Cotton 608–SR, "Instructions Pertaining to Cotton Marketing Quotas for 1942".

(b) East Central Region. Cotton 608–ECR, "Instructions Pertaining to Cotton Marketing Quotas for 1942".

(c) Western Region. Cotton 608–WR, "Instructions Pertaining to Cotton Marketing Quotas for 1942".

(d) North Central Region. Cotton 608–NCR, "Instructions Pertaining to Cotton Marketing Quotas for 1942". [Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66]

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS

§ 722.419 Farm marketing quotas—(a) Amount of farm marketing quota. The farm marketing quota for any farm for the 1942–1943 marketing year shall be that number of pounds of lint cotton equal to the sum of the following: (1) the amount of the normal production or the actual production, whichever is the greater, of the farm acreage allotment, and (2) the amount of any carryover penalty free cotton.

(b) Initial farm marketing quotas. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the amount of the normal production of the farm acreage allotment, plus the amount of any carry-over penalty free cotton, shall be the farm marketing quota for any farm unless and until it is determined by the county committee that the actual production in 1942 of the farm acreage allotment therefor is in excess of the normal production thereof. If measurements for any farm cannot be made, the farm marketing quota therefor shall be the normal production of the farm acreage allotment therefor, plus the amount of carry-over penalty free cotton.

(c) Farm marketing quotas based on actual production. When the actual production in 1942 of the farm acreage allotment for any farm, as shown by the reports of cotton ginned from or produced on the farm, or other satisfactory evidence, is found by the county committee to be in excess of the normal production of the farm acreage allotment, the farm marketing quota for the farm shall be adjusted upward by the amount by which the actual production of the farm acreage allotment exceeds the normal production thereof. Such adjustment shall be made as soon as practicable after all cotton produced on the farm in 1942 is harvested and satisfactory records pertaining to the amount thereof are presented to the county committee; however, intermediate adjustments for any farm may be made earlier if the adjustment is requested by the operator of the farm and determined by the county committee to be justifiable on the basis of the amount of cotton produced on the farm in 1942 that is harvested at the time of the request. [Sec. 346 (a), 52 Stat. 59]

(d) Conversion of carryover penalty cotton. The amount of unmarketed cotton at the end of the 1941–1942 marketing year which, if marketed during that marketing year, would have been subject to penalty at a rate per pound less than the penalty rate applicable to cotton of the 1942 crop shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be regarded as having been converted, on the basis of the rate of penalty applicable to cotton of the 1942 crop, into such an amount thereof as is subject to such rate of penalty and such an amount thereof as is henceforth not subject to any penalty. The conversion is made by taking as carryover penalty cotton subject to the rate of penalty applicable to cotton of the 1942 crop, an amount of such unmarketed cotton which bears the same ratio to the total amount thereof as the lower rate of penalty bears to the rate of penalty applicable to the 1942 crop and by taking as carryover penalty free cotton the remainder of such unmarketed cotton.

§ 722.420 Notice of farm marketing quotas. Immediately upon the establishment of farm acreage allotments and the determination of normal yields per acre in lint cotton for farms in a county or other local administrative area, the county committee shall mail or deliver directly to the operator of each farm a written notive of the farm marketink quota for the farm. The notice shall contain at or near the top thereof the following statement: "To all persons who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper are interested in the farm for which this quota is established". Notice so given shall constitute notice to all such persons. The notice shall contain the amount of the farm acreage allotment and normal yield for the farm, together with a brief statement of the manner in which the amount of the pursuant to § 722.419. The notice shall contain also a brief statement of the procedure whereby application for review of the quota may be made under section 363 of the act. A copy of each notice, containing a notation thereon of the date of mailing or delivering the notice to the operator of the farm, shall be kept among the permanent records of the county committee, and upon request a copy thereof, duly certified as true and correct, shall be furnished without charge to any person who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper is interested in the cotton produced in 1942 on the farm for which the notice is given. The county committee shall also mail or deliver directly to the operator of each new cotton farm for which it determines that no farm marketing quota will be established a similar written notice, informing the producers on such farm of its determination. [Sec. 362, 52 Stat. 62]

§ 722.421 Publication of farm acreage allotments, normal yields, and farm marketing quotas. One copy of each notice of the farm marketing quota for farms in a county shall be placed in binders or folders and posted in the office of the county committee in a manner that will make the copies of the notices freely available for public inspection for a period of not less than thirty calendar days. At the end of such period the copies of the notices shall be filed in the office of the county committee and remain readily available for further public inspection. [Sec. 362, 52 Stat. 62]

§ 722.422 Marketing quotas in effect. Marketing quotas shall be in effect during the 1942–1943 marketing year with respect to the marketing of cotton. Cotton produced in the calendar year 1942 shall be subject to the quotas in effect, notwithstanding that it may be marketed prior to August 1, 1942. [Secs. 345 and 347, 52 Stat. 58 and 59]

§ 722.423 Successors-in-interest. Any person who succeeds to the interest of a producer in a farm, or in a cotton crop, or in cotton for which a farm marketing quota was established shall, to the same extent as his predecessor, be entitled to all the rights and privileges incident to such marketing quota and be subject to the restrictions on the marketing of cotton. [Sec. 375 (b), 52 Stat. 66]

§ 722.424 Marketing quotas not transferable. A farm marketing quota is established for a farm and may not be assigned or otherwise transferred in whole or in part to any other farm. [Sec. 375 (b), 52 Stat. 66]

§ 722.425 Review of quotas—(a) Review committees. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm marketing quota established for his farm, or, in the case of a new cotton farm, with the action of the county committee in refusing to establish a farm marketing quota for such farm, may, by making application within 15 days after the mailing or delivery directly to him of the notice provided for in § 722.420, have such quota or determination reviewed by a local review committee composed of three farmers appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture. The review committee shall, upon proper application, review the action of the county committee. The review committee in determining any farm marketing quota shall, to the same extent as the county committee, be limited to the establishment of a farm marketing quota in an amount which, under the law and regulations, should have been established. Unless such application is made within 15 days the original determination of the farm marketing quota shall be final. All applications for review shall be made in accordance with the Review Regulations (38–AAA–2, Revised) issued by the Secretary of Agriculture. [Secs. 363 and 364, 52 Stat. 63]

(b) Court review. If the producer is dissatisfied with the determination of the review committee, he may, within 15 days after the notice is mailed to him by registered mail, institute proceedings against the review committee to have the determination of the review committee reviewed by a court in accordance with section 365 of the act. [Secs. 365 and 366, 52 Stat. 63]

[41–Tob–57—Supplement 1]

PART 724—BURLEY TOBACCO

1941–42 MARKETING YEAR

Supplement 1 to Marketing Quota Regulations

Marketing Quota Regulations, Burley Tobacco—1941–42 Marketing Year, are hereby amended as follows:

Section 724.334, Amount of farm marketing quota, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

The marketing quota for any farm having tobacco carried over from a crop produced prior to the calendar year 1941, shall be whichever of the following is applicable:

1. If the harvested acreage of tobacco in the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced is not greater than the acreage allotment for such year and the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1941 is not greater than the acreage allotment for such year, the marketing quota shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment for 1941 plus the amount of the carry-over tobacco.

2. If the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced is greater than the acreage allotment for such year and the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1941 is less than the acreage allotment for 1941 by as much as the number of acres obtained by dividing into the carry-over excess tobacco the normal yield for the farm, the farm marketing quota shall be the actual production on the farm in 1941 plus the entire amount of the carry-over tobacco.

3. If the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced is greater than the acreage allotment for such year and the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1941 does not exceed the 1941 acreage allotment but is not less than such acreage allotment by as much as the number of acres obtained by dividing into the total pounds of carry-over excess tobacco the normal yield for the farm, the farm marketing quota shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm in 1941 plus an amount of tobacco equal to the 1941 normal yield for the farm times the number of acres by which the 1941 farm acreage allotment exceeds the acreage of tobacco harvested in 1941.

4. If the harvested acreage of tobacco in the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced is greater than the acreage allotment for such year and the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1941 is greater than the acreage allotment for such year, the marketing quota shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment for 1941 plus the amount of the within quota carry-over tobacco.

5. If the harvested acreage of tobacco in the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced is not greater than the acreage allotment for such year but the acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1941 is in excess of the acreage allotment for such year the marketing quota shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment for 1941, plus the entire amount of carry-over tobacco.

"Excess tobacco in the case of farms having tobacco carried over from the calendar year prior to 1941 shall be all tobacco available for marketing from the farm in excess of the farm marketing quota determined as provided under paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 above."

Section 724.335, Issuance of marketing card, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

(e) Issuance of marketing cards for farms having carry-over tobacco. (1) For any farm on which the marketing quota is that amount determined pursuant to paragraph 1 or 2 of § 724.334 above, there shall be issued a within quota marketing card, unless the farm is operated by a person who also operates another farm on which there is tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm marketing quota, in which event there shall be issued an excess marketing card.

(2) For any farm on which the farm marketing quota is that amount determined pursuant to paragraph 3, 4, or 5 of § 724.334 above, there shall be issued an excess marketing card.

(3) The percent excess for any farm for which paragraphs 3 and 4 of § 724.334 are applicable shall be computed as follows: (i) A number of acres shall be determined by dividing into the carry-over excess tobacco the 1941 normal yield per acre for the farm; (ii) the number of acres determined under (i) shall be added to the 1941 harvested acreage; (iii) there shall be subtracted from the acreage determined under (ii) the 1941 acreage allotment; and (iv) the result obtained under (iii) shall be divided by the acreage determined under (ii).

(4) The percent excess for any farm for which paragraph 5 of § 724.334 is applicable shall be computed as follows: (i) A number of acres shall be determined by dividing into the carry-over tobacco the 1941 normal yield per acre for the farm; (ii) the number of acres determined under (i) shall be added to the 1941 harvested acreage; (iii) the number of acres determined under (i) shall be added to the 1941 acreage allotment; (iv) there shall be subtracted from the acreage determined under (ii) the acreage determined under (iii) above; (v) the result obtained under (iv) shall be divided by the acreage determined under (ii).

Section 724.339, Rights of producers in marketing card, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, issued, effective June 16, 1939, Order No.

12, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area.

H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, tentatively approved, on May 19, 1939, a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area.

There being reason to believe that amendments to said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and said order, as amended, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, notice was given September 4, 1941, of a hearing which was held in Dubuque, Iowa, on the 9th day of September 1941, at which time and place all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard upon a proposal to amend the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and the order, as amended.

After such hearing and after the tentative approval on November 15, 1941, of a marketing agreement, as amended, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended, which is marketed within the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in such marketing area, in the same manner as said order as hereby amended.

The requirements of § 8c (9) of the act have been complied with.

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the last above-mentioned hearing, such findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the original hearings on the order and on amendments to the order, and being in addition to the other findings and determinations made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of the order and of amendments thereto (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

§ 912.0 Findings. (a) That the reduction in the marketing area, as provided by this order, as amended, is necessary, proper, and reasonable in view of the change in the conditions which previously existed;

(b) That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to §§ 2 and 8e, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. 602, 608e are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

(c) That the order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(d) That the issuance of this order, as amended, and all of its terms and conditions, tends to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is hereby ordered that such handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce shall from the effective date hereof, be in compliance with the following terms and conditions.*

*§§ 912.0 to 912.11, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in 48 Stat. 31, 670, 675, 49 Stat. 750, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 601 et seq.

(1) For Class I milk the price shall be the price for Class III milk for such delivery period plus 70 cents per hundredweight.

(5) For Class IV milk the price shall be the result of the following computation by the market administrator: multiply by 2.4 the average weekly prevailing price per pound of "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin (in the absence of such prices the prices of "Twins" at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture shall be used), and multiply such result by 3.5.*

§ 912.5 Reports of handlers — (a) Periodic reports. On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, with respect to milk or cream which was, during such delivery period (a) received from producers, (b) received from handlers, (c) received from such handler's own production, (d) received from any other source, or (e) caused to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) The receipts at each plant from producers who are not handlers;

(2) The receipts at each plant from any other handler, including any handler who is also a producer;

(3) The receipts at each plant from such handler's own production;

(4) The receipts at each plant from any other source; and

(5) The respective quantities of milk which were disposed of for the purpose of classification pursuant to § 912.3.

(b) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator as follows:

(1) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request, with respect to any producer and with respect to a period of time designated by the market administrator, (i) the name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received, (iii) the average butterfat test of milk received, and (iv) the number of days upon which milk was received; and

(2) Within 5 days after first receiving milk from any producer (i) the name and address of such producer, (ii) the date upon which such milk was first received, and (iii) the plant at which the milk of such producer was received.

(c) Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer (a) the net amount of such producer's payment with the prices, deductions, and charges involved, and (b) the total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof.

(d) Verification of reports. Each handler shall make available to the market administrator or his agent (a) those records which are necessary for the verification of the information contained in the reports submitted in accordance with this section, and (b) those facilities which are necessary for the sampling, weighing, and testing of the milk of each producer.*

§ 912.6 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers and who purchase or receive milk from other producers. In the case of a handler who is also a producer and who purchases or receives milk from other producers the value of such milk purchased or received from other producers shall be computed by the market administrator pursuant to § 912.7 (a) as follows: the quantity of such milk shall be ratably apportioned among such handler's total Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV milk (after excluding purchases or receipts from other handlers) and multiplied by the Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV prices, respectively.

(b) Producer-handlers. (1) The provisions hereof, except as set forth in § 912.5 shall not apply to the handling of milk by handlers who are also producer-handlers pursuant to § 912.1 (a) (5), as verified by the market administrator in the manner provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Handlers s ha ll furnish to the market administrator for his verification, subject to review by the Secretary, evidence of their qualifications as producer-handlers pursuant to § 912.1 (a) (5), as of the effective date of the provisions hereof, and they shall furnish evidence of subsequent changes made in the manner of producing or distributing their milk that affects their qualification as producer-handlers; such verification by the market administrator shall be made within 15 days of the date of receipt of the evidence, and shall be effective retroactively to the effective date of the provisions hereof in cases verified within 45 days of such effective date and shall be effective retroactively to the first day of the delivery period during which verification is made in subsequent cases.

(c) Milk received by a handler from another handler who is also a producer or a producer-handler. The market administrator, in computing the value of milk for any handler pursuant to § 912.7 (a), shall consider as Class IV milk any milk or cream received in bulk by such handler from another handler who is also a producer or a producer-handler. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk or cream for other than Class IV purposes, the market administrator shall add to the total value computed pursuant to § 912.7 (a) the difference between (1) the value of such milk or cream according to its actual usage and (2) the value at the Class IV price.*

§ 912.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of the value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of § 912.6, the value of milk of producers disposed of by each handler by (1) multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class by the price applicable pursuant to § 912.4 and (2) adding together the resulting values of each class.

(b) Computation and announcement of the uniform price. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for each handler who made the reports to the market administrator prescribed by § 912.5, and who made the payments to the market administrator prescribed by § 912.8 (d);

(2) Subtract the total amount to be paid pursuant to § 912.8 (a) (2);

(3) Add the amount of cash balance in the producer-settlement fund less the amount due handlers pursuant to § 912.8 (g);

(4) Divide the result obtained in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of milk of producers other than that represented by the amount subtracted in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph;

(5) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of milk for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the uniform price for such delivery period for milk of producers containing 3.5 percent butterfat; and

(6) On or before the 10th day after the end of such delivery period notify all handlers and make public announcement of these computations, of the uniform price per hundredweight of milk, of the Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV prices, and of the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 912.8 (b).*

§ 912.8 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, for milk received at such handler's plant or caused by such handler to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area during such delivery period, as follows:

(1) To producers, except as set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, not less than the uniform price per hundredweight, computed pursuant to § 912.7 (b); and

(2) To any producer whose milk was not regularly received by a handler or who did not distribute milk in the marketing area during a period of 30 days prior to the effective date hereof, for all the milk received from such producer during a period beginning with the date of the first regular receipt of milk from such producer and including the first 2 full calendar months following the date of such first receipt of milk, at the Class IV price.

(b) Butterfat differential. If the milk of any producer received by a handler or caused by such handler to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area during the delivery period, has an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler shall add to the uniform price for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk above 3.5 percent not less than, or shall deduct from the uniform price for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk below 3.5 percent not more than, an amount which is one thirty-fifth of the price per hundredweight for Class IV milk.

(c) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund, known as "the producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to paragraphs (d), (e), and (g) of this section and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of this section.

(d) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay, subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section, to the market administrator for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund, the amount by which the total utilization value of the milk of producers received by such handler or caused by such handler to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area during the delivery period is greater than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk by the appropriate prices required to be paid producers by handlers pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section, and adding together the resulting amounts.

(e) Payments made through a cooperative association. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, with respect to milk which was caused to be delivered to him from producers by a cooperative association, for the account of such cooperative association and for which such cooperative association collects payments, shall make payment to such cooperative association at not less than the Class prices set forth in § 912.4, and subject to the provisions of § 912.3 (d) and to the butterfat differential provided in paragraph (b) of this section, for the utilization value of such milk. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, such cooperative association shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the utilization value of such milk, and of the milk of each producer which it causes to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, is greater than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk by the appropriate prices required to be paid by handlers pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section, and adding together the resulting amounts.

(f) Payments out of producer-settlement fund. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler with respect to milk which was not caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association, for the account of such cooperative association and for which such cooperative association collects payment, for payment to producers the amount, if any, by which the total utilization value of such milk or producers received by such handler is less than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk of producers received by such handler by the appropriate prices required to be paid producers by handlers pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section, and adding together the resulting amounts. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall pay to each cooperative association, with respect to milk which it caused to be delivered from a producer to another handler or to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area; for the account of such cooperative association and for which such cooperative association collects payment, for payment to producers, the amount, if any, by which the total utilization value of such milk of producers is less than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk of producers by the appropriate prices required to be paid producers by handlers pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section, and adding together the resulting amounts. If at such time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler who, on the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, has not received the balance of such reduced payment from the market administrator, shall be deemed to be in violation of paragraph (a) of this section if he reduces his payments to producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund.

(g) Adjustment of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors in payments to the producer-settlement fund made pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days of such billing, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses payment to such producer of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payment to producers next following such disclosure.*

§ 912.9 Expense of administration—(a) Payment by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler who received milk from producers, with respect to all milk received from producers, received from such handler's own production,, and caused by such handler to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period, an amount not to exceed 4 cents per hundredweight, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary. As its prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, a cooperative association which is a handler shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period, with respect to the milk of any producer which it causes to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, an amount per hundredweight equivalent to that required to be paid by other handlers pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) Suits by the market administrator. The market administrator may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's prorata share of expenses set forth in this section.*

§ 912.10 Marketing services—(a) Marketing service deduction. In making payments to producers pursuant to § 912.8 (a) (1) and (2) each handler shall, with respect to all milk received at such handler's plant or caused by such handler to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area during such delivery period from each such producer, deduct 5 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amounts as the market administrator shall determine to be sufficient, and shall, on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period, pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator only in providing for market information to, and for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk delivered by such producers. The market administrator may contract with a cooperative association or cooperative associations for the furnishing of the whole or any part of such services, to, or with respect to the milk delivered by, such producers.*

§ 912.11 Effective time, suspension, or termination of order, as amended—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, whenever he finds that this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order, as amended, shall terminate in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (i) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary, (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements, and, when so directed by the Secretary, deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and (iii) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall liquidate, if so directed by the Secretary, the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.*

944.10 Expense of administration.
944.11 Effective time, suspension, or termination of order, as amended.

Grover B. Hill, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, issued, effective February 1, 1940, Order No. 44 regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area.

H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, tentatively approved, on December 14, 1939, a marketing agreement, regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area.

There being reason to believe that amendment to said tentatively approved marketing agreement and said order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, notice was given September 4, 1941, of a hearing which was held at Rock Island, Illinois, on the 11th day of September 1941, at which time and place all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard upon a proposal to amend the tentatively approved marketing agreement and the order.

After such hearing and after the tentative approval, on November 19, 1941, of a marketing agreement, as amended, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended, which is marketed within the Quad Cities marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in such marketing area, in the same manner as said order as hereby amended.

The requirements of section 8c (9) of the act have been complied with.

§ 944.0 Findings. It is found upon the evidence introduced at the last abovementioned hearing, such findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the original hearing on the order and being in addition to the other findings and determinations made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of the order (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

(a) That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to Sec. 2 and 8e, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. 602, 608e are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

(b) That the order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(c) That the issuance of this order, as amended, and all of its terms and conditions, tends to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is hereby ordered that such handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce shall from the effective date hereof, be in compliance with the following terms and conditions.*

*§§ 944.0 to 944.11, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in 48 Stat. 31, 670, 675, 49 Stat. 750, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. and Sup. 601 et seq.

§ 944.3 Classification of milk—(a) Milk to be classified. Milk of a producer or new producer which a cooperative association causes to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, for the account of such cooperative association and for which it collects payment, and all milk received by each handler, including milk produced by him, if any, shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section.

(c) Interhandler and nonhandler sales. Milk disposed of by a handler to another handler or to a person not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products shall be classified, subject to paragraph (d) of this section, as Class I milk: Provided, That if the selling handler, on or before the date fixed for filing reports pursuant to § 944.5, furnishes to the market administrator a statement signed by the buyer and the seller that such milk was disposed of other than as Class I milk, such milk shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(d) Sales of a cooperative association to any other handler. Milk caused to be delivered from a producer to any other handler by a cooperative association which is a handler shall be ratably apportioned among the receiving handler's total Class I milk, Class II milk, Class III milk, and Class IV milk.*

(3) For Class II milk in the case of milk which complies with the Grade A milk quality requirements of the Milk Ordinance of the City of Davenport, Iowa, or of the Grade A Milk and Grade A Milk Products Law of the State of Illinois, and the minimum requirements adopted by the Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health for the interpretation and enforcement of said act, and is disposed of as Class II milk, the price shall be the price for Class III milk for such delivery period plus 45 cents per hundredweight.

(4) For Class II milk in the case of milk which does not comply with the Grade A milk quality requirements of the Milk Ordinance of the City of Davenport, Iowa, or of the Grade A Milk and Grade A Milk Products Law of the State of Illinois, and the minimum requirements adopted by the Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health for the interpretation and enforcement of said act, and is disposed of as Class II milk, the price shall be the price for Class III milk for such delivery period plus 25 cents per hundredweight.

(5) For Class III milk the price shall be the result of the following computations by the market administrator, determine the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the period beginning with the 16th day of the previous month and ending with the 15th day of the then current month at the plants listed in this subparagraph: Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be the price for Class III milk for such delivery period: multiply by 0.4 the average weekly prevailing price per pound of "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin (in the absence of such prices the prevailing prices of "Twins" at Chicago as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture shall be used), add the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago for said delivery period as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, and multiply such result by 3.9: Provided further, That for that portion of Class III milk specifically accounted for as used by the handler to produce ice cream or ice cream products disposed of at wholesale in a frozen state to another person for resale by the purchaser, the price shall be the price as computed above for the remainder of the Class III milk minus 15 cents per hundredweight.

(1) On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period (i) the receipts at each plant of milk from producers and new producers, (ii) the receipts at each plant of milk from handlers, (iii) the receipts at each plant of milk produced by him, if any, (iv) the utilization of all receipts of milk for the delivery period, (v) the utilization of milk caused to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, and (vi) the name and address of each new producer.

(2) On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period, the receipts of milk at each plant obtained in accordance with the provisions of § 944.8 (c), as follows: (i) the amount of such milk, (ii) the date or dates upon which such milk was received during the delivery period, (iii) the plant from which such milk was shipped, (iv) the price per hundredweight paid or to be paid for such milk, (v) the utilization of such milk, and (vi) such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may request.

(b) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator:

(1) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request with respect to any producer or new producer and with respect to a period of time designated by the market administrator, (i) the name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received, (iii) the average butterfat test of milk received, and (iv) the number of days upon which milk was received.

(2) Within 5 days after first receiving milk from any producer (i) the name and address of such producer, (ii) the date upon which such milk was first received, (iii) the plant at which the milk of such producer was received, and (iv) whether such producer is a new producer.

(c) Reports of payments. On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall report for such delivery period to the market administrator, in the manner prescribed by the market administrator, with respect to each producer and new producer, (1) his name, (2) his total deliveries of base milk and total deliveries of milk in excess of base milk, respectively, (3) the average butterfat content of his milk, (4) the total payment made to such producer or new producer showing the prices, deductions, and charges involved, and (5) such other information as the market administrator may request.

(d) Verification of reports. Each handler shall make available to the market administrator or his agent (1) those records which are necessary for the verification of the information contained in the reports submitted in accordance with this section, and (2) those facilities which are necessary for the sampling, weighing, and testing of milk and for determining the utilization of milk by the handler.*

§ 944.6 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers and who purchase or receive milk from other producers. In the case of a handler who is also a producer and who purchases or receives milk from other producers the value of such milk purchased or received from other producers shall be computed by the market administrator pursuant to § 944.7 (a) as follows: the quantity of such milk shall be ratably apportioned among such handler's total Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV milk (after excluding purchases or receipts from other handlers) and multiplied by the Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV prices, respectively.

(b) Producer-handlers. (1) The provisions hereof, except as set forth in § 944.5, shall not apply to the handling of milk by handlers who are also producer-handlers pursuant to § 944.1 (a) (5), as verified by the market administrator in the manner provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Handlers shall furnish to the market administrator for his verification, subject to review by the Secretary, evidence of their qualifications as producer-handlers pursuant to § 944.1 (a) (5), as of the effective date of the provisions hereof, and they shall furnish evidence of subsequent changes made in the manner of producing or distributing their milk that affects their qualifications as producer-handlers; such verification by the market administrator shall be made within 15 days of the date of receipt of the evidence, and shall be effective retroactively to the effective date of the provisions hereof in cases verified within 45 days of such effective date and shall be effective retroactively to the first day of the delivery period during which verification is made in subsequent cases.

(c) Milk received by a handler from a producer-handler. The market administrator, in computing the value of milk for any handler pursuant to § 944.7 (a), shall consider as Class IV milk any milk or cream received in bulk by such handler from a producer-handler. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk or cream for other than Class IV purposes, the market administrator shall add to the total value computed pursuant to § 944.7 (a) the difference between (1) the value of such milk or cream according to its actual usage, and (2) the value at the Class IV prices.*

§ 944.7 Determination and notification of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of the value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of § 944.6 and § 944.8 (c), the value of milk of producers and new producers disposed of by each handler by (1) multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class by the price applicable pursuant to § 944.4, and (2) adding together the resulting values of each class.

(b) Computation and announcement of the uniform price. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for each handler who made the reports to the market administrator prescribed by § 944.5 and who made the payments prescribed by § 944.8 (a) (5);

(2) Compute the total quantity of milk which represents the delivered bases of producers (excluding new producers) and which is included in the computations made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section;

(3) Compute the total value of the milk (including all milk received from new producers) which is in excess of the delivered bases of producers determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and which is included in the computations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, by multiplying such quantity of milk by the Class IV price;

(4) Compute the total value of the milk represented by the delivered bases of producers by subtracting the value obtained in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph from the value obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(5) Subtract from the value computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph an amount computed as follows: multiply by $0.20 the total hundredweight of milk of producers who are qualified to receive payments pursuant to § 944.8 (a) (2) which was disposed of as Class I milk and Class II milk;

(6) Add to the value computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph an amount which will prorate any cash balance available from previous delivery periods pursuant to subparagraph (8) of this paragraph;

(7) Divide the value obtained in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph by the quantity of milk represented by the delivered bases of producers as determined in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph;

(8) Subtract from the figure obtained in subparagraph (7) of this paragraph not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of milk for the purpose of retaining a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments, or delinquencies in payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the uniform price per hundredweight for such delivery period for base milk of producers containing 3.5 percent butterfat; and

(9) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period notify all handlers and make public announcement of these computations, of the uniform price per hundredweight of base milk computed pursuant to this paragraph, of the Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV prices, and of the differentials computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) and paragraph (d) of § 944.8.*

§ 944.8 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall make payment for milk, subject to the differential provided in paragraph (d) of this section as follows:

(1) To each producer, not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 944.7 (b) for that quantity of milk which does not comply with the Grade A milk quality requirements of the Milk Ordinance of the City of Davenport, Iowa, or of the Grade A Milk and Grade A Milk Products Law of the State of Illinois, and the minimum requirements adopted by the Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health for the interpretation and enforcement of said act, received from such producer not in excess of such producer's base;

(2) To each producer, not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 944.7 (b) for that quantity of milk which does comply with the Grade A milk quality requirements of the Milk Ordinance of the City of Davenport, Iowa, or of the Grade A Milk and Grade A Milk Products Law of the State of Illinois, and the minimum requirements adopted by the Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health for the interpretation and enforcement of said act, received from such producer not in excess of such producer's base plus the amount per hundredweight resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: divide the amount subtracted in the computation of the uniform price, pursuant to § 944.7 (b) (5), by the total hundredweight of base milk received during the delivery period from all such producers;

(3) To each producer, not less than the Class IV price for that quantity of milk received from such producer in excess of such producer's base;

(4) To each new producer, the Class IV price for the total quantity of milk received from such new producer; and

(5) To producers, through the market administrator, by paying to or receiving from the market administrator, as the case may be, the amount by which the payments required to be made pursuant to subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph are less than or exceed the value of milk computed for such handler pursuant to § 944.7 (a), as shown in a statement rendered by the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period.

(b) Additional payments. Any handler may make payments to producers in addition to the payments made pursuant to paragraph (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section: Provided, That such additional payments are made to all producers supplying such handler with milk of the same quality and grade.

(c) Emergency milk. During any period when the market administrator determines that the supply of milk received by any handler from producers, new producers, and handlers operating wholesale or retail milk distribution routes in the marketing area, is not sufficient to fulfill the Class I milk and Class II milk requirements of such handler, such handler, after giving notice to the market administrator of his intention to purchase milk from other than such sources, may secure milk from additional sources on terms and conditions other than those provided in this section. Such milk shall be reported to the market administrator by the receiving handler separately from milk received from producers, new producers, and handlers operating wholesale or retail milk distribution routes in the marketing area, in accordance with § 944.5 (a) (2). Such milk shall be deducted from each class in the proportions that the quantity of milk disposed of by the receiving handler in each class during the delivery period bears to the total quantity of milk received by him during such delivery period. The person from whom the handler received such milk shall not be considered a handler with respect to milk disposed of in the marketing area under the circumstances described in this paragraph.

(d) Butterfat differential. If during the delivery period any handler has received from any producer or new producer milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler, in making the payments prescribed in paragraph (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, shall add for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk above 3.5 percent not less than, or shall deduct for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk below 3.5 percent not more than:

(1) Three cents per hundredweight when the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, is less than 30 cents;

(2) Four cents per hundredweight when such average price of 92-score butter is 30 cents or over, but less than 35 cents; and

(3) Five cents per hundredweight when such average price of 92-score butter is 35 cents or over.

(e) Determination of base. (1) For each delivery period the base of each producer shall be a quantity of milk calculated in the following manner: (i) multiply the applicable figure, computed pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, by the number of days on which milk was received from such producer during such delivery period.

(2) Effective January 1, 1940, and each subsequent year thereafter, the daily base of each producer for the ensuing year shall be determined by the market administrator from reports filed by handlers pursuant to § 944.5 in the following manner:

(i) Determine for each producer that month during the preceding calendar year when his daily average deliveries of milk were the lowest. Determine the 3 months of the preceding calendar year when the daily average deliveries of milk of all producers were the lowest;

(ii) Determine for each producer his total deliveries of milk during each of the

4 months of the previous calendar year described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph and add together the resulting amounts;

(iii) Divide the sum obtained for each producer in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph by the number of days of such 4 calendar months;

(iv) Add together in one sum all the daily average amounts, computed in accordance with subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph;

(v) Determine the daily average utilization of Class I milk and Class II milk during the month of the preceding year when such utilization was greatest and add to such daily average an amount not to exceed 10 percent thereof;

(vi) Divide the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (v) of this subparagraph by the sum determined pursuant to subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph; and

(vii) Multiply the daily average amount for each producer determined in subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph by the percentage figure computed pursuant to subdivision (vi) of this subparagraph. This result shall be known as the producer's allotted daily base.

(3) Base rules. The following rules shall be observed by the market administrator with respect to the administration of the base plan:

(i) Bases allotted to producers pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not be transferable: Provided, That bases allotted under a tenant and landlord relationship shall be combined and may be divided only if such relationship is terminated: And provided further, That any member of the producer's family may be named as the person to whom such base is to be allotted, but in no case shall a base be allotted to more than one member of such producer's family on the same farm;

(ii) As soon as bases are allotted to producers pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the market administrator shall notify each handler of the bases of producers from whom such handler received milk;

(iii) Any producer who ceases to market milk to a handler for a period of more than 45 consecutive days shall forfeit his base. In the event that he thereafter commences to market milk to a handler he shall receive a base computed in the manner provided in subdivision (x) of this subparagraph for the allotment of bases to producers who have been new producers, and shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if he had been a new producer;

(iv) In the event a producer delivers an average quantity of milk less than 85 percent of his allotted daily base for each of 3 consecutive calendar months, such producer shall be reallotted a base equal to his daily average deliveries of milk of his own production for the 3 consecutive months involved;

(v) A producer, whether landlord or tenant of a farm, may retain his base when moving his entire herd of cows from one farm to another farm: Provided, That at the beginning of a tenant and landlord relationship the allotted base of such tenant and landlord shall be a combined base;

(vi) A landlord who rents on shares shall be entitled to the entire base to the exclusion of the tenant, if the landlord owns the entire herd. Likewise, the tenant who rents on shares shall be entitled to the entire base to the exclusion of the landlord, if the tenant owns the entire herd. If the cattle are jointly owned by tenant and landlord, the base shall be divided between the joint owners according to the ownership of the cattle, if and when such joint owners terminate the tenant and landlord relationship;

(vii) The base of any producer shall be automatically canceled at the beginning of any delivery period during which such producer reports milk not produced by him as being milk of his own production for the purpose of maintaining or increasing his allotted base. Such producer shall be reallotted a base computed in the manner provided in subdivision (x) of this subparagraph for the allotment of bases to producers who have been new producers, and shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if he had been a new producer;

(viii) Any producer, upon giving notice to the market administrator, may relinquish his base at the beginning of the delivery period following that during which notice is given. In the event the producer thereafter requests the market administrator to allot him a base, he shall be allotted a base in the manner provided in subdivision (x) of this subparagraph for the allotment of bases to producers who have been new producers, and shall be treated for the purpose of this section as if he had been a new producer;

(ix) If a producer, who has notified the market administrator within 5 days prior to his participation, enters into a program of disease eradication supervised by either county, State, or Federal authorities, the market administrator, in making his determination of that month of the preceding year when such producer's daily average deliveries of milk were the lowest, pursuant to subdivision (i) of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, shall disregard any month in which such disease eradication program was being performed;

(x) In the event of allotment of a base to a producer who has shipped milk as a new producer, the market administrator shall determine the daily average deliveries of milk by such producer for the first 2 full calendar months immediately preceding the time when such producer became a producer. Such daily average deliveries of milk shall be multiplied by the percentage that base deliveries were to total deliveries of milk to the market during such 2 calendar months by all base-holding producers on the market during that period; and

(xi) In the case of a producer who distributes the milk he produces and who disposes of all or a part of his delivery routes to a handler, the market administrator shall determine a figure representing the average daily Class I milk and Class II milk produced, and disposed of during the previous 3 months on the delivery routes of such producer, which such producer and such handler jointly report as involved in the transaction, subject to verification by the market administrator. Any base so determined shall be effective from its determination until the end of the then current calendar year and thereafter shall be superseded by a figure determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(f) Errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer or new producer discloses payment to such producer or new producer of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer or new producer not later than the time of making payment to producers and new producers next following such disclosure.*

§ 944.9 Marketing services—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct an amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight (the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) from the payments made to producers and new producers pursuant to § 944.8 with respect to all milk received by such handler during each delivery period from producers and new producers, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of milk received by handlers from producers and new producers during the delivery period and to provide such producers and new producers with market information, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) Producers' cooperative association. In the case of producers and new producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers and new producers as may be authorized by such producers and new producers and, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the cooperative association rendering such services of which such producers and new producers are members.*

§ 944.10 Expense of administration—(a) Payments by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator a sum not exceeding 3 cents per hundredweight with respect to all milk received during such delivery period from producers and new producers and produced by such handler, the exact sum to be determined by the market administrator subject to review by the Secretary: Provided, That each handler which is a cooperative association shall pay such prorata share of expense of administration on only that milk of producers and new producers received by such association or caused to be delivered by such association to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area.

(b) Suits by market administrator. The market administrator may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro-rata share of expense set forth in this section.*

§ 944.11 Effective time, suspension, or termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated, pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, whenever he finds that this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order, as amended, shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (i) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary, (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements, and, when so directed by the Secretary, deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and (iii) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant hereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.*

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of December, 1941, to become effective on and after the 15th day of December, 1941. Witness my hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

[T.D. 50525]

PART 27—REGULATIONS UNDER TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ACT

COMMUNICATIONS OUTSIDE THE MAILS

Regulations Under Sec. 3 (c) of the Trading With the Enemy Act, Approved October 6, 1917, and Section XI of the Executive Order Dated October 12, 1917, Relative to the Bringing Into, or Taking Out of, the United States of Letters and Other Tangible Forms of Communication, Except in the Regular Course of the Mails

DECEMBER 11, 1941.

Section 3 (c) of the Trading with the Enemy Act, approved October 6, 1917, provides that it shall be unlawful—

(c) For any person (other than a person in the service of the United States Government or of the Government of any nation, except that of an enemy or ally of enemy nation, and other than such persons or classes of persons as may be exempted hereunder by the President or by such person as he may direct), to send, or take out of, or bring into, or attempt to send, or take out of, or bring into the United States, any letter or other writing or tangible form of communication, except in the regular course of the mail; * * *: Provided, however, That any person may send, take, or transmit out of the United States anything herein forbidden, if he shall first submit the same to the President, or to such officer as the President may direct, and shall obtain the license or consent of the President, under such rules and regulations, and with such exemptions, as shall be prescribed by the President.

Section XI, Executive Order No. 2729-A, dated October 12, 1917, is in part as follows:

I further hereby vest in the Secretary of the Treasury the executive administration of the provisions of subsection (c) of section 3 of the Trading with the Enemy Act relative to sending, or taking out of, or bringing into, or attempting to send, take out of, or bring into the United States any letter, writing, or tangible form of communication, except in the regular course of the mail. * * * And said Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered to issue licenses to send, take, or transmit out of the United States anything otherwise forbidden by said subsection (c) and give such consent or grant such exemption in respect thereto as is not inconsistent with law or to withhold or refuse the same.

Under section 16 of the Trading with the Enemy Act any person bringing, or attempting to bring, into the United States any letter or other writing or tangible form of communication, except in the regular course of the mail, is subject, upon conviction, to a fine of not more than $10,000, or to imprisonment for not more than 10 years or both, and the letter or other form of communication so brought in, or attempted to be brought in, is subject to seizure and forfeiture. Any person who sends, or takes, or attempts to send, or take from the United States any letter or other writing or tangible form of communication, except in the regular course of the mail, without a license therefor, is subject to a like penalty, and the letter or other form of communication involved is subject to seizure and forfeiture.

Pursuant to the authority conferred by sections XI and XIII of Executive Order No. 2729-A, dated October 12, 1917, the following regulations are hereby prescribed for the enforcement of the provisions of the statute and order quoted above:

(1) Every person arriving in the United States from any foreign country (except persons in the service of the United States Government or of the Government of any nation other than Japan and allies of Japan) shall be required to declare to the customs officers, in addition to the usual customs declaration (if any), any letter or other tangible form of communication, carried on his person or in his baggage, or otherwise brought with him or under his control. Customs officers examining arriving passengers and baggage shall, in addition to the usual customs examination, make a particular search to discover any letters or other tangible forms of communication, and shall deliver to the collector of customs for disposition any such letters or other forms of communication so declared, or which may be found on the persons or in the baggage of passengers, or which may have been brought to the United States otherwise than in the regular course of the mails. If it appear that any letter or other tangible form of communication is being brought into the United States with intention to evade or violate the law, or if it appear that the effect of bringing such letter or other form of communication into the United States would be inimical to the interests of our Government, or in the interests of its enemies, the customs officers shall detain any person having such letter or other form of communication in his possession or under his control, and report the facts to the United States attorney for appropriate action.

(2) Customs officers shall require every person departing from the United States (except persons in the service of the United States Government or of the Government of any nation other than Japan or allies of Japan) to declare any letter or other tangible form of communication carried on his person, or contained in his baggage, or otherwise brought with him or under his control. When such action is deemed necessary, customs officers shall also search the person and baggage of any one (except persons in the service of the United States Government or of the Government of any nation other than Japan or allies of Japan) departing from the United States for any letter or other tangible form of communication. If any such letter or form of communication be declared or found which is not covered by a license issued pursuant to paragraph 4 or 5 hereof or other proper authority, the customs officers shall take possession of it and deliver it to the collector of customs for disposition. If upon investigation the collector of customs is satisfied that such letter or other form of communication was being taken out of the United States without any intention to violate or evade the law or to injure the interests of the United States or to advance the interests of its enemies, and if such letter or other form of communication is not intended for or to be delivered to an enemy or ally of an enemy, the collector may grant a license for the taking of such letter or other form of communication out of the United States, provided there are affixed to the letter or other form of communication the postage stamps that would be required if such letter or other form of communication were sent in the regular course of the mail. If such letter or other form of communication is intended for or to be delivered to an enemy or ally of an enemy and a license therefor has not been issued pursuant to proper authority, the collector of customs shall hold it in his possession until he is instructed concerning its disposition. If the collector finds on investigation that such letter or other form of communication is being taken out of the United States with intention to violate or evade the law, or if the effect of taking it out would be to injure the United States or to advance the interests of its enemies, he shall seize such letter or other form of communication and detain the person in whose possession it was found, or who had it under his control, and shall report the facts to the United States attorney for appropriate action.

(3) In connection with the examination of imports and exports for customs and control purposes, customs officers shall be alert to detect any letter or other tangible form of communication brought into or intended to be taken out of the United States contrary to law, and if any such be found, shall take possession thereof and submit it to the collector for disposition.

(4) Licenses to take or send from the United States any letter or other tangible form of communication otherwise than in the regular course of the mail may be granted, if such letter or other form of communication is not intended for or to be delivered to an enemy or ally of an enemy, upon compliance with the following procedure:

Any person desiring to take or send from the United States such letter or other form of communication shall file an application therefor with the collector of customs at the port of entry at which such letter or other form of communication is to leave the United States, or with the collector of customs at or nearest the place of residence of such person. Such application shall state the name, nationality, residence, occupation, and place of business of the person taking, and, if sent by another person, of the person sending such letter or other form of communication, and the name, nationality, residence, occupation, and place of business of the person to whom such letter or other form of communication is to be delivered, with a full statement of the reasons why it is necessary or desired to send such communication otherwise than in the regular course of the mail. If the person sending or taking such letter or other form of communication from the United States is a citizen of this country, the application shall state whether he is a native-born or a naturalized citizen, and, if naturalized, the country of which he was a citizen or subject prior to receipt of his final naturalization papers, and the place where and the date when he was naturalized. Such application shall have attached thereto the actual letter or other form of communication which it is desired to send or take from the United States and, if in a foreign language, a translation thereof. If the collector of customs is satisfied that a good reason exists for the taking or sending of such letter or other form of communication from the United States otherwise than in the regular course of the mail, and that such action will not be inimical to the interests of the United States, he shall stamp the letter or other form of communication with the word "Licensed" and the date of the stamp and affix his official seal thereto and return it to the applicant, who shall declare and exhibit it to the customs officer who examines his baggage at the time of his departure. If the collector of customs is of the opinion that the granting of any application for a license will be inimical to the interests of the United States, he shall refuse to grant the license. Any person to whom a license is refused by any collector of customs may appeal from such decision to the Secretary of the Treasury through the Commissioner of Customs. Such appeal shall state all the facts required to be stated in the application for a license and any additional facts or reasons the applicant may consider pertinent to show why the decision of the collector of customs should be reversed.

(5) A general license extending over a period of time may be granted upon application made to the Secretary of the Treasury and its being shown that the granting of such a general license is necessary to the orderly transaction of the applicant's business, and is not contrary to the interests of the United States. Each application for such a license shall state all the facts required to be stated in an application for an individual license and such additional facts as may be relied upon to show why a general license should be granted, and shall be filed with the collector of customs at or nearest the place of residence of the applicant, or at the port of entry from which the communications are to be sent. Such applications shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Customs by the collector of customs after an investigation of the facts, with his report and recommendation. Such general license, when granted, will be issued through the collector of customs at the port at which the application was filed, or at which such letters or other forms of communication are to leave the United States, and the applicant will be notified of the granting thereof.

(6) In case of doubt, the collector of customs shall refer the application for a license to the Customs Agency Service for investigation and report.

(7) Any license issued pursuant to these regulations may be revoked at any time.

(8) Collectors of customs shall arrange with coordinators of Treasury agencies and the local representatives of the Immigration Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the United States Secret Service, and the Intelligence Services of the Army and the Navy for mutual cooperation and exchange of information in carrying out these regulations.

(9) Each collector of customs shall report to the Commissioner of Customs on Monday of each week all licenses granted by him during the preceding week, stating the name, occupation, and address of each sender and addressee, and the nature and subject matter of the communication licensed.

(10) Collectors of customs shall not issue licenses for any letter or other tangible form of communication intended for or to be delivered to an enemy or ally of enemy, whether to be sent outside the regular course of the mail, or otherwise.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Conservation Order No. M-49 Curtailing the Use of Iridium and Iridium Alloys in the Manufacture of Jewelry

Whereas national defense requirements will create a shortage of Iridium (as hereinafter defined) for the combined needs of defense, private account, and export; and the supply of Iridium will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless its use in the manufacture of jewelry is prohibited; and it is necessary in the public interest to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of Iridium.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1011.1 General preference order No. M-49—(a) Restrictions on use of iridium in the manufacture of jewelry—(1) Prohibition against sale. After the effective date of this Order no Person shall sell or deliver (including deliveries under toll agreements) Iridium or Iridium Alloys to any Jewelry Manufacturer for use in the manufacture of jewelry.

(2) Prohibition against purchase. After the effective date of this Order no jewelry Manufacturer shall purchase or receive (including receipts under toll agreements) from any Person any Iridium or Iridium Alloys for use in the manufacture of jewelry.

(3) Prohibitions against use. After the effective date of this Order no Jewelry Manufacturer may use Iridium or Iridium Alloys in the manufacture of jewelry unless such use has been specifically authorized by the Director of Priorities.

(b) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Priorities regulation No. 1.[1] This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 issued by the Director of Priorities on August 27, 1941, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(2) Appeal. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Iridium or Iridium Alloys conserved, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work may appeal to the Director of Priorities setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Priorities may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibition and restrictions contained in this Order shall apply to the use of material in all articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other Order of the Director of Priorities may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided, the use of Iridium and Iridium Alloys in the production of any article, the limitation of such other Order shall be observed.

(4) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this Order, or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this Order, or by the Director of Priorities, or who otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Priorities, or to the Office of Production Management may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director of Priorities from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director of Priorities may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(5) Reports. (i) After the effective date of this Order any Jewelry Manufacturer selling, transferring, delivering or otherwise disposing in any manner of Iridium or Iridium Alloys in his possession, or subject to his control, shall report such sale, transfer, delivery or disposition to the Office of Production Management, Ref: M-49, setting forth the name of the Person or Persons to whom such sale, transfer, delivery or disposition was made and the amount of Iridium or Iridium Alloys sold, transferred or delivered.

(ii) All Persons affected by this Order shall execute and file with the Office of Production Management, upon forms hereafter to be prescribed, reports stating the stocks and inventories of Iridium and Iridium Alloys in their possession or subject to their control on January 1, 1942.

(6) Correspondence and communication. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this Order should be addressed to the Director of Priorities, Office of Production Management, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-49.

(7) Definitions. For the purpose of this Order:

(i) "Iridium" means Iridium Metal in any form, including primary, secondary, and scrap.

PART 1312—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 54—DOUGLAS FIR PEELER LOGS

Douglas fir peeler logs are the primary raw material in the manufacture of Douglas fir plywood. An earlier ceiling on peeler logs, incorporated in Price Schedule No. 13 with Douglas fir plywood, was in the form of a schedule establishing as maximum prices the prices prevailing on May 1, 1941. An interim amendment advanced the base date to prices prevailing on August 1, 1941. Subsequent investigation has made it possible to state maximum prices in dollars and cents terms.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1312.201 Maximum prices for Douglas fir peeler logs. On and after December 20, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer Douglas fir peeler logs to manufacturers of plywood, and no manufacturer of plywood shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of Douglas fir peeler logs, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as section 1312.209.*

*§§ 1312.201 to 1312.209, inclusive, issued pursuant to authority contained in Executive Orders Nos. 8734, 8875, 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

§ 1312.202 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.*

§ 1312.203 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery or transfer of peeler logs, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge, or by a tying agreement or other trade understanding, or by making terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on August 1, 1941, or by any other means. If peeler logs are included in any shipment together with logs of other grades at a flat or average price, the percentage of peeler logs and the price therefor shall be separately stated in the invoice. Any attempt to secure a higher price for peeler logs by the device of charging a flat or average price which involves an unusual and excessive price for other grades included in the shipment shall be treated as an evasion of the Schedule. If peeler logs are sold "camp run," rather than on grades, the "camp run" price shall not exceed the maximum price for the logs if sold on grades.*

§ 1312.204 Records and reports. Every person who shall sell to a manufacturer of plywood, and every manufacturer of plywood who shall buy, 100,000 ft. log scale or more of Douglas fir peeler logs during any calendar month, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of (a) each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the price paid or received, and the quantity of each kind or grade purchased or sold, and (b) the quantity of peeler logs (1) on hand, and (2) on order, as of the close of each calendar month.

Persons affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1312.205 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both State and Federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule; (c) that full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of state, county, and local governments by calling to the attention of the proper authorities failures to comply with this Schedule which may be regarded as grounds for the revocation of licenses and permits; and (d) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation, or manipulation of prices of Douglas fir peeler logs, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1312.206 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof or exception therefrom: Provided, That no applications under this section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1312.207 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity.

(b) "Douglas fir" means the botanical species of Pseudotsuga taxifolia.

(c) "Douglas fir peeler log" means a Douglas fir log suitable for the manufacture, by rotary cutting, of Douglas fir plywood, whether it is actually so used or not.

(d) "Deliver" means to make physical transfer of logs to a purchaser, or to a carrier, not owned or controlled by the seller, for carriage to a purchaser, to whom the logs have been sold.

(e) "District" means any one of four districts, as follows:

Puget Sound district, including all counties in the State of Washington lying west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains except those named in the Gray's Harbor and Columbia River districts;

Gray's Harbor district, including the counties of Gray's Harbor and Pacific in the State of Washington;

Columbia River district, including the counties of Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clarke, and Skamania in the State of Washington and Clatsop, Columbia, Washington, Clackamus, and Hood River in the State of Oregon;

Willamette Valley district, including all counties in the State of Oregon lying west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains except those named in the Columbia River district.

(f) "Price" means the delivered price, including freight and commissions to wholesalers, commission salesmen, or others. The price in the Puget Sound district means the price delivered in the waters of Puget Sound; the price in the Gray's Harbor district means the price delivered in the waters of Gray's Harbor; the price in the Columbia River district means the price delivered in the waters of the Columbia River; and the price in the Willamette Valley district, means the price delivered at the factory of the buyer. When logs are sold out of one district for delivery in another, the maximum prices and the grades shall be those of the district in which the buyer takes possession of the logs.

(g) "Peeler grade," "No. 1 selected for peeling," "No. 2 selected for peeling," and "core" shall mean such grades as understood between buyer and seller in the particular district on August 1, 1941.*

§ 1312.208 Effective date of the schedule. This Schedule shall become effective on December 20, 1941.*

To obtain maximum prices for Willamette Valley district, take prices given above for Columbia River district, and subtract therefrom the transportation costs which would have been applicable to the shipment had it moved from the logger's loading-out point to the Columbia River market, and then add transportation costs from logger's loading-out point to the plant of the buyer: Provided, That regardless of the actual result of such computation, the prices for the Willamette Valley district shall in no event exceed the prices given above for the Columbia River district.

Issued this 12th day of December 1941.
Effective December 20, 1941.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 53—FATS AND OILS

The outbreak of war has disrupted trade in certain fats and oils with the result that normal price relationships are disturbed and inflationary price increases threaten to develop. Supplies of domestic fats and oils are substantial, and no serious shortage for defense or civilian requirements is in prospect. Nevertheless, because of recent speculative activity, the danger of serious inflation and price spiraling has made it imperative to issue immediately a Schedule temporarily establishing maximum prices. Because of the interchangeability of fats and oils it is necessary that maximum prices be established for all fats and oils. To effect this purpose of price stabilization it is necessary to limit prices to those which preceded the recent speculative and sharp rise in prices which distorted the normal price relationship between the various fats and oils. The date of November 26, 1941, when the closing price of the December future for cottonseed oil on the New York Produce Exchange was 12.50¢ per pound best accomplishes this purpose.

Should unwarranted price rises occur at stages of distribution not covered in this Schedule, appropriate action will be taken by this Office.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1351.151 Maximum prices for fats and oils. (a) On and after December 13, 1941, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer fats or oils, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of fats or oils at prices higher than the maximum prices, except that contracts entered into prior to December 13, 1941, providing for a price higher than the maximum prices, may be carried out at the contract price. The maximum prices shall include commissions and all other charges.

(b) For any kind, grade or quality of fat or oil the maximum shipping point price shall be the highest shipping point price at which the seller sold, on November 26, 1941, such kind of fat or oil of approximately the same grade, quality and amount to a similar purchaser for nearby delivery. The maximum delivered price shall be this maximum shipping point price plus actual transportation costs.

(c) In the event that the maximum price cannot be determined under subsection (b) above, the maximum shipping point price shall be determined as follows:

(1) When the sales price per pound, exclusive of transportation charges, in the seller's most recent sale between October 1, 1941, and November 26, 1941, for nearby delivery to a similar purchaser, of approximately the same kind, grade, quality and amount, exceeded the December future price of cottonseed oil on the day of such sale, the maximum shipping point price shall be 12.50 cents plus the number of points by which such sales price, exclusive of transportation charges, exceeded such future price; or

(2) When the sales price per pound, exclusive of transportation charges, in the seller's most recent sale between October 1, 1941, and November 26, 1941, for nearby delivery to a similar purchaser of approximately the same kind, grade, quality and amount, was less than the December future price of cottonseed oil on the day of such sale, the maximum shipping point price shall be 12.50 cents minus the number of points by which such sales price, exclusive of transportation charges, was less than such future price.

(d) In the event that the maximum price cannot be determined under either subsection (b) or (c) above, the maximum shipping point price shall be the highest price for which approximately the same kind, grade, quality and amount of such fat or oil was purchased by the purchaser from any other seller on November 26, 1941. The maximum delivered price shall be this maximum shipping point price plus actual transportation costs.

(e) In all other cases, the maximum prices shall be the market price for such product of the same kind, grade, quality, amount and type of purchaser on November 26, 1941.

(f) The above prices shall be the maximum prices for all transactions except for cottonseed oil and lard futures contracts traded on the New York Produce Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade, respectively. For such contracts the maximum prices shall be the closing prices on these Exchanges as of November 26, 1941, for all the months then traded in as follows:

§ 1351.152 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Schedule may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1351.153 Records and reports. Any person receiving or delivering fats or oils on and after December 13, 1941, under any contract entered into previous thereto at prices higher than the maximum prices established by the Schedule shall report such delivery or receipt to the Office of Price Administration within ten days thereof stating (a) the name and address of the buyer and seller; (b) the actual date of the contract; (c) the date of delivery or receipt; and (d) the price, quantity, and description of the product sold. A transaction involving the transfer of less than $250.00 need not be reported.

Every person making any purchase or sale of fats or oils on and after December 13, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of each such purchase and sale amounting to $500.00 or more, including the date thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality, and amount sold.

Every person affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1351.154 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof, or exception therefrom: Provided, That no applications under this Section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1351.155 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both State and Federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule; and (c) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation or manipulation of prices of fats or oils, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1351.156 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery or transfer of fats or oils, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation or other charge, or by any other trade understanding, by making discounts or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on November 26, 1941, or by any other means.*

§ 1351.157 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity dealing in fats or oils.

(b) "Fats and oils" means all fats and oils, whether raw, crude, or refined (including olive oil and lard) sold in tank cars, drums, tierces, and sacks, except "essential", mineral and chemical oils, butter, and finished fats and oils products not specified above.

(d) "Points" means the number of hundredths of one cent per pound.

(e) "Nearby delivery" means delivery not more than sixty days, after the date upon which the contract was entered into, except, where, by well established custom, the term is used to describe deliveries within a somewhat longer period.*

§ 1351.158 Effective date of the schedule. This Schedule shall become effective on December 13, 1941.*

Issued this 12th day of December 1941.

Surplus Marketing Administration.

DETERMINATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 608c (9) AND (17) TITLE 7, U.S.C., WITH RESPECT TO THE ISSUANCE OF ORDER NO. 44, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE QUAD CITIES MARKETING AREA [1]

Grover B. Hill, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the Secretary by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, issued, effective February 1, 1940, Order No. 44, regulating the handling of milk within the area defined in said order and referred to therein as the Quad Cities marketing area.

H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, tentatively approved, on December 14, 1939, a marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area.

There being reason to believe that the execution of amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, notice was given, on September 4, 1941, of a public hearing, which was held in Rock Island, Illinois, on September 11, 1941, on certain proposals to amend such marketing agreement and such order, and at such time and place all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on such marketing agreement, as amended, and such order, as amended.

After such hearing and after the tentative approval on November 19, 1941, of a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Quad Cities marketing area, handlers of more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the Quad Cities marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk.

It is hereby determined, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, that:

1. The refusal or failure of said handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

2. The issuance of Order No. 44, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to such policy of advancing the interests of the producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Quad Cities marketing area; and

3. The issuance of Order No. 44, as amended, is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum conducted by the Secretary and who, during the month of July 1941, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said area.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of December 1941. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

DETERMINATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 608c (9) AND (17), TITLE 7, U.S.C., WITH RESPECT TO THE ISSUANCE OF ORDER NO. 12, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE DUBUQUE, IOWA, MARKETING AREA [1]

H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the Secretary by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, issued, effective June 16, 1939, Order No. 12, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area.

H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, tentatively approved, on May 19, 1939, a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area.

There being reason to believe that the execution of amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, notice was given, on September 4, 1941, of a public hearing which was held in Dubuque, Iowa, on September 9, 1941, on certain proposals to amend such marketing agreement, as amended, and such order, as amended, and at such time and place all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposals to amend such marketing agreement, as amended, and such order, as amended.

After such hearing and after the tentative approval on November 15, 1941, of a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area, handlers of more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk.

It is hereby determined, pursuant to the powers conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, that:

1. The refusal or failure of said handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Division of Public Contracts.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE CHEMICAL AND RELATED PRODUCTS INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

The Secretary of Labor has presently before her for the purpose of determining the prevailing minimum wage under section 1 (b) of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35), hereinafter called the Act, the complete record in the above-entitled matter including the transcript of hearing, the findings and recommendations of the Public Contracts Board, arrived at on the basis of the evidence presented at the hearing and briefs and communications filed pursuant thereto.

The Chemical and Related Products Industry is defined for the purposes of the proceeding to be that industry which manufactures A. (1) heavy, industrial, and fine chemicals, including among others compressed and liquefied gases, and insecticides and fungicides, and (2) the by-products of the foregoing; and B. the manufacture of such commodities as bluing; bone black, carbon black, and lampblack; cleaning and polishing preparations (except paint and varnish remover, furniture and floor wax and polish, and soap), mucilage, paste, and other adhesives. Omitted from the scope of the definition of this industry are: Fertilizer; Drugs and Medicines; Ammunition; Explosives; Fireworks; Paints, pigments, varnishes and lacquers; and Soap, which have been accorded separate treatment by the Secretary.

Copies of the Board's recommendations may be had on request addressed to the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.

The Secretary of Labor proposes on or after December 29, 1941 to find that the prevailing minimum wages in the chemical and related products industry, within the meaning of section 1 (b) of the Act, are 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis for the states of Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, and the District of Columbia; and 50 cents an hour or $20.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis for the remaining states of the United States.

The Secretary in support of the proposed minimum wage determination will find, unless reason is shown to the contrary, that there is a general similarity in wage structure throughout the states in each of the proposed groupings; that there is a wide spread in the minimum wages paid in the plants of each state; and that the minimum which is most generally paid to employees very closely approximates 50 cents in the states of one group and 40 cents in the states of the other.

The Secretary will point out that the proposed determination in this case is fortified by the fact that in practically all of the states in each group more than 50 percent of the plants have a minimum wage as high or higher than the proposed minimum and that these high paying plants employ more employees than those paying as a minimum wage less than the proposed minimum.

Notice is hereby given to all interested parties of the opportunity to show cause, on or before December 29, 1941 why the Secretary of Labor should not determine the prevailing minimum wages in the Chemical and Related Products Industry to be

(1) 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, for the states of Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, and the District of Columbia; and

(2) 50 cents an hour or $20.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, for the remaining states of the United States.

The proposed determination shall be effective and the minimum wages therein established shall apply to all contracts bids for which are solicited or negotiations otherwise commenced on or after the date specified therein, subject to the provisions of the afore-mentioned Act of June 30, 1936, for the manufacture and supply of the products of the Chemical and Related Products Industry.

Briefs for or against the proposed determination must be filed with the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, on or before December 29, 1941. No form for the brief is prescribed, but an original and four copies must be submitted.

The entire record will be considered by the Secretary of Labor before the wage determination is made.

Administrator.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of December, A. D. 1941.

Notice is hereby given that a combined declaration and application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above named party or parties; and

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 19, 1941 at 4:30 P. M., E. S. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration and application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration and application, which is on file in the Office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Continental Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to purchase $544,000 principal amount 5% First Mortgage Bonds of The Lincoln Traction Company (a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Continental) from Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power Company for the consideration of $275,000 cash.

These bonds were outstanding in the principal amount of $800,000 when they matured January 1, 1939, but funds sufficient to retire the entire amount were not then available. As of December 30, 1940, they were reduced in principal amount to $624,000, by a payment on principal of $176,000 applied pro rata to each of the bonds outstanding. Subsequent to October 31, 1941, a further payment on principal in the amount of $80,000 (likewise applied pro rata to each of the bonds), reduced the principal amount outstanding to $544,000. Iowa-Nebraska owned the entire amount outstanding when each of the above payments was made. Continental owns the entire capital stock of Iowa-Nebraska.

Continental desires to acquire the bonds in order that all of the outstanding securities of Lincoln Traction Company will be owned directly by it, facilitating the contemplated disposition of its interest in Lincoln when a suitable buyer either for the properties or the securities can be found. The proposed acquisition is part of a general program to simplify the capital structure of the Continental Gas & Electric Corporation holding-company system.

The parties desire to consummate the transaction within the present calendar year and have requested that the filing be made effective by order of the Commission entered December 22, 1941, the fifteenth day after the filing date.

By the Commission.

RED CROSS WAR FUND CAMPAIGN

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS our country has been viciously attacked and forced into a war of vast proportions, which will inevitably bring grief and distress to many and self-sacrifice to all; and

WHEREAS for more than sixty years the American National Red Cross has played a vital role in binding up the wounds of the injured, in sheltering, feeding, and clothing the homeless, in succoring the distressed, in rebuilding broken lives, and in rehabilitating the victims of catastrophes of nature and of war; and

WHEREAS in preparation for just such an emergency as we are now facing, the American National Red Cross has been spending funds at the rate of more than one million dollars a month, which is but a small fraction of the amount that the organization now requires in order to carry out effectively its functions as an essential auxiliary of our armed forces, particularly as a friendly liaison in welfare problems between the man in service and his family at home, and as a key agency in the civil-defense plans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, and President of the American National Red Cross, do hereby proclaim the beginning, as of this date, of a Red Cross War Fund Campaign for the raising of a minimum sum of fifty million dollars; and I appeal to the American people to make this campaign an overwhelming success. Realizing the desire of every American to participate in the national war effort, I confidently anticipate an immediate and spontaneous response to this appeal.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 12th day of December in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-sixth.

[SEAL]

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

(2) The registrant has been notified in writing that the executive department or the United States Maritime Commission, as the case may be, has administratively determined that the subject of such contract relates to and affects the national defense and that disclosure thereof would be contrary to the public interest.

In any case where the registrant desires the Commission to make such a determination, the procedure set forth in § 230.580 [Rule 580] shall be followed, except that there shall be filed, in lieu of the three copies of the contract or portion thereof required by paragraph (b) (1) of such rule, three copies of the notification and three copies of the information as to the terms of the contract which the registrant desires to keep undisclosed, all clearly marked "Confidential".

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

ORDER REASSIGNING CERTAIN MINES TO DIFFERENT FREIGHT ORIGIN GROUPS IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITIONS OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 9 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR COALS PRODUCED BY CERTAIN MINES OF DISTRICT 9

Negotiations for the establishment of freight rates from the shipping points of various mines in District No. 9 having been in progress at the time when the establishment of f. o. b. mine prices for their coals for all shipments except truck was prayed; and

The Illinois Central Railroad Company and/or the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company now having included the points from which these mines move their coals in the normal rate group applicable from Western Kentucky mines; and

It appearing that the application of the normal group rates from these mines requires the reassignment of freight origin group numbers, as indicated below;

It further appearing that the assignment of mines in the freight origin groups shown below would cause no change in either the minimum f. o. b. mine or delivered prices on District No. 9 coals;

It is therefore ordered, That § 329.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 9 for All Shipments Except Truck is amended to assign the following mines to different freight origin groups as follows:

PART 1024—PIGS' AND HOGS' BRISTLES

General Preference Order M–51 To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Pigs' and Hogs' Bristles

The uncertainty of future shipments of pigs' and hogs' bristles from abroad and national defense requirements for products of which imported pigs' and hogs' bristles are an essential component, have created a shortage of such bristles for defense, private account, and for export, and it is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense to allocate such bristles in the manner and to the extent hereinafter in this Order provided;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1024.1 General preference order M–51—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. All of the provisions and definitions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, issued by the Director of Priorities on August 27, 1941, as amended from time to time, shall be deemed a part of this Order, except insofar as they are inconsistent herewith.

(b) Additional definitions. For the purposes of this Order (1) "Bristles" shall mean pigs' or hogs' bristles of the lengths of three inches and longer which have been or may hereafter be imported into the United States.

PART 1028—DOMESTIC COOKING APPLIANCES

General Limitation Order No. L–23 To Restrict the Production of Domestic Cooking Appliances

Whereas the demands of national defense have created a shortage of iron and steel used in the manufacture of domestic cooking appliances; action has already been taken to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of such materials to insure deliveries for defense and essential civilian requirements; and the present supply of these materials will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements unless the manufacture of domestic cooking appliances is curtailed and the use of critical materials for such manufacture thereby reduced;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1028.1 General limitation order No. L–23—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Order:

(1) "Domestic Cooking Appliances" means gas ranges, cooking stoves, and hot plates for household use; electric ranges and cooking stoves, two and one-half k. w. and over, for household use; coal and wood ranges and cooking stoves (not including laundry stoves), for household use; kerosene, fuel oil, and gasoline ranges, cooking stoves, and hot plates for household use; combination ranges (including kitchen heater and bungalow types) for household use; camp and trailer stoves for cooking purposes; and fuel oil conversion range burners.

(2) "Iron and Steel Used" means the aggregate weight of iron and steel contained in the finished products manufactured.

(3) "Factory Sales Value" means the aggregate value of shipments of domestic cooking appliances.

(5) "Class B Manufacturers" means those manufacturers of domestic cooking appliances whose factory sales value for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, including both domestic sales and exports, was greater than $1,000,000 but less than $3,000,000.

(6) "Class C Manufacturers" means those manufacturers of domestic cooking appliances whose factory sales value for the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, including both domestic sales and exports, was $1,000,000 or less.

(ii) Electricity;
(iii) Coal and wood;
(iv) Kerosene, fuel oil, and/or gasoline;
(v) Any combination of coal and wood or fuel oil with gas or electricity.

(b) General restrictions. (1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (4) and (5), during the four months' period from January 1, 1942 to April 30, 1942, inclusive, no Class A Manufacturer shall use in the production of any one fuel-burning type of domestic cooking appliance iron and steel in excess of the greater of the following two limits:

(i) Four times 58% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him for the manufacture of such fuel-burning type of domestic cooking appliance during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, or

(ii) That proportion of four times 64% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him for such purposes in such period which $3,000,000 bears to his total factory sales value of domestic cooking appliances for such base period.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraphs (4) and (5), during the four months' period from January 1, 1942 to April 30, 1942, inclusive, no Class B Man-

(ii) That proportion of four times 70% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him for such purposes in such period which $1,000,000 bears to his total factory sales value of domestic cooking appliances for such base period.

(3) Except as provided in subparagraphs (4) and (5), during the four months' period from January 1, 1942 to April 30, 1942, inclusive, no Class C Manufacturer shall use in the production of any one fuel-burning type of domestic cooking appliance iron and steel in excess of four times 70% of the monthly average of iron and steel used by him for the manufacture of such fuel-burning type of domestic cooking appliance during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(4) Any manufacturer who ceased producing any fuel-burning type of domestic cooking appliance prior to November 1, 1941 may use his allowable quota of iron and steel for such fuel-burning type in the production of other fuel-burning types.

(5) Nothing in the Order shall limit, and each manufacturer is specifically authorized to use, in addition to the quota set forth above, any amount of iron and steel required in the production of domestic cooking appliances under specific contracts or orders placed by or for the account of, or to fulfill a contract with:

(iv) Any public authority owning or operating a project financed in whole or in part by the United States Government or an agency thereof, and certified by the authority to be devoted in whole or in part to the housing of persons engaged in defense activity: Provided, That the contracts or orders involved were obtained as a result of competitive bidding.

(6) During the four months' period from January 1, 1942, to April 30, 1942, inclusive, the average weight of iron and steel used per unit by any manufacturer in any one fuel-burning type of domestic cooking appliance (exclusive of those produced under the terms of subparagraph (5)) shall not exceed the average weight of iron and steel used per unit by such manufacturer in the production of domestic cooking appliances of such fuel-burning type during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

(7) Effective December 15, 1941, no manufacturer of domestic cooking appliances shall:

(i) Use any iron or steel in the production of cover tops or lids to cover the cooking surfaces of domestic cooking appliances when not in use, or

(9) Except as provided in subparagraph (5), during the period from the effective date of this Order to December 31, 1941, inclusive, no manufacturer's average daily use of iron and steel in the production of domestic cooking appliances of all fuel-burning types shall exceed his average daily use of iron and steel in the production of domestic cooking appliances of all fuel-burning types during the twelve months ending June 30, 1941.

Until further notice Form PD-192 shall be filed on or before the twentieth day of each month, commencing January 20, 1942, and shall cover the preceding month or a portion thereof.

(g) Provision for companies under common ownership. For the purposes of this Order, a manufacturer's classification into Class "A", "B", or "C" shall depend upon the total factory sales value of that manufacturer, including in the total of such factory sales value the factory sales value of all subsidiaries, affiliates, or other companies or enterprises under common ownership or control.

(h) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this Order, or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this Order, or by the Director of Priorities, or otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director of Priorities or to the Office of Production Management, may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director of Priorities from obtaining any further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director of Priorities may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(i) Appeals. Any person affected by this Order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in his community, or that compliance with this Order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal on Form PD-203 to the Office of Production Management by addressing a letter to the Office of Production Management, Ref: L-23, Social Security Building, Washington, D. C., setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director of Priorities may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

PART 1032—DIRECT-CONSUMPTION SUGAR

General Preference Order M-55—To Conserve the Supply and Direct the Distribution of Direct-Consumption Sugar

Whereas it appears that the fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of direct-consumption sugar for the combined needs of defense, private account and export, and it is necessary in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution of direct-consumption sugar.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1032.1 General preference order M-55—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This Order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this Order shall govern.

(2) "Direct-Consumption Sugar" means any grade or type of saccharine product derived from sugar beets or sugarcane, which is not to be, and which shall not be, further refined or otherwise improved in quality; except sugar in liquid form which contains non-sugar solids (excluding any foreign substance that may have been added) equal to more than 6 per centum of the total soluble solids, and except also sirup of cane juice produced from sugarcane grown in continental United States.

(3) "Primary Distributor" means any person who manufactures or imports direct-consumption sugar or the agent of any such person.

(ii) Accept delivery of any direct-consumption sugar if, upon acceptance of such delivery, the amount of direct-consumption sugar in his possession or under his control shall exceed a thirty days' supply based upon his use or resales during the thirty day period commencing two years before such acceptance of delivery: Provided, That there shall be deducted from the maximum supply thus permitted the amount, if any, by which the total of his use or resales from December 1, 1941, to the date of acceptance of such delivery exceeds his total use or resales during the corresponding period beginning and ending two years before, except that to the extent such corresponding period includes the whole or any part of December, 1939, there shall be used instead the figures for the whole or such part of December, 1940; or

(iii) Accept delivery after January 1, 1942, of any direct-consumption sugar unless before accepting the delivery he files with or mails to the Office of Production Management a report on Form PD-206, or such other forms as may be required from time to time by the Director of Priorities.

CHAPTER XI—OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 49—RESALE OF IRON OR STEEL PRODUCTS

Prices in effect on April 16, 1941, have been specified as maximum prices for sale of iron or steel products by producers, under Price Schedule No. 6, as revised on June 21, 1941. A large proportion of the iron or steel products used in industry passes through the hands of jobbers, dealers, and distributors of various kinds. In some cases, these middlemen have charged exorbitant and unwarranted prices. It is therefore essential that the price charged by these persons, as well as the price charged by the producer, be kept within reasonable limits. To protect both the consumer and the jobbers, dealers, and other distributors who have maintained a reasonable price level, it has been determined by the Office of Price Administration that a Price Schedule covering all resale of iron or steel products should be issued. April 16, 1941, has been selected as the base date, since the maximum price at which the reseller may purchase from a producer has been established as of that date. Pending further investigation of transportation problems, maximum prices for Pacific Coast and Gulf Port prices are being specified.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1306.151 Maximum prices for the resale of iron or steel products. On and after December 15, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, except as provided in § 1306.154 hereof, no seller as defined in § 1306.157 (b) of this Schedule shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer iron or steel products, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of iron or steel products at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1306.159.*

§ 1306.153 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded either by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, barter, delivery or transfer of iron or steel products alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by way of discount, premium, or other privilege, or by way of tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.*

§ 1306.154 Records and reports—(a) Records of sales, inventory and orders. Every person making sales or purchases for resale of iron or steel products after December 15, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of (1) each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer or the seller, the price paid on each purchase for resale and received on each resale, the quality and grade, the sizes, and the quantity of each product purchased or sold, and (2) the tonnage of iron or steel products, on hand and on order, classified by product, in a manner similar to that of Form PD 83 as issued by the Office of Production Management. A copy of Form PD 83 may be had upon request by applying to the Office of Production Management.

(b) Filing prices. On or before December 31, 1941, every seller of iron or steel products having annual gross sales of $50,000 or more during the year ending December 31, 1941, shall file in duplicate with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., his prices circulated to his salesmen or customers in effect on April 16, 1941, or customarily quoted and charged on that date, including extras lists, deduction lists, charges, and discounts. Every seller shall file individual price sheets for each warehouse or branch, showing city and country prices, wherever such exist; and he shall indicate the area or cities to which such prices apply. In the event that any prices so filed exceed the maximum prices established by this Schedule, the seller shall, after the effective date of this Schedule, eliminate this excess and charge a maximum price not in excess of the maximum prices established herein. Every seller shall state with regard to his April 16, 1941 price for each product, the range of sizes, types or cross-section covered by each price submitted; trade names, if any, and prices charged; prices for each base quantity; products sold in various quantity brackets, and prices for each bracket. If the person is a seller without prices as of April 16, 1941, he shall file a list of his inventory as of December 1, 1941, and prices he proposes to charge for such products. These prices shall not be in excess of the maximum as established by this Schedule. In cases where special prices or discounts are given to certain classes of customers these shall be indicated. Additional filing requirements from Pacific Coast and Gulf Port sellers, and for carload business, are included in other sections of this Schedule. Persons affected by this Schedule shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.*

§ 1306.155 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both state and federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule; (c) that full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of state, county, and local governments by calling to the attention of the proper authorities, failures to comply with this Schedule which may be regarded as grounds for the revocation of licenses and permits; and (d) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation, or manipulation of resale prices of iron or steel products, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1306.156 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof or exception therefrom: Provided, That no applications will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule and other Schedules issued by the Office of Price Administration. Such applications shall be submitted in a separate letter captioned "Application for Relief from Price Schedule No. 49, Resale of Iron and Steel Products," and shall not be contained in any filing of information or prices required to be filed under this Schedule.*

§ 1306.157 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, trust, corporation or other business entity, including trustees in bankruptcy and receivers;

(b) "Seller" means any person who resells iron and steel products to any other person, whether as distributor, jobber, dealer, agent, broker, merchant, exporter, including any person who acts as an intermediary in any connection with such resale, or otherwise: Provided, That:

(i) The term shall not include producers of iron or steel products whose activities are covered by Price Schedule No. 6—Iron and Steel Products, except insofar as such producers operate warehouses, branches, or affiliates engaged in the redistribution of iron or steel products. The operation by producers of mill depots for the purpose of distributing iron or steel products manufactured by such producers shall not be considered a resale within the terms of this Schedule, but is a sale covered by Price Schedule No. 6.

(ii) "Seller" as defined herein shall not include retail merchants who sell iron or steel products in quantities smaller than those dealt in or on which prices are quoted by established jobbers, dealers, or distributors.

(c) "Iron or steel product" includes all iron or steel ingots, all semi-finished iron or steel products, all finished hot rolled or cold rolled iron or steel products, and all iron or steel products further finished (by galvanizing, enameling, plating, coating, drawing, extruding, or otherwise) in a manner commonly performed at steel works or rolling mills, and shall include all products listed in the table of Capacity and Production for Sale contained in the Annual Statistical Report of the American Iron and Steel Institute for 1939, pages 42–43: Provided, That the term shall not include pig iron. Any iron and steel products as defined above subject to the operations of pickling, cutting by machine or flame, bending and threading of pipe, shall be considered a part of this definition of iron or steel products. This definition includes primes, seconds, wasters and all other off-grade products including used products. The term "iron or steel products" includes concrete reinforcing bars, and structural steel shapes, but not the fabrication thereof except as this Schedule is otherwise amended;

It is provided however:

(i) That in cities designated in Appendix B as listed cities, the maximum delivered prices shall not exceed the published listed prices, as set out in Appendix B, in effect as of April 16, 1941, for that city or free delivery area.

(ii) That in unlisted cities, the maximum delivered price shall not exceed the lowest delivered price that is the result of a combination of (a) country prices of any seller located in any listed city, and (b) less-than-carload freight from such listed city.

(2) (i) Extras which were customarily charged as of April 16, 1941, may be computed in the maximum delivered price. Extras listed but not customarily charged as of April 16, 1941, shall not be charged.

(ii) Deductions customarily granted as of April 16, 1941, shall be deducted in computing the maximum delivered price.

(3) Persons not having prices shall compute maximum delivered prices in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Maximum delivered prices in places other than the city or free delivery area in which the seller is located. (1) In any place other than a city or free delivery area in which the seller is located, the maximum delivered price for that seller shall be the lowest delivered price that is the result of a combination of (i) country price of any seller located in any listed city and (ii) less-than-carload freight from such listed city. It is provided, however, that in no case shall the maximum delivered price on a sale for delivery into a listed city exceed published listed prices, as set out in Appendix B, in effect as of April 16, 1941, for that city or free delivery area.

(c) Maximum delivered prices for persons without prices. (1) In the city or free delivery area in which such persons are located, the maximum delivered price for persons having no prices for the product or the quantity being sold shall be:

(d) Modification of certain April 16, 1941 prices. (1) Any seller located in a listed city or free delivery area to which published listed prices are applicable, if his prices as of April 16, 1941 were lower than such published listed prices, may make application to the Office of Price Administration to increase the maximum delivered price applicable to him in order to correspond to the published listed prices applicable to such listed city or free delivery area.

(2) The Office of Price Administration may at its discretion list additional cities as listed cities, and will receive applications by sellers located in unlisted cities requesting that such unlisted cities be made listed cities, and that the prices of such sellers in effect as of April 16, 1941, be published as the effective maximum delivered prices for such cities.

(e) Maximum prices for exports of iron or steel products. The maximum prices which may be charged for any iron or steel products sold for export to any place outside the territorial limits of the United States, shall be the domestic prices, as established in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (j) of this Schedule, f. a. s. the port from which export is to be made: Provided, That on shipments for export of less-than-carload quantities, a mark-up of $3.00 per net ton may be added if sold by an export broker. (g) Maximum delivered prices on the Pacific Coast and for Gulf Ports; special filing provisions. (1) Maximum delivered prices on the Pacific Coast shall be as provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (j) of this section: Provided, That:

(iii) Pending analysis of data to be submitted under provisions of this Schedule, sellers located in Gulf Ports shall have a maximum delivered price as established in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (j) of this section based on sellers' prices in effect as of April 16, 1941.

(2) Information from Pacific Coast and Gulf Port sellers is required to be filed with the Office of Price Administration on Forms 149: 1 and 149: 2, respectively. Copies of Forms 149: 1 and 149: 2 may be had upon request by applying to the Office of Price Administration.

(3) Extras charged by jobbers and dealers on merchant wire products shall be the same as regular published mill extras in effect as of April 16, 1941. Deductions customarily granted as of April 16, 1941, shall be deducted in computing the maximum delivered price.

(4) The maximum delivered prices for all other merchant wire products shall be computed as provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (j) of this section.

[Recommendation No. 24]

PART 1500—ADMINISTRATIVE; GENERAL

PETROLEUM INDUSTRY COUNCIL FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

In order to aid in the accomplishment of the purposes and objectives of the petroleum defense policy defined by the President of the United States in his letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense on November 29, 1941, established the Petroleum Industry Council for National Defense. The purpose of the Council is to mobilize most effectively the resources and abilities of the petroleum industry to deal with the emergency conditions under which the industry must operate and to provide a competent, responsible and representative body equipped and authorized both to advise the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense with respect to the petroleum industry and to carry into effect immediately measures affecting that industry recommended by the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense as essential to the national defense.

The resolution of December 8, 1941, of the Congress of the United States declaring that a state of war exists between the Imperial Japanese government and the Government and the people of the United States has made it vital to the national welfare that the Petroleum Industry Council for National Defense be enabled to act swiftly and effectively to advise the Petroleum Coordinator with respect to matters affecting the petroleum industry and to carry into effect recommendations of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense.

Therefore, pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, I do hereby recommend that immediately, and until further notice:

§ 1500.8 Duties and functions. The Petroleum Industry Council shall: (a) advise or inform the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense with respect to any matter relating to the petroleum industry submitted to it by the Petroleum Coordinator for advice or information; (b) raise and consider on its own motion and, if deemed necessary or desirable, propose to the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense any action relating to the proper coordination of the petroleum industry for national defense, as indicated by the President of the United States in his letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense; (c) take any action or perform any duty or function specified in any formal recommendation of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense which has been duly submitted to the Attorney General and entered in the Federal Register, or in any approved plan effective under any such recommendation.*

§ 1500.10 Plans. The Petroleum Industry Council for National Defense, after compiling and analyzing all available and pertinent data with respect to any matter which may be before it, shall, if the Council deems it necessary or desirable, formulate and reduce to writing such specific plan or proposal as shall seem necessary or appropriate and shall submit it, with a statement of facts and reasons, to the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, Washington, D. C.*

§ 1500.11 Organization of council. The Petroleum Industry Council for National Defense shall select an executive committee which shall have all the duties, functions and authorities of the Council whenever the Council is not in session.

[Recommendation No. 16]

PART 1504—PROCESSING AND REFINING

AVIATION GASOLINE

To the Refining Committees of the several Districts and to such Subcommittees on Aviation Gasoline as may be designated, and to all persons, natural or artificial, engaged in the petroleum industry, or in industries which affect the petroleum industry, or who hold or have an interest in any patent affecting the manufacture of any grade of aviation gasoline.

On December 7, 1941, the Government of the Empire of Japan declared war upon the United States of America.

It is essential, in the national interest, that the supplies of all grades of aviation gasoline for military, defense and essential civilian uses be increased immediately to the maximum.

Therefore, pursuant to the President's letter of May 28, 1941, establishing the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, I do hereby recommend that immediately and until further notice:

§ 1504.10 Aviation gasoline survey. The Refining Committees of the several Districts or such temporary Subcommittees on Aviation Gasoline as may be designated shall obtain, compile, and analyze all pertinent and available facts, figures, and other data with respect to the production of all grades of aviation gasoline, including but not limited to information concerning the existence, location and availability of all grades of aviation type crude oils, all grades of aviation gasoline base stocks, aviation gasoline blending agents, aviation gasoline manufacturing patents and processes, the capacity of existing aviation gasoline production and manufacturing facilities, and the possibilities of expansion thereof and the possibilities of the conversion thereto of facilities not now employed for such purposes.*

*§§ 1504.10 to 1504.18, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in the President's letter of May 28, 1941 to the Secretary of the Interior (6 F.R. 2760).

§ 1504.11 Plans to increase production to be drafted. In order to increase to a maximum the production of all grades of aviation gasoline, the Committees or Subcommittees shall prepare plans for the use of all sources of the components of such gasoline and of all components of and facilities for producing or capable of producing any grade of aviation gasoline in such manner as will result in the maximum production of all grades of aviation gasoline in the shortest possible time.*

§ 1504.12 Provisions of plans. Such plans may provide for the allocation, exchange, license, pooling, loan, sale or lease of crude oil, base stocks, blending agents, processes and patents, and production, transportation and refining facilities among persons, natural or artificial, whenever and to whatever extent may be necessary to facilitate the maximum production of all grades of aviation gasoline or to reduce the time required to produce such gasoline.*

§ 1504.13 Further provisions of plans. Such plans may provide for the exchange, loan, sale, pooling, allocation, or leasing of other petroleum or petroleum products and of production, transportation, refining and storage facilities wherever and to whatever extent may be necessary to avoid inequities among the various affected units of the petroleum industry, whether producing, refining, transporting or marketing, and, specifically, may provide for a reduction in any locality or area of the quality and octane rating of motor fuels so far as consistent with defense or essential civilian needs where such action is made necessary because of the operation of any plan provided for in § 1504.11.*

§ 1504.14 Adjustments or changes in costs. In the preparation of the plans pursuant to § 1504.11 and in carrying such plans into effect, the Committees or Subcommittees shall obtain, compile, and analyze facts, figures and other data showing such increases or decreases in costs as may be occasioned or realized in the execution of such plans. Reports shall be made to the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense in order that that Office and the Committees or Subcommittees may advise and consult with the Office of Price Administration or other appropriate Federal agencies concerning the effect of such plans upon costs.*

§ 1504.15 Terms of existing contracts to be filed. Within 30 days from the date hereof there shall be filed in the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense a full statement of the terms of existing contracts and agreements for the production, storage, use, sale, or other disposition of all grades of aviation gasoline and all grades of aviation gasoline base stocks and blending agents.*

§ 1504.16 Prior review of action affecting aviation gasoline. Except where in accordance with the provisions of an approved plan formulated under the provisions of § 1504.11, after the date hereof no action shall be taken by any producer or refiner of any grade of aviation gasoline, aviation gasoline base stocks or aviation gasoline blending agents with respect to the production, storage, use, sale, or other disposition thereof without giving antecedent advice thereof to the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense in order that he may have an opportunity to make specific recommendation with respect thereto.*

§ 1504.17 Meetings. Meetings of the Committees or Subcommittees and representatives of the petroleum industry shall be held from time to time for the purpose of preparing the plans provided for in § 1504.11, and the Committees or Subcommittees shall meet from time to time with any Committees or Subcommittees established by the Office of Production Management or other Federal agency to study the problems involved in the production of all grades of aviation gasoline, aviation gasoline base stocks or aviation gasoline blending agents. The Committees or Subcommittees and representatives of the petroleum industry shall, upon the approval of any of the aforesaid plans by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, and pursuant to the direction of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, meet from time to time for the purpose of doing all things necessary to carry into effect any such plan in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Recommendation.*

§ 1504.18 Effectuating plans. The Committees or Subcommittees and all persons affected by any plan formulated in accordance with the provisions of § 1504.11 shall, upon the approval by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense of any plan prepared pursuant to § 1504.11, and pursuant to the direction of the Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense, carry into effect such plan according to its terms, conditions and intent.*

[Docket No. D-4]

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF ALABAMA FUEL AND IRON COMPANY FOR PERMISSION TO RECEIVE SALES AGENTS' COMMISSIONS AND DISTRIBUTORS' DISCOUNTS ON COAL SOLD BY IT TO ACTON COAL COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

The Alabama Fuel and Iron Company, a corporation organized under the laws of Alabama with its principal offices in Birmingham, Alabama, being registered with the Division as a distributor, No. 92, and acting as a sales agent for certain producers, filed its petition praying:

For a determination herein that its "ownership" or "control" over Acton Coal Company, if any, is bona fide, is not established to secure an indirect price reduction, and is not within the prohibition of Paragraphs 11 and 12 of section 4, Part II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on February 10, 1942, at 10 a. m. in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 15th Street, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such petitioner and to any other person who may have an interest in such proceeding. Any person desiring to be heard at such hearing shall file a notice to that effect with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before February 6, 1942, setting forth therein the nature of his interest and a concise statement of the matter or matters which he intends to present.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of interveners, or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

[Docket No. A-1155]

PETITION OF DISTRICT BOARD NO. 1 FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS AND MINIMUM PRICES FOR THE COALS OF CERTAIN MINES IN DISTRICT NO. 1

[Docket No. A-1155, Part II]

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SEVERING DOCKET NO. A-1155 PART II FROM DOCKET NO. A-1155, GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF, IN PART, AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN DOCKET NO. A-1155, PART II

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division in Docket No. A-1155 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1. As the Acting Director found in an Order issued in Docket No. A-1155, a reasonable showing has been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by the petition except as to a mixture of the coals of Blose and Burkett No. 1 Mines of G. C. Blose and a mixture of the coals of the Matthews Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 Mines of John H. Matthews, and as to the establishment of additional shipping points for the coals of the Nevling Mine of William Fraser, Jr., and for the coals of the Blose Mine.

The official records of the Division do not indicate the existence of a Matthews No. 3 Mine. Accordingly, the petition does not allege sufficient facts in support of the proposal for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the mixture of the coals of the Matthews Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 Mines, and the temporary relief herein granted as to these mines, pending a hearing, is, therefore, limited to the Matthews Nos. 1, 2, and 4 Mines.

Since the petition does not propose a shipping point for rail shipments of the mixture of coals from the Blose and Burkett No. 1 Mines, and does not allege any facts in support of the proposal for the establishment of additional shipping points for the coals of the Blose and Nevling Mines, it appears appropriate that a hearing be held on these matters to determine the propriety of granting the relief requested.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1155 relating to the Blose Mine (Mine Index No. 729) of G. C. Blose, the Nevling Mine (Mine Index No. 3074) of William Fraser, Jr., the Burkett No. 1 Mine (Mine Index No. 3202) of G. C. Blose, and the Matthews Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 Mines (Mine Index Nos. 685, 3204, and 2362, Matthews No. 3 Mine being excepted) of John H. Matthews, be, and it hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1155 and designated as Docket No. A-1155 Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter upon the applicable provisions of said Act, and the rules of the Division, be held on January 16, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Scott A. Dahlquist or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 10, 1942.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of interveners, or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to (1) the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for rail shipments of a mixture of coals from the Blose and Burkett No. 1 Mines of G. C. Blose, and of a mixture of coals from the Matthews Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 Mines of John H. Matthews, (2) making the price classifications and minimum prices effective for the coals of the Blose Mine of G. C. Blose for shipment on the Pittsburgh and Shawmut Railroad from Sprankles Mills, Pennsylvania, also applicable for such shipments on the Pennsylvania Railroad from Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania; (3) making the price classifications and minimum prices effective for the coals of the Nevling Mine of William Fraser, Jr., for shipment on the Pennsylvania Railroad from Osceola Mills, Pennsylvania, also applicable for such shipments on the Pennsylvania Railroad from Houtzdale, Pennsylvania.

It is further ordered, That a reasonable showing of necessity therefor having been made, pending final disposition of the above matter, temporary relief be and the same is hereby granted as follows: Commencing forthwith the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 1 For All Shipments Except Truck is supplemented to provide that if the coals within each of the following groups are loaded into the same car the price that shall apply to such mixture shall be the price which is listed for the coal in the mixtures having the highest price classification:

(1) Blose and Burkett No. 1 Mines of G. C. Blose;

(2) Matthews Nos. 1, 2, and 4 Mines of John H. Matthews.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, modify or terminate the temporary relief granted in this Order may be filed in accordance with the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act.

PETITION OF THE CONSUMERS' COUNSEL DIVISION SEEKING FREE ALONGSIDE PRICES FROM DISTRICTS 8 AND 9 FOR THE LAWRENCEBURG ROLLER MILLS COMPANY, LAWRENCEBURG, INDIANA, IN MARKET AREA No. 26

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING PETITION TO AMEND ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR OF SEPTEMBER 20, 1941

This proceeding was instituted upon original petitions filed with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. In general, the original petitions requested modification of the effective price schedules so as to grant to certain named consumers the privilege of purchasing certain coals at the minimum f. a. s. prices in lieu of applicable ex-river prices.

Pursuant to Orders and Notices of Hearing issued by the Director, a hearing in these matters was held before a duly designated Examiner of the Division on January 10, 11, and 23, 1941. Thereafter, the Examiner submitted Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, dated June 16, 1941.

On September 20, 1941, 6 F.R. 4864, the Director issued his Memorandum Opinion and Order approving and adopting the Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the Examiner and granting permanent relief. Said Memorandum Opinion contained, inter alia, the following paragraph:

Because at the hearing there arose some doubts concerning the conditions under which f. a. s. prices apply, it is believed that a clarification thereof may be helpful. It has always been recognized that f. a. s. prices apply only where shipments are made and deliveries received by the purchaser in barges. The weights that govern are the railroad weights at the mine. Furthermore, in accordance with Price Instruction 9, consumers purchasing coal on an f. a. s. basis must assume all intervening costs subsequent to and including unloading from the barge. And, of course, f. a. s. prices apply only when the coal delivered to the consumer is the same coal which was loaded at the river loading facilities.

On October 20, 1941, the petitioners in Docket No. A-289 filed a petition seeking to amend the Memorandum Opinion and Order of September 20, by striking therefrom the foregoing paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof a paragraph "clearly indicating that as to these petitioners any code member of District 8 may sell high volatile coal in the same manner and under the same conditions as existed prior to October 1, 1940, except that no such coal shall be sold at less than minimum f. o. b. mine price as established by your Division, plus the aggregate cost of transporting and handling such coal, via river, from the mines to the bins of these petitioners."

A reconsideration of the matter leads the undersigned to conclude that the aforementioned statement contained in the Memorandum Opinion of September 20, 1941, concerning the conditions under which f. a. s. prices apply is consistent with the definition of f. a. s. prices contained in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 for all Shipments Except Truck. For this reason the petition to modify said Memorandum Opinion should be denied.

It may be, however, that the petitioners are able and willing to present evidence concerning the effect of the aforementioned statement contained in the Memorandum Opinion of the Director of September 20 on their methods of purchasing coal or concerning the appropriateness of its inclusion. If so, and if the petitioners see fit, they may file a petition to reopen the hearing for the purpose of introducing such evidence. Upon the receipt of such motion, the undersigned will give prompt consideration thereto. Pending such receipt, however, the undersigned will deny the petition filed on October 20, 1941, to modify the Memorandum Opinion and Order of the Director dated September 20, 1941.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the petition of the City of Cincinnati, Ohio, et al., filed herein on October 20, 1941, be, and it hereby is, denied.

Dated: December 13, 1941.

MANNER OF OBTAINING INSURANCE

§ 411.1 Application for insurance. Application for insurance, on a form prescribed by the Corporation for such purpose, may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner, tenant, or sharecropper in cotton to be grown in 1942. An application shall cover each insurance unit in the county in which the applicant has an interest in the cotton crop at the beginning of the planting thereof. Applications must be submitted to the office of the county committee on or before the closing date.*

*§§ 411.1 to 411.46, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in secs. 506 (e), 507 (c), 509, 516 (b); 52 Stat. 73, 74, 75, 77; 7 U.S.C. Supp. V 1506 (e), 1507 (c), 1508, 1509, 1516 (b), as amended by 55 Stat. 255.

§ 411.2 Acceptance of applications by the Corporation. (a) Upon acceptance of an application by the county committee, the insurance contract shall be in effect: Provided, however, That the average yields and the premium rates specified in the application are those approved by the Corporation for the insurance unit covered by the application; And provided further, That such application is submitted in accordance with the provisions of the application, these regulations and any amendments thereto. Acceptance of the application shall be evidenced by the delivery on behalf of all applicants to the applicant whose signature appears in paragraph 8 of the application, of a copy of the application signed by a member of the county committee for and on behalf of such committee.

(b) The right is reserved to reject any application for insurance or to limit the insured percentage to 50 percent of the average yield for the insurance unit covered by the application in any case where the county committee determines that the risk to be incurred under the insurance contract warrants either such action.*

PREMIUM FOR INSURANCE CONTRACT

§ 411.3 Amount of premium. The premium for each insured on his insurance unit shall be the number of pounds of lint cotton determined by multiplying the acreage of cotton planted, as determined by the Corporation (but not in excess of the maximum insurable acreage), by the premium rate per acre and by the insured's interest in the crop. The premium with respect to each insurance unit shall be regarded as earned when the cotton crop on such unit is planted. The minimum premium payable by the insured with respect to any insurance unit shall be ten pounds.*

§ 411.4 Manner of payment of premium. (a) Each applicant for insurance shall sign a note, which is part of his application, for the payment of the premium for his insurance contract. Such notes shall be payable on or before the maturity date specified in § 411.46. If the Corporation makes settlement for any indemnity, or the applicant secures a loan from Commodity Credit Corporation on any indemnity cotton before such date, the maturity date shall become the day on which settlement of the indemnity is computed by the Corporation, or the day application for such loan is made, as the case may be. Said notes shall not bear interest either before or after maturity.

(b) Payments on said notes may be made in whole or in part before maturity, either in cotton or cash, or both. After maturity, payment may be made only in cash. In connection with any payment, there shall be credited on the note the number of whole pounds of lint cotton computed by dividing the payment made (the proceeds of the cotton if cotton is paid) by the cash equivalent price per pound, for the date of payment or the maturity date, whichever occurs first.

(c) If the applicant does not agree to participate in the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program, the premium on the maximum insurable acreage for each insurance unit listed in the application must be paid at the time the application is submitted to the office of the county committee.

(d) If a note is not paid at maturity, the amount unpaid may be deducted, (1) by the Corporation from any indemnity due to the insured, (2) from the proceeds of any commodity loan to him, and (3) by the Secretary of Agriculture from any payment made to him under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or any other act of Congress administered by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) Payments in cash shall be made by means of cash or by check, money order, or bank draft, payable to the Treasurer of the United States, and all checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection, and payments tendered shall not be regarded as paid unless collection is made. When a payment is made in cotton it shall be by means of an instrument acceptable to the Corporation representing salable cotton.*

INSURANCE COVERAGE

§ 411.5 Insurance period. Insurance with respect to any insurance unit shall attach at the time the crop is planted and shall cease with respect to any portion of the crop upon weighing in at the gin, other disposal after harvest, upon transfer of interest in unharvested cotton after harvest is commenced, or January 21, 1943 (unless such date is extended in writing by the Corporation), whichever occurs first.*

§ 411.6 Insured production. The insured production on each insurance unit shall be the number of pounds of lint cotton determined by multiplying the acreage of cotton planted (as determined by the Corporation, but not in excess of the maximum insurable acreage) by the lint cotton insurance per acre and by the insured's interest in the crop at the beginning of planting.*

§ 411.7 Causes of loss or damage insured against. The insurance contract shall cover loss in yield of lint cotton and cottonseed due to any unavoidable cause or causes but shall not cover damage to quality or loss in yield caused by the neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the farm as tenant, sharecropper or wage hand, or by theft, use of defective or unadapted seed, failure to properly prepare the land for planting, or properly to plant, harvest or care for the insured crop, or by failure to replant the cotton in areas and under circumstances where the Corporation determines it is customary to replant, or where insurance is written on an irrigated basis, failure to properly apply irrigation water to cotton in proportion to the amount of water available for all irrigated crops.*

§ 411.8 Notice of transfer, damage, removal, etc., of cotton crop. (a) Notice in writing on a form prescribed for such purpose shall be given the Corporation at the office of the county committee immediately after the cotton crop, or any portion thereof, is transferred to another person, or, if a loss is probable, immediately after any material damage to the insured crop, or before the crop is harvested, removed, or any other use is made of the insured crop. Any such notice shall be given at such time that the Corporation may have reasonable time in which to make appropriate investigation.

(b) Any portion of the cotton crop that has been destroyed or substantially destroyed may be put to another use with the consent of the Corporation subject to an appraisal of the yield by the Corporation that would be realized if such portion of the crop remained for harvest. No acreage planted to cotton shall be considered as put to another use as long as any cotton on such acreage is remaining for harvest. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation.•

§ 411.9 Time of loss. Loss, if any, shall be deemed to have occurred at the completion of weighing in of the insured crop at the gin or disposal of the harvested crop, or January 21, 1943 (unless such date is extended in writing by the Corporation), whichever occurs first, unless there is a total or substantially total destruction of the entire crop at an earlier time, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the time of such total or substantially total destruction as determined by the Corporation. The cotton crop shall be deemed to have been substantially totally destroyed if the Corporation finds that it has been so badly damaged that farmers generally in the area where the farm is located and on whose farms similar losses occurred would not further care for the crop or harvest any portion thereof.•

§ 411.10 Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation at the office of the county committee, on a form prescribed for that purpose, a statement in proof of loss containing such information as may reasonably be required regarding the insured crop. Such statement in proof of loss shall be submitted not later than 30 days after the time of loss, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the insurance contract that the insured establish that any loss for which claim is made has been directly caused by a hazard insured against by the insurance contract during the term of the contract, and that the insured further establish that such loss has not arisen from or been caused by, either directly or indirectly, any of the hazards not insured against by the insurance contract.•

§ 411.11 Amount of loss. The amount of loss for which indemnity will be payable with respect to any insurance unit will be the number of pounds of lint cotton by which the insured's interest at the time harvest is commenced (and covered by insurance) of cotton harvested from the insurance unit and weighed in at the gin, cotton harvested (and not destroyed) but not weighed in at the gin, and the appraised production of cotton not harvested but left standing in the field is less than his insured production for such unit: Provided, however, That such amount shall be subject to one or more of the following reductions, whenever applicable, multiplied by the insured's interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced: (a) where any acreage of cotton planted is put to another use with the consent of the Corporation, the number of pounds of cotton equal to the appraised production from such acreage; (b) where any acreage of cotton is not replanted to cotton in areas and under circumstances where it is customary to replant cotton, the number of pounds of cotton by which the amount of cotton determined as the production from such acreage is less than the product of the acreage, the average yield and the insured percentage; (c) where the actual production of cotton on any acreage is reduced either in whole or in part by causes not insured against, including (1) the use of such acreage for any purpose other than the production of cotton, without the consent of the Corporation, and (2) failure to properly apply irrigation water to cotton in proportion to the water available for all irrigated crops in instances in which insurance is written on an irrigated basis, a number of pounds equal to the appraised reduction in production: Provided, however, That with respect to any acreage on which there is a complete failure in yield due solely to a cause not insured against, such number of pounds shall not be less than the product of the acreage, the average yield and the insured percentage; (d) where any acreage of cotton is planted on acreage of poorer average quality than the average quality of the land considered in establishing the average yield and premium rate and such planting was not the result of an established rotation, or where the Corporation's risk has been increased upon any acreage by (1) the planting of a different variety of cotton than the variety of cotton considered in establishing the average yield or premium rate, (2) the following of a different fertilizer or other practice in connection with the production of cotton on the insurance unit than the practice taken into consideration in establishing the average yield and premium rate for the unit, (3) or the planting of the cotton crop under conditions of immediate hazard without adjustment of the average yield or premium rate to reflect such hazard, a number of pounds equal to the product of such acreage, the insured percentage and the number of pounds of cotton per acre representing the difference between the average yield established and the yield appraised on the basis of the quality of the land seeded, the variety of cotton planted, the practice followed, or the immediate hazard at the time of planting, as the case may be. This adjustment shall be made for any one or more of the reasons listed in this item, notwithstanding that damage or total destruction of the insured crop occurs by reason of any other cause. (e) To the amount of lint loss, there shall be added a number of pounds of lint cotton equal to 19 percent of the amount of lint loss to cover loss of cottonseed.•

PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY

§ 411.12 When indemnity payable. The amount of loss for which the Corporation may be liable with respect to any farm covered by the insurance contract shall be payable within 30 days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation. Notwithstanding the fact that payment of any indemnity is delayed for any reason beyond the time specified, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damages on account of such delay.•

§ 411.13 Manner of payment of indemnity. (a) In payment of any indemnity, the Corporation shall issue a certificate of indemnity specifying the number of pounds of lint cotton due as indemnity and bearing an expiration date. Such certificate shall not be assignable except for the purposes of securing a commodity loan upon cotton from the Commodity Credit Corporation in the event such loans are made. This certificate may be used (1) to obtain the cash equivalent of the indemnity, (2) to obtain lint cotton in payment of the indemnity (payments in cotton shall be in terms of bales only), (3) to obtain a commodity loan upon the cotton represented by the certificate in accordance with the rules of the Commodity Credit Corporation if loans upon the 1942 cotton crop are made available by Commodity Credit Corporation and the insured is eligible for any such loan.

(b) The cash equivalent of the indemnity shall be the number of pounds of lint cotton specified in the certificate of indemnity multiplied by the cash equivalent price per pound established on the basis of the price of cotton at the applicable spot market on the day the insured's request is received, or the expiration date of the certificate, whichever is earlier, and less a reasonable charge for storage and handling. The schedule of such charges shall be shown on the certificate of indemnity.

(c) If the insured, prior to the expiration date of the certificate, requests payment of his indemnity in lint cotton and the Corporation determines that lint cotton is conveniently available for the payment of the indemnity, a warehouse receipt shall be delivered to the insured in an amount of cotton equal to the indemnity due, subject to adjustment for the location of the cotton paid as indemnity and subject also, where applicable, to deduction of an amount of cotton representing the deductions that would have been made if settlement had been made in the cash equivalent.

(d) The certificate of indemnity may be used for the purpose of obtaining a commodity loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation upon the cotton represented thereby (if loans are made available by the Commodity Credit Corporation with respect to the 1942 cotton crop and the insured is eligible for such loan) in accordance with instructions issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation. If, at any time during the period of the loan, the insured elects to liquidate such loan, he may do so by notifying the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation on a form prescribed by the Corporation and request that the cash equivalent of the indemnity be established. The cash equivalent of the indemnity shall be established on the basis of the prices in effect on the date that the request of the insured is received in the appropriate branch office of the Corporation. The amount of the cash equivalent shall be computed in the same manner as is provided in paragraph (b) of this section. If the amount of the cash equivalent is not sufficient to liquidate the loan and charges in connection therewith, the Corporation shall notify the insured of such fact.

(e) The expiration date of the certificate of indemnity shall be 15 days after the final date established for obtaining cotton loans with respect to the 1942 cotton crop if such loans are made available by the Commodity Credit Corporation, or 90 days after the date of issuance of the certificate of indemnity, whichever is later. If any of the dates fall on other than a business day, the date of the next following business day shall apply.•

§ 411.14 Adjustments in connection with indemnity payments. In any case where settlement under the certificate of indemnity has been made by the Corporation, and an adjustment in the amount of indemnity is made for such case, the adjustment shall be made as of the same date as the original settlement.•

§ 411.15 Other insurance. If the insured has or acquires any other "all-risk" insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against under the insurance contract on the crop or portion thereof covered in whole or in part by such insurance contract, whether valid or not, or whether collectible or not, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.•

§ 411.16 Subrogation. The Corporation may require from the insured an assignment of all rights of recovery against any party for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.•

§ 411.17 Suit. No suit or action shall be brought to enforce any claim for loss under the insurance contract unless all the requirements of such contract shall have been complied with.•

§ 411.18 Creditors. (a) An interest existing by virtue of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or any other legal process shall not be considered an interest in an insured crop within the meaning of these regulations.

(b) Any indemnity payable under an insurance contract shall be paid to and settlement under the certificate of indemnity made to, the insured, or to such other person as may be entitled to the benefits of the insurance contract under the provisions of these regulations, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person, nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity or the proceeds thereof nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. No officer, agent, or employee of the Corporation shall pay, or cause to be paid, to any person other than the insured or other person entitled to the benefits of the insurance contract, any indemnity payable and settlement under any certificate of indemnity in accordance with the provisions of the insurance contract because of any such process, order, or decree. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the insurance contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.•

PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY TO PERSONS OTHER THAN ORIGINAL INSURED

§ 411.19 Transfers of interest in insured crop. Payment of indemnity will be made only to the person or persons having the insured interest in a cotton crop at the beginning of harvest or the time of loss, whichever occurs first. In the event that there is a transfer of the insured interest in a cotton crop after planting and before the beginning of harvest, or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, the transferee shall be entitled to the benefits of the insurance contract as follows: (a) if the transfer is one of the entire insured interest in the crop or a percentage of such entire interest, the insurance unit shall not be changed, and the transferee shall be entitled to indemnity payable; (b) if the transfer is one of the insured interest or a portion thereof in a portion of the acreage constituting the insured crop (and as the result of such transfers the farm is not divided into four or more units of ownership or operation) the acreage with respect to which such interest is transferred shall constitute a separate insurance unit for the purposes of determining the amount of loss: Provided, however, That if any such transfer takes place after material damage to the insured crop or portion thereof and the Corporation determines that the transfer was made for the purpose of requiring that the Corporation pay a greater indemnity than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place. If, as a result of such transfers, the interest of the transferor is divided into four or more units of ownership or operation, the insurance unit shall remain unchanged and the indemnity, if any, payable with respect to such unit may be paid jointly to all persons having the insured interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, or to one of such persons on behalf of all such persons and payment in any such manner shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's liability under the contract.•

§ 411.20 Death, incompetency, or disappearance of insured. (a) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears, before the time of loss or the time harvest is commenced, whichever occurs first, and his insured interest in a cotton crop is a part of his estate at the time of loss, or if insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears subsequent to such time, the indemnity, if any, shall be paid to the legal representative of his estate, if one is appointed or is otherwise duly qualified. If no such representative is or will be appointed, the indemnity shall be paid to the persons beneficially entitled to share in the insureds interest in the crop or to any one or more of such persons on behalf of all such persons: Provided, however, That if the indemnity exceed 5,000 pounds of cotton the Corporation may withhold the payment of the indemnity until a legal representative of the insureds estate is appointed by the Court or otherwise legally qualified.

(b) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears before the time harvest is commenced, or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, and his interest in the crop is not a part of his estate at such time, the indemnity, if any, shall be paid to the person or persons having such interest in the crop in the manner provided for in § 411.19.

(c) An insured shall be considered to have disappeared within the meaning of this section if he leaves his place of residence and his whereabouts have been unknown for a period of 150 days.•

§ 411.21 Collateral assignment of insurance contract. An insurance contract may be assigned by the original insured as collateral security for a current loan, current advances to assist in the making of a cotton crop, the amount of the current year's rental due under a leasing agreement with respect to the insurance unit upon which the cotton crop is or will be planted, or the amount of the current annual installment due under a purchase, mortgage, or trust agreement covering the purchase of the insurance unit upon which the cotton crop is or will be planted and an additional amount of any delinquency which may be due under the purchase, mortgage, or trust agreement of not to exceed the amount of the current annual installment including interest and taxes. Such assignment shall be made by the execution of a form prescribed by the Corporation, and, upon approval thereof by the Corporation, the interests of the assignee will be recognized in the event that an indemnity is payable under the insurance contract, to the extent of the unpaid balance of the amount (including interest and other charges) for which such assignment was made as collateral security: Provided, however, That (a) the Corporation, in payment of the indemnity may issue a check payable jointly to all persons entitled thereto and that such payment shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to such loss under the insurance contract; and (b) payment of any indemnity will be subject to all conditions and provisions of the insurance contract. The Corporation's approval of an assignment shall not create in the assignee any right other than that derived from the assignor. The Corporation shall in no case be bound to accept notice of any assignment of the insurance contract, and nothing therein contained shall give any right against the Corporation to any person other than the insured except to an assignee approved by the Corporation. Only one such assignment will be recognized in connection with the insurance contract, but if an assignment is released, a new assignment of the contract may be made.•

§ 411.22 Fiduciaries. Any indemnity payable under an insurance contract entered into the name of a fiduciary who is no longer acting in such capacity at the time for the payment of indemnity and settlement under the certificate of indemnity will be made to the succeeding fiduciary upon appropriate application and proof satisfactory to the Corporation of his incumbency. In the event that there is no succeeding fiduciary, payment of the indemnity and settlement under the certificate of indemnity shall be made to the persons beneficially entitled to the interest in the insured crop to the extent of their respective interests upon proper application and proof of the facts: Provided, however, That the loss may be adjusted with any one or more of the persons so entitled, and payment may be made to such person or persons in behalf of all the persons so entitled, whether or not the person to whom payment is made has been authorized to receive such payment by the other persons so entitled.•

§ 411.23 Indemnities subject to all provisions of insurance contract. Indemnities payable to any person shall be subject to all the provisions of the insurance contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any such indemnity the unpaid amount of the note of the original insured for the payment of the premium. Any indemnity payable to any person other than the original insured as a result of transfer or otherwise shall be subject to any collateral assignment of the insurance contract by the original insured.•

§ 411.24 Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. In any case where the insured has transferred his interest in all or a portion of the cotton crop on any farm, has died, has become incompetent, has disappeared, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, payment in accordance with the provisions of these regulations will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made to a person other than the named insured and of the person to whom such payment shall be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of any indemnity and settlement under any certificate of indemnity in accordance with an adjustment of loss made with such person shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.•

DEPOSITS, REFUNDS OF DEPOSITS, AND EXCESS PAYMENTS

§ 411.25 Deposits to be applied toward payment of notes for future crop years. (a) Any person who, at the time of submission of his application for insurance, makes a payment on the note for his 1942 crop insurance premium in an amount equal to not less than the number of pounds of cotton required as the premium on the basis of the maximum insurable acreage for each insurance unit listed in his application, may tender at such time a deposit of cash or lint cotton, not in excess of the amount paid on the note, for the payment of notes for future crop years. The Corporation reserves the right to reject the tender of any deposit.

(b) The acceptance of any deposit shall not obligate the Corporation to insure the interest of the depositor in any future insurance program, and any insurance contract for which such deposit is used will be subject to the provisions of the regulations applicable to such contract. Moreover, the depositor shall have no title or interest in any cotton held by the Corporation, including that deposited by him, and the Corporation shall be liable to the depositor only for the cash equivalent price per pound for each pound of the quantity of cotton credited to the insured's account.•

§ 411.26 Refunds of deposits. Except as may otherwise be provided by the Corporation, no claim for refund of a deposit shall be made prior to the final date fixed by the Corporation for receipt of the application for the 1943 Cotton Crop Insurance Program in the county in which the insurance unit covered by the insurance contract is located: Provided, however, That the Corporation may refund any deposit at such earlier date as it may determine. The cash equivalent price per pound of any refund of deposit shall be determined by multiplying the number of pounds of cotton credited to the insured's account by the cash equivalent price per pound applicable for the date on which the deposit was tendered.•

§ 411.27 Refunds of excess payments. No refund of any note payment shall be acted upon by the Corporation until the acreage planted to cotton on all the insurance units covered by the insurance contract has been determined. Any such refund shall be a refund of the actual amount of money paid to the Corporation in excess of that determined to be necessary to pay the note executed for the payment of the premium for the insurance contract.•

§ 411.28 Assignment or transfer of claims for refunds. No claim for a refund, or any part or share thereof, or any interest therein, shall be assignable or transferable, notwithstanding any assignment of the insurance contract as security or any transfer of interest in any cotton crop covered by the insurance contract. Refund of any deposit will be made only to the depositor and refund of any other payment will be made only to the person who made such payment.•

§ 411.29 Refund in case of death, etc. In any case where a person, who is entitled to a refund of a payment or a deposit, has died, has been judicially declared incompetent or has disappeared, the provisions of § 411.20 with reference to the payment of indemnities in any such case shall be applicable with respect to the making of any such refund.•

ESTABLISHMENT OF AVERAGE YIELDS AND PREMIUM RATES

§ 411.30 Determination of farm average yields per acre of lint cotton. (a) When reliable and applicable records of the actual average yield of lint cotton per acre on the farm for at least five years of the period 1934–40 are available, the county committee shall determine the simple average of the annual yields per acre for such period. The annual yields of any such farm for as many as two years of the seven years 1934–40 may be appraised, or estimated, (1) if the county committee finds that the yield for any year was abnormally low due to a cause which did not result in similar losses generally throughout the county and which is not more likely to recur on the farm than to occur on any other farm in the county (hereinafter referred to as "spot loss"), (2) if the county committee finds that a computed yield is not applicable because the crop for the year was planted on a small or unrepresentative acreage, or because of a substantial change in farming practices, and (3) if no yield was computed for certain years because data were not available or because no crop was planted. Appraisal shall be based (1) upon reliable records of yields in such years on similar farms, giving due consideration to general fertility of the land, types of soil, topography, drainage, and production practices, or (2) upon the actual yield for the same or similar land on the same farm in a year of similar growing conditions.

(b) When reliable and applicable records of the actual average yield of lint cotton per acre on the farm are not available for at least five years of the period 1934–40, the average yield for the farm shall be determined on the basis of comparison of the farm with a similar "key farm," that is, a similar farm for which the average yield has been established under paragraph (a) or (c) of this section, taking into consideration any differences between the two farms in general fertility, types of soil, topography, drainage, and production practices.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the county committee shall use the methods of determining the average yield prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section in any county for farms for which reliable and applicable data for four years of the period 1934–40, with appraisals or estimates of the annual average yield for three years, when necessary in order that the number of farms qualifying under paragraph (a) and this paragraph may equal the smaller of (1) ten percent of the cotton farms in the county or (2) 100 farms, or may be sufficiently representative of all types of cotton farming conditions in the county to serve as adequate samples for the appraisals prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) In counties where the provisions of paragraph (c) of § 411.33 apply and reliable and applicable records of the actual production and acreage of lint cotton are available for at least five years of the period 1934–40, the county committee shall determine, in accordance with instructions issued by the Corporation, the simple average of the annual yields per acre for the five-year period 1936–40 or the weighted average for the same period using the acreage planted as the basis of weighting. The annual yields of any such farms for as many as two years of the seven years 1934–40 may be appraised or estimated, (1) if a "spot loss" has occurred in any year or, (2) if the county committee finds that a computed yield is not applicable because the crop for the year was planted on a small or unrepresentative acreage or because of a substantial change in farming practices, or (3) if no yield was computed for certain years because data were not available or because no crop was planted. Appraisals shall be made in the manner provided for in paragraph (a) of this section. For farms which do not meet these qualifications, the average yield for the farm shall be determined on the basis of comparison of the farm with a similar "key farm," that is, a similar farm for which the average yield has been computed as provided above in this paragraph, taking into consideration any differences between the two farms in general fertility, types of soil, topography, drainage, and production practices.

(e) The weighted average of the average yields established for all farms in the county, obtained by weighting such average yields by the cotton acreage allotments for such farms under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program, shall not exceed the county chec' yield established by the Corporation.•

§ 411.31 Determination of premium rates for insurance. (a) For all farms in the county for which the average yield is established under paragraph (a), (c), or (d) of § 411.30 the premium rate, for lint cotton insurance only, shall be determined (1) by obtaining the average loss cost, that is, the simple average of the extent to which the yield on the farm during each year of the period 1934–40 fell below 75 percent of the average yield for the farm to be insured, and (2) by averaging such figure with the county check premium rate for 75-percent insurance of the average yield, giving a weight of three to the average farm loss cost and a weight of one to the county check premium rate, or equal weights to each such figure where the Corporation determines that such procedure more adequately reflects the risks to be incurred on the farms in the county. The same method of weighting shall be used for all farms in the county, unless the Corporation determines that cotton farming conditions within a county are so different as to warrant the use of one method of weighting in one or more administrative areas within the county and the other method in the other administrative area or areas within the county.

(b) For farms in the county for which the average yields have been established in accordance with § 411.30 (b), premium rates, for lint cotton insurance only, shall be established by appraisal on the basis of comparison of each such farm with a similar "key farm," taking into consideration any difference in risks of loss between the two farms.

(c) The average of the premium rates for lint cotton insurance established for all farms in the county, weighted by the cotton acreage allotments established for such farms under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program, shall not be less than the county check premium rate established by the Corporation.

(d) The minimum premium rate per acre for 75-percent insurance on lint cotton shall be four pounds of lint cotton plus two percent of the average yield established for the farm, except that for farms with an average yield of less than 100 pounds per acre the minimum premium rate shall be six percent of the average yield for the farm.

(e) The premium rate for 50-percent insurance on lint cotton shall be determined by applying a percentage factor to the 75-percent lint cotton insurance premium rate, irrespective of the minimum premium rate, which has been established for the farm. This factor shall be based upon the relationship between the county loss cost for 50-percent insurance and the county loss cost for 75-percent insurance but shall not be less than 15 percent. The minimum rate for 50-percent insurance shall be one-third of the minimum rate for 75-percent insurance.

(f) The premium rates so determined for lint cotton insurance shall be increased by 19 percent as premium for coverage against loss of cottonseed.•

§ 411.32 Average yields and premium rates where farm varies widely in productivity or risk of loss. When the land comprising any farm consists of tracts varying widely in productivity, topography, or risk of loss, separate average yields and premium rates may be established by the Corporation for such tracts on the basis of appraisal, taking into consideration the yield data available.•

§ 411.33 County check yields. County check yields shall be determined by the Corporation as follows:

(a) In counties where the Corporation finds that there is a definite upward or downward trend due to farming practices, the county check yield will be the average for the seven-year period 1934–40.

(b) In counties where the Corporation finds that there is no apparent upward or downward trend or that any apparent trend is not due to farming practices but is due to variation in weather conditions, the average yield for the period 1928–40 or other representative period shall be used.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, in counties where the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program county normal yield for cotton is within five percent of the yield determined under either paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, and the county and state committees determine that the computations of the normal yields established under said program for the farms in the county have not included any adjustments for abnormal weather conditions except "spot losses," the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program county normal yield for cotton will be the county check yield for the 1942 Cotton Crop Insurance Program.•

§ 411.34 County check premium rates. The Corporation shall establish county check premium rates on the basis of average loss cost for the county for a representative period as determined by the Corporation from annual yield data for the county during such period and the relationship between yields and loss costs for sample farms in the county selected for actuarial purposes, adjusted to reflect risks of loss not included in actuarial data available to the Corporation.•

§ 411.35 Average yields and premium rates for fractional parts of a farm. The average yield and premium rate for a fractional part of a farm which is to be insured as a separate insurance unit shall be appraised in accordance with instructions issued by the Corporation. Such appraisals shall be based upon the average yield and rate for farms similar in acreage, farming practices, topography, and risk of loss, taking into consideration the average yield established for the entire farm. Due to the increased risk of loss to the Corporation involved in insuring separately fractional parts of a farm, the appraised premium rate for a fractional part of a farm shall not be lower than the premium rate established for the entire farm, or, where there are four or more fractional parts of a farm, shall not be lower than such rate increased as provided in the table below, unless a lower appraised premium rate is found by the Corporation to be fair and just in view of the production conditions and risk of loss applicable to the fractional part of the farm:

Number of fractional parts in farm as determined by the county committee:	Increase factor
4	1.05
5	1.06
6	1.07
7	1.08
8	1.09
9	1.10
10	1.11
11	1.12
12	1.13
13	1.14
14	1.15
15	1.16
16	1.17
17	1.18
19 or more	1.20

In the event that there are four or more fractional parts of the farm and the county committee cannot determine the number of units or the units are not reasonably uniform in size, the applicable increase factor shall be determined by dividing the cotton acreage allotment for the farm under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program by the cotton acreage in each unit. If the result of the division is two the increase factor shall be 1.03; and if the result of the division is three, the increase factor shall be 1.04. For other results of the division, the foregoing table will apply.*

GENERAL

§ 411.36 Meaning of terms. For the purposes of the 1942 Cotton Crop Insurance Program, the term:

(a) "Average yield" means the average yield of lint cotton per acre established for the insurance unit by the Corporation.

(b) "Cash equivalent price per pound" means the net price per pound of lint cotton established by the Corporation for the area in which the insurance unit is located on the basis of the price of lint cotton at the applicable spot market with differentials for the location of the area in which the insurance unit is situated.

(c) "Closing date" means the final date for the area specified in § 411.45 for the submission of applications for insurance to the office of the county committee, or the beginning of the planting of the cotton crop on any of the insurance units covered by the application for insurance, whichever occurs first.

(d) "Corporation" means the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

(e) "Cotton crop" means only American Upland, and American Egyptian cotton when yields and rates have been approved by the Corporation, and does not include any cotton planted primarily for experimental purposes.

(f) "Crop year" means the period within which the cotton crop is planted and normally harvested, and shall be designated by reference to the calendar year in which the crop is planted.

(g) "County" means a political or civil division of a State and includes parishes in Louisiana.

(h) "County committee" means the group of persons elected within any county to assist in the administration of the agricultural conservation program in such county.

(i) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also: (1) any other adjacent or nearby farm land which the county committee determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other lands; and (2) any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops. (3) A farm shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the principal dwelling is situated, or, if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area, as the case may be, in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(j) "Insurance contract" means the contract of insurance entered into between the applicant and the Corporation by virtue of the application for insurance, Form FCI–212–C, the acceptance in writing by the county committee of the application for insurance, the Acreage Report, Form FCI–219, and these regulations, FCI–Regulations–201–C, and amendments thereto; provided that the lint cotton insurance per acre and the premium rates(s) listed in the application have been or are approved by the Corporation for the insurance unit(s) listed.

(k) "Insured percentage" means the percentage of the average yield of lint cotton per acre for the insurance unit covered by insurance, and shall be either 50 or 75 percent.

(l) "Insurance unit" with respect to each insured shall be all or a portion of the acreage considered as a farm for the purpose of establishing the average yield and premium rate in which the insured has an interest as a cotton producer at the time of planting except that when such acreage consists of land, part of which is regularly irrigated and part never irrigated or acreage upon part of which American Upland is grown and upon part of which American Egyptian is grown such acreage shall be divided into separate insurance units.

(m) "Landlord" or "owner" means a person who owns farm land and either rents such land to another person or operates it as a farm.

(n) "Lint cotton insurance per acre" means the number of pounds of lint cotton per acre for which the applicant is insured and shall be based upon the insured percentage.

(o) "Maximum insurable acreage" means the largest number of acres of cotton which may be insured on an insurance unit. Such acreage shall be the cotton acreage allotment for the insurance unit under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program. In the event that the insurance unit is a part of the farm for which such cotton acreage allotment is established under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program, the total of the maximum insurable acreages for all units constituting the farm shall not exceed such allotment, and, if the cotton planted on all such units does exceed such allotment, the maximum insurable acreage for each such unit shall be the same percentage of the acreage planted to cotton on the unit as the cotton acreage allotment for the farm is of the total acreage planted to cotton on all such units. The term cotton acreage allotment shall also mean permitted acreage where applicable. The maximum insurable acreage of American Egyptian cotton shall be 80 percent of the cropland on the farm.

(p) "Operator" means a person who as landlord or cash tenant or standing or fixed-rent tenant is operating a farm or who as a share tenant is operating a whole farm.

(q) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, and, wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(r) "Premium rate" means the premium rate per acre established by the Corporation.

(s) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the direction and supervision of the operator, who usually furnishes his labor and bears a specified percentage of certain production expenses and is entitled to receive a specified percentage of the crops that he produces, or a specified percentage of the proceeds therefrom.

(t) "State committee" means the group of persons designated within any State to assist in the administration of the agricultural conservation program in such State.

(u) "Tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person (for cash, a fixed commodity payment, or a share of the crop or proceeds therefrom), who bears all or a portion of the production and processing expenses, who farms independently or under the general supervision of the operator, and who is entitled under a written or oral lease or agreement to receive all or a share of the crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.*

§ 411.37 Gender and plural meaning of terms. Any term used in the masculine or in the singular shall also be construed or applied in the feminine or neuter gender, or in the plural number, wherever the context or application of such term so requires.*

§ 411.38 Restriction on purchase and sale of cotton by the Corporation. The restriction on the purchases and sale of cotton, as provided in section 508 (d) of the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended, reads as follows:

Insofar as practicable, the Corporation shall purchase the agricultural commodity only at the rate and to a total amount equal to the payment of premiums in cash by farmers or to replace promptly the agricultural commodity sold to prevent deterioration; and shall sell the agricultural commodity only to the extent necessary to cover payments of indemnities and to prevent deterioration: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall prevent prompt offset purchases and sales of the agricultural commodity for convenience in handling. Nothing in this section shall prevent the Corporation from accepting, for the payment of premiums, notes payable in the commodity insured, or the cash equivalent, upon such security as may be determined pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, and from purchasing the quantity of the commodity represented by any of such notes not paid at maturity.

§ 411.39 Records, access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine the loss under the insurance contract, the insured shall keep, or cause to be kept, records of the harvesting, ginning, storage, shipment, sale, or other disposition, of all cotton production on each insurance unit covered by the insurance contract. Such records shall be made available for examination by the Corporation, and as often as may reasonably be required, any person or persons designated by the Corporation shall have access to the farm.*

§ 411.40 Review of determinations of county committees. All determinations by county committees shall be subject to review and approval or revision by duly authorized representatives of the Corporation.*

§ 411.41 Applicant's warranties; voidance for fraud. The insurance contract may be voided and the premium forfeited to the Corporation without waiving any right or remedy, including its right to collect the amount or the note executed by the insured, whether before or after maturity, if at any time the insured has concealed any material fact or made any false or fraudulent statements relating to the insurance contract, the subject thereof, or his interest in the cotton crop covered thereby, or if the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the cotton crop covered thereby, whether before or after damage has occurred, or if the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract at the time and in the manner prescribed*

§ 411.42 Modification of insurance contract. No notice to any county committee or representative of the Corporation or knowledge possessed by any such county committee or representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of of the insurance contract or estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract; nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of the insurance contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers hereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding, on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives, relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.*

§ 411.43 Fractional units in acres and yields. Fractions of yields per acre shall be rounded to the nearest pound. Fractions of loss costs and premium rates shall be rounded to the nearest tenth of a pound. Fractions of pounds, other than loss costs and premium rates, shall be rounded to the nearest pound. Fractions of acres representing total acres of cotton shall be rounded to the nearest tenth of an acre. Computations shall be carried to one digit beyond the digit that is to be rounded. If the extra digit computed is 1, 2, 3, or 4, the rounding shall be downward. If the extra digit computed is 6, 7, 8, or 9, the rounding shall be upward. If the extra digit computed is 5, the computation shall be carried to another digit. If the two extra digits are 50, the rounding shall be downward, and if the two extra digits are 51 or any higher figure, the rounding shall be upward.*

§ 411.44 Forms and instructions. The Corporation may issue such forms, instructions and procedures as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of these regulations.*

[5th Supplement to General Order No. C-28]

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE NATURALIZATION OF ALIEN ENEMIES

DECEMBER 13, 1941.

Pursuant to the authority conferred by section 327 of the Nationality Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 727), section 37 (a) of the Act of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 675; 8 U.S.C. 458), § 90.1 of Title 8, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations (5 F.R. 3503) and all other authority conferred by law, the following amendment and additions to the said Title 8, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

Section 330.3 of this chapter (6 F.R. 235) is amended by changing the number of Form N-406 referred to therein to Form N-408.

PART 335—SPECIAL CLASSES OF PERSONS WHO MAY BE NATURALIZED: ALIEN ENEMIES

Sec.

335.1 Alien enemy defined.
335.2 Naturalization of alien enemies; exceptions.
335.3 Final hearing of petition; notice by clerk of court; effect of objection.
335.4 Investigation.
335.5 Presidential exception from alien enemy classification.
335.6 Filing of declarations of intention and petitions for naturalization by alien enemies.

§ 335.1 Alien enemy defined. An alien who is a native, citizen, subject, or denizen of any country, state, or sovereignty with which the United States is at war, shall be considered an alien enemy for the purposes of the naturalization laws. A native of such an enemy country who subsequent to birth has become a citizen or subject of a nation with which the United States is not at war shall nevertheless be considered as an alien enemy.* (Nationality Act of 1940, sec. 326 (a), 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 726)

*§§ 335.1 to 335.6, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in sec. 327, 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 727; sec. 37 (a), 54 Stat. 675, 8 U.S.C. 458; 8 C.F.R. 90.1.

Statutes interpreted or applied and statutes giving special authority are listed in parentheses at the end of specific sections.

§ 335.2 Naturalization of alien enemies; exceptions. An alien enemy as defined in § 335.1, who is otherwise entitled to naturalization except for the fact that he is an alien enemy, may be naturalized if his declaration of intention was made not less than two years nor more than seven years before the date of the beginning of the war mentioned in § 335.1, or if such alien was entitled upon such date to become a citizen of the United States without having made a declaration of intention, or if his petition for naturalization shall be pending upon such date. Such alien must conform to all of the other applicable provisions of the naturalization laws.* (Nationality Act of 1940, sec. 326 (a), 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 726)

§ 335.3 Final hearing of petition: notice by clerk of court: effect of objection. An alien enemy who comes within one or more of the classes set forth in § 335.2 shall not have his petition for naturalization called for a hearing, or heard, except after ninety days' notice to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization to be represented at the hearing. Such notice shall be given to the Commissioner through the appropriate District Director of Immigration and Naturalization by the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed. The Commissioner's objection to such final hearing shall cause the petition to be continued from time to time for so long as the Commissioner may require. The objection by the Commissioner to the hearing of such a petition shall be presented to the court by the appropriate District Director of Immigration and Naturalization acting for and on behalf of the Commissioner. Once an objection to such final hearing has been made within ninety days by the Commissioner through the District Director, the petition shall be continued until such objection has been withdrawn.* (Nationality Act of 1940, sec. 326 (b), 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 726)

§ 335.4 Investigation. A thorough investigation shall be made in the case of every alien enemy whose petition for naturalization may be listed for final hearing. If as a result of such investigation, the district director is satisfied of the loyalty to the United States of the petitioner and that the petitioner is in every way qualified for citizenship, no objection shall be made to the naturalization of the petitioner solely upon the ground that such petitioner is an alien enemy. If it is necessary, in order to preserve the right to have such petition continued as provided in § 335.3, to interpose objection to final hearing before completion of the investigation, such objection may be withdrawn if the result of the investigation is satisfactory in the above respects.* (Nationality Act of 1940, sec. 326 (b), 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 726)

§ 335.5 Presidential exception from alien enemy classification. (a) An alien enemy who does not come within one or more of the classes described in § 335.2 and who has filed a petition for naturalization may, in the discretion of the President of the United States, upon investigation and report by the Department of Justice fully establishing the loyalty of such alien enemy, be excepted from such classification of alien enemy, whereupon he shall have the privilege of having a final hearing upon his petition for naturalization. Applications for such exception shall be made upon forms provided by the Immigration and Naturalization Service and shall be filed with the appropriate office of the Service. Thereupon the district director concerned shall cause a full and complete investigation to be made relative to the loyalty of such applicant and shall forward the application together with a report of his investigation and his recommendation to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C., for further action.

(b) An alien enemy who has been excepted by the President of the United States from such classification shall have the privilege of having a final hearing upon his petition without being required to comply with the provisions of sections 335.3 and 335.4.* (Nationality Act of 1940, sec. 326 (b) (d), 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 726)

§ 335.6 Filing of declarations of intention and petitions for naturalization by alien enemies. Nothing in this part shall be deemed to preclude the filing of a declaration of intention or a petition for naturalization by an alien enemy. No such petition for naturalization shall be finally heard, however, except in compliance with the provisions of this part.* (Nationality Act of 1940, sec. 326, 54 Stat. 1150; 8 U.S.C. 726)

Special Assistant to the Attorney General, in charge.

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 56—RECLAIMED RUBBER

The continuity of imports of crude rubber from the Far East is seriously threatened as a result of the outbreak of war with Japan. It has therefore become necessary to restrict consumption of crude rubber to a filling of military and essential civilian needs. This restriction upon the processing of crude rubber is expected to cause a marked increase in the use of all materials that serve as substitutes for crude rubber. The demand for reclaimed rubber, in particular, may be expected to expand sharply, thereby producing strong upward pressure upon its price. The Office of Price Administration has determined after investigation and after conference with members of the industry that an increase in prices above the present levels will not increase the supply of reclaimed rubber.

It is of vital importance to the nation's war effort that the process of substitution of reclaimed rubber for crude rubber should be facilitated in every possible manner by holding the cost of such substitution to a minimum. Consequently, the present emergency demands that maximum prices for reclaimed rubber be established.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1315.51 Maximum prices for reclaimed rubber. (a) On or after December 20, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer, reclaimed rubber, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of reclaimed rubber, at prices higher than the maximum price.

(b) (1) The maximum price shall be the highest price received by the seller for a sale during the period between November 5, 1941 and December 5, 1941, of reclaimed rubber of the same grade and quality, and of a comparable amount, to the same purchaser.

(2) If no such sale to the same purchaser was made, the maximum price shall be the highest price received by the seller for a sale during such period, of reclaimed rubber of the same grade and quality, and of a comparable amount, to a purchaser previously accorded similar treatment by the particular seller or recognized by the trade as entitled to similar treatment.

(3) If, for any grade and quality of reclaimed rubber, no sale was made during the period between November 5, 1941, and December 5, 1941, either to the same purchaser or to a purchaser so entitled to similar treatment, the maximum price for that grade and quality shall be a price which bears the same relationship to prices actually received by the seller during such period for other grades and qualities, as the price of that particular grade and quality normally bears to prices of such other grades and qualities.*

§ 1315.53 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of reclaimed rubber, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by making discounts or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on December 5, 1941, or by any other means.*

§ 1315.54 Filing of prices. On or before January 15, 1942, every person who sells reclaimed rubber shall file with the Office of Price Administration:

(a) Any printed price lists or quoted prices, including a complete statement of all terms and discounts, that were in effect during the period between November 5, 1941 and December 5, 1941.

(b) Prices which he received from each of his purchasers for each of his grades and qualities of reclaimed rubber on all sales made during the period between November 5, 1941 and December 5, 1941.*

§ 1315.55 Records and reports. Every person making sales or purchases of reclaimed rubber after December 20, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of (a) each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and the seller, the price paid or received, and the quantity of each grade and quality of reclaimed rubber purchased or sold, and (b) the quantity of each grade and quality of reclaimed rubber (1) on hand, and (2) on order, as of the close of each calendar month.

Persons affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time require.*

§ 1315.56 Affirmations of compliance. On or before January 10, 1942, and on or before the 10th day of each month thereafter, every person, who, during the preceding calendar month has sold reclaimed rubber, whether for immediate or future delivery, shall submit to the Office of Price Administration an affirmation of compliance on Form 156:1, containing a sworn statement that during such month all such sales were made at prices in compliance with this Schedule or with any exception therefrom or modification thereof. Copies of Form 156:1 can be procured from the Office of Price Administration, or provided that no change is made in the style and content of the form and that it is reproduced on 8 x 10½" paper, they may be prepared by persons required to submit affirmations of compliance hereunder.*

§ 1315.57 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations, or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government both state and federal are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with the Schedule; (c) that full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of state, county, and local governments by calling to the attention of the proper authorities failures to comply with this Schedule which may be regarded as grounds for the revocation of licenses and permits, and (d) that the Rubber Reserve Company and the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1315.58 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof or exception therefrom: Provided, That no application under this section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1315.59 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation or other business entity;

(b) "Reclaimed rubber" means all kinds, grades and qualities of the rubber material recovered from any vulcanized scrap rubber products.*

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 55—SECOND HAND BAGS

The availability of large quantities of burlap and cotton bags is an important concern of Agriculture and National Defense. Curtailment of the supply of burlap, substantially all of which must be imported from India, is now threatened by the hostilities in the Pacific. The capacity of the cotton textile industry to produce fabrics of the type used for bagging purposes is inadequate to produce sufficient quantities to meet the increased demands of war-time economy, particularly to the extent that cotton bagging may have to be substituted for burlap.

The price of second hand bags has approximately doubled since January 1, 1941. Such increases add to the cost of packaging agricultural and other commodities to an unwarranted extent and cannot serve to augment the supply. Further unjustified price advances are now threatened unless remedial action is taken.

It is contemplated that, after completion of studies now being made by the Office of Price Administration, a revised schedule covering second hand bags may be issued. If the studies so justify, maximum prices lower than those set forth herein may be established.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in my by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1330.51 Maximum prices for second hand bags. (a) On and after December 16, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer second hand bags at prices higher than the maximum prices established herein.

(b) (1) The maximum price shall be the highest price contracted for or received by the seller for the sale or delivery, during the period between November 15, 1941 to December 6, 1941, inclusive, of second hand bags of the same type, size, weight, grade, and comparable quantity, to a purchaser of the same general class.

(2) If during such period, no such sale or delivery was made, the maximum price shall be the price contracted for or received by the seller for the last sale or delivery made prior to November 15, 1941, of second hand bags of the same type, size, weight, grade, and comparable quantity, to a purchaser of the same general class.

(3) In all other cases, the maximum price shall be the highest market price during the period from November 15 to December 6, 1941, of second hand bags of the same type, size, weight, and grade, to purchasers of the same general class.*

*§§ 1330.51 to 1330.69, inclusive, issued pursuant to the authority contained in Executive Orders Nos. 8734, 8875, 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

§ 1330.52 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Schedule may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1330.53 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of second hand bags, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any premium, commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by a tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by making the discounts given or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on December 6, 1941, or by any other means.*

§ 1330.54 Filing of prices. On or before January 10, 1942, every person who, during any single calendar month of 1941, sold more than one thousand second hand bags shall file with the Office of Price Administration, a list of all sales and deliveries made during the period of November 15, 1941 to December 6, 1941, showing with respect to each sale or delivery (a) the date thereof; (b) the name and address of the purchaser; (c) the quantity of each type, size, weight, and grade of second hand bags sold or delivered; and (d) the price contracted for or received for each type, size, weight and grade of second hand bag.*

§ 1330.55 Records and reports. Every person making sales of second hand bags after December 16, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records (a) of each such sale in aggregate lots of 100 bags or more, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the price contracted for or received, and the quantity of each type, size, weight and grade of second hand bags sold; and (b) the quantity of each type, size, weight, and grade of second hand bags (1) on hand and (2) on order, as of the close of each calendar month.

Persons affected by this Schedule shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1330.56 Affirmations of compliance. On or before the 10th day of January, 1942, and on or before the 10th day of each month thereafter, every person who, during the preceding calendar month, has sold more than one thousand second hand bags, whether for immediate or future delivery, shall submit to the Office of Price Administration an Affirmation of Compliance on Form 155:1, containing a sworn statement that during such month all such sales were made at prices in compliance with this Schedule or with any exception therefrom or modification thereof. Copies of Form 155:1 can be procured from the Office of Price Administration, or, provided that no change is made in the style and content of the Form and that it is reproduced on 8 x 10½" paper, they may be prepared by persons required to submit Affirmations of Compliance hereunder.*

§ 1330.57 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both state and federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interests of those persons who comply with this Schedule; (c) that full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of state, county, and local governments by calling to the attention of the proper authorities, failures to comply with this Schedule, which may be regarded as grounds for the revocation of licenses and permits; and (d) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the offer, receipt, demand or payment of prices higher than the maximum prices, or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation or manipulation of prices of second hand bags, or of the hoarding or accumulating of unnecessary inventories thereof, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1330.58 Modification of the schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof or exception therefrom: Provided, That no application under this section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1330.59 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(a) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity.

(b) "Second hand bag" means a container composed of burlap, cotton cloth or other textile material which has been used once or more to package any product and thereafter emptied, and sold for re-use as a container.*

Issued this 16th day of December 1941.

Other qualities of wastepaper of the grades defined must be sold at or below the maximum prices established. The prices established in this Schedule are the maximum prices to be charged or paid and no differentials or service charges other than those specifically provided in this Appendix are to be added.

[3] In all instances tare is not to exceed 2% of the gross weight per bale.

[4] All prices established by this Schedule shall be for wastepaper f. o. b. freight cars, trucks, or barges at the point of shipment, or, in case of exports, f. a. s. the vessel at the port of export. The point of shipment shall be the point at which the wastepaper is first loaded on a conveyance for transportation to the buyer. Sales may be made on a delivered basis, but such sales must be at prices not in excess of the maximum prices established by this Schedule, plus actual transportation costs. If the producer or jobber uses his own trucks for delivery, the transportation cost to be added must not exceed the cost of transporting a similar shipment at the lowest published rate of a common carrier by motor; or, if no such common carrier rate is published, then the transportation cost shall not exceed the lowest available transportation rate for effecting the delivery. These costs must be shown as a separate item in all records and invoices.

To the prices established by this Schedule, in appropriate cases, may be added one of the following allowances:

(a) If the wastepaper is transported to and loaded on freight cars or barges by, or at the expense of, the jobber or producer, an amount equal to the actual cost of such transportation and loading may be added to the maximum prices established by this Schedule, to cover the cost of such transportation and loading, which additional amount, if any, must be listed as a separate item on the invoice, but may in no event exceed $1.00 per short ton even though the cost of such transportation and loading may in some cases be higher. No such charge may be added in the event the jobber or producer has not kept the records required by § 1347.4 and filed in proper form any affirmations of compliance required of him by § 1347.5, or in the event the producer or jobber has available upon or adjacent to the premises at the point of shipment, a rail siding or dock suitable for loading the wastepaper to be shipped.

(b) If the wastepaper to be exported for the purpose of papermaking has been baled to meet the requirements of maritime handling and is transported to the dock or other place of delivery to an ocean carrier for export shipment at the expense of the jobber or producer, an amount equal to the actual cost of such baling and transportation may be added to the maximum prices established by this Schedule to cover the cost of such baling and transportation, which additional amount, if any, must be listed as a separate item on the invoice, but may in no event exceed $3.00 per short ton, even though the cost of such baling and transportation may in some cases be higher. No such charge may be added in the event the jobber or producer has not kept the records required by § 1347.4 and filed in

PART 1352—FLOOR COVERINGS

PRICE SCHEDULE NO. 57—WOOL FLOOR COVERINGS

Wool floor coverings are an important item of household furnishings. Between August 1939 and May 1941 prices advanced 23.2% on a weighted average basis. The increase on one popular-priced item amounted to 33% in that period. In June 1941, the Office of Price Administration wrote the manufacturers of wool floor coverings requesting that they not increase prices on their lines to be marketed in the fall. Subsequently, individual voluntary agreements were reached with practically all members of the industry under which they agreed not to increase their prices prevailing on October 13 prior to December 15.

The outbreak of hostilities in the Far East, which is the source of all jute and much wool, the two principal raw materials, has a critical impact on the industry. Trade journal articles, and conferences with industry members, clearly indicate that price increases are planned. Efforts to obtain an extension of the individual voluntary agreements which expire on December 15 have been unsuccessful. In addition, requests by this Office to industry members on November 15 to submit detailed cost and profit data have elicited only a few replies. The cost study will continue. Meanwhile, effective measures must be taken to forestall further increases which may result in unwarranted prices. In order to prevent evasion of the Schedule, changes in specifications are restricted.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

§ 1352.1 Maximum prices for wool floor coverings. On and after December 16, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no manufacturer shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer any unit of wool floor covering at a price higher than the maximum price.

(a) The maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering, in his price list in effect on October 13, 1941, shall be the price quoted therein for such unit to the same person or to a person in the same general class.

(b) The maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering, not in his price list in effect on October 13, 1941, but sold (or contracted to be sold) by him during the period January 1–October 13, 1941, inclusive, shall be the highest net price, f. o. b. manufacturer's point of shipment at which such unit was sold (or contracted to be sold) by him during such period to the same person or to a person in the same general class, or, if there is no such person, to any person.

(c) The maximum price for any unit of wool floor covering differing in specifications (except for such changes in specifications as are authorized in § 1354.4) from any unit referred to in (a) and (b) above, shall be the price approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration after submission of a report to it by the manufacturer in accordance with § 1352.7 (c); and no sale, offer to sell, delivery, or transfer of such unit shall be made until such approval shall have been given.*

*§§ 1352.1 to 1352.12 inclusive, issued pursuant to authority contained in Executive Orders Nos. 8734, 8875, 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

§ 1352.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established in § 1352.1 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.*

§ 1352.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Schedule shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with the manufacture of wool floor coverings by deterioration of quality or in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery or transfer of wool floor coverings, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any service, transportation, or other charge, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by making rebates, discounts or other terms and conditions of sale less favorable to the purchaser than those available or in effect on October 13, 1941, or by any other means.*

§ 1352.4 Change in specifications. On and after December 16, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no manufacturer shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer any unit of wool floor covering, differing in specifications from:

(a) A unit of wool floor covering in his price list in effect on October 13, 1941;

(b) A unit of wool floor covering, not in his price list in effect on October 13, 1941, but sold (or contracted to be sold) by him during the period January 1–December 15, 1941, inclusive; and

(c) A unit of wool floor covering manufactured, or in process of actual weaving, between October 13–December 15, 1941, inclusive;

Provided, That (1) changes may be made in yarn specifications which do not reduce quality, and which, in addition, in the case of pile yarn, do not vary the percentages of wool and each of the other component materials; and (2) other changes may be made in specifications with the permission of the Office of Price Administration upon the submission to it by the manufacturer of satisfactory evidence (i) that the material previously used is unavailable or cannot be procured except (a) at prohibitive cost, or (b) in violation of any priority or allocation order or any regulation of a federal agency; and (ii) that the material substituted is one calculated to preserve quality.*

§ 1352.5 Change in color or pattern. Changes in color or pattern, or both, of any unit of wool floor covering may be made.*

§ 1352.6 Records. Every manufacturer making sales of wool floor coverings on or after December 16, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such sale showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer, the name, number or other designation of each unit, the price received for each unit, and the quantity sold.*

§ 1352.7 Reports—(a) Units in price list in effect on October 13, 1941. On or before January 1, 1942, every manufacturer shall submit to the Office of Price Administration a report on Form 157:1 showing in the detail required by such form, the units whose maximum prices are determined by § 1352.1 (a), the maximum prices thus established, the name, number or other designation and the specifications of each such unit, and such other information as the form may require. Manufacturers who have already submitted information required on Form 157:1 need not duplicate such information, but shall fill out such part of the form as is necessary to complete the information required, and shall enclose with the form a reference to the information already submitted. Copies of Form 157:1 may be procured from the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Other units sold during the period January 1–October 13, 1941, inclusive. The maximum price and the specifications of every unit of wool floor covering whose maximum price is determined by § 1352.1 (b) shall be reported by the manufacturer on Form 157.2 to the Office of Price Administration within ten days after such unit is delivered to a purchaser (or to a carrier for shipment to the purchaser) for the first time after the effective date of this Schedule.

(c) Other units. The proposed price and the specifications of every unit of wool floor covering whose maximum price is determined by § 1352.1 (c) shall be reported by the manufacturer on Form 157.3 to the Office of Price Administration at least ten days prior to his commencing the actual weaving of such unit, and at least twenty days prior to the date on which he first offers such unit for sale. Where, because of the effective date of this Schedule, the report cannot be made within the prescribed time, it shall be made at the earliest possible date.

Persons affected by this Schedule shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.*

§ 1352.8 Affirmations of compliance. On or before January 1, 1942, and on or before the first day of July and January thereafter, every manufacturer who is required to keep records of sales under Section 1352.6 hereof shall submit to the Office of Price Administration an affirmation of compliance on Form 157.4 containing a sworn statement that during such period all such sales were made at prices in compliance with this Schedule or with any exception therefrom or modification thereof. Copies of Form 157.4 can be procured from the Office of Price Administration, or provided that no change is made in the style and content of the form and that it is reproduced on 8 x 10½ inch paper, it may be prepared by persons required to submit affirmations of compliance hereunder.*

§ 1352.9 Enforcement. In the event of refusal or failure to abide by the price limitations, record requirements, or other provisions of this Schedule, or in the event of any evasion or attempt to evade the price limitations or other provisions of this Schedule, the Office of Price Administration will make every effort to assure (a) that the Congress and the public are fully informed thereof; (b) that the powers of Government, both state and federal, are fully exerted in order to protect the public interest and the interest of those persons who comply with this Schedule; and (c) that the procurement services of the Government are requested to refrain from selling to or purchasing from those persons who fail to comply with this Schedule. Persons who have evidence of the receipt or demand of prices higher than the maximum prices or of any evasion or effort to evade the provisions hereof, or of speculation, or manipulation of prices of wool floor coverings or of the hoarding or accumulation of unnecessary inventories thereof are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration.*

§ 1352.10 Modification of Schedule. Persons complaining of hardship or inequity in the operation of this Schedule may apply to the Office of Price Administration for approval of any modification thereof or exception therefrom: Provided, That, no application under this section will be considered unless filed by persons complying with this Schedule.*

§ 1352.11 Definitions. When used in this Schedule, the term:

(b) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a factory, plant, or mill which manufactures any wool floor coverings;

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed on November 2, 1940, with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by the Pursglove Coal Mining Company, a code member in District No. 3. The petition requests that the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 3 For All Shipments Except Truck be revised so as to provide that the 3/8" x 0 slack coals (Size Group 10) produced at the Pursglove No. 2 Mine (Mine Index No. 120) may deliver into Market Areas 2 to 16, inclusive, 20, 21 and 100, at a price 10 cents below the 3/4" x 0 slack coals (Size Group 9). Petitions of intervention were filed by District Boards 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 8, and Consolidated Coal Company. Joint petitions of intervention were filed by the Pocahontas Fuel Company, the Pocahontas Corporation, and Pulaski Iron Company, and by Davis-Wilson Coal Company and Louise Coal Company.

On April 24, 1941, the Director issued Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Opinion herein and ordered the prayer of Pursglove Coal Mining Company for relief and the prayers of intervenors for affirmative relief denied on the basis of the record adduced at a hearing held in this matter on December 16, 1940.

On June 25, 1941, the Director, upon request of Pursglove Coal Mining Company, issued an Order reopening the hearing for the taking of additional evidence. Pursuant to an Order of the Director and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard.

The Examiner submitted his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendations under date of November 13, 1941, in which he recommended that the relief requested herein be denied. He found that on an analytical basis there was no evidence to warrant the establishment of a price differential of ten cents between petitioner's 3/8" x 0 and 3/4" x 0 coals and that any difficulty arising out of the disposal of the 3/8" x 0 coals produced at the Pursglove No. 2 Mine did not arise as a result of the lack of a ten-cent differential between the 3/8" x 0 and the 3/4" x 0 coals. The Examiner therefore recommended that the prayers for affirmative relief contained in the several petitions filed herein be denied.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law and Recommendations of the Examiner and briefs. No exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

The undersigned has determined that the Proposed Findings of Fact and the Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner in this matter should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That the prayers for affirmative relief contained in the several petitions filed herein be, and they hereby are, denied.

Dated: Dec. 15, 1941.

Such application and declaration concerning the following:

The Gas Service Company, a public utility subsidiary of Cities Service Company, a registered holding company, proposes to issue 2,500 shares of its common stock without par or stated value as a stock dividend to Cities Service Company, its sole stockholder, and to debit earned surplus account and credit common stock capital account with the sum of $750,000. Cities Service Company seeks approval of its receipt of said shares as a stock dividend.

The declaration or application recites that the company considers sections

IN THE MATTER OF ALABAMA POWER COMPANY, THE COMMONWEALTH & SOUTHERN CORPORATION, AND THE GENERAL CORPORATION

NOTICE, AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of December 1941.

I

On June 12, 1941 applications and declarations were filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by the abovenamed parties. On June 14, 1941 the Commission published a Notice of Filing and Order for Hearing, summarizing the declarations and applications and ordering a hearing thereon (Holding Company Act Release No. 2828).

Hearings on the applications and declarations were commenced on July 1, 1941 and have continued from time to time thereafter. In the course of the hearings various matters, as more particularly specified in Release No. 2828, have been the subject of consideration. These include, among others,

(1) Whether and to what extent the property account of Alabama includes write-ups or other inflationary items;

(2) The adequacy of the provisions for maintenance and depreciation and of the depreciation reserve;

(3) Whether the securities proposed to be outstanding bear a reasonable relationship to the assets and earning power of Alabama; and

(4) Whether conditions should be imposed requiring the reduction of debt or an increase in the common stock equity.

II

On December 11, and 13, 1941, Alabama Power Company filed various amendments to its applications and declarations. In brief, the filings as presently amended involve, among other transactions, the refunding by Alabama of its outstanding debt of approximately $95,600,000 at a retirement cost of approximately $97,500,000 through,

(1) Issuance of $80,000,000 principal amount new bonds, a reduction of $3,878,000 from the amount originally proposed. The new bonds will bear interest not exceeding 3½% and will have a thirty year maturity; a premium on their sale is anticipated by the company;

(2) Issuance of $12,000,000 principal amount notes to banks, to bear interest at 2⅞%, repayable in sixteen equal semi-annual installments; an increase of $4,000,000 over the original proposal; and

(3) Use of approximately $4,500,000 of treasury funds, an increase of $2,200,000 over the earlier proposal.

Alabama also proposes to make certain adjustment in its accounts, including,

(1) Reduction of its stated common capital from $51,278,782 to $20,762,500, an amount of $30,516,282 compared with $18,755,903 as earlier proposed;

(2) Elimination of $23,148,901 from utility plant account as compared with a reduction of $16,465,952 shown in the original filing. Additionally, special surplus reserves aggregating $11,342,750 are provided for the possible further writing down of the utility plant account relating to the Mitchell, Martin and Jordan dam licensed projects; and

(3) The depreciation reserve will be increased by $2,217,000. Concurrently therewith an adjustment of $329,435 will be made, leaving a net addition to the reserve of $1,887,565.

The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation (Delaware), which owns all the common stock of Alabama, will surrender for cancellation its entire holdings of 11,302 shares of Alabama's preferred stock having a liquidation value of $1,130,200; the cost of these shares to Commonwealth, $717,482, will be treated as an additional investment by it in Alabama's common stock. The outstanding preferred stock will be restated at liquidation value, an increase of $553,824.

The indenture will contain a cash sinking fund which will retire 1% of the outstanding bonds annually beginning with the year following the retirement of the notes to banks (repayable in sixteen equal semi-annual installments).

III

As a part of the original filing Commonwealth proposed to transfer certain coal properties to Alabama as an additional investment in its common stock, and to dissolve The General Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary, and acquire its assets. The transactions have been consummated. (Holding Company Act Release No. 2996, September 12, 1941.)

IV

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate and in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the hearings be reconvened for the consideration, among other things, of the various matters herein and in our Notice and Order of June 14, 1941, set forth (Holding Company Act Release No. 2828), relating to the applications and declarations and amendments thereto;

It is ordered, That the hearings be reconvened at 10:00 o'clock A. M. on December 19, 1941, at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. At such time the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room in which the hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings on such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is directed that any person desiring to be heard, or to intervene pursuant to the provisions of Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice, make his intentions known at the opening of the hearing on December 19, 1941, or earlier notify the Commission in writing addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

By the Commission.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1941.

The above-named parties having filed declarations pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 12 (c) and 12 (f) thereof and Rules U-42 and U-43 promulgated thereunder regarding the sale by Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation to its wholly owned subsidiary, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, of $750,000 principal amount of the latter company's 6% Income Demand Notes at their principal amount; and

IN THE MATTER OF CHICAGO RIVET & MACHINE COMPANY COMMON STOCK, $4 PAR VALUE

SUPPLEMENTAL FINDINGS AND ORDER CONTINUING PROCEEDING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of December, A. D. 1941.

An application having been filed by Chicago Rivet & Machine Company for the termination of unlisted trading privileges, on the New York Curb Exchange, in the applicant's common stock; hearings having been held, at which said exchange appeared in opposition to the application; briefs having been filed and argument held before the Commission; and

The Commission having, on December 4, 1941, issued and filed its findings and opinion in this matter in which it concluded that the character of trading on said exchange in the subject security was such that, if the unit of trading therein were not reduced from 100 shares to 25 shares or less, termination of unlisted trading privileges therein would be appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors; but that it would be in the public interest to continue such privileges for a trial period of six months if said exchange, within ten days from the date of said findings and opinion, reduced the unit of trading as suggested and notified the Commission that such action had been taken; and

Said exchange having, under date of December 5, 1941, notified the Commission that the unit of trading in the subject security on said exchange has been reduced to 25 shares, effective at the opening of business on December 8, 1941, and the Commission finding that said exchange has fulfilled the conditions specified in the aforesaid findings and opinion; now, therefore,

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors to take the action hereinafter specified, it is hereby

The following orders and regulations for the government of persons and vessels within the limits of Defensive Sea Areas, which orders and regulations are necessary for purposes of National Defense, are hereby authorized and promulgated.

Regulations for Defensive Sea Areas

I. A vessel not proceeding under U. S. Naval or other U. S. authorized supervision, shall not enter or navigate the waters of a Defensive Sea Area except during daylight, when good visibility conditions prevail, and then only after specific permission has been obtained. Advance arrangements for entry into or navigation through or within a Defensive Sea Area must be made; preferably by application at a United States Naval District Headquarters in advance of sailing, or by radio or visual communication on approaching the seaward limits of the area. If radio telegraphy is used, the call "NQO" shall be made on a frequency of 500 Kcs, and permission to enter the port requested. The name of the vessel, purpose of entry and name of master must be given in the request. If visual communications are used, the procedure shall be essentially the same.

II. A vessel entering or navigating the waters of a Defensive Sea Area does so at its own risk.

III. Even though permission has been obtained, it is incumbent upon a vessel, entering a Defensive Sea Area, to obey any further instructions received from the U. S. Navy, or other U. S. authority.

IV. A vessel may expect supervision of its movements within a Defensive Sea Area, either through surface craft or aircraft. Such controlling surface craft and aircraft will be identified by a prominent display of the Union Jack. The loading or unloading by vessels of oil fuel or other inflammable or explosive materials shall be under the control of the local Naval authority, who shall require such loading or unloading to be accomplished in such manner and at such times as will safeguard the other activities within a Defensive Sea Area essential to the national defense.

V. These regulations are subject to amplification by the local U. S. Naval authority as necessary to meet local circumstances and conditions.

VI. When a U. S. Maritime Control Area is established adjacent to or abutting upon any of the above established Defensive Sea Areas, it shall be assumed that permission to enter, and other instructions issued by proper authority, shall apply to any one continuous passage through or within both areas. Permission to enter or transit the Panama Canal shall, however, continue to be a separate procedure.

VII. Any master of a vessel or other person within a Defensive Sea Area who shall disregard these regulations, or shall fail to obey an order of U. S. Naval authority to stop or heave to, or shall perform any act threatening the efficiency of mine or other defenses or the safety of navigation, or shall take any action inimical to the interests of the United States in its prosecution of the war, may be detained therein by force of arms and renders himself liable to attack by United States armed forces, and liable to prosecution as provided for in Section 44, of the Criminal Code as amended (U.S.C., title 18, Section 96).

VIII. All U. S. Government authorities shall place at the disposal of the Naval authorities their facilities for aiding in the enforcement of these regulations. The Governors of the States concerned, the local municipal officials, and the local Civil Defense agencies are called upon to render the local Naval authorities all possible assistance in the enforcement of these regulations.

IX. The Secretary of the Navy will be charged with the publication and enforcement of these regulations.
